[illegible] Form IT-821 [illegible] Form IT-821 [illegible] information submitted on Form IT-821 [illegible] a like form may be submitted which refers to the [illegible] Form IT-821. The submission of the information called for [illegible] applicant with respect to any portion of the commodities covered by his license application. The general requirements of this section shall apply to the following Positive List commodities in addition to other applicable regulations:

(b) Rubber tires and casings. Each applicant for a license to export truck and bus casings, passenger car casings, off-the-road casings, farm tractor and implement casings, and industrial casings (Schedule B Nos. 206000, 206200, 206430, 206450, and 206490) must submit with his first license application the following information:

(1) On separate Forms IT-821, total exports from the United States, by quantity and value, made in his own name during each of the calendar years 1948, 1949, and 1950 of (a) passenger car casings, Schedule B No. 206200, and (b) casings classified under Schedule B Nos. 206000, 206430, 206450 and 206490 to the following countries:

Belgium.	Malaya.
Finland.	Philippine Islands.
France.	Singapore.
French Morocco.	Sweden.
Indonesia.	Switzerland.
Iran.	Syria.
Iraq.	Thailand.
Israel.

(2) The names of all rubber tire and casing exporters, dealers, manufacturers, and of any other business organization (whether individuals, corporations, partnerships, associations or any other kind of organization) engaged in the same business activity which are directly or indirectly owned or controlled by the applicant or which directly or indirectly own or control the applicant's operations; the date (month and year) when such firms or organizations were established, and their relationships to the applicant's operations.

(3) An applicant may, but need not, submit information required on Form IT-821 where his total exports of the commodities covered by this paragraph were less than $10,000 for any one year.

NOTE: In the absence of any report on Form IT-821, OIT will assume that the applicant's total exports for a commodity (or commodity group) were less than $10,000 in each of the three calendar years, and his application will be considered against a portion of the export quota held for exporters in this category.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of June 23, 1951.

[illegible] Filed as part of the original document.

2. Section 373.51 Supplement 1: Time schedules for submission of applications for licenses to export certain Positive List commodities is amended by adding thereto submission dates with respect to certain applications for the third and fourth quarters, 1951, as follows:

3. Section 384.2 Practice before the Office of International Trade is amended in the following particulars:

Paragraph (b) Former employees is amended to read as follows:

(b) Former employees. No person shall appear or be permitted to appear before the Office of International Trade, Department of Commerce, as the agent, attorney, or representative of any individual, corporation, partnership, or any group or body of persons, other than the United States or agency thereof, or public international organizations, as designated by Executive order (including the United Nations and its specialized agencies), if such person:

(1) Is, or at any time within one year prior thereto was, a full-time or part-time, compensated or uncompensated officer or employee of the Office of International Trade and such relationship or employment was terminated subsequent to May 24, 1951; or

(2) Has at any time been officially associated with the specific transaction or matter to which such appearance relates, as a full-time or part-time, compensated or uncompensated officer or employee of the Office of International Trade or any of its predecessor or constituent agencies.

Notwithstanding the prohibition contained in this paragraph the Office of International Trade may, in exceptional cases and upon receipt of a sworn written application setting forth the facts, grant to a former officer or employee disqualified under this section, written permission to appear before the Office of International Trade on behalf of another person for a specific or limited purpose, where in its opinion such permission is necessary to prevent injustice or unnecessary hardship.

As used in this paragraph, the term "appear before the Office of International Trade" shall have the same meaning as the definition in paragraph (a) (2) of this section.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of May 24, 1951.

4. Section 384.8 Orders modifying validity of certain export licenses is amended in the following particulars:

The provisions of paragraph (a) Raw cotton are deleted and the following new provisions are substituted:

(a) Raw cotton. The validity period of all outstanding validated licenses for the exportation of raw cotton, Schedule B Nos. 300005 through 300012, shall expire on the date shown on the license or midnight July 31, 1951, whichever date is earlier.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of May 24, 1951.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter I—Production and Marketing Administration (Standards, Inspections, Marketing Practices), Department of Agriculture

PART 29—TOBACCO INSPECTION

DESIGNATION OF TOBACCO MARKET AT LAMAR, S. C.

Upon referenda conducted, pursuant to prior notice (16 F. R. 3349), during the period May 10, 1951–May 12, 1951, both dates inclusive, among tobacco growers, who, during the 1950–51 marketing season, sold tobacco at auction on the market at Lamar, South Carolina, it is found that more than two-thirds of the growers voting in such referendum favor the designation of such market under section 5 of the Tobacco Inspection Act (7 U. S. C. 511 et seq.) for the free and mandatory inspection and certification of tobacco sold on such market. Therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture, and for the purposes of said act, the orders of designation of tobacco markets (7 CFR 29.601; 14 F. R. 4514, 5364, 6193, 15 F. R. 3979, 4071, 4675, and 7117) are amended by adding thereto at the end thereof the following paragraph (nn):

§ 29.601 Designation of tobacco markets. * * *

(nn) The tobacco market at Lamar, South Carolina. Effective 30 days after June 1, 1951, no tobacco of any type shall be offered for sale at auction on the market at Lamar, South Carolina, until such tobacco shall have been inspected and certified by an authorized representative of the U. S. Department of Agriculture according to standards established under The Tobacco Inspection Act (7 U. S. C. 511 et seq.): Provided, however, That such requirement of inspection and certification may be suspended at any time when it is found impracticable to provide inspection or when the quantity of tobacco available for inspection is not sufficient to justify the cost of such service.

Issued this 28th day of May, 1951.

Secretary of Agriculture.

Correction

In Federal Register Document 51-5896, appearing at page 4746 of the issue for Tuesday, May 22, 1951, the following changes should be made:

1. The section number should read "§ 52.448" instead of "§ 52.488".

2. In the table in paragraph (j), score points "26–33" should read "28–33" and the word "Grade" should appear below the words "Total score".

[958.307, Amdt. 2]

PART 958—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN COLORADO

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

a. Findings. 1. Pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58 (7 CFR, Part 958) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the administrative committee for Area No. 2, established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the amended limitation of shipments as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

2. It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) the time intervening between the date when the information upon which this amendment is based become available and the time when this amendment must become effective to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (ii) this amendment merely extends the effective period of the present regulation, (iii) compliance with this regulation will not require any preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by such effective date, (iv) a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (v) information regarding the committee's recommendation has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

b. Order, as amended. The provisions of paragraph (b) (1) of § 958.307 (15 F. R. 5194) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., November 15, 1950, and ending 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., July 1, 1951, no handler shall ship potatoes grown in Area No. 2, as such area is defined in Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58, which do not meet the requirements of Regulation No. 1 limiting shipments to U. S. No. 2 or better grades (General Cull Regulation—published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, July 16, 1949; 14 F. R. 3979); no handler shall ship potatoes of the round varieties which are of sizes smaller than 2 inches minimum diameter; and no handler shall ship potatoes of the long varieties which are of sizes smaller than 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight as such terms, grades, and sizes are defined in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes (7 CFR 51.366) including the tolerances set forth therein: Provided, That the aforesaid limitation shall not be applicable to (i) potatoes shipped for seed purposes which have been officially certified as seed potatoes by the official Colorado seed certifying agency and which are in containers bearing official Colorado seed certification tags, and (ii) potatoes shipped for consumption by a charitable institution, for relief purposes, or for manufacturing purposes for conversion into by-products.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of May 1951, to be effective on June 1, 1951.

Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.

Chapter VIII—Office of Housing Expediter

[Controlled Housing Rent Reg., Amdt. 379]

[Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments Rent Reg., Amdt. 374]

PART 825—RENT REGULATION UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947, AS AMENDED

INDIANA

Amendment 379 to the Controlled Housing Rent Regulation (§§ 825.1 to 825.12) and Amendment 374 to the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments (§§ 825.81 to 825.92). Said regulations are amended in the following respects:

1. Schedule A, Item 103, is amended to read as follows:

Name of defense-rental area	State	County or counties under rent regulation	Maximum rent date	Effective date of regulation	Date by which registration to be filed
(103) Indianapolis	Indiana	Marion County, except the towns of Speedway and Woodruff Place; Hancock County	July 1, 1941 Apr. 1, 1951	July 1, 1942 June 1, 1951	Aug. 15, 1942 June 30, 1951

This establishes controls in the County of Hancock, State of Indiana, which county is made a portion of the Indianapolis, Indiana, Denfense-Rental Area. Hancock County has never been under control prior to the effective date of this amendment.

2. A new item is hereby incorporated in Schedule B to read as follows:

86. Provisions relating to the County of Hancock, Indiana, a portion of the Indianapolis, Indiana, Defense-Rental Area.

Control of the County of Hancock, Indiana, a portion of the Indianapolis, Indiana, Defense-Rental Area. Effective June 1, 1951, the provisions of §§ 825.1 to 825.12 and 825.81 to 825.92 shall apply to housing accommodations in the County of Hancock, Indiana, a portion of the Indianapolis, Indiana, Defense-Rental Area, except as modified by the following provisions:

a. "Maximum rent date" means April 1, 1951. "Effective date of regulation" means June 1, 1951.

b. In the case of any action which, on June 1, 1951, was required or authorized by §§ 825.1 to 825.12 or 825.81 to 825.92 to be taken within a specified period of time, the same time period shall be applicable but such time period shall be counted from June 1, 1951.

c. If, on June 1, 1951, services provided with any housing accommodations are less than the minimum required by § 825.3 or § 825.83, the landlord shall either restore and maintain such minimum services or file a petition on or before June 30, 1951, requesting approval of the decreased services. If, on June 1, 1951, the furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with any housing accommodations are less than the minimum required by § 825.3 or § 825.83, the landlord shall file, on or before June 30, 1951, a written report showing the decrease in furniture, furnishings, or equipment. Except as modified by this amendment, the provisions of §§ 825.5 (b) and 825.85 (b) shall be applicable to all such cases.

d. Section 825.2 (c) (2) is changed to read as follows:

(2) Maximum rent established by a renting prior to June 1, 1951. Where the maximum rent of the housing accommodations is originally established by a renting prior to June 1, 1951, no security deposit shall be demanded, received, or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent.

e. Section 825.82 (c) (2) is changed to read as follows:

(2) Maximum rent established by a renting prior to June 1, 1951. Where a maximum rent is established by a renting prior to June 1, 1951, no security deposit shall be demanded, received or retained except in the amount (or any lesser amount) and on the same terms and conditions (or on terms and conditions less burdensome to the tenant) provided for in the lease or other rental agreement in effect on the date determining the maximum rent.

f. Section 825.4 (a) is changed to read as follows:

(a) Rents on April 1, 1951. Except as otherwise provided in this section, for any housing accommodations subject to §§ 825.1 to 825.12 and rented on April 1, 1951, the maximum rent shall be the rent for such accommodations on that date.

g. Section 825.84 (a) is changed to read as follows:

(a) Rented or regularly offered on April 1, 1951 or during the month of March 1951. For a room rented or regularly offered for rent on April 1, 1951 or during the month of March 1951, the maximum rents shall be the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented on that date or during that month, or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants on that date or during that month, the maximum rents shall be the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during that period.

h. If, on June 1, 1951, there was a ground for adjustment under §§ 825.5 (a) or 825.85 (a) and a petition for adjustment is filed on or before June 30, 1951, the adjustment shall be effective as of June 1, 1951.

i. In § 825.5 (a) (1) the heading thereof is changed to read as follows: "Major capital improvement after maximum rent date." In the same § 825.5 (a) (1) the words "maximum rent date" are substituted for the words "effective date of the Rent Regulation for Housing issued pursuant to the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, as amended."

j. In § 825.5 (a) (3) the word "space" and the phrase, "or a substantial increase in the living space since June 30, 1947 but before April 1, 1948" are deleted.

k. In § 825.5 (c) (3) the word "space" and the phrase "or a substantial decrease in the living space since June 30, 1947, but before April 1, 1948," are deleted.

l. The provisions of §§ 825.6 and 825.86 shall not apply to any case in which judgment was entered prior to June 1, 1951, by a court of competent jurisdiction for the eviction or removal of a tenant from housing accommodations.

m. Wherever the date June 30, 1947, appears in §§ 825.4 (c) and (d), 825.84 (f) and 825.85 (a) (3) and (c) (3), the date April 1, 1951, shall be substituted.

n. Wherever the date July 1, 1947, appears in §§ 825.5 (d), 825.82 (a) and 825.85 (d) the date June 1, 1951, shall be substituted.

o. Wherever the date April 1, 1948, appears in § 825.4 (e) the date April 1, 1951, shall be substituted.

p. Wherever the date July 1, 1947, appears in §§ 825.4 (c) and (d) and 825.84 (c), (d) and (f), the date April 2, 1951, shall be substituted.

q. Wherever the date July 1, 1948, appears in § 825.85 (c) (1) the date June 1, 1951, shall be substituted.

r. Wherever the date June 30, 1947, appears in § 825.84 (d) the date June 1, 1951, shall be substituted.

(Sec. 204, 61 Stat. 197, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup., 1894)

This amendment shall be effective as of June 1, 1951.

Issued this 29th day of May 1951.

TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter C—Miscellaneous Excise Taxes

[Regulations 92]

PART 174—DISPOSITION OF DENATURED ALCOHOL, DENATURED RUM, AND SUBSTANCES OR PREPARATIONS CONTAINING DENATURED ALCOHOL OR DENATURED RUM

Preamble. 1. These regulations, "Regulations 92, Disposition of Denatured Alcohol, Denatured Rum, and Substances or Preparations Containing Denatured Alcohol or Denatured Rum" (26 CFR Part 174) are a republication of Regulations 92, approved April 27, 1937 (26 CFR Part 174; 2 F. R. 908), and all amendments and modifications thereof through December 31, 1950.

2. These regulations consist only of previously approved material but the text has been rearranged and renumbered to conform to the Federal Register Regulations (13 F. R. 5929).

3. These regulations shall, on and after May 1, 1951, supersedes Regulations 92 (26 CFR Part 174; 2 F. R. 908).

4. These regulations shall not affect or limit any act done or any liability incurred under any regulations superseded hereby, or any suit, action, or proceeding had or commenced in any civil, administrative, or criminal cause and proceeding prior to the effective date of these regulations, nor shall these regulations release, acquit, affect, or limit any offense committed in violation of previously existing regulations, or any penalty, liability or forfeiture incurred prior to such date, or alter, modify, or repeal, the provisions of any other existing regulations relating to denatured alcohol, denatured rum, or products containing such alcohol or rum.

5. It is found that compliance with the notice and public rule-making procedure and effective date limitations of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) is unnecessary in connection with the issuance of the regulations in this part for the reason that the changes made are of a technical and clarifying nature and do not adversely affect the legitimate industry.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

SUBPART A—SCOPE OF REGULATIONS

§ 174.1 Denatured alcohol, denatured rum, and substances or preparations containing denatured alcohol or denatured rum. These regulations, "Regulations 92, Disposition of Denatured Alcohol, Denatured Rum, and Substances or Preparations Containing Denatured Alcohol or Denatured Rum" (26 CFR, Part 174), contain the procedural and substantive requirements relative to the returns and records of dispositions of denatured alcohol, denatured rum, and substances or preparations containing denatured alcohol or denatured rum.

SUBPART B—DEFINITIONS

§ 174.5 Meaning of terms. As used in this part, unless the context otherwise requires, terms shall have the meanings ascribed in this subpart.

§ 174.6 Articles. "Articles" shall mean denatured alcohol, denatured rum, ethyl acetate, and any liquid substance or preparation which contains more than 25 percent by volume of denatured alcohol or denatured rum.

§ 174.7 Commissioner. "Commissioner" shall mean the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

§ 174.8 I. R. C. "I. R. C." shall mean the Internal Revenue Code.

§ 174.9 Person. "Person" shall mean and include natural persons, firms, partnerships, corporations, and associations.

§ 174.10 U. S. C. "U. S. C." shall mean the United States Code.

SUBPART C—REQUIREMENT OF RETURNS

§ 174.15 Returns required. Every person in the United States who consigns, sells, or otherwise disposes of, articles as defined in § 174.6, shall, when required in writing by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the Deputy Commissioner in charge of the Alcohol Tax Unit, or a district supervisor or acting district supervisor of the Alcohol Tax Unit, for the purpose of determining whether such articles are being used for the recovery of alcohol in fraud of the internal revenue tax on such alcohol, render in writing a correct return showing:

(a) The date of each consignment, sale, or other disposition of, such articles on or after the receipt of the notice requiring such returns;

(b) The quantity and kind of the articles consigned, sold, or otherwise disposed of;

(c) The name and complete address of the purchaser, or person to whom disposition is made, and if the sale or disposition is made by or through any other person, the name and complete address of such other person;

(d) The name and complete address of the consignee;

(e) The date and method of shipment or delivery, such as by truck, or other conveyance, and the state or city registration number of such truck or other conveyance, if any;

(f) The name and complete address of the driver of such truck, or other conveyance, as shown by the driver's operator's license, if any, giving the number of the license and the date of issuance;

(g) The name and complete address of the person to whom actual delivery has been, or is to be, made; and

(h) The exact date of such delivery, or proposed delivery. Where shipment is made by a common carrier, such as a railroad, trucking company, steamboat line, etc., the information required by paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section need not be reported, but in lieu thereof there shall be furnished the complete routing of the shipment.

§ 174.16 Filing returns. Returns shall be filed with the officer or employee of the Bureau of Internal Revenue designated by the Commissioner or the officer requiring returns, not later than 10 days after the receipt of the notice requiring the same to be filed, unless that notice shall specify a shorter period of time within which the return is to be filed.

SUBPART D—RECORDS TO BE MAINTAINED

§ 174.20 Records required. Every person who consigns, sells, or otherwise disposes of any such articles, as defined in § 174.6, shall, on and after the receipt of a notice in writing requiring returns to be made under Subpart C, keep at his place of business such books, records, documents, papers, invoices, bills of lading, etc., relating to or connected with every such consignment, sale, or disposition, as will enable such person to make the return provided for by Subpart C.

§ 174.21 Inspection of records. When any person has made a return pursuant to the procedure provided for in Subpart C, such books, records, documents, papers, invoices, bills of lading, etc., shall be kept readily available for, and open to, inspection by any officer or employee of the Alcohol Tax Unit of the Bureau of Internal Revenue during the hours of business of such person.

Effect. These regulations shall be effective as of May 1, 1951.

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

CPR 42—CEILING PRICES FOR CERTAIN CANNED VEGETABLES OF THE 1951 SPRING PACK

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738) this Ceiling Price Regulation 42 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This regulation is the first ceiling price regulation for any canned fruit or vegetable having provisions designed to meet specific problems of the canning industry. It establishes ceiling prices for sales by canners of the spring pack of canned asparagus, green beans, spinach, and vegetable greens other than spinach, produced and processed between January 1, 1951 and June 30, 1951. These vegetables, however, are produced in packing seasons which vary in length in different parts of the country. Therefore, if the major portion of the spring pack of any one canned vegetable is produced and processed before June 30, 1951, this regulation applies to the entire spring pack of the vegetable.

NEED FOR PROMPT ACTION

Canners of the spring pack of canned vegetables are in an acute situation because of unavoidable inequities resulting from the general price freeze under the General Ceiling Price Regulation and because of the exemption of canned vegetables, as seasonal items, from provisions of the Manufacturers Ceiling Price Regulation.

The General Ceiling Price Regulation caught the canning industry between processing seasons. By the time the 1951 spring pack began, increases in packaging costs, in some raw commodity costs, and in labor costs over those in 1950 had occurred.

Moreover, the price control techniques employed by the General Ceiling Price Regulation do not fit well with the practical operating problems of the canning industry. Since many canners sold their entire 1950 spring pack before the GCPR base period of December 19, 1950 to January 25, 1951, they cannot compute their own ceiling prices under that regulation but instead must either borrow prices of their nearest competitors, or apply to the Office of Price Stabilization for establishment of individual ceiling prices. If a large number of canners borrow prices, a distorted price structure will tend to arise. Since canned vegetables generally are exempt from the Manufacturers Ceiling Price Regulation, because of the seasonal character of this industry, no ceiling prices for canned vegetables can be determined under that regulation. It is therefore necessary to establish promptly ceiling prices for the spring pack of the particular vegetables so that the spring pack can move into customary channels of trade. The revenue obtained from the sale of the spring pack of canned vegetables is significant because it is used by canners to finance their later canning operations and to meet financial obligations incurred to process the spring pack.

This regulation is therefore intended to meet the emergency situation created by the squeeze in production costs and the need for prompt movement of the spring pack into commercial distribution.

Pricing methods for other canned fruits and vegetables are now being studied by the Office of Price Stabilization and will be covered by a later regulation. The canned vegetables covered by this regulation are also being included in that study. Because of the emergency character of this regulation, the pricing policies and methods used in the regulation are subject to later change.

PRICING METHODS OF THE REGULATION

The pricing methods used in this regulation are designed to maintain a generally fair and equitable margin for processing in relation to the margin existing in the most recent period of free selling prices before the Korean conflict. At the same time, the regulation follows the policy announced in the Statement of Considerations for the Manufacturers Ceiling Price Regulation of avoiding "rubber stamped inflation" through indiscriminate allowance of all cost increases.

To accomplish these purposes, a formula pricing method has been adopted. The regulation establishes a base period of January 1–June 30, 1950 representing the most recent pre-Korean price situation. Only the vegetables for which such a pre-Korean base period existed in 1950 are covered by the regulation.

To establish his ceiling price for an item, the canner first determines his representative weighted average sales price or "base price" of the item sold during the base period at the canner level. He then adds to his base price an adjustment for certain production cost increases, which is computed by a stated percentage factor for different processing areas. In addition, the canner then adds to his adjusted base price the actual amount of his raw material cost increase which may not exceed an amount based upon the 1951 legal minimum prices to growers of the vegetable. The canner's ceiling price is his base price adjusted for the two kinds of recognized cost increases.

COST INCREASES OTHER THAN RAW MATERIAL

The cost increases other than raw material recognized in the regulation include packaging costs, labor costs, warehouse costs, and similar direct production costs. These increases are stated in terms of a factor representing the percentage by which the canner's base period sales price may be increased.

The percentage factors for these cost increases, which are computed for different processing areas, are based upon cost data submitted by industry representatives for the different areas and upon consultation and discussion with the canning industry advisory committee.

COST INCREASES FOR RAW MATERIALS

Permitted cost increases for raw materials have been limited to actual cost increases. However, in no event may these exceed the effective legal minima provided for agricultural commodities under section 402 (d) of the Defense Production Act of 1950. The maximum increases specified for raw materials are the differences between the 1950 season averages and the effective legal minima, for the appropriate periods during which the raw commodity is delivered to the canning factory for processing in each major producing area, as adjusted by the Secretary of Agriculture for location differentials. The maximum increases are expressed in dollars-and-cents figures or as a percentage increase over each canner's 1950 weighted average raw material cost.

SPECIAL PRICING PROVISION

Special problems exist in determining raw material cost increases for grower-canner - cooperatives, grower - canners, and other canners who do not buy their raw material during the packing season at firm prices, such as purchases under "open-end" contracts. This group of canners does not have any firm basis of their own purchases against which they can measure their 1951 raw material cost increases. To meet this problem, grower-canners and canners who do not buy at firm raw material prices are required to borrow the 1951 raw material cost increase of their nearest canner. In the case of grower-canner-cooperatives, they may adjust their base price by adding up to but not more than the entire maximum permitted raw material cost increase on the condition that the amount of that increase must be returned to the growers. This provision permits grower-canner-cooperatives to obtain ceiling prices reflecting the legal minimum prices to growers for raw material, and at the same time precludes the expansion of processing margins.

Special pricing provisions are also included in the regulation to establish ceiling prices for new items, such as those differing in grade or container size, and for items sold on a delivered basis.

INAPPLICABILITY OF PRICING METHODS

Because of the many different possible pricing situations, such as lack of base period sales, the regulation recognizes that some canners may not be able to apply any of the pricing methods to their own situation. To solve this problem, a canner who is unable to use other pricing methods in the regulation shall either borrow as his ceiling price the average of the ceiling prices of his three nearest canners, or he shall apply to the Office of Price Stabilization for his ceiling price. The inapplicability of the pricing methods of the regulation is significant in the case of canner-wholesalers and canner-retailers who engage in canning operations and sell all their production at wholesale and retail price levels. This regulation, being designed to establish prices at the canner level, does not contain a formula applicable to those sellers who, while engaged in canning operations, do not make sales at the canner level. Data now on hand is inadequate to establish a pricing method or formula for these canner-wholesalers and canner-retailers. Accordingly, pricing methods for this special group, and also for distributors, are to be promptly studied on the basis of consultation with the industry. In the meantime, canner-wholesalers and canner-retailers needing price authorization will obtain prices by application to the Office of Price Stabilization under section 7 of the Regulation.

CONCLUSION

In formulating this regulation the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted with the industry represented and has given full consideration to its recommendations. The Director finds that any changes in business practice, cost practice, or methods under this regulation are necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of the ceiling prices for the vegetables covered by this regulation. In his judgment the provisions of this regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950.

In so far as is practicable the Director of Price Stabilization has given due consideration to the national effort to effect maximum production in furtherance of the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950, to prices prevailing during the period May 24, 1950 to June 24, 1950 and to relevant factors of general applicability.

26. Definitions.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 26 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply Title IV, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. Coverage of this regulation—(a) What products and sellers are covered. This regulation establishes a method for calculating ceiling prices for sales by canners of the 1951 spring pack of the following canned vegetables processed in the following areas:

Product:	Areas
Asparagus	All States.
Spinach	All States.
Green beans	Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Texas.
Vegetable greens (other than spinach).	All States.

Other vegetables may be added from time to time. This regulation does not apply to any listed vegetable that is packed and sold as "baby food," as "junior food," or as "soup."

(b) Pricing provisions to be used. The main pricing method for most canners is found in section 2 of this regulation. If, however, you are a grower-canner, or if you purchase raw materials on open-end contracts, your ceiling prices are determined by sections 2 and 3 of this regulation. If you are a grower-owned cooperative, your ceiling prices are determined by sections 2 and 4 of this regulation. Section 5 of this regulation sets forth the method of computing your ceiling price for items not sold during the base period, while sections 6 and 7 of this regulation establish methods by which canners, such as new canners or those selling only at wholesale or retail, who cannot compute their ceiling prices under the other provisions of the regulation may obtain ceiling prices.

(c) Where this regulation applies. This regulation applies in the 48 states of the United States and the District of Columbia.

(d) What this regulation supersedes. For the product and sellers covered, this regulation supersedes the General Ceiling Price Regulation (16 F. R. 808).

SEC. 2. Ceiling prices f. o. b. factory for sales by canners of items sold during the base period. You shall compute your ceiling prices for each factory at which you process an item covered by this regulation by first determining your "base price." Thereafter you shall increase your "base price" by an adjustment for cost increases other than raw materials and by an adjustment for raw material cost increases.

(1) What sales and sales contracts you include in your "weighted average sales price." All sales and confirmed sales contracts at firm prices of the 1950 pack of the item made in the regular course of business during the base period shall be included, regardless of the date of delivery. Sales contracts made at times other than during the base period shall not be included, even though delivery was made during the base period. However, the following sales and sales contracts shall be excluded, even though made during the base period: Sales at retail (including sales to growers and employees) and at wholesale; sales to government procurement agencies, institutional, commercial and industrial users, state agencies and political subdivisions thereof; and sales of damaged goods, or of goods packed for experimental purposes.

(2) Separate base prices. You shall figure a separate base price for each item; a single base price shall be figured for items which differ only in brand name. Subgrades shall also be ignored.

(3) Base price for factory group. In determining your "base price," you may determine one "base price" for any group of factories, all of which are located in the same pricing area. In figuring a single base price for a group of factories, you shall include all of the sales at each factory which compose the "weighted average sales price" defined in this section. The term "same pricing area" means that each factory must be located in the same area both for permitted increases other than raw material and for raw material permitted increases named in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) How to adjust for permitted increases other than raw material. After obtaining your base price for the item, you shall multiply it by the appropriate figure set forth in the Table below for the area in which your factory is located:

TABLE I

ASPARAGUS

Area I—New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia	1.045
Area II—California, Washington and Oregon	1.035
Area III—All other states	1.04

SPINACH

Area I—California, Washington and Oregon	1.08
Area II—All other states	1.05

GREEN BEANS

Area I—Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas 1.05

VEGETABLE GREENS (other than spinach)

Area I—All states 1.065

The resulting figure is your "adjusted base price."

(c) How to figure the raw material permitted increase. Next, you shall add to your "adjusted base price" the amount of your raw material increase determined by the following procedure:

(1) Per ton cost increase. Obtain the difference between your 1950 weighted average raw material cost per ton delivered at the factory, and your 1951 weighted average raw material cost per ton delivered at the factory up to the date of computation of your ceiling price. However, if this difference exceeds the amount of the appropriate maximum permitted raw material increase for the area in which your factory is located, both in terms of dollars and cents and in terms of a percentage of your 1950 weighted average raw material cost, as provided in Table II below, then use either of the increases there provided.

The 1951 weighted average raw material cost per ton shall be based upon all raw material purchased for processing or contracted for by you at a firm price at the time of figuring your ceiling prices under this regulation. To determine your "weighted average raw material cost" for each year, compute the total amount paid by you to the grower of the raw agricultural material, plus any transportation, storage, harvesting, seeds and plants, crates, boxes, bags, acquisition, and other direct costs paid or incurred by you up to the point of delivery at your factory and not charged to the grower. Divide this total amount by the number of tons purchased. The result is your "weighted average raw material cost."

TABLE II—MAXIMUM PERMITTED INCREASES IN RAW MATERIAL COST

Raw material	Area	Maximum permitted increases in dollars per ton	Maximum permitted increases in percentage of 1950 weighted average raw material cost
Asparagus	All areas	No increase	No increase
Spinach	Texas	$1.70	3
	California	17.50	69
	Virginia, Maryland	12.90	16
	Arkansas, Oklahoma	3.20	4
	New Jersey	3.40	3
	All other States	11.30	23
Green beans	Florida	20.00	29
	South Carolina, Georgia, other than Fannin, Union, Towns, Rabun, Lumpkin, White and Habersham counties; Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana	28.40	35
	Arkansas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Tennessee, other than Marion, Grundy, Warren, DeKalb, Putnam, Overton and Clay counties and all counties east thereof in Tennessee	14.40	16
	Marion, Grundy, Warren, DeKalb, Putnam, Overton and Clay counties and all counties east thereof in Tennessee; and Fannin, Union, Towns, Rabun, Lumpkin, White and Haversham counties in Georgia	31.00	29
	Texas	12.00	15
Vegetable greens (other than spinach)			20

(2) Conversion of per ton raw material increase to increase per dozen containers. Divide your raw material cost increase per ton by the average of your case or unit yields per ton for the three preceding years (or such of them in which you packed the product) and adjust for grade yield distribution according to your customary practice during such period. Then, convert this adjusted per unit cost increase to the increase per dozen containers of the finished product.

(3) Your ceiling price. The figure resulting from the addition of your raw material permitted increase to your adjusted base price is your ceiling price per dozen containers f. o. b. factory for the item.

(4) Recalculation. If during the 1951 spring pack, or at the termination of the 1951 spring pack of a product, you had different raw material permitted cost increases from those used in figuring your ceiling prices, you may refigure your ceiling prices for all portions of the pack of the product not sold on a firm contract. In refiguring your ceiling prices under this section you shall base your calculation on all raw material purchased, or contracted to be purchased at a firm price up to the time of refiguring your ceiling prices.

(d) Sales f. o. b. shipping points other than factory. If during the base period you sold all or portions of an item at a shipping point other than the factory where the item was canned, and, if in computing your ceiling price f. o. b. factory, you subtracted from your base period sales price the transportation costs for the item from its factory of origin to such location, you may add to your f. o. b. factory ceiling price, for all or any portion of the item sold f. o. b. such location, the current transportation costs per sales unit from factory to such location.

SEC. 3. Ceiling prices and raw material permitted cost increases for grower-canners and other canners who purchase raw materials on an open-end contract. If you are (a) a grower-processor or if you purchase your raw material under "open" price or deferred payment contracts which relate the price you pay to facts not ascertainable at the time of pricing, and (b) if you cannot determine your raw material permitted cost increase under section 2 (c) of this regulation, at the time of computing your ceiling prices, because in 1950 or in 1951 you did not purchase any of the kind of raw material at firm prices from independent producers wholly unaffiliated with you, you shall first determine your "base price" and "adjusted base price" per dozen containers under section 2 of this regulation. Second, you shall, to determine your raw material permitted cost increase per ton, use the raw material permitted cost increase per ton of the canner located nearest you in the same raw material area as defined in section 2 (c) who receives deliveries of a like quality of the material in the same quantity units (tons, carloads, etc.) at firm prices. You shall, however, convert the raw material cost increase to per dozen containers of the finished product on the basis of your own average unit yields for the three preceding years (or such of them in which you packed the item), and by adjusting for grade yield distribution according to your customary practice during such period.

SEC. 4. Ceiling prices and raw material cost increases for grower-owned cooperatives—(a) Extent of increase. If you are (1) a grower-owned cooperative, and (2) if you cannot determine your raw material permitted cost increase under section 2 (c) of this regulation at the time of computing your ceiling price because you did not purchase any raw material for the product in 1950 or 1951 from independent growers wholly unaffiliated with you, you shall first determine your "base price" and your "adjusted base price" per dozen containers under section 2 of this regulation. Second, you obtain your raw material permitted cost increase per ton by taking an amount up to but not in excess of the higher of either the dollar maximum increase permitted by Table II in section 2 (c) of this regulation, or the figure obtained by multiplying the amount you returned in 1950 to growers of the same material by the percentage maximum raw material permitted cost increase in that table. Then you convert the permitted raw material increase per ton to per dozen containers in accordance with section 2 (c) (2) of this regulation. You then add this increase to your "adjusted base price" to obtain your ceiling price f. o. b. factory per dozen containers.

(b) Required pass-back to growers. This permitted increase for raw material cost may be taken only if you pass back the entire increase to growers. The amount you must pass back to growers shall be computed as follows:

(1) Compute the full amount per ton paid to the grower in 1950, including the amount for the same raw material.

(2) Add to this amount the per ton increase computed in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section.

(3) Divide this total by the number of dozen containers produced per ton of raw material. This is your raw material cost per dozen containers.

(4) Multiply the raw material cost per dozen containers by the number of dozen containers sold during the accounting period. The result is the total amount which must be paid to the grower including the amount to be passed back. The amount passed back must be paid within 30 days after the end of your normal accounting period.

(c) Reports required under this section. If you determine your raw material permitted cost increases under paragraph (a) of this section, you shall mail to the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., not less than 30 nor more than 60 days after the end of each normal accounting period, a report by registered mail giving all of the computations required by paragraph (b) of this section.

SEC. 5. Ceiling prices for canners who did not sell the item during the base period, but who sold other items of the product during that period—(a) Ceiling prices for products in new container types or sizes. (1) If you sold the same product (that is, the same kind, variety, grade, style of pack, size or sieve size) during the base period, but only in other container types or sizes, you shall determine the most similar container type for which you are able to figure a ceiling price for that product under section 2, 3, or 4 of this regulation even though you no longer sell that container type. From that container type you shall choose the nearest size which is not more than 50 percent larger or not more than 50 percent smaller than the new size. This will be the base container.

In most cases, "the most similar container type" will be merely the container type which you are adding to or replacing, like the tin which you may be replacing with glass. Where there has been only a size change, "the most similar container type" will, of course, be the same container type. This is also true in the reverse situation: Where there has been a change only in container type, the "nearest size" will be the same size.

(2) You shall take as your "base price" your f. o. b. factory ceiling price per dozen containers for the product when packed in the base container.

(3) You shall subtract from the "base price" f. o. b. factory the direct cost per dozen of the base container. "Direct cost" means the actual net cost at the canner's factory of containers, caps, labels and proportionate part of the outgoing shipping carton, but it does not include cost of filling, closing, labeling or packing.

(4) The figure obtained by this deduction shall then be adjusted by weight in the case of a container size change, by dividing it by the number of units of weight in the base container and multiplying the result by the number of the same units of weight in the new container. In figuring content of container, label weight and not actual fill shall be controlling.

(5) Next, you shall add to the adjusted figure the unit "direct cost" per dozen containers in the new container type or size computed on the basis of the actual net average cost of all purchases of such containers for the item from January 1, 1951, to the date of computation. The resulting figure is your ceiling price f. o. b. factory for the product in the new container type or size.

(b) Items which differ only in grade. If you are unable to figure a ceiling price for an item of a particular grade of a product under section 2 of this regulation, (e. g., no base period sales of the item), but you are able to figure ceiling prices for three other items of the same product, as described below, you shall compute your price by a mathematical comparison of the ceiling prices of these three other items. Of these comparison items, one shall differ only in grade from the item being priced and is called comparison item "A" in the following example. The second comparison item, called comparison item "B," shall differ only in container size from the item being priced. The third comparison item, called comparison item "C," shall differ both in grade and container size from the item being priced, and shall differ from the first comparison item "A" only as to container size and shall differ from the second comparison item "B" only as to grade. You shall then divide the ceiling price of item "B" by the ceiling price of item "C," and multiply the resulting figure by the ceiling price for item "A." The figure resulting from this calculation is your ceiling price f. o. b. factory for the item being priced.

Example "X" is the ceiling needed for item being priced, ≠2 can fancy spinach. "A" is ≠2 can standard spinach with ceiling of $1.50. "B" is ≠2½ can fancy spinach with ceiling of $2.00. "C" is ≠2½ can standard spinach with ceiling of $1.80.

($2.00÷$1.80=1.111; 1.111×$1.50=1.67)

$1.67 is the ceiling price for "X," ≠2 can fancy spinach, the item being priced.

(c) Items which differ only in size or sieve size of content. If you are unable to figure a ceiling price for a particular size of vegetable or sieve size of a product under section 2 of this regulation, (e. g., no base period sales of the item), but you are able to figure ceiling prices for three other items of the same product, as described below, you shall compute your price by a mathematical comparison of the ceiling prices of these other items. (In this explanation size of vegetable includes sieve size.) Of these comparison items, one shall differ only in size of vegetable from the item being priced and is called comparison item "A." The second comparison item, called comparison item "B," shall differ only in container size from the item being priced. The third comparison item, called comparison item "C," shall differ both in container size and in size of vegetable from the item being priced, and shall differ from the first comparison item "A" only in container size, and shall differ from the second comparison item "B" only as to size of vegetable. You shall then divide the ceiling price of item "B" by the ceiling price of item "C" and multiply the resulting figure by the ceiling price for item "A." The figure resulting from this calculation is your ceiling price, f. o. b. factory, for the item being priced.

SEC. 6. Ceiling prices for canners who are unable to figure their ceiling prices under sections 2, 3, 4 or 5 of this regulation. (a) If you are unable to figure your ceiling price for an item under sections 2, 3, 4 or 5 of this regulation, you shall use as your ceiling price for that item the simple average of the ceiling prices, for the same item, of the three canners located nearest your factory in the same pricing area as defined in section 2 (a) (3) of this regulation. If you are unable to secure the ceiling prices of the three canners located nearest you, you shall apply to the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington, D. C., for an individual authorization of a ceiling price in accordance with section 7 of this regulation.

(b) If you believe that the ceiling price obtained by using the average of the three canners located nearest you is not representative of the competitive price level at which you have customarily sold your products in relation to their products, or if you use merchandising methods in their sale and distribution different from those of such canners, you may apply to the Office of Price Stabilization for a ceiling price. In filing an application under this section, you shall submit your selling prices for the years 1948, 1949 and 1950 (or such of these years as available), of all items of the same or most closely comparable product, and prices (if available) of the three canners whose ceilings you are using for the same years covering the same or comparable product.

SEC. 7. Individual authorization of ceiling prices. If you cannot determine your ceiling price for an item under any of the foregoing pricing methods of this regulation you shall, before delivering the item to any purchaser, apply to the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., for a ceiling price for each factory or group of factories at which you process the item.

(a) Information that must be given in all cases. In all such cases, you shall submit, if available, the following information in your application:

(1) A description in detail of the item for which a ceiling price is sought, including its grade, and brand name (if any) to be used, a statement of the facts that make it different from the most similar item for which you have determined a ceiling price, identifying the similar item and stating its ceiling price, and a statement giving the reasons why a ceiling price cannot be established under the pricing methods of this regulation. The statement should indicate whether sales of the item have previously been made and, if so, whether a ceiling price was established under the General Ceiling Price Regulation and, if so, the ceiling price so established for each class of purchaser and the section of that regulation under which established.

(2) The 1950 and 1951 weighted average raw material cost per ton or other unit figured in the manner and subject to the limitations set forth in section (2) (c) of this regulation and a statement showing your current case (unit) yield.

(3) The ceiling price proposed for the item, indicating whether it is for sale to wholesalers, retailers, consumers, or other classes of purchasers, and any discounts, or allowances that should be applicable to the proposed price and a list of your customary discounts, transportation and other allowances and price differentials.

(4) The volume of the item which you have on hand and which you expect to produce during the remainder of the pack year.

(b) Supplementary information must be given if specifically requested. You shall mail to the Office of Price Stabilization within 30 days after receipt of its request such additional information as shall be requested. If you fail, without reasonable explanation, to submit all additional information that may have been requested within 30 days after the request is mailed, your application shall be considered withdrawn and the docket closed. Unless the application is refiled, the docket will not be reopened upon later receipt of this information, and further consideration by the Office of Price Stabilization will not be given.

(c) Disposition of application. Upon receipt of the application, the Office of Price Stabilization will authorize a ceiling price, or a method for determining the ceiling price, for the applicant or for sellers of the item generally, including purchasers for resale or a class of such resellers. The ceiling price authorized shall be one that bears a proper relationship to those for comparable commodities and sellers.

A proposed price shall be considered authorized 30 days after the application (or all additional information that may have been requested) is mailed unless within that time, the applicant has received from the Office of Price Stabilization a notice to the contrary.

(d) Delivery before authorization of ceiling prices. After filing the application, you may deliver the item, but you may not receive payment for it until a ceiling price is authorized.

(e) Failure to apply when required. If you fail to apply for a ceiling price under this section when required to do so, the Office of Price Stabilization may authorize a ceiling price for your sales of the item bearing a proper relationship to those for comparable commodities and sellers. This will not relieve you of your obligation to comply with this section or with any other provision of this regulation, nor will it relieve you of any penalty for failure to do so.

(f) Revision of prices by the Office of Price Stabilization. Any ceiling price established under this section shall be subject to revision at any time by the Office of Price Stabilization.

SEC. 8. Uniform f. o. b. factory prices for factories in different pricing areas. (a) If you process the item being priced at more than one factory and if your ceiling prices for the item vary by factories located in different pricing areas, you may, for those areas in which you had uniform prices in effect during 1950, establish a uniform ceiling price for the item for any group of factories in those areas by figuring a weighted average of their separate ceiling prices.

(b) For any two or more factories selected by you, the "weighted average ceiling price" shall be figured by you as follows:

(1) You shall (i) determine the total estimated receipts which would have been obtained if your total production of the item at those factories during 1950 had been sold at the separate ceiling prices otherwise determined under this regulation and, (ii) divide that figure by the total number of dozens of the item included in that total production. The result is your uniform f. o. b. factory price.

(c) If you at any time recalculate your ceiling prices for an item under the provisions of section 2 of this regulation, you shall at that time refigure your weighted average ceiling price under this section.

SEC. 9. Delivered prices. If you regularly sold the item being priced to a purchaser on a delivered basis during the base period, you may figure a delivered ceiling price by adding to the ceiling price for the item f. o. b. factory, the amount of the current transportation charges per sales unit of that item.

SEC. 10. Uniform delivered pricing by zones or areas.—(a) Sellers who sold during the base period on a uniform delivered price by zones or areas.—(1) For one factory. If you sold or delivered an item covered by this regulation during 1950 on an established uniform delivered price basis by zones or areas, you may establish a delivered ceiling price for the same zone or area by adding to your ceiling price f. o. b. factory, an average transportation charge, figured on the same basis as you figured such charge during 1950, but at current transportation rates. If you desire to sell an additional item not sold during 1950 on such uniform delivered price basis, you may establish a uniform delivered ceiling price for the same zones or areas, by adding to your f. o. b. factory ceiling price for the item, transportation charges which are mathematically proportional by shipping weight to the charges which were added to an item of the nearest shipping weight sold on a uniform delivered price basis in 1950.

(2) For more than one factory. If you sold an item during the calendar year 1950 from two or more factories on an established uniform delivered price basis, by zones or areas, regardless of the factories from which the shipment was made, you may continue such practice for the same zones or areas. Your uniform delivered ceiling price for the item shall be the weighted average of the delivered ceiling prices, as figured in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, for the item computed on the basis of the proportion of sales of the pack of the item made during 1950 from each of your respective factories.

SEC. 11. Payment of brokers. In accordance with trade custom every broker shall be considered as the agent of the canner and not the agent of the buyer. In each case, the amount paid by the buyer to the canner plus any amount paid for brokerage service to the broker shall not exceed the total of the canner's ceiling price and allowable transportation costs actually paid by the canner or by the broker.

The term "broker" includes a "finder."

SEC. 12. Special packing expenses that may be reflected in ceiling prices.—(a) Conditions under which special packing expenses may be reflected in ceiling prices. Special packing expenses to meet special written requirements of the buyer are a basis for increasing ceiling prices for sales of canned vegetables if the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The canned vegetables must be packed in a manner, package or container that is different from and more expensive than standard packing; and

(2) The canner must pack the goods for sale by himself and not for another on a custom or "toll" basis.

(b) Ceiling prices for sales that meet the conditions of paragraph (a). For any sale that satisfies the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section, your ceiling price as otherwise determined under this regulation may be increased by the following amount:

(1) The additional cost of packing according to the specifications of the buyer in excess of the cost of standard packing, if the canner packs the commodity himself, or

(2) The additional amount actually paid to another person for packing according to specifications of the buyer in excess of the cost of standard packing, if the canner does not pack the commodity himself.

(c) Invoice and record-keeping requirements. In any cases where your ceiling price is increased under paragraph (b) of this section, you shall:

(1) Show separately the amount of the increase in your contract of sale or on your invoice.

(2) In addition to the records otherwise specified by this regulation, prepare and keep for inspection by the Office of Price Stabilization, for two years, from the date of your invoice to the buyer, accurate records showing the cost of standard packing and the cost of packing according to the specifications of the buyer.

(d) Computation of costs. Costs must be figured according to your established accounting methods. Appropriate allowances shall be made for any materials salvaged in unpacking and repacking.

(e) Meaning of "packing" and "standard packing." "Packing" means the providing of wrappings, inner containers, or outer containers; the placing of commodities in such wrappings or containers; the application of any special coverings or coatings; and any unpacking and repacking necessary to conform to the specifications of the buyer.

"Standard packing" means the most expensive packing the cost of which was included in figuring the ceiling price established by this regulation.

SEC. 13. Units of sale and fractions of a cent. (a) Ceiling prices shall be stated in terms of the same general sales units (like dozens, cases, etc.) in which you have customarily quoted prices for the product. Sales in units other than those in which you computed your ceiling price shall be at that ceiling price adjusted for the number of containers in the unit and for customary discounts and differentials.

(b) Amounts computed in the process of figuring a ceiling price (other than the ceiling price itself) shall be carried to four decimal places (hundredths of a cent). If any figured ceiling price includes a fraction of a cent, you shall adjust the ceiling price to the nearest cent or one-half cent in accordance with your established method for quoting your sales prices.

SEC. 14. Maintenance of customary discounts, allowances and price differentials. You shall not change any customary allowance, discount or other price differential (as defined in section 26 of this regulation) to a purchaser or class of purchasers, if the change results in a higher price to that purchaser or class. However, this provision shall not require you to sell any item unlabeled, or under a buyer's label.

SEC. 15. Export sales. The ceiling price at which you may export any item covered by this regulation shall be determined in accordance with the regulation applicable to such sales.

SEC. 16. Storage. Storage costs incurred on goods owned by you shall not be added to your ceiling prices. Storage by you of goods owned by the buyer may be charged for in accordance with the ceiling price regulation applicable to such services.

SEC. 17. Records which must be kept. If you make sales covered by this regulation you shall:

(a) Make and preserve for examination by the Office of Price Stabilization, for two years from the date of your invoice to the buyer, all records of the same kind as you have customarily kept, relating to the prices which you charged for those sales, and

(b) Preserve for examination by the Office of Price Stabilization for as long as the Defense Production Act of 1950 remains in effect, and for two years thereafter, all your existing records which were the basis of figuring your ceiling prices in the manner directed by this regulation, showing the method used in figuring the ceiling prices.

SEC. 18. Reports which the canner must file. (a) If you make sales of the canned vegetables covered by this regulation, you shall mail to the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report, signed by you, for each item for which you determine a ceiling price under this regulation, describing the item, naming its price and indicating the section of the regulation under which the price was determined. All items of a particular canned vegetable priced under section 2 of this regulation shall be included in one report, or a supplemental report if ceilings for some items are determined at a later date.

(b) If you determine your ceiling prices under the provisions of section 5 of this regulation, you shall also show the item or items used in figuring the conversion and indicating your ceiling prices.

(c) If you determine your ceiling prices by using a raw material cost increase of another canner, or by using an average of ceiling prices of three canners, you shall also furnish the names, addresses and ceiling prices of such canners.

(d) If you have figured a uniform ceiling price for an item processed at more than one factory in the same pricing area, you shall also furnish the addresses of all factories to which such ceiling price applies. If you have figured a uniform f. o. b. ceiling price for an item for more than one factory under the provisions of section 8 of this regulation, you shall furnish the ceiling prices for the item of each individual factory included in your calculation, the weighted average ceiling price as figured under that section, and the addresses of all factories to which the weighted average ceiling price is applicable.

(e) The reports required by this section shall be mailed to the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., within 10 days after the ceiling is computed.

SEC. 19. Sales slips and receipts. If you have customarily given a purchaser a sales slip, invoice or similar evidence of purchase, you shall continue to do so. Upon request, you shall, regardless of previous custom, give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, your name and address, the name and quantity of each item sold, and the price received for it.

SEC. 20. Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business assets or stock in trade of a canner subject to this regulation are sold or otherwise transferred to you on or after May 31, 1951, and you carry on the business, or continue to deal in the same type of food product, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by you, your ceiling prices shall be the same as those to which your transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and your obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to you all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable you to comply with the record provisions of this regulation.

SEC. 21. Adjustable pricing. You may agree to sell at a price which can be increased up to the ceiling price in effect at the time of delivery, but you may not, unless authorized by the Office of Price Stabilization, deliver or agree to deliver at prices to be adjusted upward in accordance with action taken by the Office of Price Stabilization after delivery. Such authorization may be given when a request for a change in the applicable ceiling price is pending, but only if the authorization is necessary to promote distribution and will not interfere with the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950. The authorization may be given by the Director of Price Stabilization or by any official of the Office of Price Stabilization having authority to act upon a pending request for a change in price or to give the authorization. The authorization will be given by order, except that it may be given by letter or telegram when the contemplated action is the authorization of an individual ceiling price.

SEC. 22. Treatment of taxes.—(a) Taxes in effect during base period. If during the base period, you separately stated and collected any excise or similar tax you may continue to collect the amount of any such tax in addition to your ceiling price. If you did not customarily during the base period state and collect separately from the purchase price, the amount of tax paid by you, you may not collect the amount of such tax in addition to your ceiling price.

(b) Taxes imposed since base period. In all other cases, if at the time you determine your ceiling price the statute or ordinance imposing the tax does not prohibit you from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, you may collect in addition to your ceiling price, the amount of the tax actually paid by you.

In every case when the tax is collected from the purchaser the amount thereof shall be separately stated.

SEC. 23. Compliance with this regulation.—(a) No selling or buying above ceiling prices. Regardless of any contract or obligation no person shall sell or deliver or, in the course of trade, buy or receive any item at a price higher than the ceiling price established by this regulation. However, prices lower than the ceiling price may be charged and paid.

(b) Evasion. No person shall evade a ceiling price, directly or indirectly, whether by commission, service, transportation, or other charge or discount, premium, or other privilege; by tie-in requirement or other trade understanding; by any change of style of pack; by a business practice relating to grading, labeling or packaging, or in any other way.

(c) Enforcement. Any person violating a provision of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for treble damages provided by the Defense Production Act of 1950.

SEC. 24. Applications for adjustment by canners who have been found to have violated the Robinson-Patman Act. (a) The Office of Price Stabilization may adjust your ceiling price established by this regulation in any case in which you show:

(1) That you have been found by the Federal Trade Commission, or any court of competent jurisdiction, to have discriminated in price between different purchasers of commodities in violation of the provisions of the Robinson-Patman Act (49 Stat. 1526) or of any state statute prohibiting price discriminations; and

(2) That the elimination of the discrimination by lowering your price to the purchasers against whom you have been found to have discriminated would cause you substantial hardship; and

(3) That the elimination of the discrimination by increasing your price to the purchasers in whose favor you have been found to have discriminated is prohibited by this regulation.

(b) Applications for adjustment under this provision shall be mailed to the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the provisions of Price Procedural Regulation No. 1 (16 F. R. 9055).

SEC. 25. Petitions for amendments, protests and interpretations. Any petition for amendment, protest, or request for interpretation of this regulation, may be filed in accordance with the provisions of Price Procedural Regulation 1.

SEC. 26. Definitions. When used in this regulation the term:

(a) "Base period" means the period of time between the first day after January 1, 1950 that the canner processed any item of a named vegetable and June 30, 1950.

(b) "Canner" means a person who preserves vegetables by processing by heat and hermetically sealing in containers of metal, glass or any other material. The term includes a person who has the goods custom or toll packed by another.

(c) "Customary allowances, discounts and price differentials" means those differentials for cash discount, swell allowance, allowance for buyer's labels, for unlabeled goods, for differences in volume of sale, for class of buyer, or for method or time of delivery which were customary in the business of the canner and in effect prior to and during the base period.

(d) "Grade" means the commercial grade or customary trade quality designation at the time of shipment. Subgrades shall not constitute separate grades. However, where the canner elects to use U. S. Canned Food Grades as established and defined by the United States Department of Agriculture and sells the item under any such grade designation, the term "grade" means such grade at time of shipment.

(e) "Item" means a kind, variety, grade, size or sieve size, style of pack, container type and size, of a product. However, subgrades of the same quality designation shall not constitute separate items. Brand names shall not in themselves constitute separate items.

(f) "1951 spring pack" means the pack of any listed vegetable the major portion of which is canned between January 1, 1951 and June 30, 1951. As to spinach and green beans, this regulation applies only to the spring pack.

(g) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and their legal successors or representatives. The term includes the United States, its agencies, other governments, their political subdivisions and their agencies.

(h) "Product" means the kind of vegetable covered by this regulation, such as asparagus, spinach, etc.

(i) "Sales at retail" means sales to ultimate consumers other than commercial, industrial and institutional users.

(j) "Sales at wholesale" means sales with respect to which the canner has performed the function of selling as a wholesaler to retail stores, but not including sales to chain store buying agencies or associations of retail store buying agencies which warehouse the product prior to distribution to the individual retail outlet.

(k) "Sales units" means your customary sales quantities of the item, such as dozens, cases, etc.

(l) "Vegetable" means any vegetable named in the regulation and mixtures of such named vegetables. When a vegetable is so specified, its puree and juice are included.

(m) "You" or "Your" means any canner whose sales are covered by this regulation.

Effective date. This Ceiling Price Regulation No. 42 shall become effective May 31, 1951.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Amendment 12]

GENERAL CEILING PRICE REGULATION

EXEMPTION OF MISCELLANEOUS POULTRY AND RABBITS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105) and Economic Stabilization Agency Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this amendment to the General Ceiling Price Regulation (16 F. R. 808) is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to the General Ceiling Price Regulation exempts geese, guineas, squabs, pigeons, quail, partridges, pheasants, rabbits, and hares from the ceiling price restrictions imposed by that Regulation. These commodities are exempted because they are, for the most part, luxury items which have an insignificant effect on the cost of living.

The combined consumption of miscellaneous poultry is currently estimated at slightly more than one-tenth pound per capita per year. These amounts compare with 1950 per capita consumption of chickens of 25.9 pounds, and turkeys of 4.9 pounds. Because of the limited demand for the poultry covered by this amendment and because these items are not as efficient in the conversion of feed to meat as commercial broilers, there is little likelihood that rapid and uneconomic expansion of production of these items will result from their exemption. Moreover, prices for geese and rabbits normally have been related to chicken and turkey prices. Therefore, the limitations imposed on prices of chickens and turkeys will impose a restraint on unreasonable price increases for geese and rabbits. Should these expectations not materialize, ceiling prices will be promptly imposed.

Goose feathers, for which there is currently a strong demand, are important in the manufacture of items essential to the defense effort, and, therefore, continuation of price control over such feathers must be maintained. As a result, the exemptions are made expressly inapplicable to goose feathers.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the exemptions provided for by this amendment will not impair the carrying out of the requirements of the Defense Production Act of 1950.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Section 14 (s) of the General Ceiling Price Regulation is amended by the addition of the following:

(18) All domestically produced and imported geese, guineas, squabs, pigeons, quail, partridges, pheasants, rabbits and hares, whether in processed or unprocessed form, and at all levels of purchase and sale: Provided, That the feathers of geese are not covered by this exemption.

(Sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.)

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective June 5, 1951.

Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 23, Amendment 1]

CPR 23—LIVE CATTLE

CHANGE IN EFFECTIVE DATE

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order 2 (16 F. R. 738) this Amendment 1 to Ceiling Price Regulation 23 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 23 governs the prices which slaughterers may pay on the average for cattle slaughtered by them during an accounting period. It was made effective for all accounting periods beginning on or after May 20, 1951.

The accounting periods of some slaughterers commence on or shortly after May 20, 1951, while the accounting periods of other slaughterers commence as much as two weeks after that date. As a result some slaughterers have been placed in a position where their cattle purchases are subject to the provisions of CPR 23 while the cattle purchases of many of their competitors are not. Slaughterers with accounting periods which begin early have been placed at a disadvantage.

To avoid inequities, the mandatory effective date of this regulation has been extended to June 4. Where a slaughterer's accounting period has commenced prior to June 4 the regulation is applicable to that fraction of the accounting period which commences on June 4. If the fraction of an accounting period commencing on June 4 is 14 days or less, that fraction shall be added to the next accounting period and the two periods shall be treated as one accounting period. If the fraction of an accounting period commencing on June 4 is 15 days or more, that fraction shall be treated as a full accounting period.

The disadvantage of using fractional accounting periods is recognized but it is the only way to place slaughterers in a fair position with respect to each other. If any slaughterers desire to avoid complicating their record keeping they may comply for their full accounting period beginning prior to June 4.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 23 is amended as follows:

The "effective date" paragraph appearing immediately after section 11 is deleted and the following paragraph is substituted:

Effective date. This regulation shall be effective for each accounting period commencing on or after June 4, 1951. If a slaughterer's accounting period has commenced prior to June 4, but does not terminate until June 18 or later, this regulation shall be effective for that part of the accounting period beginning on June 4, 1951; and that part of the accounting period beginning on June 4, 1951, shall be treated for the purposes of this regulation as though it were a full accounting period. If a slaughterer's accounting period has commenced prior to June 4 but terminates between June 4 and June 17, this regulation shall be effective for the period between June 4 and the date when his next accounting period terminates, and such period between June 4 and the date of termination of the next accounting period shall be treated for purposes of this regulation as though it were a single accounting period. However, any slaughterer at his option may comply with this regulation for his full accounting period commencing prior to June 4, 1951. In no event shall this regulation apply to purchases of cattle made prior to April 30, 1951.

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective on May 31, 1951.

EDWARD F. PHELPS, Jr.
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Amendment 14]

GENERAL CEILING PRICE REGULATION

EXEMPTION OF AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES SELLING AT PRICES BELOW LEGAL MINIMA

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738) this Amendment 14 to General Ceiling Price Regulation (16 F. R. 808) is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Amendment 13 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation (GCPR) inadvertently revised the provisions of section 14 (s) (1) to exempt raw agricultural commodities only when sold by the producers thereof. In the case of agricultural commodities which are selling at prices below the legal minima prescribed by the Defense Production Act and are regularly traded on commodity exchanges such a provision is undesirable. Although a pass-through is permitted on such commodities by section 11, it is impractical and unworkable for those who are constantly buying and selling at fluctuating prices without chance to stop, after each transaction, and calculate the amount of the pass-through to which they are entitled. Therefore, the Director of Price Stabilization has found that it is generally fair and equitable, and is necessary to effectuate the purposes of title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950, to amend section 14 (s) (1) so that sales on commodity exchanges of raw agricultural commodities selling below the legal minima are not controlled. And, along with that, section 11 (b) has been amended to exempt sales on commodity exchanges from the requirement that an amount of the product a seller has on hand as of the date he makes a higher priced purchase of a listed agricultural commodity (or product processed therefrom) must first be sold before he can increase his ceiling price to reflect the increased cost of that last purchase.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

1. Section 14 (s) (1) of the General Ceiling Price Regulation is amended to read as follows:

(1) (i) The following commodities only when sold by the producers thereof: Eggs, dry edible beans and peas, and popcorn. In addition, any other agricultural commodity in its raw or natural state, or if the commodity is not customarily sold by producers generally in its raw or natural state, in the first form or state beyond the raw or natural state in which it is customarily sold by producers generally.

(ii) The exemption established by this subparagraph (1) shall not apply to sales, other than by producers, of any agricultural commodity not now listed in section 11 (a) or hereafter deleted by the Director of Price Stabilization from the section 11 (a) list. The ceiling price for sales, other than by producers, of any commodity hereafter deleted from the section 11 (a) list shall, after such deletion, be determined under the provisions of this regulation, except that, if such ceiling price is determined under section 3, the "base period" shall be the most recent five-week period preceding the date the Director of Price Stabilization deletes the commodity from the list. Such ceiling prices shall become effective on the date determined by the Director.

2. The paragraph of section 11 (b) of the General Ceiling Price Regulation which immediately precedes the Example is amended to read as follows:

You may not, however, after May 30, 1951, put the ceiling price increase into effect unless and until you have first sold an amount of your product at least equal to the quantity of finished product owned by you at the close of business on the day you otherwise would have been entitled to put that ceiling price increase into effect under this section, except that this sentence shall not apply to sales on commodity exchanges (as defined in paragraph (e) of this section).

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective May 31, 1951.

EDWARD F. PHELPS, Jr.,
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

M-47—USE OF IRON AND STEEL

This amendment to NPA Order M-47 is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this amendment, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

This amendment affects list A of NPA Order M-47, as follows:

The text of item 1 of group II is hereby amended to read as follows:

1. Furniture and fixtures such as desks (excluding seats and desks designed for school use), bookcases, shelving, tables, stands, booths, filing cabinets, and transfer cases, including card and document cases.

(Sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.)

This amendment shall take effect on May 29, 1951.

1. What this order does.
2. Freight rates and charter terms and conditions required under "Warshipvoy" form of charter as revised August 15, 1944.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 and 2 issued under sec. 204, 49 Stat. 1987, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 1114.

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order hereby authorizes the following freight rates and charter terms and conditions for the transportation of full cargoes of coal, in bulk, under "Warshipvoy" form of charter as revised August 15, 1944, in vessels operated for account of the National Shipping Authority, from Hampton Roads, Baltimore or Philadelphia to a port of discharge in Norway, effective on vessels commencing to load on and after June 1, 1951.

SEC. 2. Freight rates and charter terms and conditions required under "Warshipvoy" form of charter as revised August 15, 1944.

Rate: $11.70 U. S. currency per ton of 2,240 pounds.

NOTE: Foregoing rate applies to cargoes loaded at one port and discharged at one port; for more than one port of loading or discharge add fifty cents (50 cents) U. S. currency per ton for each such additional port, the total rate thus formed to apply on the entire cargo. Cargoes for more than one port of loading or discharge shall be subject to negotiation and mutual agreement between the owners and the charterers, and if the vessel is authorized to discharge at two or three ports, such ports to be confined to one of the following ranges:

Bergen-Oslo range.
Bergen-Trondheim range.
Trondheim-Bodo range.
Bodo-Tromso range.

The following clauses are to be inserted in paragraphs E, F, G, H, and I of Part I of "Warshipvoy":

E. Freight rate: (Insert applicable rate as above set forth, including, if applicable, additions for extra ports of discharge.)

Freight fully prepaid in the United States on bill-of-lading quantity and to be considered due and payable and earned on the cargo as taken aboard, vessel and/or cargo lost or not lost.

Demurrage: Charterers to pay demurrage at the rate of $--------[1] per day for each and every day or pro rata for part of a day for all time used in loading or discharging in excess of allowed laytime.

Despatch: Despatch if earned at loading or discharging port will be payable at the rate of one-half (½) the demurrage rate per day or pro rata for part of a day for all laytime saved in loading or discharging.

F. Stevedoring: Loading and trimming expenses shall be for vessel's account; discharging expenses shall be for charterer's account.

G. Loading time: Loading to be at the rate of 1,500 tons per day, Sundays and holidays excepted unless used.

H. Discharging time: Cargo shall be discharged at the rate of 1,200 tons per day, Sundays and holidays excepted unless used. Time lost in discharging due to weather preventing discharge shall not count as laytime.

I. Special provisions:

1. Charterers have the option of shipping not more than 250 tons of coke at the same rate of freight as the coal, charterers paying all additional expenses.

2. Any lightening required to enable vessel to reach her destination to be at charterer's risk and expense and time occupied to count as laytime.

3. General average clause: The adjustment and settlement of general average claims, pursuant to Clause 21, Part II shall be governed by the York-Antwerp Rules of 1950, exclusive of Rule 22.

[1] Insert applicable demurrage rate, i. e., fifteen hundred dollars ($1,500) for Liberty type vessels and eighteen hundred dollars ($1,800) for Victory type vessels.

4. Wherever the words "United States Maritime Commission" appear in Part II hereof same shall be understood to mean National Shipping Authority.

Authority: Sections 1 and 2 issued under sec. 204, 49 Stat. 1987, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 1114.

Section 1. What this order does. This order hereby authorizes the following freight rates and charter terms and conditions for the transportation of full cargoes of heavy grain, i. e., wheat, corn or rye, in bulk, under "Warshipvoy" form of charter as revised August 15, 1944, in vessels operated for account of the National Shipping Authority, from one Atlantic, Gulf, or Pacific Coast port of the United States to a port of discharge in Norway, effective on vessels commencing to load on and after June 1, 1951.

Sec. 2. Freight rates and charter terms and conditions required under "Warshipvoy" form of charter as revised August 15, 1944.

[All rates in U. S. currency per ton of 2,240 pounds]

From:
U. S. Atlantic ports	$14.05
U. S. Gulf ports	15.55
U. S. Pacific ports	19.05

Note: Foregoing rates apply to cargoes loaded at one port and discharged at one port; for more than one port of loading or discharge, within the same general area or range, add fifty cents (50 cents) U. S. currency per ton for each additional port to the highest applicable rate, the total rate thus formed to apply on the entire cargo. Cargoes for more than one port of loading or discharge shall be subject to negotiation and mutual agreement between the owners and charterers.

The following clauses are to be inserted in paragraphs E, F, G, H, and I of Part I of "Warshipvoy":

E. Freight rate: (Insert applicable rate in United States currency per ton of 2,240 pounds as above set forth.)

Freight fully prepaid in the United States on bill-of-lading quantity and to be considered due and payable and earned on the cargo as taken aboard, vessel and/or cargo lost or not lost.

Demurrage: Charterers to pay demurrage at the rate of $_____[3] per day for each and every day or pro rata for part of a day for all time used in loading or discharging in excess of allowed laytime.

Despatch: No despatch payable at loading port. Despatch if earned at discharging port will be payable at the rate of one-half (½) the demurrage rate per day or pro rata for part of a day for all laytime saved in discharging.

F. Stevedoring: Loading and trimming to be for the vessel's account; discharging expenses to be for the charterer's account.

G. Loading time: A maximum of five (5) days, Sundays and holidays excepted unless used, shall be allowed for loading. Time lost in loading due to weather preventing loading shall not count as laytime.

H. Discharging time: Cargo shall be discharged at the rate of 800 tons of 2,240 pounds per day, Sundays and holidays excepted unless used. Time lost in discharging due to weather preventing discharge shall not count as laytime.

I. Special provisions:

1. Laydays not reversible.

2. Any bags and/or bagging required for safe stowage to be for vessel's account.

3. Any lightening required to enable vessel to reach her destination to be at charterer's risk and expense and time occupied to count as laytime.

4. General average clause: The adjustment and settlement of general average claims, pursuant to Clause 21, Part II shall be governed by the York-Antwerp Rules of 1950, exclusive of Rule 22.

5. Wherever the words "United States Maritime Commission" appear in Part II hereof same shall be understood to mean National Shipping Authority.

6. This contract is subject to the approval of the National Shipping Authority.

Freight fully prepaid in the United States on bill-of-lading quantity and to be considered due and payable and earned on the cargo as taken aboard, vessel and/or cargo lost or not lost.

Demurrage: Charterers to pay demurrage at the rate of $_____[1] per day for each and every day or pro rata for part of a day for all time used in loading or discharging in excess of allowed laytime.

Despatch: No despatch payable at loading port. Despatch if earned at discharging port will be payable at the rate of one-half (½) of the demurrage rate per day, or pro rata for part of a day, for all laytime saved in discharging.

F. Stevedoring: Loading and trimming to be for the vessel's account; discharging expenses to be for charterer's account.

G. Loading time: A maximum of five (5) days, Sundays and holidays excepted unless used, shall be allowed for loading. Time lost in loading due to weather preventing loading shall not count as laytime.

H. Discharging time: Cargo shall be discharged at the rate of 800 tons per day, Sundays and holidays excepted unless used. Time lost in discharging due to weather preventing discharge shall not count at laytime.

I. Special provisions:

1. Laydays not reversible.

2. Any bags and/or bagging required for safe stowage to be for vessel's account.

3. Any lightening required to enable vessel to reach her destination to be at charterer's risk and expense and time occupied to count as laytime.

4. General average clause: The adjustment and settlement of general average claims, pursuant to Clause 21, Part II shall be governed by the York-Antwerp Rules of 1950, exclusive of Rule 22.

5. Wherever the words "United States Maritime Commission" appear in Part II hereof same shall be understood to mean "National Shipping Authority".

6. This contract is subject to the approval of the National Shipping Authority.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 1—GENERAL PROVISIONS

INSTRUCTIONS RELATING TO OVERPAYMENTS OR ILLEGAL PAYMENTS OF INSURANCE

Immediately below § 1.627 add the centerhead "Provisional Regulations" and insert new § 1.985.

§ 1.985 Instructions relating to overpayments or illegal payments of insurance made to an insured under the National Service Life Insurance Act and the World War Veterans' Act. Under the existing authority of Veterans' Administration insurance procedures, provision is made for the recovery of any insurance indebtedness which resulted from an overpayment or illegal payment of dividends, loans, refund of premiums, or any over-payment or illegal payment made to the insured under a United States Government life insurance or a National Service life insurance contract. It has been determined that such an indebtedness will not be waived, and, unless repaid, an interest bearing lien will be established against the insurance and collected from any future settlement. However, this does not preclude the submission of any case to the central committee on waivers and forfeitures or to the field committees on waivers if there are other Veterans' Administration benefits payable from which the indebtedness may be recovered. Accordingly, the following instructions are for the guidance and observance of all persons concerned:

(a) If any such indebted insured is entitled to an award of Veterans' Administration benefits other than insurance, the central committee on waivers and forfeitures or the field committees on waivers upon the request of such person will consider whether the collection of the insurance indebtedness out of such other benefits will be waived. Therefore, unless the indebted insured is at the time of his request entitled to an award or later becomes entitled to an award of Veterans Administration benefits, other than insurance, from which recovery may be effected, the case will not be referred to such committees for consideration.

(b) In no event shall recovery of such insurance overpayment be made from benefits other than insurance to which the insured or other indebted person is or may be entitled until 30 days after the potential payee has been informed of his right to submit a request for waiver.

(c) If the statutory provisions as contained in section 28, World War Veterans' Act, or section 609, Public Law 801, 76th Congress, are met, a committee on waivers may:

(1) Waive or deny waiver of collection of an indebtedness (subject to the restrictions provided in this section that there shall be no waiver of recovery of the indebtedness from the insurance where the person overpaid is the insured).

(2) Determine that "There shall be no recovery out of ----------" (specifying fully the benefits payable to the person indebted and to which relief is applicable).

(3) Determine that "There shall be no recovery out of benefits payable except ----------" (specifying which benefits shall be subject to set off).

(d) Where the insured has been overpaid and the decision of the central committee on waivers and forfeitures or the field committee on waivers grants a general or qualified waiver of the recovery of such insurance indebtedness from other Veterans' Administration benefits, the certificate of waiver shall include a statement that such waiver does not affect the Government's right to recover the amount from moneys otherwise payable by reason of the insurance.

(e) The appropriate finance activity will submit to the central committee on waivers and forfeitures or the field committee on waivers any insurance overpayment proper for consideration under this section, which submission will furnish full information regarding other monetary benefits to which the person overpaid may be entitled and to which relief is applicable. (Instruction No. 1, section 609, Title VI, Public Law 801, 76th Congress, and section 28 of the World War Veterans Act of 1924, as amended)

(Sec. 5, 43 Stat. 608, as amended, sec. 2, 46 Stat. 1016; 38 U. S. C. 11a, 426)

This regulation is effective June 1, 1951.

[Public Land Order 724]

ALASKA

WITHDRAWING PUBLIC LAND FOR THE USE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY FOR MILITARY PURPOSES

By virtue of the authority vested in the President and pursuant to Executive Order No. 9337 of April 24, 1943, it is ordered as follows:

Subject to valid existing rights, the following-described public land in Alaska is hereby withdrawn from all forms of appropriation under the public-land laws, including the mining and mineral-leasing laws, and reserved for the use of the Department of the Army for military purposes:

SEWARD MERIDIAN

T. 13 N., R. 3 W.,
Sec. 21, N½SE¼.

The area described contains 80 acres.

This order shall take precedence over but not otherwise affect Public Land Order No. 576 of March 29, 1949, reserving lands under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Interior for institutional and residential use for Territorial, State, and Federal Governments, so far as such order affects the above-described land.

There is reserved for the use of the Alaska Housing Authority a right-of-way for an access road through the southwest corner of the tract described.

It is intended that the land described above shall be returned to the administration of the Department of the Interior when it is no longer needed for the purpose for which it is reserved.

DALE E. DOTY,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter B—Merchant Marine Officers and Seamen

PART 12—CERTIFICATION OF SEAMEN

SUBPART 12.02—GENERAL REQUIREMENTS FOR CERTIFICATION

COLLECTION OF FEES FOR DUPLICATE DOCUMENTS

The amendment to 46 CFR 12.02-23 (c) is to change the procedure and practice of collecting fees for duplicate documents from the time the seaman files an application for duplicate documents to the time the duplicate documents are issued to the seaman. This change in procedure is necessary because it is not always possible to determine the exact fee to be collected for duplicate documents at the time the application is filed and in some instances it is necessary to reject a seaman's application for duplicate documents for reasons of security or otherwise. Since the fees collected are turned in to the United States Treasury before the duplicate documents may be issued to the seaman, it is not possible for the Coast Guard to refund the fees collected if the documents are withheld or if the fee has been incorrectly calculated. In such a case it is necessary for the seaman to file a claim for the fee with the United States General Accounting Office. In order to reduce unnecessary paper work and to make it easier to calculate the fees for duplicate documents, the procedures and practices in connection with the issuance of duplicate documents are revised to require the payment of such fees at the time the duplicate documents may be given to the seaman. Because this amendment merely changes the procedures and practices regarding the collection of fees from seamen for duplicate documents, it is hereby found that compliance with the notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedure thereon, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Order No. 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F. R. 6521), to promulgate regulations in accordance with the statutes cited with the regulations below, the following amendment to the regulations is prescribed which shall become effective on the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

Section 12.02-23 (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 12.02-23 Issuance of duplicate documents. * * *

(c) The seaman shall be required to pay for the reissue document (if payment is required) at the time of the issuance of such document to him and in the event the lost document is found he shall be required to surrender same to the shipping commissioner, collector or deputy collector of customs, or the Officer in Charge, Marine Inspection. If the seaman requests a certificate of identification in lieu of a lost book, or vice versa, he shall be required to pay for the reissue of the lost document at the time of its issuance (if payment is required). When the reissue of the document is issued to him, he may then exchange the same in accordance with the regular procedure.

Dated: May 25, 1951.

PART 60—BOATS, RAFTS, BULKHEADS, AND LIFESAVING APPLIANCES (COASTWISE)

BULKHEADS AND WATERTIGHT SLIDING DOORS FOR PASSENGER VESSELS

A notice regarding proposed changes in the regulations for watertight sliding doors for passenger vessels was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated August 25, 1950 (15 F. R. 5706), et seq., as Item XXIV on the Agenda to be considered by the Merchant Marine Council, and a public hearing was held by the Merchant Marine Council on September 20, 1950. The amendments to 46 CFR 46.30, 46.32, 46.38, 46.42, 59.64, 60.57, 76.57, 80.2, 94.56, 98.2, 113.50, 117.2, and 163.001-1 to 163.001-8, inclusive, regarding bulkheads, subdivision, and watertight integrity of passenger vessels or ferry vessels to improve the standard of safety and to eliminate inconsistencies between the various regulations and to adequately describe these requirements, were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated February 6, 1951 (16 F. R. 1073-1088). In adopting the specification for sliding watertight doors (and door controls) for merchant vessels certain requirements were made which duplicate or conflict with the requirements in other regulations in 46 CFR 46.21, 46.22, 46.23, 46.24, and 46.25. The purpose for the following amendments is to editorially correct the requirements and in cases of duplication to cancel the duplicate requirements. These changes do not introduce any additional requirements that are not presently required.

The purpose of the amendments to 46 CFR 46.21, 46.22, 46.23, 46.24, and 46.25 is editorial in nature and cancels duplicating or conflicting requirements with those published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 6, 1951. The reason for canceling 46 CFR 59.64a and 60.57a is to remove conflicting requirements because these vessels are now covered by the requirements in 46 CFR 59.64 and 60.57. Because the following amendments to 46 CFR 46.21, 46.22, 46.23, 46.24, 46.25, 59.64a, and 60.57a are editorial in nature and cancel duplicate requirements or revise the requirements to agree with those published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 6, 1951, it is hereby found that compliance with the notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedure thereon, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Order No. 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F. R. 6521), to promulgate regulations in accordance with the statutes cited with the regulations below, the following amendments to the regulations are prescribed which shall become effective on and after the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

1. Section 46.21 is amended to read as follows:

§ 46.21 Watertight doors, types. (a) The only types of watertight doors permissible are hinged doors, sliding doors, and doors of other equivalent patterns, excluding plate doors secured only by bolts and doors required to be closed by dropping or by the action of a dropping weight.

(b) The permissible classes of doors are:

Class 1: Hinged doors.

Class 2: Sliding doors, operated by hand gear only.

Class 3: Sliding doors, operated by power and by hand gear.

2. Section 46.22 is amended by changing paragraphs (e), (f), and (g) to read as follows:

§ 46.22 Doors, location of allowed types. * * *

(e) Doors that may be opened at sea. When any watertight doors which may sometimes be opened at sea, excluding those at the entrance to tunnels, are fitted in the main transverse watertight bulkheads at such a height that their sills are below the deepest subdivision load line, the following rules of this paragraph shall apply, subject to class 3 doors being required in special cases. (See paragraphs (f) and (g) of this section.)

(1) When the number of such doors exceeds 5, all the watertight sliding doors whose sills are below the deepest subdivision load line shall be of class 3, capable of being simultaneously closed from a station situated on the bridge.

(2) When the number of such doors does not exceed 5, all the watertight doors whose sills are below the deepest subdivision load line may be of class 2 if the Criterion Numeral does not exceed 30, and shall be of class 3 if the Criterion Number exceeds 30.

(f) Doors between coal bunkers. (1) Watertight doors fitted in bulkheads between permanent and reserve coal bunkers shall be always accessible except as provided in the following subparagraph for 'tween deck bunker doors. Screens shall be fitted or other arrangements provided to prevent coal from interfering with the closing of watertight coal bunker doors.

(2) If watertight doors which have sometimes to be opened at sea for the purpose of trimming coal are fitted between bunkers in the 'tween decks below the bulkhead deck, these doors shall be of class 3.

(g) Doors in trunkways with refrigerated cargo. When trunkways in connection with refrigerated cargo are carried through more than one main transverse watertight bulkhead and the sills of the openings are less than 7 feet above the deepest subdivision load line the watertight doors at such openings shall be of class 3.

3. Section 46.23 is amended to read as follows:

§ 46.23 Watertight doors, operation and fittings.—(a) Hinged watertight door fittings. Hinged watertight doors (class 1) shall be fitted with catches workable from either side of the bulkhead so spaced that the door can be made effectively watertight. In the case of a door which is required to be closed before the voyage commences and kept closed all during the voyage, the catches may be fitted to operate from one side only, provided it be shown that under all operating conditions the door shall be always closed from the one side.

(b) Sliding door operating gear. The hand closing gear for sliding doors is to be accessible in all cases and capable of being operated both at each side of the door itself and from above the bulkhead deck.

(c) Power doors, control. The power gear for closing doors of class 3 shall be operated from a central control in an accessible position above the bulkhead deck. The central control stations for power doors required under the provisions of § 46.22 (e) (1) shall be on the bridge. The power gear shall be so arranged that it can be operated from each side of the door itself, and also so that the door if opened by this local control after being closed from the central control will reclose automatically. The arrangement shall also be such that the door can be kept closed from the local control so that it cannot be opened from the central control. Power doors shall also be fitted with hand gear as required in paragraph (b) of this section. The arrangements shall be such that in the event that the power gear is disabled it will in no way interfere with the efficient operation of the hand gear.

(d) Door indicators. In all classes of doors indicators shall be fitted at all operating stations other than at the door itself showing whether the doors are open or closed and at all operating stations directions for closing the doors should be clearly marked.

(e) Power door warning signals. Where power doors in passenger, crew, or working spaces are capable of being closed from a position from which the doors are not visible, sound signals for giving warning when they are about to be closed are to be provided. These signals shall be of the electric horn or howler type.

4. Section 46.24 is amended to read as follows:

§ 46.24 Watertight doors, design and installation. The design of all watertight doors shall be subject to approval by the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard. For specification requirements on design and installation of sliding watertight doors see Subpart 163.001, of Subchapter Q (Specifications) of this chapter.

5. Section 46.25 is amended to read as follows:

§ 46.25 Watertight doors, tests. The requirements for testing sliding watertight doors and controls are specified in Subpart 163.001, of Subchapter Q (Specifications) of this chapter.

(Sec. 2, 49 Stat. 888, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 88a)

6. Section 59.64a Bulkheads on passenger vessels 100 gross tons and over is canceled.

(R. S. 4405, 4417, 4426, 4490, 49 Stat. 1384, 54 Stat. 346, sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 391, 404, 482, 483, 367, 1333, and 50 U. S. C. 1275)

7. Section 60.57a Bulkheads on passenger vessels 100 gross tons and over is canceled.

(R. S. 4405, 4417, 4426, 4490, 49 Stat. 1384, 54 Stat. 346, sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 391, 404, 482, 483, 367, 1333, and 50 U. S. C. 1275)

Dated: May 25, 1951.

PART 164—MATERIALS

SUBPART 164.009—INCOMBUSTIBLE MATERIALS FOR MERCHANT VESSELS

ASBESTOS MILLBOARD

The purpose for the amendment to 46 CFR 164.009-2 (b) is to add asbestos millboard meeting the requirements of Federal Specification HH-M-351a to the items of material which are automatically accepted as meeting the specification requirements of 46 CFR Subpart 164.009. Since this material has been used in "Bulkhead Panels" approved under 46 CFR Subpart 164.008 and as the material is generally in good supply throughout the country, it is felt that it will be advantageous to the public to automatically accept asbestos millboard meeting the Federal Specification HH-M-351a rather than to specifically approve and separately list the asbestos millboard made by each manufacturer. Because this amendment removes a restriction and will expedite the use of incombustible material in the construction, repair, or alteration of merchant vessels, it is hereby found that compliance with the notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedure thereon, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and contrary to the public interest.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Order No. 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F. R. 6521), to promulgate regulations in accordance with the statutes cited with the regulations below, the following amendment to the regulations is prescribed which shall become effective upon the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Section 164.009–2 is amended by adding a new subparagraph (4) to paragraph (b), reading as follows:

§ 164.009–2 Material. • • •

(b) • • •

(4) Asbestos millboard meeting the requirements of Federal Specification HH–M–351a.

(R. S. 4405, as amended, sec. 5, 49 Stat. 1384, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 375, 369. Interpret or apply R. S. 4417a, as amended, 4426, as amended, 49 Stat. 1544, 54 Stat. 346, 1028, sec. 5, 55 Stat. 244, as amended, 46 U. S. C. 1, 391a, 404, 367, 1333, 463a, 50 U. S. C. 1275)

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 9959]

PART 64—MISCELLANEOUS RULES RELATING TO COMMON CARRIERS

CHARGES FOR U. S. GOVERNMENT TELEGRAPH COMMUNICATIONS; COMMON CARRIERS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of May 1951;

The Commission, having under consideration the matter of the amendment of § 64.310 Term, of Subpart C (United States Government Foreign and Overseas Telegraph Communications), of Part 64 of the Commission's rules and regulations; and also having under consideration its notice of proposed rule making adopted herein on May 2, 1951, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 10, 1951 (16 F. R. 4342) in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act;

It appearing, that the period in which interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit comments expired on May 21, 1951 and that no comments were received;

It further appearing, that it is in the public interest to amend Subpart C in order to extend the term thereof;

It further appearing, that the amendments herein ordered are issued under authority of sections 4 (i) and 601 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and pursuant to the provisions of the permits or licenses granted by the President of the United States, giving the Postmaster General authority to fix rates and charges for United States Government telegraph communications transmitted by any carrier or carriers subject to the terms of such permits or licenses, which authority was transferred to the Commission by section 601 (b) of the Communications Act;

It is ordered, That effective July 1, 1951, § 64.310 of Subpart C of Part 64 of the Commission's rules and regulations is amended to read as follows:

§ 64.310 Term. The provisions of Subpart C shall continue in effect through June 30, 1952, unless changed by order of the Commission.

Released: May 29, 1951.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Indian Affairs

[25 CFR, Part 130]

SAN CARLOS INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT, ARIZONA

ORDER FIXING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act of June 11, 1946 (60 Stat. 238) and by virtue of authority delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, September 14, 1946 (11 F. R. 10297), and because of lack of sufficient time, notice is hereby given of the intention to modify paragraph (a) of § 130.63 Assessments, joint works of Title 25, Code of Federal Regulations, dealing with operation and maintenance assessments against the irrigable lands of the San Carlos irrigation project, Arizona, by increasing the annual basic assessment from $80,000 to $120,000 per annum and the rate of assessment from 80 cents per acre to $1.20 per acre for each acre of land.

§ 130.63 Assessments, joint works. (a) Pursuant to the act of Congress approved June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 476) and supplementary acts, and the repayment contracts of June 8, 1931, as amended, between the United States and the San Carlos irrigation and drainage district, and in accordance with applicable provisions of the order of the Secretary of the Interior of June 15, 1938 (§§ 130.69a to 130.69m), the cost of the operation and maintenance of the Joint Works of the San Carlos Indian irrigation project for the fiscal year 1953 is estimated to be $120,000 and the rate of assessment for the said fiscal year and subsequent years until further order, is hereby fixed at $1.20 for each acre of land.

The foregoing changes are to become effective for the fiscal year 1953 and continue thereafter until further notice; the assessment for that part payable by the San Carlos irrigation and drainage district being due in advance of such fiscal year on March 1; for that part payable for the 50,000 acres of Indian land will be as provided in §§ 130.110 to 130.116, inclusive.

Interested persons are hereby given opportunity to participate in preparing the proposed amendments by submitting their views and data or argument in writing to Ralph M. Gelvin, Area Director, Phoenix Area Office, P. O. Box 7007, Phoenix, Arizona, on or before June 16, 1951.

RALPH M. GELVIN,
Area Director.

SAN CARLOS INDIAN IRRIGATION PROJECT ARIZONA

ORDER FIXING OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administration Procedure Act of June 11, 1946 (60 Stat. 238) and by virtue of authority delegated by the Secretary of the Interior to the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, September 14, 1946 (11 F. R. 10297) (Order No. 2535), and because of lack of sufficient time, notice is hereby given of intention to modify § 130.110 Basic charge (Tribal and Trust Patent Indian Lands) of Title 25, Code of Federal Regulations, dealing with operation and maintenance assessments against the irrigable acreage of the Indian lands of the San Carlos Indian irrigation project, Arizona, by increasing the annual basic assessment rate from $3.50 per acre to $3.90 per acre for each acre of land.

§ 130.110 Basic charge. Pursuant to the provisions of section 10 of the act of March 3, 1905 (33 Stat. 1081) as amended and supplemented by the acts of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 522), August 1, 1914 (38 Stat. 583, 25 U. S. C. 385), section 5 of the act of June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 476), March 7, 1928 (45 Stat. 210, Title 25 U. S .C. 387), and the act of August 9, 1937 (50 Stat. 577), as amended by the act of May 9, 1938 (52 Stat. 291–305), and in accordance with the public notice issued on December 1, 1932, operation and maintenance charges are assessable against the 50,000 acres of tribal lands and trust patent Indian lands of the San Carlos Indian irrigation project within the boundaries of the Pima Indian Reservation, Arizona, and the basic rate assessed for the calendar year 1953 and the subsequent years unless changed by further order, is hereby fixed at $3.90 per acre. Such rate shall entitle each acre of land to have delivered for use thereon two (2) acre-feet of water per acre or its proportionate share of the available water supply.

The foregoing changes are to become effective for the fiscal year 1953 and continue thereafter until further notice; the assessment for the 50,000 acres of Indian land will be payable as provided in §§ 130.111 to 130.116, inclusive.

Interested persons are hereby given opportunity to participate in preparing the proposed amendments by submitting their views and data or argument in writing to Ralph M. Gelvin, Area Director, Phoenix Area Office, P. O. Box 7007, Phoenix, Arizona, on or before June 16, 1951.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine

[7 CFR, Part 301]

BLACK STEM RUST

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) that the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), is considering amending the notice of the Black Stem Rust Quarantine No. 38 (7 CFR Supp. 301.38) and §§ 301.38–1 (b), 301.38–6 (a) (1), 301.38–6 (b) (1), and 301.38–7 (a) of the regulations supplemental to the quarantine (7 CFR Supp. 301.38–1 (b), 301.38–6 (a) (1), 301.38–6 (b) (1), 301.38–7 (a), as amended, 15 F. R. 757), in the following respects:

1. Amend the first proviso of § 301.38 to read:

Provided, That the provisions of this quarantine and of the regulations supplemental hereto, as they apply to the interstate movement of regulated plants and parts thereof capable of propagation from or between the eradication States, as defined in § 301.38–1 (e) of the regulations supplemental hereto, are hereby conditioned upon such regulation by such States of the intrastate movement of such plants and parts thereof and the enforcement thereof and upon such enforcement of other control and sanitation measures as may be required of them by the Secretary of Agriculture and as shall be adequate to prevent the establishment in such States of berberis, mahonia, and mahoberberis plants not known to be resistant to the disease.

2. Amend § 301.38–1 (b) to read:

(b) Barberry, mahonia, and mahoberberis plants. Plants growing on their own roots or parts of such plants capable of propagation, other than seeds and fruits, of any species, horticultural variety, or hybrid within the genera berberis, mahonia, and mahoberberis.

3. Amend § 301.38–6 (a) (1) to read:

(1) Movement is prohibited of barberry, mahonia, and mahoberberis plants, other than those designated as rust-resistant, except that parts of mahonia plants without roots intended for decorative purposes are hereby exempt from the requirements of these regulations. Movement is also prohibited of rust-resistant barberry and mahoberberis plants of less than two seasons' growth, except that such movement is authorized in any case where a nurseryman holding a valid certificate of inspection, upon application to the Chief of the Bureau, is granted authority in writing to receive rust-resistant plants of less than two seasons' growth from another nurseryman holding a valid certificate of inspection, provided the receiving nurseryman shall agree that such plants (i) will be retained for at least two growing seasons and kept separate from plants eligible for movement, (ii) will be available for examination by an inspector prior to their movement to determine their trueness to species and variety, and (iii) will be immediately destroyed by the nurseryman if determined untrue as to species and variety.

4. Amend § 301.38–6 (b) (1) to read:

(1) Movement of seeds and fruits of barberry, mahonia, and mahoberberis plants into the eradication States is prohibited from any point outside thereof, except that such movement is authorized in any case where a nurseryman possessing a valid certificate of inspection, upon application to the Chief of the Bureau, is granted authority in writing to obtain mahonia seeds from sources outside the eradication States under the following conditions:

(i) The receiving nurseryman shall state the location of the plants from which the seeds will be obtained.

(ii) The receiving nurseryman shall agree (a) that he will obtain such seeds only from a nurseryman possessing a valid certificate of inspection, (b) that such seeds will be used solely for growing commercial stock in his nursery, (c) that plants grown from such seeds will be retained for at least one growing season, (d) that such plants will be kept separate from plants eligible for movement, (e) that such plants will be available for examination by an inspector prior to their movement to determine their trueness as to species and variety, and (f) that such plants will be immediately destroyed by the nurseryman if determined untrue as to species and variety.

5. Amend the second sentence of the text in § 301.38–7 (a) to read: "If barberry, mahonia, or mahoberberis plants not designated as rust-resistant are found in the nursery or in the environs thereof, certificates of inspection will be withheld until such plants have been eliminated to the satisfaction of the inspector, except that certificates of inspection may be issued to nurseries having in the nursery or environs thereof varieties of barberry, mahonia, or mahoberberis plants being held by nurserymen under agreement with the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine pending determination by that Bureau that such plants are rust-resistant."

The purpose of the proposed amendment of § 301.38–1 (b) is to require that barberry, mahonia, and mahoberberis plants moved in accordance with regulations in this subpart shall be grown on their own roots. The proposed amendment of § 301.38–6 (a) (1) would allow the conditional movement of such plants of less than two seasons' growth between approved nurserymen either within or without the eradication States. It is proposed to amend § 301.38–6 (b) (1) to allow an approved nurseryman within an eradication State to obtain mahonia seeds from another approved nurseryman outside such States under prescribed safeguards. Section 301.38–7 (a), if amended as proposed, would allow a nurseryman to retain a certificate of inspection while having on the premises varieties of barberry, mahonia, or mahoberberis plants being held under agreement pending determination that they are rust-resistant.

A minor amendment in § 301.38 is proposed to rephrase the stated policy of the quarantine. This would recognize that approved nurserymen may maintain plants on their property under observation to determine their trueness to rust-resistant characteristics.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments in connection with this matter should file the same with the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Agricultural Research Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., within 20 days after the date of the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 25th day of May 1951.

[7 CFR, Part 928]

[Docket No. AO–227 RO1]

HANDLING OF MILK IN NEOSHO VALLEY (KANSAS-MISSOURI), MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF REOPENING OF HEARING ON PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND PROPOSED ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the reopening of the hearing held in Chanute, Kansas, November 13–17, 1950, on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order regulating the handling of milk in the Neosho Valley (Kansas-Missouri) marketing area.

The purpose of the reopened hearing is to afford interested parties opportunity to introduce additional evidence with respect to the proposed marketing agreement and order, and more particularly with respect to the findings and conclusions contained in the recommended decision of the Acting Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, issued March 28, 1951 (16 F. R. 2841), and to receive evidence concerning additional proposals with respect to the extent of the marketing area and the level of prices received in connection with the exceptions filed to such recommended decision. Neither the proposals set forth below nor the recommended findings and conclusions have been approved by the Secretary of Agriculture.

The reopened hearing will convene in the Community Room, Memorial Building, 101 South Lincoln Street, Chanute, Kansas, June 12, 1951, beginning at 10:00 a. m., c. s. t.

The additional proposals are as follows:

Proposed by Banner Dairy Products, Fort Scott, Kansas; Batten's Dairy, Fort Scott, Kansas; Beatrice Food Company, Parsons, Kansas; Camfield Jersey Farm, Neoscho, Missouri; Community Dairy Products Company, Joplin, Missouri; Fees Paramount Dairy, Parsons, Kansas; Gateway Creamery Company, Joplin, Missouri; Hildebrandt's Dairy, Pittsburg, Kansas; Neosho Milk Company, Neosho, Missouri; Neosho Valley Co-op Creamery Association, Erie, Kansas; Oldham's Dairy, Pittsburg, Kansas; Page Milk Company, Coffeyville, Kansas; Pittsburg Ice Cream Company, Pittsburg, Kansas; Premium Dairy Food, Inc., Independence, Kansas; Puritan Dairy Company, Pittsburg, Kansas; and Willson's Dairy, Parsons, Kansas.

1. Delete § 928.6 of the order included in the recommended decision and substitute therefor the following:

§ 928.6 Neosho Valley marketing area. "Neosho Valley marketing area," hereinafter called the "marketing area," means all of the territory within the counties of Woodson, Montgomery, Allen, Neosho, Labette, Bourbon, Crawford and Cherokee, all in the State of Kansas.

2. In the event that any territory within the State of Missouri is included, the marketing area should include in addition to the area specified in Proposal No. 1, all of the territory within the counties of Jasper, Newton, MacDonald, Barton and Vernon, all in the State of Missouri.

Copies of this notice of hearing may be procured from the Director, Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: May 28, 1951, Washington, D. C.

Termination of Approval No. 162.018/9/0, Rego excess flow check valves, liquefied petroleum gas service, marked "Rego No. 2139", plug check poppet, spring loaded, bronze body, threaded connection, dwg. No. 2139 and Catalog No. L–500 Section LG, approved for 3" pipe size, for maximum working pressure of 150 p. s. i. with liquefied butane or propane, manufactured by the Bastian-Blessing Co., 4201 West Petersen Avenue, Chicago, Ill. (Approval published in FEDERAL REGISTER July 31, 1947.)

(R. S. 4405, 4417a, 4491, and sec. 5 (e), 55 Stat. 244, as amended; 46 U. S. C. 375, 391a, 489, 50 U. S. C. 1275; 46 CFR Part 38)

CONDITIONS OF TERMINATION OF APPROVALS

The termination of approval for safety valves and pressure vacuum relief valves for tank vessels made by this document shall be made effective upon the thirty-first day after the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Notwithstanding this termination of approval on any item of equipment, such equipment manufactured before the effective date of termination of approval may be used on merchant vessels so long as it is in good and serviceable condition.

The termination of approvals for angle and check valves originally approved and listed under "Valves, Safety Relief, Liquefied Compressed Gas," is made because it is no longer required that formal approvals for angle and check valves shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as a prerequisite for the use of such equipment on merchant vessels. The termination of approvals for angle and check valves, therefore, shall in no way affect the use of such equipment. The equipment manufactured while these approvals were in effect or which may hereafter be manufactured may be used on merchant vessels so long as such equipment is in good and serviceable condition.

Dated: May 25, 1951.

[SEAL] MERLIN O'NEILL,
Vice Admiral, U. S. Coast Guard, Commandant.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

TOWN SITE OF WHITEPINE, COLORADO

SALE OF TOWN LOTS

MAY 21, 1951.

1. Statutory authority. The lots in the town site of Whitepine, Colorado, will be disposed of under section 2382 to 2386, inclusive, of the Revised Statutes (43 U. S. C. 713–717). The Regional Administrator is authorized to conduct the sale under § 2.78 of Order No. 427 of the Director of the Bureau of Land Management dated August 16, 1950 (15 F. R. 5639). The town site plat of Whitepine was accepted December 10, 1920.

2. Lots, areas, and minimum prices. As shown on the town site plat, copies of which may be obtained from the Manager, Land and Survey Office, Bureau of Land Management, Denver, Colorado, the town site is divided into 5 blocks, only 2 of which have been subdivided into lots. The areas unfit for subdividing into lots will be offered for sale at an appraised and minimum price of $20.00 an acre or fraction thereof. The lots offered for sale number 97. As indicated on the town site plat, 77 lots have an area of 6250 square feet each; the minimum and appraised price of each of these lots is $63.00. The area of the odd-sized lots, together with the minimum and appraised price of each, is, as follows:

Lot No.	Area in square feet	Minimum and appraised price
Lot 27, Block 1	6884.4	$69.00
Lot 40, Block 1	6050.5	61.00
Lot 41, Block 1	5932.5	61.00
Lot 42, Block 1	3927.5	40.00
Lot 43, Block 1	5148.5	52.00
Lot 8, Block 2	6028.0	61.00
Lot 9, Block 2	5488.8	55.00
Lot 10, Block 2	6222.5	63.00
Lot 28, Block 2	7079.7	71.00
Lot 29, Block 2	5695.0	57.00
Lot 30, Block 2	5695.0	57.00
Lot 31, Block 2	5695.0	57.00
Lot 32, Block 2	5695.0	57.00
Lot 33, Block 2	5695.0	57.00
Lot 37, Block 2	6587.5	64.00
Lot 41, Block 2	7500.0	75.00
Lot 45, Block 2	6200.0	65.00
Lot 46, Block 2	6500.0	65.00
Lot 54, Block 2	5726.5	58.00

3. Public sale. The unreserved lots for which no preemption proof has been made as hereinafter provided, will be offered for sale by the Regional Administrator or his representative at public outcry to the highest bidder at the Post Office in Gunnison, Colorado, on August 13, 1951, beginning at 10:00 a. m. The sale will be continued from day to day as long as may be necessary until all the lots have been offered.

4. Payment. No lot will be sold for less than the appraised price. Full payment must be made in cash for those lots sold for not more than $50.00. Payment must be made on date of sale. The lots which are sold for more than $50.00 and not more than $100.00 may be paid for in cash on the date of sale, or in two equal installments, the first installment to be paid on the date of sale, and the second installment within one year from the date of sale, with interest at the rate of four percent per annum to the date of payment.

Those lots which are sold for more than $100.00 may be paid for in cash on the date of sale, or one-third of the purchase price may be paid in cash at that time and the balance in not to exceed two equal annual installments, with interest at the rate of four percent per annum to the date of payment.

Payment on the date of sale must be made to the officer conducting the sale. The deferred installments, with interest, must be paid to the Manager, Land and Survey Office, Bureau of Land Management, Denver, Colorado.

5. Citizenship requirements. Every individual purchasing a lot will be required to furnish evidence that he is a citizen of the United States or that he has declared his intention to become a citizen, and every corporation purchasing a lot will be required to furnish evidence, including a certified copy of its articles of incorporation, showing that it was organized under the laws of the United States or of some State, Territory, or possession thereof, and that it is authorized to acquire and hold real estate in the State of Colorado.

6. Manner of sale. Bids and payments may be made in person or by agent, but may not be made by mail nor at any time or place other than that fixed by these regulations. Any person may purchase any number of lots for which he is the successful bidder.

7. Authority of officer conducting the sale. The officer conducting the sale is hereby authorized to reject any and all bids for any lot, and to suspend, adjourn, or postpone the sale of any lot or lots. After all the lots have been offered, the sale will be adjourned or closed, as the officer in charge may deem proper.

8. Preemption claims. Any person who has established settlement on any lot prior to the effective date of this Order, and has made substantial improvements on the lot, and has maintained such settlement, with the improvements, to the date of proof, is entitled to make a preemption entry at the minimum price for such lot and one other lot on which he has made substantial and permanent improvements. A preemption claim is not necessarily forfeited by the settler transferring his interest to another subsequent to the submission of the proof, but patent, if issued, will be in the name of the settler and not of the transferee.

The notice of intention to make preemption proof must be made on Form 4–348, and should give the date of settlement and the value and character of the improvements. Claimants must file their notices of intention by June 18, 1951, in order that publication may be made and proof submitted prior to the date of the public sale.

On the filing by the applicant of the notice of intention to make proof, notice for publication will be issued by the Manager, which the applicant must have published at his own expense in the "News-Champion," a weekly newspaper, published at Gunnison, Colorado, in five consecutive issues, prior to the date set for proof. Proof consisting of the affidavit of the applicant and of at least two of the advertised witnesses may be made before the Manager, Land and Survey Office, Denver, or before any other officer authorized to take proofs under the homestead laws, and must show the claimant's age, citizenship, and his actual residence and substantial improvements upon one lot, and substantial improvements on a second lot where two lots are included in the application. Proof of publication must be shown by a statement of the publisher. The purchase price of the lot or lots must be paid to the Manager. Where the amount exceeds $50.00 the payment may be made in annual installments as provided in paragraph 4.

9. Removal of improvements. Owners of improvements who do not purchase the lots on which the improvements are located will be allowed six months from the date of the sale within which to remove their improvements.

10. Disposal of lots after sale has been closed. Lots remaining unsold at the close of the sale will be subject to private entry for cash at their appraised price, and may be purchased from the Manager, Land and Survey Office, Bureau of Land Management, Denver, Colorado.

11. Reservations. Patents for the lots, when issued, will contain a reservation of fissionable source materials and conditions and limitations as proved by the act of August 1, 1946 (60 Stat. 755), and a reservation of right-of-way for ditches and canals in accordance with the act of August 30, 1890 (26 Stat. 391).

12. Warning. All persons are warned against forming any combination or agreement which will prevent any lot from selling advantageously or which will, in any way, hinder or embarrass the sale. Any persons so offending will be prosecuted under 18 U. S. C. 1860.

H. Byron Mock,
Regional Administrator.

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLAT OF SURVEY

MAY 24, 1951.

Notice is given that the plant of extension survey of the following described lands, accepted November 1, 1949, will be officially filed in the Land and Survey Office, Phoenix, Arizona, effective at 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this notice:

G. & S. R. MERIDIAN

T. 3 N., R. 7 E.,
Sec. 33, Lots 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, NE¼, N½SE¼;
Secs. 34, 35.

The area described aggregates 1,647.44 acres.

All of the lands described are within the exterior boundaries of the Tonto National Forest pursuant to proclamations of January 13, 1908, February 10, 1909 and Executive order of July 1, 1908. The lands were also withdrawn on February 19, 1917, and included in Water Power Designation No. 8.

Anyone having a valid settlement or right to any of these lands initiated prior to the date of the withdrawal of the lands should assert the same within three months from the date on which the plat is officially filed by filing an application under appropriate public-land law setting forth all facts relevant thereto.

All inquiries relating to these lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land and Survey Office, Phoenix, Arizona.

William Zimmerman, Jr.,
Associate Director.

Office of the Secretary

ALASKA

WITHDRAWING PUBLIC LAND FOR THE USE OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY FOR MILITARY PURPOSES [1]

For a period of 60 days from the date of publication of the above entitled order, persons having cause to object to the terms thereof may present their objections to the Secretary of the Interior. Such objections should be in writing, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, and should be filed in duplicate in the Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C. In case any objection is filed and the nature of the opposition is such as to warrant it, a public hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced, where opponents to the order may state their views and where the proponents of the order can explain its purpose, intent, and extent. Should any objection be filed, whether or not a hearing is held, notice of the determination by the Secretary as to whether the order should be rescinded, modified or let stand will be given to all interested parties of record and the general public.

Dale E. Doty,
Acting Secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR

Wage and Hour Division

LUMBER AND BUILDING MATERIALS DEALERS

NOTICE OF HEARING RELATING TO APPLICATION OF EXEMPTIONS

The Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (52 Stat. 1060), as amended by the Fair Labor Standards Amendments of 1949 (63 Stat. 910), provides in section 13 (a) (2) that the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the act shall not apply with respect to "any employee employed by any retail or service establishment more than 50 per centum of which establishment's annual dollar volume of sales of goods or services is made within the State in which the establishment is located. A 'retail or service establishment' shall mean an establishment 75 per centum of whose annual dollar volume of sales of goods or services (or of both) is not for resale and is recognized as retail sales or services in the particular industry."

Section 13 (a) (4) of the act, as amended, provides that the minimum wage and overtime provisions of the act shall not apply with respect to "any employee employed by an establishment which qualifies as an exempt retail establishment under clause (2) of this subsection and is recognized as a retail establishment in the particular industry notwithstanding that such establishment makes or processes at the retail establishment the goods that it sells: Provided, That more than 85 per centum of such establishment's annual dollar volume of sales of goods so made or processed is made within the State in which the establishment is located."

Section 3 (n) of the act, as amended, provides that "'resale' shall not include the sale of goods to be used in residential or farm building construction, repair, or maintenance: Provided, That the sale is recognized as a bona fide retail sale in the industry."

Interpretative bulletin, Part 779, which sets forth the Administrator's interpretations of the scope and the terms of the exemptions provided by sections 13 (a) (2) and 13 (a) (4) of the act, lists the general principles under which a determination can be made as to what sales or services are recognized as retail in a particular industry and what establishments are recognized as retail establishments in a particular industry. The bulletin lists lumber yards as one of the types of establishments whose sales or services may be recognized as retail but does not deal specifically with the character of particular sales of such establishments or with the specific question of what establishments, if any, in the lumber and building materials industry, which are engaged in making or processing goods for sale, are recognized as retail establishments in the industry.

The Administrator has been requested by various establishments and by associations of such establishments to state his views as to which sales are recognized as retail sales in the industry and as to what types of establishments, if any, in the lumber and building materials industry, making or processing goods for sale, are recognized as retail establishments in the industry.

In accordance with such requests, the Administrator undertook a study of the facts relating to establishments in the lumber and building materials trade. Questionnaires were sent to various associations and labor organizations and a survey was made of readily available data. The information thus obtained was, however, deemed insufficient to permit a proper determination as to all the questions involved. Consequently in order to obtain additional information on these questions and in order to provide interested parties an opportunity to present their views, notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held before an authorized representative of the Administrator, beginning on Wednesday, June 27, 1951, at 10:00 a. m. in Room 2325, Department of Labor Building, Fourteenth and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., at which interested persons may present facts and information bearing on the following questions:

1. What types of sales of establishments selling lumber and building materials are recognized as retail sales in the particular industry.

2. Which, if any, lumber and building materials dealers' establishments which make or process building materials or lumber for sale are recognized as retail establishments in the particular industry.

Among the types of information pertaining to these questions, which would be particularly desirable are data on various pricing practices and quantities of sales; credit practices, methods of selling, and types of services rendered; the types of customers to whom goods are sold, and the percentages of the total volume of business of an establishment represented by the various types of sales which it makes; and on the types of manufacturing and processing operations engaged in by dealers in lumber and building materials.

Copies of the Division's report entitled "Data Pertaining to the Application of sections 13 (a) (2) and 13 (a) (4) of the Fair Labor Standards Act to the Lumber and Building Materials Trade" may be obtained on request from the Administrator at the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, Washington 25, D. C., as long as the supply lasts.

All persons desiring to be heard at the aforesaid public hearing should notify the Administrator, Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, Washington 25, D. C., not later than June 22, 1951, which notification should contain the following information:

1. Name and address of the person who will appear.

2. If such person will appear in a representative capacity, the name and address of the persons or organizations and type of establishment or establishments he will represent.

3. The particular aspect of the subject matter concerning which he intends to make a presentation at the hearing.

4. The approximate length of time requested for his presentation.

Written statements may be filed in lieu of personal appearances at any time before the date of the hearing.

Signed at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of May 1951.

F. Granville Grimes, Jr.,
Acting Administrator, Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 7, Section 43, Special Order 45]

J. WISS AND SONS CO.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL

Statement of considerations. In accordance with section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, the applicant named in the accompanying special order, J. Wiss and Sons Company, 11-45 Littleton Avenue, Newark 7, N. J., has applied to the Office of Price Stabilization for maximum resale prices for retail sales of certain of its articles. Applicant has submitted the information required under this section and has produced evidence which in the judgment of the Director indicates that the applicant has complied with other stated requirements.

The Director has determined on the basis of information available to him, including the data and certified conclusions of fact submitted by the applicant, that the retail ceiling prices requested and which are established by this special order are no higher than the level of ceiling prices under Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

The special order contains provisions requiring each article to be marked by the applicant with the retail ceiling price established by the accompanying special order. The applicant is required to send purchasers of the articles a copy of this special order, a notice listing retail ceiling prices for each cost line and, in specified cases, of subsequent amendments of this special order.

The special order also requires applicant to file with the Distribution Price Branch regular reports setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which applicant has delivered during the reporting period. This requirement conforms with the provisions of section 43, Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and pursuant to section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, this special order is hereby issued.

1. The ceiling prices for sales after the effective date of this special order by any seller at retail of shears, scissors, snips, pinking shears, pruning shears and clippers, manufactured by J. Wiss and Sons Company, having the brand name(s) "Wiss", shall be the proposed retail ceiling prices listed by J. Wiss and Sons Company in its application dated April 11, 1951, and filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

2. The retail ceiling price of an article fixed in paragraph 1 of this special order shall apply to any other article of the same type which is otherwise priceable under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 by retailers subject to that regulation, having the same selling price and terms of sale to the retailer, the same brand or company name and first sold by the manufacturer after the effective date of this special order.

3. On and after July 2, 1951, J. Wiss and Sons Company, must mark each article for which a ceiling price has been established in paragraph 1 of this special order with the retail ceiling price under this special order, or attach to the article a label, tag or ticket stating the retail ceiling price. This mark or statement must be in the following form:

OPS—Sec. 43—CPR 7
Price $_____

On and after July 31, 1951, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is marked or tagged in the form stated above. Prior to July 31, 1951, unless the article is marked or tagged in this form, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

Upon issuance of any amendment to this special order which either adds an article to those already listed in the manufacturer's application or changes the retail ceiling price of a listed article, J. Wiss and Sons Company, must comply, as to each such article, with the preticketing requirements of this paragraph within 30 days after the effective date of the amendment. After 60 days from the effective date, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is ticketed in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph. Prior to the expiration of the 60-day period, unless the article is so ticketed, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

4. Within 15 days after the effective date of this special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of this special order to each purchaser for resale to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date, the manufacturer had delivered any article covered in paragraph 1 of this special order. The manufacturer shall annex to that order a notice, listing the cost and discount terms to retailers for each article covered by this order and the corresponding retail ceiling price fixed by this order for an article of that cost. The notice shall be in substantially the following form:

(Column 1)	(Column 2)
Our price to retailers	Retailer's ceilings for articles of cost listed in column 1
$..... per .....{unit, dozen, etc.}
Terms ..... (net or percent EOM, etc.) $.....;

Copies shall be sent to all other purchasers on or before the date of the first delivery of any such article subsequent to the effective date of the special order, and shall be accompanied by copies of each amendment thereto (if any) issued prior to the date of the delivery. Within 15 days after the effective date of any subsequent amendment to the special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of the amendment to each purchaser to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment, the seller had delivered any article the sale of which is affected in any manner by the amendment.

5. Within 45 days of the expiration of the first 6 months' period following the effective date of this special order and within 45 days of the expiration of each successive 6 months' period, the manufacturer shall file with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which he has delivered in that 6 months' period.

6. The provisions of this special order establish the ceiling price for sales at retail of the articles covered by it regardless of whether the seller is otherwise subject to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or any other regulation.

7. This special order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

8. The provisions of this special order are applicable to the United States and the District of Columbia.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective May 31, 1951.

EDWARD F. PHELPS, JR.,
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 7, Section 43, Special Order 46]

L'AIGLON APPAREL, INC.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL

Statement of considerations. In accordance with section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, the applicant named in the accompanying special order, L'Aiglon Apparel, Inc., 15th and Mt. Vernon Streets, Philadelphia, Pa., has applied to the Office of Price Stabilization for maximum resale prices for retail sales of certain of its articles. Applicant has submitted the information required under this section and has produced evidence which in the judgment of the Director indicates that the applicant has complied with other stated requirements.

The Director has determined on the basis of information available to him, including the data and certified conclusions of fact submitted by the applicant, that the retail ceiling prices requested and which are established by this special order are no higher than the level of ceiling prices under Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

The special order contains provisions requiring each article to be marked by the applicant with the retail ceiling price established by the accompanying special order. The applicant is required to send purchasers of the articles a copy of this special order, a notice listing retail ceiling prices for each cost line and, in specified cases, of subsequent amendments of this special order.

The special order also requires applicant to file with the Distribution Price Branch regular reports setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which applicant has delivered during the reporting period. This requirement conforms with the provisions of section 43, Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and pursuant to section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, this special order is hereby issued.

1. The ceiling prices for sales after the effective date of this special order by any seller at retail of women's and misses' daytime dresses manufactured by L'Aiglon Apparel, Inc., having the brand name(s) "L'Aiglon", shall be the proposed retail ceiling prices listed by L'Aiglon Apparel, Inc., in its application dated April 6, 1951, and filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

2. The retail ceiling price of an article fixed in paragraph 1 of this special order shall apply to any other article of the same type which is otherwise priceable under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 by retailers subject to that regulation, having the same selling price and terms of sale to the retailer, the same brand or company name and first sold by the manufacturer after the effective date of this special order.

3. On and after July 2, 1951, L'Aiglon Apparel, Inc., must mark each article for which a ceiling price has been established in paragraph 1 of this special order with the retail ceiling price under this special order, or attach to the article a label, tag or ticket stating the retail ceiling price. This mark or statement must be in the following form:

Price $------

On and after July 31, 1951, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is marked or tagged in the form stated above. Prior to July 31, 1951, unless the article is marked or tagged in this form, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

Upon issuance of any amendment to this special order which either adds an article to those already listed in the manufacturer's application or changes the retail ceiling price of a listed article, L'Aiglon Apparel, Inc., must comply, as to each such article, with the preticketing requirements of this paragraph within 30 days after the effective date of the amendment. After 60 days from the effective date, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is ticketed in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph. Prior to the expiration of the 60-day period, unless the article is so ticketed, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

4. Within 15 days after the effective date of this special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of this special order to each purchaser for resale to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date, the manufacturer had delivered any article covered in paragraph 1 of this special order. The manufacturer shall annex to that order a notice, listing the cost and discount terms to retailers for each article covered by this order and the corresponding retail ceiling price fixed by this order for an article of that cost. The notice shall be in substantially the following form:

Our price to retailers	Retailer's ceilings for articles of cost listed in column 1
$..... per .....{unit, dozen, etc.}
Terms ..... (net or percent EOM, etc.) $.....

Copies shall be sent to all other purchasers on or before the date of the first delivery of any such article subsequent to the effective date of the special order, and shall be accompanied by copies of each amendment thereto (if any) issued prior to the date of the delivery. Within 15 days after the effective date of any subsequent amendment to the special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of the amendment to each purchaser to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment, the seller had delivered any article the sale of which is affected in any manner by the amendment.

5. Within 45 days of the expiration of the first 6 months period following the effective date of this special order and within 45 days of the expiration of each successive 6 months period, the manufacturer shall file with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which he has delivered in that 6 months period.

6. The provisions of this special order establish the ceiling price for sales at retail of the articles covered by it regardless of whether the seller is otherwise subject to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or any other regulation.

7. This special order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

8. The provisions of this special order are applicable to the United States and the District of Columbia.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective May 31, 1951.

[Docket Nos. G-1632, G-1656]

SOUTHERN NATURAL GAS CO. AND TEXAS GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

MAY 24, 1951.

In the matters of Southern Natural Gas Company, Docket No. G-1632; and Texas Gas Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G-1656.

On March 9, 1951 and April 6, 1951, respectively, Southern Natural Gas Company (Southern Natural) and Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas) at Docket Nos. G-1632 and G-1656 filed applications for certificates of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural-gas pipeline facilities to sell and deliver natural gas to Mississippi Power & Light Company for service to Deer Creek Natural Gas District, Mississippi, all as more fully described in such applications on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Both Applicants have requested that their applications be heard under the shortened procedure provided for by § 1.32 (b) (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure; and no request to be heard or protest has been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the applications, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of notice of application at Docket No. G-1632 on March 29, 1951 (16 F. R. 2769) and notice of application at Docket No. G-1656 on May 8, 1951 (16 F. R. 4262).

Deer Creek Natural Gas District has petitioned to intervene in these proceedings in support of both applications, and has joined in the request of both Applicants that these applications be disposed of under said § 1.32 (b).

The Commission finds:

(1) Orderly procedure requires that the proceedings at Docket Nos. G-1632 and G-1656 be consolidated for purpose of hearing.

(2) These proceedings are proper ones for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

The Commission orders:

(A) The proceedings at Docket Nos. G-1632 and G-1656 be and the same hereby are consolidated for purpose of hearing.

(B) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a public hearing be held on June 8, 1951, at 9:30 a. m. e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by the applications filed in these consolidated proceedings: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

By the Commission, Division 2.

GENERAL

§ 723.230 Basis and purpose. Sections 723.230 to 723.260 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and govern the issuance of marketing cards, the identification of tobacco, the collection and refund of penalties, and the records and reports incident thereto on the marketing of cigar-filler and binder tobacco during the 1951-52 marketing year. Prior to preparing §§ 723.230 to 723.260, public notice (16 F. R. 1679) of their formulation was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237). The data, views, and recommendations pertaining to §§ 723.230 to 723.260 which were submitted have been duly considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

§ 723.231 Definitions. As used in §§ 723.230 to 723.260, and in all instructions, forms, and documents in connection therewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings herein assigned to them unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) Act. "Act" means the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

(b) Buyer. "Buyer" means a person who engages to any extent in the business of acquiring tobacco from producers without regard to whether such person is registered as a dealer with the Bureau of Internal Revenue. In the case of a person who employs person(s) to negotiate contracts with producers to purchase their tobacco, such person rather than such employed person(s) is the buyer of such tobacco.

(c) Carry-over. "Carry-over" tobacco means, with respect to a farm, tobacco produced prior to the beginning of the calendar year 1951 which has not been marketed or which has not been disposed of under § 723.243. (For 1951–52, there will not have been any tobacco disposed of under § 723.243 since there is no tobacco subject to penalty to carry over into the 1951–52 marketing year.)

(d) County committee. "County committee" means the group of persons elected within a county as the county committee of the Production and Marketing Administration to assist in administering the Production and Marketing Administration programs within the county.

(e) Community committee. "Community committee" means the group of persons elected within a community as the community committee of the Production and Marketing Administration to assist in administering the Production and Marketing Administration programs within the community.

(f) Director. "Director" means Director or Acting Director, Tobacco Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture.

(g) Farm. "Farm" means all adjacent or nearby farm land under the same ownership which is operated by one person including also:

(1) Any other adjacent or nearby farm land which the county committee, in accordance with instructions issued by the Assistant Administrator for Production, Production and Marketing Administration, determines is operated by the same person as part of the same unit with respect to the rotation of crops and with workstock, farm machinery, and labor substantially separate from that for any other lands; and

(2) Any field-rented tract (whether operated by the same or another person) which, together with any other land included in the farm, constitutes a unit with respect to the rotation of crops.

A farm shall be regarded as located in the county in which the principal dwelling is situated, or if there is no dwelling thereon it shall be regarded as located in the county in which the major portion of the farm is located.

(h) Market. "Market" means the disposition in raw or processed form of tobacco by voluntary or involuntary sale, barter, or exchange, or by gift inter vivos. "Marketing" and "marketed" shall have corresponding meanings to the term "market."

(i) Operator. "Operator" means the person who is in charge of the supervision and conduct of the farming operations on the entire farm.

(j) Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, association, corporation, estate or trust, or other business enterprise or other legal entity, and wherever applicable, a State, a political subdivision of a State or any agency thereof.

(k) Producer. "Producer" means a person who as owner, landlord, tenant, share cropper, or laborer is entitled to share in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm or in the proceeds thereof.

(k) Pound. "Pound" means that amount of tobacco which, if weighed in its unstemmed form and in the condition in which it is usually marketed by producers, would equal one pound standard weight.

(l) Sale. "Sale" means the first marketing of farm tobacco on which the gross amount of the sales price therefor has been or could be readily determined.

(m) Sale date. "Sale date" means the date on which the gross amount of the sales price of the first marketing of farm tobacco has been or could be readily determined.

(n) Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary or Acting Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

(o) State committee. "State committee" means the group of persons designated as the State committee of the Production and Marketing Administration charged with the responsibility of administering Production and Marketing Administration programs within the State.

(p) Tobacco. "Tobacco" means (1) type 42 tobacco—that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Gebhardt, Ohio Seedleaf, or Ohio Broadleaf, produced principally in the Miami Valley section of Ohio and extending into Indiana; (2) type 43 tobacco—that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Zimmer, Spanish, or Zimmer Spanish, produced principally in the Miami Valley section of Ohio and extending into Indiana; (3) type 44 tobacco—that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Dutch, Shoestring Dutch, or Little Dutch, produced principally in the Miami Valley section of Ohio; (4) type 51 tobacco—that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Connecticut Valley Broadleaf or Connecticut Broadleaf, produced primarily in the Valley area of Connecticut; (5) type 52 tobacco—that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Connecticut Valley Havana Seed, or Havana Seed of Connecticut and Massachusetts, produced primarily in the Connecticut Valley area of Massachusetts and Connecticut; (6) type 53 tobacco—that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as York State Tobacco, or Havana Seed of New York and Pennsylvania, produced principally in the Big Flats section of New York, extending into Pennsylvania and in the Onondaga section of New York State; (7) type 54 tobacco—that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as southern Wisconsin cigar-leaf or southern Wisconsin binder type, produced principally south and east of the Wisconsin river; and (8) type 55 tobacco—that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Northern Wisconsin cigar-leaf or Northern Wisconsin binder type, produced principally north and west of the Wisconsin river, as classified in Service and Regulatory Announcement No. 118 (7 CFR Part 30) of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture. Tobacco which has the same characteristics and corresponding qualities, colors, and lengths shall be treated as one type, regardless of any factors of historical or geographical nature which cannot be determined by an examination of the tobacco. The term "tobacco" shall include all leaves harvested, including trash.

(q) Tobacco available for marketing. "Tobacco available for marketing" means all tobacco produced on the farm in the calendar year 1951 plus any carry-over tobacco, less any tobacco disposed of in accordance with § 723.243.

(r) Tobacco subject to marketing quotas. "Tobacco subject to marketing quotas" means any tobacco of types 42–44 and 51–55, inclusive, marketed during the period October 1, 1951, to September 30, 1952, inclusive, and any tobacco of 42–44 and 51–55 types, inclusive, produced in the calendar year 1951 and marketed prior to October 1, 1951.

(s) Trucker. "Trucker" means a person who engages to any extent in the business of trucking tobacco to market for producers regardless of whether the tobacco is acquired from producers by the trucker.

§ 723.232 Instructions and forms. The Director shall cause to be prepared and issued such forms as are necessary, and shall cause to be prepared such instructions as are necessary, for carrying out these regulations. The forms and instructions shall be approved by, and the instructions shall be issued by, the Assistant Administrator for Production, Production and Marketing Administration.

§ 723.233 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions. (a) The acreage of tobacco harvested on a farm in 1951 shall be expressed in tenths and fractions of less than one-tenth acre shall be dropped. For example, 4.56 acres would be 4.5 acres.

(b) The percentage of excess tobacco available for marketing from a farm, hereinafter referred to as the "percent excess," shall be expressed in tenths and fractions of less than one-tenth shall be dropped. For example, 12.59 percent would be 12.5 percent.

(c) The amount of penalty per pound upon marketings of tobacco subject to penalty, hereinafter referred to as the "converted rate of penalty," shall be expressed in tenths of a cent and fractions of less than a tenth shall be dropped, except that if the resulting converted rate of penalty is less than a tenth of a cent, it shall be expressed in hundreds and fractions of less than a hundredth shall be dropped. For example, 3.68 cents per pound would be 3.6 cents, and 0.068 cents per pound would be 0.06 cents.

FARM MARKETING QUOTAS AND MARKETING CARDS

§ 723.234 Amount of farm marketing quota. (a) The marketing quota for a farm shall be the actual production of tobacco on the farm acreage allotment, as established for the farm in accordance with 1023 (Cigar Leaf–51)–3, Marketing Quota Regulations (15 F. R. 7203). The actual production of the farm acreage allotment shall be the average yield per acre of the entire acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1951 times the farm acreage allotment.

(b) The excess tobacco on any farm shall be (1) that quantity of tobacco which is equal to the average yield per acre of the entire acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1951 times the number of acres harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment, plus (2) any excess carry-over tobacco (for 1951–52 there will be no excess tobacco to carry over into the 1951–52 marketing year). The acreage of tobacco determined for a farm for the purpose of issuing the correct marketing card for the farm, as provided in § 723.236, shall be considered the harvested acreage for the farm unless the farm operator furnishes proof satisfactory to the county committee that a portion of the acreage planted will not be harvested or that a representative portion of the production of the acreage harvested will be disposed of other than by marketing.

§ 723.235 No transfers. There shall be no transfer of farm marketing quotas.

§ 723.236 Issuance of marketing cards. A marketing card shall be issued for each farm having tobacco available for marketing. Subject to the approval of the county committee, two or more marketing cards may be issued for any farm. All entries on each marketing card shall be made in accordance with the instructions for issuing marketing cards. Upon the return to the office of the county committee of the marketing card after all memoranda of sale have been issued therefrom and before the marketing of tobacco from the farm has been completed, a new marketing card of the same kind, bearing the same name, information, and identification as the used card shall be issued for the farm. A new marketing card of the same kind shall be issued to replace a card which has been determined by the county committee to have been lost, destroyed, or stolen.

(a) Within Quota Marketing Card (MQ–76–Tobacco). A within quota marketing card authorizing the marketing without penalty of the tobacco available for marketing shall be issued for a farm under the following conditions:

(1) If the harvested acreage of tobacco in 1951 is not in excess of the farm acreage allotment and any excess carry-over tobacco from any marketing year can be marketed without penalty under the provisions of § 723.242 (b). (For 1951–52 there will be no excess tobacco to carry over into the 1951–52 marketing year),

(2) If all excess tobacco produced on the farm is disposed of in accordance with § 723.243 (b), or

(3) If the tobacco was grown for experimental purposes on land owned or leased by a publicly-owned agricultural experiment station and is produced at public expense by employees of the experiment station, or if the tobacco was produced by farmers pursuant to an agreement with a publicly-owned experiment station whereby the experiment station bears the costs and risks incident to the production of the tobacco and the proceeds from the crop inure to the benefit of the experiment station: Provided, That such agreement is approved by the State committee prior to the issuance of a marketing card for the farm.

(b) Excess Marketing Card (MQ–77–Tobacco). An excess marketing card showing the extent to which marketings of tobacco from a farm are subject to penalty shall be issued unless a within quota card is required to be issued for the farm under paragraph (a) of this section, except that if the farm operator fails to disclose, or otherwise furnish, or prevents the county committee from obtaining, any information necessary to the issuance of the correct marketing card, an excess marketing card shall be issued showing that all tobacco from the farm is subject to the rate of penalty set forth in § 723.245.

§ 723.237 Person authorized to issue cards. The county committee shall designate one person to sign marketing cards for farms in the county as issuing officer. The issuing officer may, subject to the approval of the county committee, designate not more than three persons to sign his name in issuing marketing cards: Provided, That each such person shall place his initials immediately beneath the name of the issuing officer as written by him on the card.

§ 723.238 Rights of producers in marketing cards. Each producer having a share in the tobacco available for marketing from a farm shall be entitled to the use of the marketing card for marketing his proportionate share.

§ 723.239 Successors in interest. Any person who succeeds in whole or in part to the share of a producer in the tobacco available for marketing from a farm shall, to the extent of such succession, have the same rights as the producer to the use of the marketing card for the farm.

§ 723.240 Invalid cards. A marketing card shall be invalid if:

(a) It is not issued or delivered in the form and manner prescribed;

(b) Entries are omitted or incorrect;

(c) It is lost, destroyed, stolen, or becomes illegible; or

(d) Any erasure or alteration has been made and not properly initialed.

In the event any marketing card becomes invalid (other than by loss, destruction, or theft, or by omission, alteration or incorrect entry which has been corrected by the county committee or its representative) the farm operator, or the person having the card in his possession, shall return it to the office of the county committee at which it was issued.

If an entry is not made on a marketing card as required, either through omission or incorrect entry, and the proper entry is made and initialed by the county committee or its representative, then such card shall become valid.

§ 723.241 Report of misuse of marketing card. Any information which causes a member of a State, county, or community committee, or an employee of a State or county committee, to believe that any tobacco which actually was produced on one farm has been or is being marketed under the marketing card issued for another farm shall be reported immediately by such person to the county or State committee.

MARKETING OR OTHER DISPOSITION OF TOBACCO AND PENALTIES

§ 723.242 Extent to which marketings from a farm are subject to penalty. (a) Marketings of tobacco from a farm having no carry-over tobacco available for marketing shall be subject to penalty by the percent excess determined as follows: Divide the acreage of tobacco harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment and not disposed of under § 723.243 by the total acreage of tobacco harvested from the farm.

(b) Marketings of tobacco from a farm having carry-over tobacco available for marketing shall be subject to penalty by the percent excess determined as follows:

(1) Determine the number of "carry-over acres" by dividing the number of pounds of carry-over tobacco from the prior years by the normal yield for the farm for that year.

(2) Determine the number of "within-quota carry-over acres" by multiplying the "carry-over acres" (subparagraph (1) of this paragraph) by the "percent within quota" (i. e., 100 percent minus the percent excess) for the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced, except that if the excess portion of the carry-over tobacco has been disposed of under § 723.243, the "percent within quota" shall be 100. (For 1951–52, the "percent within quota" will be 100 since there is no penalty tobacco to carry over.)

(3) Determine the "total acres" of tobacco by adding the "carry-over acres" (subparagraph (1) of this paragraph) and the acreage of tobacco harvested in the current year.

(4) Determine the "excess acres" by subtracting from the "total acres" (subparagraph (3) of this paragraph) the sum of the 1951 allotment and the "within quota carry-over acres" (subparagraph (2) of this paragraph).

(5) Determine the percent excess by dividing the "total acres" into the "excess acres" (subparagraph (4) of this paragraph).

(6) Those persons having an interest in the carry-over tobacco for a farm shall be liable for the payment of any penalty due thereon.

(c) For the purpose of determining the penalty due on each marketing by a producer of tobacco subject to penalty, the converted rate of penalty per pound shall be determined by multiplying the applicable rate of penalty by the percent excess obtained under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section. The memorandum of sale issued to identify each such marketing shall show the amount of penalty due.

§ 723.243 Disposition of excess tobacco. The farm operator may elect to give satisfactory proof of disposition of excess tobacco prior to the marketing of any tobacco from the farm by either of the following methods:

(a) By storage of the excess tobacco in a place where it will be available for convenient physical inspection separately from any other tobacco by the county committee at any time, the tobacco so stored to be representative of the entire 1951 crop produced on the farm, and posting of a bond approved by the county committee and the State committee in the penal sum of twice the rate of penalty per pound set forth in § 723.245. Penalty at the applicable full rate of penalty per pound on marketings of excess tobacco shall become due upon the removal from storage of the excess tobacco (removal from storage will include moving such tobacco to a place where it cannot be conveniently physically inspected separately from any other tobacco at any time by the county committee), except that an amount of such tobacco in storage equal to the normal production of the acreage by which the 1952 harvested acreage plus any acreage added with respect to any excess carry-over tobacco for the farm pursuant to § 723.242 (b) is less than the 1952 allotment may be removed from storage and marketed penalty free.

(b) By furnishing to the county committee satisfactory proof that excess tobacco representative of the entire crop will not be marketed.

§ 723.244 Identification of marketings. Each marketing of tobacco from a farm shall be identified by an executed memorandum of sale from the 1951 marketing card (MQ–76–Tobacco or MQ–77–Tobacco) issued for the farm on which the tobacco was produced.

(a) Memorandum of sale. If a memorandum of sale is not issued by the buyer to identify a sale of producer's tobacco by the end of the sale date and recorded and reported on MQ–95, Buyer's Record, by the 10th day of the calendar month next following the month during which the sale date occurred, the marketing shall be identified on MQ–95, Buyer's Record, as a marketing of excess tobacco, and reported not later than the 10th day of the calendar month next following the month during which the sale date occurred.

Each excess memorandum of sale issued by a buyer shall be verified by the buyer to determine whether the amount of penalty shown to be due has been correctly computed and such buyer shall not be relieved of any liability with respect to the amount of penalty due because of any error which may occur in issuing the memorandum of sale.

§ 723.245 Rate of penalty. (a) The penalty per pound upon marketings of excess tobacco subject to marketing quotas shall be thirteen (13) cents per pound.

(b) With respect to tobacco marketed from farms having excess tobacco available for marketing the penalty shall be paid upon that percentage of each lot of tobacco marketed which the tobacco available for marketing in excess of the farm quota is of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm.

§ 723.246 Persons to pay penalty. The person to pay the penalty due on any marketing of tobacco subject to penalty shall be determined as follows:

(a) Sale. The penalty due on tobacco purchased directly from a producer, other than by a buyer outside the United States, shall be paid by the buyer of the tobacco who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(b) Marketings through an agent. The penalty due on marketings by a producer through an agent who is not a buyer shall be paid by the agent who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(c) Marketings outside the United States. The penalty due on marketings by a producer directly to any person outside the United States shall be paid by the producer.

§ 723.247 Marketings deemed to be excess tobacco. Any marketing of tobacco under any one of the following conditions shall be deemed to be a marketing of excess tobacco:

(a) Without memorandum of sale. Any sale of tobacco by a producer which is not identified by a valid memorandum of sale by the end of the sale date shall be deemed to be a marketing of excess tobacco. The penalty thereon shall be paid by the buyer who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the amount due the producer.

(b) Unrecorded sale. Any sale which is not recorded in MQ–95–Tobacco by the 10th day of the month next following the month during which the sale date occurred, shall be deemed to be a marketing of excess tobacco unless and until the buyer furnishes proof acceptable to the Director or State committee showing that such marketing is not a marketing of excess tobacco. The penalty thereon shall be paid by the buyer.

(c) Producer marketings. If any producer falsely identifies or fails to account for the disposition of any tobacco produced on a farm, an amount of tobacco equal to the normal yield of the number of acres harvested in 1951 in excess of the farm acreage allotment shall be deemed to have been a marketing of excess tobacco from such farm. If any producer who manufactures tobacco products from tobacco produced by or for him fails to make the reports, or makes a false report, required under § 723.250 (b) of these regulations, he shall be deemed to have failed to account for the disposition of tobacco produced on the farm and shall be subject to penalty on such tobacco. The penalty thereon shall be paid by the producer.

§ 723.248 Payment of penalty. (a) Penalties shall become due at the time the tobacco is marketed, except in the case of tobacco removed from storage as provided in § 723.243 (a), and shall be paid by remitting the amount thereof to the State committee not later than the 10th day of the calendar month next following the month in which the tobacco became subject to penalty. A draft, money order, or check drawn payable to the Treasurer of the United States may be used to pay any penalty, but any such draft or check shall be received subject to payment at par.

(b) The penalty due on any sale of tobacco by a producer as determined under §§ 723.230 to 723.260 shall be paid as specified in § 723.246 even though the penalty may exceed the proceeds for the tobacco.

§ 723.249 Request for return of penalty. Any producer of tobacco after the marketing of all tobacco available for marketing from the farm, and any other person who bore the burden of the payment of any penalty may request the return of the amount of such penalty which is in excess of the amount required under §§ 723.230 to 723.260 to be paid. Such request shall be filed with the county committee within two (2) years after the payment of the penalty.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 723.250 Producer's records and reports.—(a) Report of marketing card. The operator of each farm on which tobacco is produced in 1951 shall return to the office of the county committee each marketing card issued for the farm whenever marketings from the farm are completed and in no event later than May 1, 1952. Failure to return the marketing card within the time specified (after formal notification) shall constitute failure to account for disposition of tobacco marketed from the farm and in the event that a satisfactory account of such disposition is not furnished otherwise the allotment next established for such farm shall be reduced as provided in the act.

(b) Reports by producer-manufacturers. Each producer who manufactures tobacco products from tobacco produced by or for him as a producer shall report to the State committee as follows with respect to such tobacco.

(1) If the 1951 harvested acreage is not in excess of the 1951 farm tobacco acreage allotment: The producer-manufacturer will furnish the State committee a report, as soon as the tobacco has been weighed, and not later than the date specified in writing by the State committee, showing the total pounds of tobacco produced, the date(s) on which such tobacco was weighed, the farm serial number of the farm on which it was produced, and the estimated value of such tobacco.

(2) If the 1951 harvested acreage is in excess of the 1951 farm acreage allotment: (i) If the excess tobacco (1951 actual yield per acre on the entire crop multiplied by the excess acreage) is stored under bond pursuant to § 723.243 (a), the producer-manufacturer will furnish the State committee a report, as soon as the tobacco has been weighed, and not later than the date specified in writing by the State committee, showing the total pounds of tobacco produced on the farm, the farm serial number of the farm on which it was produced, the date(s) on which it was weighed, the estimated value of the tobacco, the pounds of excess tobacco stored under bond under § 723.243 (a), the estimated value of the excess tobacco, and the location of such excess tobacco. Unless it has become penalty free under circumstances described in § 723.243 (a), penalty shall be paid by the producer-manufacturer on the excess tobacco when it is moved from the place where it can be conveniently inspected by the county committee at any time separate and apart from any other tobacco.

(ii) If the excess tobacco is not stored under bond pursuant to § 723.243 (a), the producer-manufacturer shall furnish the State committee a report, as soon as the tobacco has been weighed, and not later than the date specified in writing by the State committee, showing the total pounds of tobacco produced on the farm, the date(s) on which the tobacco was weighed, the farm serial number of the farm on which it was produced, the estimated value of the tobacco, and the location of the tobacco. Unless it has become penalty free under circumstances described in § 723.242 (b), or unless he makes the reports outlined below in this subsection, penalty shall be paid on the tobacco by the producer-manufacturer, at the converted rate of penalty shown on the marketing card issued for the farm, when it is moved from the place where it can be conveniently inspected by the county committee at any time separate and apart from any other tobacco.

If the producer-manufacturer does not place the excess tobacco in storage under bond under § 723.243 (a) and does not pay the penalty on the tobacco at the converted rate of penalty shown on the marketing card, as provided above, he shall notify the buyer of the manufactured product, or the buyer of any residue resulting from processing the tobacco, in writing, at time of sale of such product or residue of the precise amount of penalty due on such manufactured product or residue. In such event, the producer-manufacturer shall immediately notify the Director and shall account for the disposition of such tobacco by furnishing the Director a report, on a form to be furnished him by the Director, showing the name and address of the buyer of the manufactured products or residue, a detailed account of the disposition of such tobacco and the exact amounts of penalty due with respect to each such sale of such products or residue, together with copies of the written notice of the exact amounts of the penalty due given to the buyers of such products or residue. Failure to file such report or the filing of a report which is found by the State committee to be incomplete or incorrect shall constitute failure of the producer-manufacturer to account for the disposition of tobacco produced on his farm and in the event of such failure the allotment next established for such farm shall be reduced as provided in the act and the producer-manufacturer shall be liable for the payment of penalty as provided in § 723.247 (c).

The reports required by this paragraph shall be in addition to the reports required by paragraph (a) of this section with respect to tobacco produced by or for the producer-manufacturer but not used by him in the manufacture of products therefrom.

(c) Additional reports by producers. In addition to any other reports which may be required under §§ 723.230 to 723.260, the operator of each farm or any other person having an interest in the tobacco grown on the farm (even though the harvested acreage does not exceed the acreage allotment or even though no allotment was established for the farm) shall upon written request by registered mail from the State committee and within 15 days after the deposit of such request in the United States mails, addressed to such person at his last known address, furnish the Secretary a written report of the disposition made of all tobacco produced on the farm by sending the same to the State committee showing, as to the farm at the time of filing said report, (1) the number of acres of tobacco harvested, (2) the total production of tobacco, (3) the amount of tobacco on hand and its location, and (4) as to each lot of tobacco marketed, the name and address of the buyer or other person to or through whom such tobacco was marketed and the number of pounds marketed, the gross price, and the date of the marketing. Failure to file the report as requested, or the filing of a report which is found by the State committee to be incomplete or incorrect, shall constitute failure of the producer to account for disposition of tobacco produced on the farm and the allotment next established for such farm shall be reduced as provided in the act.

§ 723.251 Buyer's records—(a) Record of marketing. Each buyer shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Director or the State committee with respect to each sale of tobacco made by producers to such buyer the following information:

(1) The name of the operator of the farm on which the tobacco was produced and the name of the seller and the seller's address in the case of a sale by a person other than the farm operator.

(2) Date of sale.

(3) The serial number of the memorandum of sale used to identify the sale.

(4) Number of pounds sold.

(5) Gross sale price.

(6) Amount of any penalty and the amount of any deduction on account of penalty from the price paid the producer(s).

Any buyer or any other person who grades tobacco for farmers shall maintain records which will enable him to furnish the State committee the name of the farm operator and the amount of each grade of tobacco obtained from the grading of tobacco from each farm.

(b) Identification of sale on buyer's records. The serial number of the memorandum of sale issued to identify each sale by a producer shall be recorded on the check register or check stub for the check written with respect to such sale of tobacco. The serial number of such memorandum shall also be entered on the buyer's copy of the receipt furnished the producer by the buyer, or the buyer's copy of the contract to purchase, or on the document customarily used in recording the purchase, and on MQ–95–Tobacco.

(c) Marketing card and memorandum of sale. A valid memorandum of sale to cover each sale of tobacco by a producer will be properly issued by the buyer. The buyer will also properly record the sale on the marketing card.

(d) Records of buyer's disposition of tobacco. Each buyer shall maintain records which will show the disposition made by him of all tobacco purchased by or for him from producers.

(e) Additional records and reports by buyers. Each buyer shall keep such records and furnish such reports to the State committee, in addition to the foregoing, as the Director may find necessary to insure the proper identification of the marketings of tobacco and the collection of penalties due thereon as provided in §§ 723.230 to 723.260.

§ 723.252 Buyer's reports—(a) Report of buyer's name, address, and registration number. Each buyer shall properly execute, detach and promptly forward to the State committee "Receipt for Buyer's Record" contained in MQ–95–Tobacco which is issued to the buyer.

(b) Record and report of purchases of tobacco from producers. (1) Each buyer shall keep a record and make reports on MQ–95–Tobacco, Buyer's Record, showing all purchases of tobacco made by or for him from producers. Such record and report will show for each sale, the sale date, the name of the farm operator (and the name and address of the person selling the tobacco if other than the farm operator), the serial number of the memorandum of sale issued with respect to the sale, the pounds of tobacco represented in the sale, the gross amount, the rate of penalty shown on the memorandum of sale, and the amount of the penalty. If no marketing card is presented by the producer, the buyer will record and report the purchase as provided above except that the buyer will enter the word "none" in the space for the serial number of the memorandum of sale, the penalty rate of thirteen (13) cents per pound in the space for rate of penalty, and will show the name and address of the seller in the space for the seller's name.

(2) The original of MQ–95–Tobacco, the memoranda of sale, and a remittance for all penalties shown by the entries on MQ–95–Tobacco and on the memoranda of sale to be due shall be forwarded to the State committee not later than the 10th day of the calendar month next following the month during which the sale date occurred.

§ 723.253 Buyers not exempt from regular records and reports. No buyer shall be exempt from keeping the records and making the reports required by these regulations. Any organization which receives tobacco from producers for (a) the purpose of selling it for the producer, or (b) the purpose of placing it under a Federal loan, will keep the records, make the reports, and remit penalties in case of receiving such tobacco for sale, as required in §§ 723.230 to 723.260 for buyers.

§ 723.254 Records and reports of truckers and persons sorting, stemming, packing, or otherwise processing tobacco. (a) Each person engaged to any extent in the business of trucking tobacco for producers shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Director or State committee a report with respect to each lot of tobacco received by him showing (1) the name and address of the farm operator, (2) the date of receipt of the tobacco, (3) the number of pounds received, and (4) the place to which it was delivered.

(b) Each person engaged to any extent in the business of sorting, stemming, packing, or otherwise processing tobacco for producers shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Director a report showing (1) the information required above for truckers, and in addition, (2) the purpose for which the tobacco was received, (3) the amount of advance made by him on the tobacco, and (4) the disposition of the tobacco.

(c) Each such person shall make such reports to the Director as he may find necessary to enforce §§ 723.230 to 723.260.

§ 723.255 Separate records and reports from persons engaged in more than one business. Any person who is required to keep any record or make any report as a buyer or as a person engaged in the business of sorting, stemming, packing, or otherwise processing tobacco for producers, and who is engaged in more than one such business, shall keep such records as will enable him to make separate reports for each such business in which he is engaged to the same extent for each such business as if he were engaged in no other business.

§ 723.256 Failure to keep records or make reports. Any buyer, common carrier of tobacco, or person engaged in the business of sorting, stemming, packing, or otherwise processing tobacco for producers, who fails to make any report or keep any record as required under §§ 723.230 to 723.260 or who makes any false report or record, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500; and any tobacco buyer who fails to remedy such violation by making a complete and accurate report or keeping a complete and accurate record as required under these regulations within fifteen days after notice to him of such violation shall be subject to an additional fine of $100 for each ten thousand pounds of tobacco, or fraction thereof, bought or sold by him after the date of such violation: Provided, That such fine shall not exceed $5,000; and notice of such violation shall be served upon the tobacco buyer by mailing the same to him by registered mail or by posting the same at an established place of business operated by him, or both. Notice of any violation by a tobacco buyer shall be given by the Director.

§ 723.257 Examination of records and reports. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept, or of obtaining information required to be furnished in any report but not so furnished, any buyer, common carrier, or person engaged in the business of sorting, stemming, packing, or otherwise processing tobacco for producers shall make available for examination upon written request by the State committee or Director, such books, papers, records, accounts, correspondence, contracts, checks, check registers, check stubs, and documents and memoranda as the State committee or Director has reason to believe are relevant and are within the control of such person.

§ 723.258 Length of time records and reports to be kept. Records required to be kept and copies of the reports required to be made by any person under §§ 723.230 to 723.260 for the 1951–52 marketing year shall be kept by him until September 30, 1954. Records shall be kept for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by the Director or State committee.

§ 723.259 Information confidential. All data reported to or acquired by the Secretary pursuant to the provisions of §§ 723.230 to 723.260 shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of the United States Department of Agriculture and by all members and employees of county committees and only such data so reported or acquired as the Assistant Administrator for Production, Production and Marketing Administration, deems relevant shall be disclosed by them and then only in a suit or administrative hearing under Title III of the act.

§ 723.260 Redelegation of authority. Any authority delegated to the State committee by §§ 723.230 to 723.260 may be redelegated by the State committee.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of May 1951. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Orange Reg. 198]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.526 Orange Regulation 198—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of oranges, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective not later than June 4, 1951. Shipments of oranges, grown in the State of Florida, have been subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, since September 11, 1950, and will so continue until June 4, 1951; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to June 3 was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on May 29; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time hereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of oranges; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., June 4, 1951, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 15, 1951, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in Regulation Area I which grade U. S. No. 2 Bright, U. S. No. 2, U. S. No. 2 Russet, U. S. No. 3, or lower than U. S. No. 3 grade;

(ii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in Regulation Area II which grade U. S. No. 2 Russet, U. S. No. 3, or lower than U. S. No. 3 grade;

(iii) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in Regulation Area II which grade U. S. No. 2 or U. S. No. 2 Bright unless such oranges (a) are in the same container with oranges which grade at least U. S. No. 1 Russet and (b) are not in excess of 50 percent, by count, of the number of all oranges in such container;

(iv) Any oranges, except Temple oranges, grown in Regulation Area I or Regulation Area II which are of a size larger than a size that will pack 126 oranges, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack in a standard nailed box; or

(v) Any Temple oranges, grown in Regulation Area I or Regulation Area II, which grade U. S. No. 2 Russet, U. S. No. 3, or lower than U. S. No. 3 grade.

(2) As used in this section, the terms "handler," "ship," "Regulation Area I," "Regulation Area II," and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall each have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the terms "U. S. No. 1 Russet," "U. S. No. 2 Bright," "U. S. No. 2," "U. S. No. 2 Russet," "U. S. No. 3," "standard pack," "container," and "standard nailed box" shall each have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Oranges (7 CFR 51.192).

[Grapefruit Reg. 142]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.527 Grapefruit Regulation 142—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the committees established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective not later than June 4, 1951. Shipments of grapefruit grown in the State of Florida, have been subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, since September 11, 1950, and will so continue until June 4, 1951; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to June 3 was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Growers Administrative Committee on May 29; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time thereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such grapefruit; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy fo the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of grapefruit; and compliance with this regulation will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m. e. s. t., June 4, 1951, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 15, 1951, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any grapefruit of any variety, grown in Florida which grade U. S. No. 3 or lower than U. S. No. 3 grade;

(ii) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in Regulation Area I which grade U. S. No. 2 Russet;

(iii) Any white seeded grapefruit, grown in Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 80 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(iv) Any pink seeded grapefruit, grown in Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 96 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or

(v) Any seedless grapefruit, grown in Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 126 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section, "Regulation Area I," "handler," "variety," "ship," and "Growers Administrative Committee" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and orders; and "U. S. No. 2 Russet," "U. S. No. 3," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Grapefruit (7 CFR 51.191).

[Lemon Reg. 385]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.492 Lemon Regulation 385—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 14 F. R. 3612), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended marketing agreement and order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on May 29, 1951; such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 3, 1951, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 10, 1951, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 600 carloads;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is set forth below and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3" shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

[Orange Reg. 374]

PART 966—ORANGES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA OR IN ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 966.520 Orange Regulation 374—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of Order No. 66, as amended (7 CFR Part 966; 14 F. R. 3614), regulating the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such oranges which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of oranges, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Orange Administrative Committee on May 31, 1951, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) Subject to the size requirements in Orange Regulation 372 (7 CFR 966.518; 16 F. R. 4678), the quantity of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 3,

1951, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., June 10, 1951, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate District No. 1: Unlimited movement;

(b) Prorate District No. 2; 1,250 carloads;

(c) Prorate District No. 3: Unlimited movement;

(d) Prorate District No. 4: Unlimited movement.

(ii) Oranges other than Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate District No. 1: No movement;

(b) Prorate District No. 2: Unlimited movement;

(c) Prorate District No. 3: No movement;

(d) Prorate District No. 4: No movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is set forth below and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "varieties," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended order; and the terms "Prorate District No. 1," "Prorate District No. 2," "Prorate District No. 3," and "Prorate District No. 4" shall each have the same meaning as given to the respective terms in § 966.107, as amended (15 F. R. 8712), of the current rules and regulations (7 CFR 966.103 et seq.), as amended (15 F. R. 8712).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of June 1951.

ENDORSEMENT OF PASSPORTS

MAY 17, 1951.

Paragraph (a) of § 108.9, Endorsement of passports, Chapter I, Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations, is amended to read as follows:

§ 108.9 Endorsement of passports. (a) When an alien admitted temporarily to the United States is issued a Form 257a or a Form I-94, the admitting immigrant inspector shall stamp any passport presented by the alien (as the term "passport" is defined in § 176.101 (e) of this chapter) to show the word "Admitted" and the date and place of admission. There shall be inscribed in the passport as a part of such endorsement the visa application number appearing on the Form 257a—if such number does not appear in the passport visa—or the serial number of the Form I-94. When an alien is admitted permanently to the United States, the admitting immigrant inspector shall stamp any passport presented by the alien to show the word "Admitted", the date and place of admission, and the section of law under which admitted. Immigrant inspectors shall not endorse passports in cases other than those expressly prescribed by this section and by § 125.12 (b) of this chapter and shall not in any case place their signatures or titles in passports.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Regs., Serial No. ER-163]

PART 291—CLASSIFICATION AND EXEMPTION OF IRREGULAR AIR CARRIERS

OPERATIONAL LIMITATIONS ON EXERCISE OF TEMPORARY EXEMPTION BY LARGE IRREGULAR CARRIERS; EXTENSION OF EFFECTIVE DATE

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of May 1951.

The Board has decided that a further postponement of Amendment No. 1 to Part 291 is advisable to afford it an opportunity to consider the forthcoming report of the Senate Select Committee on Small Business on the hearing it has been holding on economic regulation of the Large Irregular Air Carriers and also other matters relevant to the economic regulation of the Large Irregulars. By Amendment No. 1, adopted March 2, 1951, with an original effective date of April 6, 1951, the Board modified the operational limitations on the exercise of the temporary exemption to engage in air transportation granted to the Large Irregular Carriers pursuant to Part 291 and section 416 (b) of the Civil Aeronautics Act. These operational limitations relate to the number, frequency and regularity of flights conducted by such Large Irregular Carriers.

As has already been indicated, the Board has decided on its own initiative to postpone further the effective date of Amendment No. 1 until July 5, 1951. For the reasons stated above notice and public procedures hereon are impracticable. Since no additional burden is imposed on any person, the postponement may be made effective without prior notice.

The Civil Aeronautics Board hereby changes the effective date of Amendment No. 1 to Part 291 from June 5, 1951, to July 5, 1951.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425)

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] M. C. MULLIGAN,
Secretary.

TITLE 29—LABOR

Chapter V—Wage and Hour Division, Department of Labor

PART 545—HOMEWORKERS IN THE NEEDLEWORK AND FABRICATED TEXTILE PRODUCTS INDUSTRY IN PUERTO RICO

On May 12, 1951 (16 F. R. 4472), a notice was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER that the Administrator proposed to amend the regulations contained in this part and interested parties were given 15 days to submit for consideration data, views or arguments pertaining to the proposed changes. Such period has now expired.

Accordingly, pursuant to authority under sections 6 (a) (2) and 11 (c) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, (1) the headnote of this part is changed to "Homeworkers in the Needlework and Fabricated Textile Products Industry in Puerto Rico;" (2) §§ 545.1 to 545.13, inclusive, are revised as set forth in the May 12, 1951 issue of the FEDERAL REGISTER (16 F. R. 4472), except that § 545.2 (b) is changed to read as follows:

§ 545.2 Definitions. • • •

(b) "Homeworker", as used in this part, means any employee employed or suffered or permitted to perform home work for an employer, provided that such work is not performed under the constant and direct supervision of an employer or of a responsible supervisor and under such conditions that accurate records of hours worked are maintained or can readily be maintained.

(3) The schedule of minimum piece rates provided in § 545.14 is revised as set forth below.

The regulations as revised incorporate changes in the present text which have been made for purposes of clarification and in order to make the provisions conform with administrative experience. In addition the schedule of minimum piece rates contained in § 545.14 has been revised pursuant to section 6 (a) (2) of the act in order to provide rates for operations not hitherto included in the schedule, and to make the rates for operations now included therein commensurate with the new minimum hourly wage rates fixed for the Needlework and Fabricated Textile Products Industry in Puerto Rico by the wage order for that industry (29 CFR, Part 655), published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 5, 1951 (16 F. R. 4101) and to become effective June 4, 1951.

No employer may pay a homeworker in the Needlework and Fabricated Textile Products Industry in Puerto Rico a piece rate less than the applicable minimum piece rate provided in § 545.14, below. With respect to operations for which no minimum piece rate is prescribed in § 545.14, the homeworker must be paid a piece rate adopted by the employer in accordance with § 545.11.

The enforcement policies with respect to home work in industries in Puerto Rico which are contained in § 545.100 are not affected by the revision herein provided, and such enforcement policies remain in effect.

It is necessary to make this revision effective simultaneously with the new wage order for the Needlework and Fabricated Textile Products Industry in Puerto Rico, mentioned above. Accordingly, it is not practicable to comply with the requirements of section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (sec. 4, 60 Stat. 239; 5 U. S. C. 1003), and the revision of this part herein provided shall become effective June 4, 1951.

Signed in Washington, D. C., this 28th day of May 1951.

F. GRANVILLE GRIMES, JR.,
Acting Administrator, Wage and Hour and Public Contracts Divisions.

AUTHORITY: §§ 545.1 to 545.14, inclusive, issued under secs. 6, 11, 52 Stat. 1062, 1066, as amended; 29 U. S. C. 206, 211.

§ 545.1 Applicability. The provisions of this part shall apply to persons engaged in activities relating to homeworkers in the needlework and fabricated textile products industry in Puerto Rico as defined in Part 655 of this chapter.[1]

§ 545.2 Definitions. (a) The meaning of the terms "person," "employ," employer," "employee," "goods," and "production" as used in this part is the same as in the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended.

(b) "Homeworker," as used in this part, means any employee employed or suffered or permitted to perform home work for an employer: Provided, That such work is not performed under the constant and direct supervision of an employer or of a responsible supervisor and under such conditions that accurate records of hours worked are maintained or can readily be maintained.

(c) "Home work," as used in this part, means the production by any person in or about a home, apartment, tenement, or room in a residential establishment, of goods for an employer who suffers or permits such production, regardless of the source (whether obtained from an employer or elsewhere) of the materials used by the homeworker in such production.

(d) "Subcontractor" includes any person who, for the account or benefit of an employer, delivers, or causes to be delivered, to a homeworker goods to be produced in or about a home and thereafter to be returned in accordance with the direction of such employer.

(e) "Design" includes a combination of two or more stitches or operations so sewn as to form a pattern.

(f) "Operation" means any work or any process other than the distribution of goods to or collection of goods from homeworkers.

§ 545.3 Filing and notification requirements. Every employer prior to the distribution of work to any homeworker or prior to the commencement of work by a homeworker, in cases where the homeworker purchases the raw materials, shall file with the Wage and Hour Division in Puerto Rico (a) a copy of each design, if any, and (b) a description in writing of each operation to be performed by any homeworker, whether or not part of a design, together with the full piece rate schedule designation, if any,[2] the corresponding piece rates to be paid for each such operation, and the style numbers, if any, of the goods upon which such designs are to be made and operations are to be performed.

§ 545.4 Preparation of goods for delivery. Where goods for production in a home are distributed to the homeworker by the employer, the employer shall make up the goods to be delivered to a subcontractor into a lot, each lot to comprise goods on which the same operations are to be performed.

§ 545.5 Delivery and collection of goods. Where goods for production in a home are distributed to the homeworker by the employer, the goods shall be personally distributed to and collected from the homeworker who is to work on the goods, either directly at the factory or by employees expressly employed by an employer or subcontractor to distribute and collect such goods outside the factory.

§ 545.6 Payment for work. When an employer receives goods on which work has been completed, he shall pay immediately the homeworker or subcontractor, as the case may be, for such work: Provided, That in cases where payment is made to a subcontractor, the homeworker shall be paid within seven days after such subcontractor has collected the goods from such homeworker. Payment shall be made to each homeworker at rates not less than those required under §§ 545.10 and 545.11, and in accordance with the requirements of sections 6 and 7 of the act. In addition, any costs for materials incurred by the homeworker shall be reimbursed by the employer.

§ 545.7 Records to be kept. (a) Every employer shall make and have available at his principal Puerto Rican office a record of the following information:[3]

(1) The name and address of each firm situated outside the Island of Puerto Rico, if any, from whom the goods upon which homework is to be performed were received.

(2) The name and address of each subcontractor, if any, to whom each lot of goods was delivered for delivery to homeworkers, together with the number of the permit issued to such subcontractor by the Department of Labor of Puerto Rico.

(3) The dates upon which each lot of goods was delivered to and returned by a subcontractor, if any, together with a description of such goods, the net amount paid as commission and the rate of commission on such goods.

(4) The name and address of each homeworker, and the date of birth of each homeworker under 19, to whom the goods in each lot were delivered or from whom goods were purchased.

(5) The dates upon which the goods in each lot were delivered to and collected from each homeworker or upon which goods were purchased from each homeworker.

(6) The style number, if any, description of, and amount of goods in each lot or the amount of goods purchased from each homeworker, the operations to be performed or performed thereon, together with the piece rates to be paid or paid, the amount due each homeworker for the operations performed upon such goods, social security deductions from that amount, the amount actually paid the homeworker after such deductions, and the additional amount, if any, paid the homeworker for any material costs incurred by the latter.

(7) The dates upon which each homeworker was paid for operations performed on the goods in each lot or for goods purchased by the employer.

(b) At the time work is given out to or received or purchased from a homeworker, as the case may be, every employer[4] shall enter the following information in the handbook (to be obtained by the employer from the Wage and Hour Division and supplied by him to each homeworker) which shall be kept by the homeworker:

(1) The dates upon which the goods in each lot were delivered to and collected from the homeworker or upon which goods were purchased from the homeworker.

(2) The style number, if any, description of, and amount of goods in each lot or the amount of goods purchased from the homeworker, the operations to be performed or performed thereon, together with the piece rates to be paid or paid, the amount due each homeworker for the operations performed upon such goods, social security deductions from that amount, the amount actually paid the homeworker after such deductions, and the additional amount, if any, paid the homeworker for any material costs incurred by the latter.

(3) The dates upon which the homeworker was paid for operations performed on the goods in each lot or for goods purchased by the employer.

(4) The signature of the person acting in behalf of the employer.

(c) No employer shall employ any homeworker for more than 40 hours in any workweek unless, in addition to the records which he is required to keep pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, such employer makes and keeps available at his principal Puerto Rican office and enters in the handbook of each such homeworker a record of the following information:

(1) The hours worked by the homeworker on the goods in each lot of work delivered to the employer or on goods purchased by the employer.

(2) The total hours worked each week.

(3) The wages paid the homeworker each week at regular piece rates.

(4) The extra amount paid to the homeworker for hours worked in excess of 40 in each week.

§ 545.8 Maintenance of records. Every employer shall keep and preserve for a period of not less than three years at his place of business all records required above except the handbook, which shall be kept by the homeworker for a period of two years subsequent to the date of the last entry therein. All such records shall be open at any time to inspection and transcription by the Administrator or his authorized representative.

§ 545.9 Reporting names of subcontractors, agents, or other homework distributors. Every employer shall report to the office of the Wage and Hour Division, United States Department of Labor, Mayaguez, Puerto Rico, (a) the names and addresses of all persons employed as subcontractors, as that term is defined in this part, or as agents or supervisors in charge of any branch office, and (b) the permit numbers issued to such persons by the Department of Labor of Puerto Rico.

§ 545.10 Minimum piece rates prescribed by the Administrator. Pursuant to the provisions of section 6 (a) (2) of the act, each homeworker shall be paid, in lieu of the applicable hourly rate established by the wage order for the needlework and fabricated textile products industry, not less than the piece rates prescribed in § 545.14 for the operations described therein.

§ 545.11 Piece rates adopted by employers. Pursuant to the provisions of section 6 (a) (2) of the act, in the event that a homeworker is to perform an operation for which no minimum piece rate has been prescribed by regulation or order of the Administrator or his authorized representative, he shall be paid a piece rate adopted by the employer which shall yield to homeworkers of ordinary skill, under prevalent operating conditions and with equipment ordinarily found in homes, an amount not less than the applicable minimum hourly wage rate established by wage order.[5] No employer shall adopt such a piece rate until he has first notified the Division of his intention to establish a rate for such operation, the rate fixed and the basis on which the piece rate has been computed. Such an employer piece rate shall be lawful only if it actually satisfies the requirements of this section, and such a rate shall remain in effect only until such time as the Administrator or his authorized representative, by regulation or order, establishes a minimum piece rate for such operation.

§ 545.12 Penalties. Section 15 of the act makes it unlawful for any person to violate the provisions of this part and subjects any such person to the penalties provided by section 16 and section 17 of the act.

§ 545.13 Petition for amendment of regulations. Any person wishing a revision of any of the terms of this part may submit in writing to the Administrator or his authorized representative a petition setting forth the changes desired and the reasons for proposing them. If, upon inspection of the petition, the Administrator or his authorized representative believes that reasonable cause for amendment of this part is set forth, the Administrator or his authorized representative will either schedule a hearing with due notice to interested parties, or will make other provision for affording interested parties an opportunity to present their views, either in support of or in opposition to the proposed changes.

[1] For description of operations included under "hand-sewing," see definition in applicable section of Wage order.

[1] Persons engaged in activities relating to homeworkers in other industries in Puerto Rico are subject to Part 681 of this chapter.

[2] See § 545.14 for the schedule of piece rates prescribed in accordance with § 545.10. As an example of how to state the piece rate schedule designation, if "plain scallops" were to be made on articles in the "Infants' Wear Division," the full piece rate schedule designation would be "Operation 74, Col. 3."

[3] Although responsibility for making the record is placed upon the employer, the actual work of doing so may be performed by supervisory or clerical employees, agents, subcontractors, or other persons acting in behalf of the employer.

No particular order or form of records is prescribed by the regulations contained in this part. The employer may keep his own record system, so long as he keeps all the required information available in understandable form.

The records must be kept in the employer's principal Puerto Rican office. Where it is not possible for a record of one or more of the items to be made in the first instance at the employer's principal office, at the employer's direction the record of such items may be made away from that office by a subcontractor, agent, employee, or other person acting in behalf of the employer. In such event, however, the records shall be delivered to the principal Puerto Rican office of the employer as soon as possible after the making of such entries, and shall there be preserved and be available for inspection.

[4] Although responsibility for making the record is placed upon the employer, the actual work of doing so may be performed by supervisory or clerical employees, agents, subcontractors, or other persons acting in behalf of the employer.

[5] See Part 655 of this chapter for the minimum hourly wage rates currently applicable for the various divisions and classifications of the needlework and fabricated textile products industry in Puerto Rico. The minimum hourly rates applicable to the manufacture of hooked rugs are provided in the wage order for the hooked rug industry in Puerto Rico (Part 684 of this chapter). Homeworkers in the hooked rug industry are governed by Part 681 of this chapter.

[1] The piece rates apply only to "hand-sewing" operations. For description of operations included under "hand-sewing," see definitions in applicable section of wage order.

[2] These piece rates have been set on the basis of O. N. T. thread No. 5, corded, which averages 28 stitches per inch of solid cord. If corded threads are used, which are not so thick, the rate should be increased in proportion to the increase in the number of stitches per inch. If corded thread No. 11 is used, 15 percent must be added to the piece rates established for thread No. 5.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 26, Revised, Corrections]

CPR 26—CEILING PRICES OF KOSHER BEEF ITEMS SOLD AT RETAIL

1. Due to an error, some of the ceiling prices provided for the various cuts obtained from the chuck in section 30 (o) of Ceiling Price Regulation 26, revised, which section establishes ceiling prices for kosher beef cuts in Zone 14N, were misprinted. Accordingly, section 30 (o) of Ceiling Price Regulation 26, revised, is corrected by deleting therefrom lines numbered 11 and 5 through 11, inclusive, and substituting therefor the following:

	Choice	Good	Commercial	Utility
II. Chuck:
5. Blade pot roast (also called shoulder pot roast, bone in)	.90	.90	.84	.77
6. Blade steak (bone in)	.90	.90	.84	.77
7. Boneless chuck	1.20	1.20	1.12	1.02
8. English cut	.90	.90	.84	.75
9. Arm or chuck pot roast (bone in)	.90	.90	.84	.75
10. Arm or chuck steak (bone in)	.90	.90	.84	.75
11. Boneless neck	1.05	1.05	.99	.91

2. Due to an additional error the number "1.2" appearing on line 4A under the column "Utility" in section 32 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 26, revised, was used instead of the number "1.20". Accordingly, line 4A of section 32 (a) of Ceiling Price Regulation 26, revised, is corrected by deleting the number "1.2" under the column "Utility" and substituting therefor the number "1.20".

[Ceiling Price Regulation 31, Amdt. 3]

CPR 31—IMPORTS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Amendment 3 to Ceiling Price Regulation 31 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 31 extends the effective date of the regulation to July 15, 1951, to provide more time for determining and reporting markups. However, if the markups are reported to the Office of Price Stabilization before July 15, 1951, the effective date will be advanced to that reporting date for the person who makes the filing.

The amendment simplifies the filing requirements, by eliminating the necessity of reporting quantities and ceiling prices. Only the markups need be filed.

Certain corrections and clarifications of a minor nature are effected, including a reprinting of Appendix A in its entirety to incorporate the additions made by Amendment 1.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 31 is amended to read as follows:

1. The first paragraph of section 5 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) Importer retailer. If you are an importer who sells at retail the commodities imported by you in essentially the same form in which imported, your ceiling price for the sale of any such commodity shall be as follows: [The remainder of section 5 (b) remains unaltered.]

2. Section 5 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) In every case where you calculate for the first time the percentage markup per unit you are going to use or do use in the sale or offering of an imported commodity, unless the commodity be one that shall be priced under Ceiling Price Regulations 7, 15, or 16, you shall promptly furnish the Office of Price Stabilization, Export-Import Branch, Washington 25, D. C., with the following information in duplicate:

(1) The commodity.

(2) The class of buyer.

(3) The percentage markup per unit you are permitted to use under this regulation.

List of markups for commodities in inventory as of May 9, 1951, shall be reported on or before July 15, 1951. Lists of markups for commodities contracted for as of May 9, 1951, shall be reported on or before July 15, 1951. Lists of markups for commodities neither in inventory nor contracted for as of May 9, 1951 shall be reported within fifteen days after receipt of the commodity.

3. Section 6 (b) is amended to read as follows:

(b) In every case where you calculate for the first time the dollar and cents markup per unit you are going to use or do use in the sale or offering of an imported commodity, you shall furnish the Office of Price Stabilization, Export-Import Branch, Washington 25, D. C., with the following information in duplicate:

(1) The commodity.

(2) The class of buyer.

(3) The dollar and cents markup per unit you are permitted to use under this regulation.

List of markups for commodities in inventory as of May 9, 1951 shall be reported on or before July 15, 1951. Lists of markups for commodities contracted for as of May 9, 1951 shall be reported on or before July 15, 1951. Lists of markups for commodities neither in inventory nor contracted for as of May 9, 1951 shall be reported within fifteen days after receipt of the commodity.

4. The effective date clause of this regulation is amended to read as follows:

Effective date. The effective date of this regulation shall be July 15, 1951 or any earlier date at which you file your list of markups in accordance with section 5 or section 6 of this regulation.

5. Appendix A in its entirety is amended to read as follows:

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter III—Office of Price Stabilization, Economic Stabilization Agency

[Ceiling Price Regulation 22, Amendment 7]

CPR 22—MANUFACTURERS' GENERAL CEILING PRICE REGULATION

REDEFINITION OF APPAREL EXEMPTION

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738) this Amendment 7 to Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

At the time of issuance of Ceiling Price Regulation 22, the Manufacturers' General Ceiling Price Regulation, this office announced that a special regulation covering the apparel industries would be issued subsequently. Accordingly, manufacturers of apparel products were exempted from Ceiling Price Regulation 22 pending completion of an Apparel Manufacturers' Ceiling Price Regulation which will prescribe methods of calculation more closely adapted to the cost structures of the apparel industries.

The definition of apparel in Appendix A, paragraph (f) of Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is necessarily brief and in some respects inaccurate. Numerous requests for interpretation of the scope of the apparel exemption have been received by the Office of Price Stabilization in borderline cases; and it is deemed desirable to provide manufacturers with information as rapidly as possible which will enable them to price articles in such cases more readily under the forthcoming apparel manufacturers' ceiling price regulation, or under Ceiling Price Regulation 22 or other governing regulation. Accordingly, this amendment replaces the present Appendix A, paragraph (f) by a new Appendix A, paragraph (f) which indicates in greater detail, with examples, the apparel, apparel furnishings and apparel accessories which will be covered by the Apparel Manufacturers' Ceiling Price Regulation and also sets forth a list of borderline articles which will be excluded from that regulation and will remain covered either by Ceiling Price Regulation 22 or by other applicable ceiling price regulations.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 22 is hereby amended in the following respects:

Appendix A, paragraph (f) is amended to read as follows:

(f) (1) Apparel, apparel furnishings or apparel accessories, made of textile materials, leather, fur, or a combination of any of them, or made of plastic or other materials which are normally sewed as part of the assembly operation; (2) component parts manufactured exclusively for further processing into or for use as a part of apparel, apparel furnishings or apparel accessories; and (3) such footwear as is not normally made by shoe, slipper or rubber manufacturers.

The following are examples of commodities excepted under this paragraph:

[Ceiling Price Regulation 43]

CPR 43—Zinc Scrap

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Public Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Ceiling Price Regulation 43 is issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This regulation establishes dollars-and-cents ceiling prices for various grades of zinc scrap.

Zinc is an important industrial material with a wide range of applications. Although zinc is used principally in galvanizing operations, substantial quantities are also consumed in the production of brass products and zinc base alloys, and it has important applications in the dyeing and chemical industries. The tonnage of zinc derived from scrap is relatively small, but in times of increased industrial activity scrap constitutes an important source of such metal.

The regulation lists nine grades of zinc scrap generally recognized in the industry. Unsweated zinc dross, the residue of galvanizing, ordinarily comprises about 80% of the total tonnage of zinc scrap used in the United States while two other grades, new zinc clippings and trimmings and engravers' and lithographers' plates, are important because they can be used without further processing as a substitute for primary zinc. The other grades of zinc scrap for the most part include material which is the waste of industrial fabrication or the result of obsolescence. Although these latter grades are relatively unimportant in terms of quantity, it is nevertheless necessary, under conditions of shortage such as those which now prevail, to encourage their collection and sale.

Ordinarily, zinc scrap sells at prices below the price of primary zinc with the amount of the differential increasing or decreasing with changes in demand, and this pattern prevailed in the period preceding the Korean crisis. As in the case of virtually all scrap metals, however, the outbreak of hostilities in Korea and the inauguration of our defense program caused a sharp rise in the prices for zinc scrap and the upward movement continued until the issuance of the General Ceiling Price Regulation on January 26, 1951. During the base period described in that regulation (December 19, 1950, to January 25, 1951, inclusive) the zinc scrap market was highly fluid with some sellers charging as much as, and in a few cases more than, the prices being charged for primary zinc. This confused pattern, reflected in ceiling prices established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation, has disrupted the normal flow of zinc scrap and has caused hardship to some buyers.

The ceiling prices established in this regulation are designed to correct the distorted price relationship which now exists by rolling back the ceiling prices for zinc scrap to a level below the prevailing prices for primary zinc which will re-establish the differential which ordinarily prevailed during periods of active but not abnormal demand. On this basis, the ceiling price for unsweated zinc dross has been established at 12¼ cents per pound, or 70 percent of the prevailing ceiling price for primary zinc. The ceiling price for new zinc clippings and trimmings and engravers' and lithographers' plates has been established at 14½ cents per pound. This price will enable consumers of zinc to obtain these materials at a cost below that of primary zinc and will encourage their use in place of new metal. The ceiling prices for all other grades have been established on the basis of their value in relation to new metal.

Although there does not appear to be any customary trade practice in the marketing of zinc scrap insofar as quantity premiums are concerned, it does appear that dealers ordinarily are able to obtain some premium in connection with the sale of relatively large lots of material. In recognition of this fact and in order to encourage the collection and distribution of needed zinc scrap, the regulation establishes certain quantity premiums for the grades of such material ordinarily handled by dealers. Somewhat larger quantity premiums are provided for new zinc clippings and trimmings and engravers' and lithographers' plates to encourage their accumulation in lots large enough to permit their direct sale to consumers of zinc. Furthermore, premiums have been established for inter-dealer transactions in the grades for which quantity premiums have been established in order to encourage smaller dealers to dispose of their scrap instead of holding it until they have accumulated amounts for which a quantity premium might be charged. No quantity premiums may be charged where such inter-dealer premiums are applicable.

In order to avoid undue hardship upon dealers, the regulation permits, for 7 days, deliveries at prices in excess of ceiling prices in order to carry out contracts entered into before the issuance of the regulation. Such deliveries may be made, however, only if the material so delivered was acquired by the seller at prices in excess of the ceiling and if before the issuance date it had been received by, or was in transit to, the seller. Although a somewhat longer period for carrying out prior contracts with respect to nickel scrap was permitted by Ceiling Price Regulation 29, such extended period was considered appropriate in view of the fact that certain quantities of such material is imported. Since very little zinc scrap is imported, the shorter period for carrying out prior contracts set forth in this regulation is deemed to be sufficient to protect dealers against undue loss.

It is believed that the ceiling prices established in this regulation will restore the movement of zinc scrap to normal channels, alleviate the hardship which some buyers have suffered; and encourage dealers to find and bring into the market vitally needed supplies. It is recognized, however, that the level of ceiling prices established for zinc scrap in this regulation has been determined by reference to prices for primary zinc which are above the prices prevailing during the period from May 24, to June 24, 1950. In the event that action is hereafter taken to change ceiling prices for primary zinc, the ceiling prices established by this regulation will be reconsidered to determine whether changes therein are required in the light of the purposes and standards set forth in the Defense Production Act of 1950.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this ceiling price regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950.

So far as practicable, the Director has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950; to prices prevailing during the period from May 24, 1950, to June 24, 1950, inclusive; and to relevant factors of general applicability.

In formulating this ceiling price regulation, the Director consulted with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, to the extent practicable under existing circumstances, and has given full consideration to their recommendations.

The provisions of this ceiling price regulation and their effect upon business practices, cost practices, or means or aids to distribution in the industry have been considered. It is believed that no changes in such practices or methods have been effected. To the extent, however, that the provisions of the regulation may operate to compel changes in such practices or methods, such provisions are necessary to prevent circumvention or evasion of the regulation and to effectuate the policies of the act.

Authority: Sections 1 to 9 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply Title IV, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

Section 1. Coverage of this regulation—(a) Products covered. This regulation establishes ceiling prices for zinc scrap.

(b) Persons and transactions covered. This regulation applies to sales and deliveries by any person, including importers and exporters. It also applies to any person who buys zinc scrap in the regular course of trade or business.

(c) Geographical applicability. This regulation applies in the 48 States of the United States, its Territories and Possessions, and the District of Columbia.

Sec. 2. Prohibitions and permission to carry out certain contracts—(a) Prohibitions—(1) Against transactions above ceiling prices. Regardless of any contract or other obligation (except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section) on and after the effective date of this regulation no person shall sell or deliver, and no person shall buy or receive in the regular course of trade or business, zinc scrap at a price in excess of the applicable ceiling price. No person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing.

Lower prices than those set forth in this regulation may be charged, demanded, paid, or offered.

(2) Against tie-in transactions. No person shall sell zinc scrap on condition (i) that the buyer purchase from any person any other product or service, or (ii) that the buyer sell to any person any product or service. No person who buys zinc scrap in the regular course of trade or business shall participate in any such tie-in transactions.

(3) Against evasion. No person shall evade or circumvent the provisions of this regulation by direct or indirect methods in connection with the sale, purchase, delivery, or transfer of zinc scrap, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity, or by way of any commission, service or transportation charge or discount, premium or other privilege, or by up-grading, trade understanding, or otherwise.

(b) Permission to carry out certain contracts. Regardless of any other provisions of this regulation, until June 13, 1951, any person may deliver zinc scrap at a price in excess of the ceiling price established herein in order to carry out a contract entered into before June 1, 1951, if the material so delivered was purchased at a price in excess of the ceiling price established herein and if before June 1, 1951, it was received by, or was in transit to, the person making delivery.

Sec. 3. Ceiling prices, f. o. b. point of shipment. (a) The ceiling price, f. o. b. point of shipment, for each grade of zinc scrap described in Table A is the applicable price set forth in that table. Note, however, that the delivered price (price f. o. b. point of shipment plus transportation costs paid by the buyer) may not exceed the applicable ceiling delivered price established in section 4 of this regulation.

Certain quantity premiums may also be charged in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section. Premiums for certain dealer-to-dealer transactions are set forth in paragraph (c) of this section and provisions for pricing mixed shipments are set forth in paragraph (d).

The weight to be used in computing payments and quantity premiums shall be established by the buyer at his receiving point. Payment for grades of zinc scrap in Group IV shall be computed on the basis of weight after deduction for free iron and other foreign attachments.

Table A

Grades of Zinc Scrap	Ceiling Price (cents per pound)
Group I:
Unsweated zinc dross	12¼
Group II:
New zinc clippings and trimmings	14½
Engravers' and lithographers' plates	14½
Group III:
Zinc die cast slabs minimum 90% zinc	12¼
(for zinc die cast slabs with less than 90% zinc, deduct at the rate of .13¢ per pound for each 1%, or fraction thereof, of zinc below 90%.)
Group IV:
Old zinc scrap	11¼
Forming and stamping dies	11¼
New die cast scrap	10¾
Old zinc die cast radiator grills	10½
Old die cast scrap	9½

(b) Quantity premiums. In addition to the ceiling prices determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section, the quantity premiums set forth in Table B may be charged and paid if, within a period of three consecutive calendar days (excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays), the seller delivers from one or more points of shipment the specified quantity of material (1) to a public carrier for transportation to the buyer's receiving point, (2) to the buyer at his receiving point in a conveyance owned or controlled by the seller, or (3) upon a conveyance owned or controlled by the buyer. The amount of material delivered during any one calendar day may be counted only once in determining whether a quantity premium may be charged and paid.

Quantity premiums may not be charged or paid for grades other than those listed in Table B.

Whether a delivery or series of deliveries qualifies for a quantity premium shall be determined on the basis of the actual net weight of the material involved before deduction has been made for free iron and other foreign attachments. Quantity premiums may be charged and paid, however, only on the basis of the weight of the zinc scrap delivered.

Table B

Quantities and grades	Premium (cents per pound of zinc scrap)
One or more grades in Group II:
10,000 pounds and over	1
20,000 pounds and over	1½
One or more grades in Group IV:
20,000 pounds and over	½
40,000 pounds and over	1

(c) Premiums for certain dealer-to-dealer transactions. In addition to the ceiling prices set forth in Table A, the applicable premium set forth in Table C may be charged, and paid, when a dealer sells any grade of zinc scrap in Group II or Group IV to another dealer. No quantity premium may be charged or paid in connection with a dealer-to-dealer sale in which a premium is charged in accordance with this paragraph.

Table C

Grade of Zinc Scrap	Premium (cents per pound of zinc scrap)
Grades in Group II	1½
Grades in Group IV	1

(d) Mixed shipments. When grades of zinc scrap having different ceiling prices under the provisions of this regulation are shipped in one vehicle, the ceiling price for the entire shipment shall be the ceiling price applicable to the lowest priced grade contained therein unless each grade is invoiced separately and is so loaded in the vehicle that it can be readily distinguished and separately weighed.

Sec. 4. Ceiling delivered prices. The ceiling delivered price for zinc scrap is the applicable ceiling price, f. o. b. point of shipment, determined in accordance with section 3 of this regulation, plus whichever of the following charges is applicable:

(a) When delivery is made to the buyer's receiving point by way of a public (common or contract) carrier, an amount not in excess of the actual charge (including transportation taxes) made by such carrier;

(b) When delivery is made to the buyer's receiving point by a vehicle owned or controlled by the seller, an amount not in excess of the lowest published and applicable motor common carrier charge (not including transportation taxes) for transporting the quantity of zinc scrap being priced from the point, or points, of shipment to the buyer's receiving point. In the case of a series of deliveries which qualifies for a quantity premium, the published and applicable motor common carrier charge shall be determined on the basis of the total quantity involved even though separate deliveries are made in lesser quantities, and such charge shall be prorated over the quantities contained in each delivery.

Sec. 5. Definitions. When used in this regulation, the term:

(a) "Dealer" means any person whose business includes the acquisition of any material for the purpose of sale as waste, scrap, or salvage materials.

(b) "Exporter" means a person who last sells zinc scrap which is transported, after such sale, from a point in the United States, its Territories, or Possessions to a point outside thereof.

(c) "Importer" means a person who first sells zinc scrap which is transported, either before or after sale, from a point outside of the United States, its Territories, or Possessions to a point inside thereof.

(d) "Person" includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government of any of its political sub-divisions, or any agency of the foregoing.

(e) "Point of shipment" means the point at which zinc scrap is first loaded on a conveyance for transportation directly to the buyer's receiving point. In the case of zinc scrap sold by an importer and delivered into the United States, its Territories, or Possessions by water, the point of shipment means the place within the Continental United States, its Territories or Possessions where the material is loaded on a conveyance for transportation directly to the buyer's receiving point. In the case of zinc scrap sold by an importer and transported to the buyer overland from Mexico or Canada the point of shipment means the freight station in the United States at or nearest the point at which the material first enters the United States.

(f) "Zinc scrap" means the grades of zinc scrap material listed in Table A of this regulation.

(g) "Scrap" or "scrap material" includes all materials which are the waste or by-product of any kind of metal working or processing, as well as materials which have been discarded on account of obsolescence, failure, or any other reason.

SEC. 6. Excise, sales, and similar taxes. Any person may collect, in addition to the ceiling price established by this regulation, any excise, sales, or similar tax imposed upon him by reason of his sale of zinc scrap if he is not prohibited by law from making such collection and if he states separately from his selling price the amount of the tax collected.

SEC. 7. Record-keeping requirements. Every person selling or purchasing zinc scrap shall keep for inspection by the Director of Price Stabilization, for a period of two years, complete and accurate records of each such sale or purchase showing: The date thereof; the name and address of the seller and buyer; the quantity of each grade of zinc scrap sold or purchased; the price charged or paid, f. o. b. point of shipment, for each such grade of zinc scrap; the premiums, if any, charged or paid; the point or points of shipment and the buyer's receiving point; the disposition of transportation charges; and the quantity of each kind or grade of zinc scrap sold or purchased.

SEC. 8. Penalties. Persons violating any of the provisions of this regulation shall be subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for damages provided for by the Defense Production Act of 1950.

SEC. 9. Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking an amendment of any provision of this regulation may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Price Procedural Regulation No. 1, Revised.

Effective date. This regulation shall become effective June 6, 1951.

NOTE: All record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

MICHAEL V. DISALLE,
Director of Price Stabilization.

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Supplementary Regulation 31]

GCPR, SR 31—COTTONSEED MEAL, SLAB CAKE, SIZED CAKE, PELLETS AND HULLS EMERGENCY ADJUSTMENT

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this supplementary regulation to the General Ceiling Price Regulation (16 F. R. 808) is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This Supplementary Regulation 31 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is issued to provide emergency relief to persons who sell cottonseed meal, slab cake, sized cake, pellets, or hulls mixed or for mixing. Speaking generally, the ceiling prices of these sellers, as fixed by the General Ceiling Price Regulation were based on the availability of cottonseed or of the products enumerated, in markets relatively near the sellers. Historically, in many areas, the cottonseed yield is not sufficient to supply local demand from one crop to the next and importation from surplus-producing areas is necessary. In other areas, there is little or no cottonseed available locally at any time, and, as the season progresses, dealers must go progressively further afield to obtain it. In still other areas which customarily produce a surplus, a comparatively small cotton crop has resulted in shortages. In any of these cases, dealers are squeezed against ceiling prices fixed at a time when transportation costs either were not components of the ceiling price because of the local availability of the product, or were much lower than they are currently, or will be until the next crop of cottonseed is marketed. Thus, in Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, and Texas, some of the larger dealers have been purchasing cottonseed meal, cake, pellets and hulls from other than their near sources and, after paying transportation costs which have increased over base period transportation costs because of longer hauls, have been selling the commodities at a loss of $3 to $5 per ton. Smaller dealers are unable to absorb this loss and have, consequently, discontinued selling the product. Most feeders are in no position to go into the surplus area markets themselves and buy the commodities directly. The result has been the drying up of the supply of much-needed proteins for livestock in the affected areas. Complaints and requests for remedial action have been received from members of the trade and feeders in shortage areas.

This supplementary regulation permits persons who purchase cottonseed meal, slab cake, sized cake, pellets and hulls to add to their ceiling prices increases in transportation costs over those incurred during the base period of the GCPR. It also permits purchasers from such persons to pass on to their customers the increased cost.

This supplementary regulation is not limited territorially, but is made applicable throughout the United States. It would be desirable to have it operative only in those areas where there is a shortage and where the addition of increased transportation cost to ceiling prices would be permitted solely as a means of relieving a shortage. Thus, ideally, the regulation would not permit increases in ceiling prices to the dealer whose inbound freight costs are higher now only because of a general increase in rail freight rates, and not because he pays for longer haulage than in the GCPR base period. However, it is not deemed administratively practicable to attempt, at this time, to treat the two types of transportation cost increases differently, either by applying the regulation only to shortage areas or otherwise. Therefore, the geographical scope of the regulation is bounded only by the continental limits of the United States.

Since it is expected that a "tailored" regulation taking cognizance of the situation will be issued before the condition recurs, and since the situation will be partially remedied by the marketing of the new cotton crop in the fall, this supplementary regulation is issued on a temporary basis. It will remain in effect only until September 1, 1951, unless superseded or withdrawn.

Special circumstances have rendered impracticable consultation with formal industry advisory committees or trade association representatives. However, the Director has received sufficient information to warrant issuance of this supplementary regulation on a temporary basis, and to conclude that it will relieve hardship.

In formulating this supplementary regulation, the Director of Price Stabilization gave due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In his judgment, the ceiling prices established by this supplementary regulation are generally fair and equitable, and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950.

SECTION 1. Applicability—(a) Persons to whom applicable. This supplementary regulation applies to processors of cottonseed meal, slab cake, sized cake, pellets and hulls who, after the effective date hereof, must pay higher inbound transportation costs for any of these commodities than they paid during the base period. It also applies to other sellers of these commodities whose suppliers' prices to them are increased by the operation of this regulation. To the extent that any of such persons use the commodities mentioned in this regulation in the preparation of a manufactured feed, as defined in Supplementary Regulation 7, their ceiling prices for such manufactured feeds are determined by that regulation and not by this one.

(b) Territorial applicability. This supplementary regulation is applicable to the continental United States.

SEC. 2. Processors; how to determine your ceiling price per ton for the unprocessed commodity. If you are in the business of producing cottonseed meal, slab cake, sized cake, pellets, or hulls mixed or for mixing, your ceiling price per ton for any one of these commodities, sold in the form in which you received it, is computed as follows:

(a) Upon receipt by you of a shipment of the commodity, calculate the base period average transportation cost paid or incurred by you per ton of that commodity;

(b) Determine the new transportation cost paid or incurred by you per ton of that commodity;

(c) Ascertain the dollars-and-cents difference between paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section;

(d) Add the dollars-and-cents difference thus found to your base period ceiling price per ton for that commodity.

The total is your new ceiling price per ton for that commodity.

SEC. 3. Processors; how to determine your ceiling price for a quantity less than a ton of the unprocessed commodity. If you are one of the persons described in section 2 of this regulation, and you wish to determine your ceiling price for a sale of less than one ton of one of the commodities enumerated in that section in the form in which you received it, make the following computations:

(a) Obtain the percentage relationship of the weight of the commodity involved in such sale to one ton;

(b) Multiply the percentage so obtained by the amount obtained in section 2 (c) of this regulation;

(c) Add the dollars-and-cents result obtained in paragraph (b) of this section to your base period ceiling price for the quantity involved in such sale.

The total is your new ceiling price for that quantity of the commodity.

Example: After the effective date of this supplementary regulation you receive a shipment of 30 tons of cottonseed meal. Your base period average transportation cost is $10.00 per ton and your new transportation cost is $15.00 per ton. Your base period ceiling price for a 100-pound sack of cottonseed meal is $4.80. Your new ceiling price for a sack of the same weight is figured as follows:

0.05—percentage relationship of 100 pounds to 1 ton
× $5.00—difference between base period average transportation cost and new transportation cost
$0.25
+ $4.80—base period ceiling price for 100-pound sack
$5.05—new ceiling price for 100-pound sack

SEC. 4. Processors; how to determine your ceiling price for the processed commodity. If you are one of the persons described in section 2 of this regulation, and you change the form of one of the commodities enumerated in that section (as, for example, by manufacturing cottonseed meal from slab cake), your ceiling price for the processed commodity is determined as follows:

(a) Ascertain the dollars-and-cents difference between the base period average transportation cost paid or incurred by you and the new transportation cost paid or incurred by you as set forth in section 2 (a), (b) and (c) of this regulation;

(b) Divide the amount so ascertained by the number of sales units of the processed commodity which you customarily obtain from one ton of the unprocessed commodity;

(c) Add the amount so determined to your base period ceiling price for a sales unit of the same weight as you used in the preceding paragraph (b) of this section.

The total is your new ceiling price for the processed commodity.

Example: Assume that you buy one ton of cottonseed meal after the effective date of this supplementary regulation and process it into pellets. You bag the pellets in 100-pound sacks. Your base period ceiling price is $5.00 per 100-pound sack. Assume also that the difference between your base period average transportation cost and your new transportation cost is $5.00 per ton. Assume further that from a ton of meal you obtain 20 sacks of pellets weighing 100 pounds each.

Your ceiling price will be calculated as follows:

$$\frac{\text{Amount of increase in transportation cost,}\ $5.00}{\text{Number of sales units customarily obtained per 1 ton of commodity,}\ 20} = $.25$$

$5.25 + $5.00 (base period ceiling price per 100-pound sack of pellets) = $5.25—your new ceiling price per 100-pound sack of pellets.

SEC. 5. Total quantity for which new ceiling prices may be charged. After receipt of a shipment of any of the commodities enumerated in section 2 of this regulation, you may charge the new ceiling prices as determined under sections 2, 3, and 4 of this regulation until the aggregate of the weights in your sales made after receipt of the shipment equals the weight of the shipment. If you receive a subsequent shipment bearing a higher new transportation cost, you may not increase your ceiling prices above the levels established on receipt of the previous shipment until you have sold an aggregate weight of the commodity equal to the weight of that previous shipment.

If you receive a subsequent shipment bearing a lower new transportation cost than the previous shipment, you must, after exhausting the previous shipment, recalculate your ceiling price by the method prescribed in sections 2, 3 or 4, whichever is applicable.

This means that on receipt of any shipment, you must determine what weight of the previous shipment remains unsold. You can do this merely by adding the weights in all the sales made by you after receipt of the previous shipment as shown by copies of invoices or sales slips delivered to your customers, or by other records, and comparing the total with the weight of the previous shipment.

SEC. 6. Sellers other than processors; effect on your ceiling prices of increases in your suppliers' prices. If you are not in the business of processing any of the commodities enumerated in section 2 of this regulation, and your cost for a sales unit of cottonseed meal, slab cake, sized cake, pellets, or hulls mixed or for mixing which you purchase is increased by the operation of this supplementary regulation, you may increase your base period ceiling price for such sales unit by the dollars-and-cents amount of the increase to you.

SEC. 7. Notice by sellers to purchasers. If you sell any of the commodities enumerated in section 2 of this regulation above your base period ceiling price, you must give your customer an invoice or sales slip which shows your price for each quantity of the commodity sold, broken down into two parts as follows:

(a) Your base period ceiling price for that quantity; and

(b) The amount of the increase in such ceiling price permitted by this supplementary regulation and charged by you, which must be identified by the following statement, affixed by rubber stamp or otherwise:

Increase in ceiling price permitted under OPS Supp. Reg. No. 31

SEC. 8. Records. If you sell any of the commodities enumerated in section 2 of this regulation, you must, for a period of two years, keep available for examination by the Director of Price Stabilization all invoices or sales slips, bills for transportation which you receive, and all other records showing the basis on which you have computed the increase in ceiling price permitted by this supplementary regulation for each sale of any of such commodities made by you during the period this supplementary regulation remains in effect. The requirements of this section are in addition to, and not in substitution for, the requirements contained in the GCPR regarding the keeping of records.

SEC. 9. Relation of this regulation to the GCPR. All provisions of the GCPR not inconsistent with the provisions of this supplementary regulation shall remain in effect.

SEC. 10. Definitions. As used in this supplementary regulation, the following terms shall have the following meanings, unless otherwise clearly required by the context:

(a) "Base period" means the base period established in the GCPR, that is, the period from December 19, 1950 to January 25, 1951, inclusive.

(b) "Base period average transportation cost" means the average transportation cost paid or incurred by you for shipment during the base period of the commodity for which you are determining the ceiling price pursuant to this supplementary regulation.

(c) "Base period ceiling price" means your ceiling price as established pursuant to the GCPR, including differentials allowable or required under that regulation.

(d) "GCPR" means the General Ceiling Price Regulation issued by the Director of Price Stabilization on January 26, 1951.

(e) "New transportation cost" means transportation cost paid or incurred by you for a shipment of cottonseed meal, slab cake, sized cake, pellets, or hulls mixed or for mixing, received by you after the effective date of this supplementary regulation.

(f) "Sales unit" means that weight of cottonseed meal, slab cake, sized cake, pellets, or hulls mixed or for mixing in which you customarily make sales of the commodity and for which you customarily calculate prices. An example is a 100-pound sack of cottonseed meal.

Effective Date. This supplementary regulation shall become effective June 6, 1951, and shall remain in effect until September 1, 1951, unless superseded or withdrawn.

NOTE: The record keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

MICHAEL V. DISALLE,
Director of Price Stabilization.

Chapter VI—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[Amendment 2 to NPA Order M-25, as Amended April 6, 1951]

M-25—CANS

MILK; BABY FOOD

This amendment of May 31, 1951, to NPA Order M-25 is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority granted by section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this amendment consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the necessity for immediate action.

This amendment affects NPA Order M-25, as amended April 6, 1951, as follows: It supersedes the amendment dated April 24, 1951, and revises item 125 of schedule I of NPA Order M-25 by establishing preference A for can sizes smaller than 5-gallon containers for packing milk, dry, whole, and listing certain changes in can material specifications for these containers. It revises item 167, Baby food, by including thereunder an additional subitem, "Dry milk base," and listing can material specifications for these containers.

Items 125 and 167 of schedule I are hereby revised and amended to read as follows:

Product	Preference	Quota	Can materials
			Soldered or welded parts	Nonsoldered parts
(1)	(2)	(3)	(4)	(5)
125. Milk, dry, whole, including dietary dried milk base products.	A	Unlimited
5-gallon and 50-pound cans			0.50	0.50
Sizes smaller than 5-gallon plate specifications apply through July 31, 1951.			.25	.25
Milk, dry, skimmed	A	Unlimited
5-gallon and 50-pound cans			.50	.50
167. Baby food	A	Unlimited
Dry milk base			.25	.25
Fruit			1.50	1.50
Vegetables			1.25	1.25
Meat			.50	.50
Fish			.50	.50
Vegetable with meat			1.25	1.25
Cereal, pudding and custards with fruits			1.50	1.50
Cereal, pudding and custards without fruits			.50	.50

(Sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61)

This amendment shall take effect on May 31, 1951.

[NPA Order M-65]

M-65—CONSERVATION OF METAL IN PRINTING PLATES

This order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority of section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 10 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61.

SECTION 1. What this order does. The purpose of this order is to conserve the supply of copper, aluminum, zinc, and other scarce metals, and prevent the holding of these metals in printing plates for an undue length of time. It specifies when printing plates shall be deemed obsolete, sets forth provisions for notification of such obsolescence, determines methods whereby such plates should be disposed of, and provides certain penalties for noncompliance with this order.

SEC. 2. Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(a) "Plate" means any kind or shape of metal printing or marking plate, cylinder, or other metal form, used in the printing process, except such as are composed only of lead, tin, and antimony.

(b) "Printing process" means the act or process of printing, impressing, or otherwise transferring on paper (or any paperlike substance), wood, fabric, metal, or other material, any ink, color, pigment, mark, character, or delineation, and includes any incidental or partial process required to prepare a plate for such use.

(c) A plate shall be deemed to be "obsolete" if, on April 1, 1951, or on the first day of any calendar quarter thereafter, it has been in existence for the period as specified below for the respective type of printing for which it is used and has not been used during such period:

(1) Newspaper printing: 1 year.

(2) Magazine and periodical printing: 1 year.

(3) Book printing: 4 years.

(4) Container printing: 1 year.

(5) All other categories of printing: 2½ years.

(d) The regraining or other preparation of a planographic or intaglio plate for reuse shall be deemed a "use" of such plate within the meaning of paragraph (c) of this section.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, a plate shall not be deemed to be obsolete at any time when the person in possession thereof knows that there is a specific and assured future use for the same.

(f) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(g) "Restricted metal" means aluminum, chromium, copper, nickel, zinc, or any alloy thereof.

SEC. 3. Disposition of plates. Any person owning or possessing obsolete plates shall (subject to the provisions of section 4 of this order), by the first day of the calendar quarter after the date upon which such plates have become obsolete, sell or deliver such plates to a scrap metal dealer, secondary smelter, or refiner, or shall melt and reuse them himself, subject to the provisions of any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority.

SEC. 4. Notices. (a) The person in possession of any obsolete plates, if not the owner thereof, shall, on or before June 15, 1951, and at least once every 3 months thereafter, notify the owner that such plates are deemed obsolete under this order, and shall identify such plates by title and subject matter. If the owner of such plates is not known, the person in possession shall notify the person from whom such plates were received or from whom an order to make such plates was received. Such notice shall be given by mailing a letter to the owner, or other persons as described above, addressed to the last known address of such person. If, within 30 days after the mailing of such notice, the person in possession of such plates receives an answer in which the owner states that he has a specific and assured future use for the plates and indicates what such use is, the person in possession need not treat them as obsolete. If, however, no such answer is received, or if the owner gives instructions to dispose of such plates, the person in possession shall dispose of such plates in accordance with the provisions of section 3 of this order.

(b) If a person, other than the person in possession or the owner, has a contractual right to purchase or otherwise acquire any obsolete plates, the owner shall, on or before June 15, 1951, and at least once every 3 months thereafter, notify such other person that he has such contractual right and that such plates are deemed obsolete under this order, and shall identify such plates by title and subject matter. Such notice shall be given as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, and, unless an answer shall be received as therein provided, the plates shall be disposed of as provided in section 3 of this order.

SEC. 5. Restrictions on receipt and use of metal. (a) If, on July 1, 1951, or on the first day of any succeeding calendar quarter, any person owns or is in possession of any obsolete plates which he has not disposed of as required by section 3 of this order, such person shall not, until he has disposed of such plates, acquire or take possession of any plates containing restricted metals or any restricted metals for conversion into plates.

(b) On and after July 1, 1951, each person who acquires any plates, or any restricted metal for conversion into plates, shall endorse on each purchase or other order for such plates or metal a statement in the following form, signed as provided in section 8 of NPA Reg. 2:

The undersigned certifies, subject to statutory penalties, that the acquisition by the undersigned of the plates or restricted metal herein ordered will not be in violation of NPA Order M-65.

(c) No person shall sell, deliver, or otherwise transfer any plates, or restricted metal for conversion into plates, unless the purchase or other order shall contain thereon the endorsement required by paragraph (b) of this section.

SEC. 6. Restriction on gage of sheet zinc. On and after July 1, 1951, any person manufacturing printing plates using sheet zinc shall not use a lighter gage of such zinc than was used for similar purposes during the first 5 months of 1951. If such manufacturer used sheet zinc of different gages for similar purposes in the said base period, he shall not (on and after July 1, 1951), make any greater proportional use of sheet zinc of 18-gage or lighter than he did in the said base period.

SEC. 7. Applications for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In considering requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

SEC. 8. Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve, for as long as this or any successor order shall remain in effect and for 2 years thereafter, accurate and complete records of their inventory, production, transfer, and disposal of plates in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines that the provisions of this order have been met. This order does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily used, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals by those persons who have or who may maintain such microfilm or other photographic records in the regular and usual course of business. All records required by this order shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority. All persons subject to this order shall keep such other records and file such reports as may be required subject to approval by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139-139F).

SEC. 9. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C. Ref. Order M-65.

SEC. 10. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority or who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order shall take effect on May 31, 1951.

12. Violations.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 12 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61.

SECTION 1. What this order does. The purpose of this order is to conserve and provide for the distribution of the limited supply of artificial graphite products and carbon electrodes so as best to serve the interests of national defense and essential civilian production. This order establishes limits on inventory and brings artificial graphite and carbon electrodes under allocation by prohibiting, subject to a limited exception, any deliveries or acceptance of deliveries not covered by allocation authorizations to be issued quarterly by the National Production Authority. Provision is thus made whereby the supply remaining after defense requirements are met may be equitably distributed through normal channels for essential civilian uses and with due regard for the needs of new and small businesses.

SEC. 2. Application of this order. This order applies to the delivery and receipt of artificial graphite and of carbon electrodes in the electrothermic, electrolytic, and special metallurgical and chemical fields.

SEC. 3. Relation to other regulations. The provisions of this order supersede all NPA regulations and orders to the extent that they are inconsistent herewith, but in all other respects such regulations and orders remain applicable to artificial graphite and carbon electrodes. The National Production Authority may from time to time issues special directives as to deliveries of artificial graphite and carbon electrodes and, unless otherwise provided therein, such directives will prevail over the provisions of this order.

SEC. 4. Definitions. For purposes of this order:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes agencies of the United States or any other government. In the case of any person as herein defined who operates more than one plant at different locations, the word "person" shall mean each such separate operation.

(b) "Artificial graphite" means: (1) Solid graphite electrodes, plain or threaded, for use in electric arc or resistor furnaces; (2) solid graphite anodes, plain, machined, or treated, for use in electrolytic cells; and (3) solid graphite shapes (round, square, or rectangular), unmachined and not otherwise processed by the producer, for use in metallurgical, chemical, or electronic applications.

(c) "Carbon electrodes" means that product produced in a baking furnace from a mixture of calcined anthracite coal and pitch or other suitable binders and includes graphite nipples.

SEC. 5. Restrictions on delivery or use. (a) On and after July 1, 1951, no person shall deliver or accept delivery of any artificial graphite or of any carbon electrodes, whether on rated or unrated orders, except in accordance with the terms of an allocation authorization issued by the National Production Authority on Form NPAF-97.

(b) Application for an allocation authorization must be filed with the National Production Authority by the purchaser on Form NPAF-97 not later than the 10th day of the month preceding the calendar quarter in which delivery is sought. Such application shall be in quadruplicate and must furnish all information required by the form.

(c) An authorization allocation (Form NPAF-97) will be sent by the National Production Authority to the appropriate supplier(s) specifying the amount authorized to be delivered to the applicant during the quarter period and the applicant will be notified of the issuance thereof. The authorization will permit the supplier to make delivery to the extent of the purchaser's orders within the limit of the authorization. In placing his orders the purchaser shall specify the date and the serial number of the applicable allocation authorization.

SEC. 6. Exceptions from allocation requirements. The provisions of section 5 of this order shall not apply to:

(a) Deliveries of graphite electrodes of less than 1-inch cross section.

(b) Deliveries of artificial graphite or of carbon electrodes to any person whose total receipts of artificial graphite and carbon electrodes from all sources during the current quarter are not thereby made to exceed 500 pounds and who so certifies to his supplier in substantially the following words on his order:

> The undersigned certifies to the supplier and to the National Production Authority that receipt of the material hereby ordered in the quarter requested will not bring his total receipts of artificial graphite and carbon electrodes during that quarter above 500 pounds.

SEC. 7. Inventory limitations—(a) Artificial graphite anodes. No person, notwithstanding any allocation made to him, shall accept delivery of artificial graphite anodes, at a time when his inventory of such products exceeds, or by acceptance of such delivery would be made to exceed, 20 weeks' minimum requirements at his then scheduled rate and method of operation.

(b) Other artificial graphite and carbon electrodes. No person shall accept delivery of any artificial graphite other than anodes or of any carbon electrodes, whether or not an allocation has been made to him at a time when his inventory of such material exceeds, or by acceptance of such delivery would be made to exceed, 4 weeks' minimum requirements at his then scheduled rate and method of operation: Provided, however, That a pool car buyer located west of the Mississippi River shall not accept delivery of such materials at a time when his inventory thereof exceeds, or by acceptance of such delivery would be made to exceed, 8 weeks' minimum requirements at his then scheduled rate and method of operation.

SEC. 8. Reports. (a) Subject to the exceptions contained in section 6 of this order, every person who produces, ships, owns, or consumes any artificial graphite or any carbon electrodes during any calendar month commencing with May 1951 shall report to the National Production Authority on Form NPAF-97 on or before the 10th day of the following month. However, if any such person applies on such form for an allocation of artificial graphite products or carbon electrodes for delivery during the succeeding quarter, his application will also serve as the report required by this section for the preceding month.

(b) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to the National Production Authority as it shall require subject to the provisions of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F.)

NOTE: All record-keeping and reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act.

SEC. 9. Audit and inspection. All records required by this order shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the NPA.

SEC. 10. Applications for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that any provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

SEC. 11. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–66.

SEC. 12. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority or who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

This order shall take effect on May 31, 1951.

Chapter III—Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, Social Security Administration, Federal Security Agency

PART 301—ORGANIZATION AND OPERATION OF FEDERAL CREDIT UNIONS

PART 320—DISCLOSURE OF OFFICIAL RECORDS AND INFORMATION

FEE FOR EXAMINATION; INFORMATION WHICH MAY BE DISCLOSED AND TO WHOM

Notice having been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 16, 1951 (16 F. R. 4590), that the Director of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, with the approval of the Commissioner for Social Security and the Federal Security Administrator, proposed to prescribe certain regulations in lieu of the § 301.7 and § 320.4 of the present regulations of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions (45 CFR § 301.7 and § 320.4) and that prior to the official adoption of the proposed regulations, consideration would be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto submitted to the Director of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, Federal Security Agency, Washington 25, D. C., within a period of 15 days from the date of publication of the notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, and the regulations proposed to be adopted having been set forth in the FEDERAL REGISTER on page 4590 (16 F. R. 4590), and the 15-day period having elapsed and due consideration having been given to written views and data submitted and to the views offered during oral hearings, now, therefore, the proposed regulations as printed in the FEDERAL REGISTER (16 F. R. 4590) are hereby adopted and promulgated effective thirty days after the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: June 1, 1951.

[SEAL] C. R. ORCHARD, Director,
Bureau of Federal Credit Unions.

Approved: June 1, 1951.

W. L. MITCHELL,
Acting Commissioner for Social Security.

Approved: June 1, 1951.

JOHN L. THURSTON,
Acting Federal Security Administrator.

1. Section 301.7 (15 F. R. 3526) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 301.7 Fee for examination. Each Federal credit union shall pay to the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions a fee for each examination. Except as to instances to which § 301.8 are applicable, the fee shall be assessed at 50 cents per $100 of the Federal credit union's assets as of the effective date of the examination or at the examiner-day rate fixed by the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, whichever is lower: Provided, however, That the minimum fee for each examination shall be $5.00. During the months of June and December of each year, the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions shall compute and fix the examiner-day rate for making examinations for the ensuing 6-month period beginning July 1 and January 1, respectively. In computing this examiner-day rate, the Bureau will be guided by the anticipated cost of the examination program including but not limited to such items as salaries, travel, etc., which are properly chargeable to the examination program. Adjustments in the examiner-day rate will be made promptly to reflect any legislative changes in travel allowances and salary classifications applicable to Federal credit union examiners. The check in payment of the examination fee shall be made payable to the Treasurer of the United States and the check shall be delivered to the examiner at the completion of the examination.

(Sec. 16, 48 Stat. 1221, as amended; 12 U. S. C. 1766)

2. Section 320.4 (13 F. R. 9347) is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 320.4 Information which may be disclosed and to whom. Disclosure of any records or information of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions declared to be confidential is hereby authorized only in the following cases and for the following purposes:

(a) To any Department, Agency or instrumentality of the United States Government where the records or information are required by such Department, Agency or instrumentality in the course of discharging its official duties: Provided, That the Director, Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, finds that such disclosure is not contrary to the public interest or to any applicable Federal law, or to any rule, regulation, or directive of the Executive branch of the Federal Government.

(b) To the proper Federal law enforcement and prosecuting authorities: Provided, That (1) such records or information relate to a violation of a Federal criminal law, and (2) such disclosure is not contrary to any Federal law or to any rule, regulation or directive of the Executive branch of the Federal Government. Neither the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions nor any employee of the Bureau may disclose any records or information to any State law enforcement or prosecuting authority unless specifically authorized to make such disclosure by the Director of the Bureau. The Director, Bureau of Federal Credit Unions may authorize the Bureau or an employee of the Bureau to disclose records or information relating to the violation of a State criminal law to appropriate State law enforcement and prosecuting authorities, provided that such disclosure is not contrary to any Federal law or to any rule, regulation or directive of the Executive branch of the Federal Government if the Director determines that such disclosure (1) is not contrary to the public interest and (2) will neither interfere with nor adversely affect either the performance of the functions, duties or responsibilities of the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions or any investigation or prosecution which may be conducted or contemplated either by the Bureau or by any other Federal department agency or instrumentality.

(c) To any person properly and directly concerned upon a verified written application by such person showing substantial interest in the said record or information: Provided, That the Director, Bureau of Federal Credit Unions, finds that such disclosure is not contrary to the public interest or to any Federal law, rule, regulation or directive of the Executive branch of the Federal Government.

(d) To any Federal credit union: Provided, That (1) such records or information pertain solely to the affairs of the said Federal credit union, and (2) the records or information are not classified "restricted" by the Bureau of Federal Credit Unions.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 921]

[Docket No. AO-222 A-1]

HANDLING OF MILK IN SPRINGFIELD, MO., MILK MARKETING AREA

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO THE ORDER

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of a public hearing to be held at the Greene County Courthouse, Springfield, Missouri, beginning at 9:30 a. m., c. s. t., June 7, 1951, for the purpose of receiving evidence with respect to proposed amendments hereinafter set forth, or appropriate modifications thereof, to the tentative marketing agreement heretofore approved by the Secretary of Agriculture and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Springfield, Missouri, milk marketing area (7 CFR, 921.0 et seq.). These proposed amendments have not received the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

Amendments to the Order (No. 21) for the Springfield, Missouri, milk marketing area were proposed, as follows:

By the Greene County Milk Producers Association:

1. Amend the provisions of § 921.9 so as to exclude from the definition of handler any operator of an approved plant who does not dispose of in excess of a specified minimum percentage of his total Class I receipts within the defined marketing area.

2. Amend § 921.10 to read as follows:

§ 921.10 Approved plant. Approved plant means any milk plant or portion thereof which is approved by the appropriate health authority of the City of Springfield, Missouri, for the processing of Grade A milk in the marketing area and from which all or portion of such Grade A milk is disposed of as Class I in the marketing area on wholesale or retail routes (including plant stores and routes operated by the vendors).

3. Amend the order by adding a new section to read as follows:

§ 921.35 Each handler shall submit to a cooperative association, as defined in § 921.6, on or before the 20th day of each month, a break down of all information required to be reported to the Market Administrator for each member of such a cooperative association, pursuant to the provisions of § 921.30 and § 921.31.

4. Consider proposals to amend the provisions of § 921.51 (a) to consider a higher level of Class I prices during all months of the year, and consider proposals to amend the provisions of § 921.51 (b) to consider a higher level of Class II prices during all months of the year.

By the Producers Creamery Company:

5. Amend paragraph (a) of § 921.51 to provide that so much of such paragraph as reads: "other than April, May and June," be deleted.

6. Amend paragraph (b) of § 921.51 to provide that so much of such paragraph as reads: "except that for the delivery periods of April, May, June and July 1951 the price for Class II milk shall be suen basic formula price less 15 cents," be deleted.

By Cloverleaf Dairy Company, Hiland Dairy, Okino Dairy, and Patton Creamery Company:

7. Amend § 921.9 by adding a new paragraph (c) as follows:

(c) Any person, other than a producer-handler, in his capacity as operator of an unapproved plant which is used in the processing and packaging of milk, any portion of which is disposed of from such plant on wholesale or retail routes (including plant stores or through vendors) within the delivery period as Class I milk in the marketing area.

8. Open §§ 921.50 Basic formula price and 921.51 Class prices for consideration and the receipt of evidence pertaining to the entire problem of the pricing of milk.

9. Add a new § 921.63 to provide that a handler disposing of bulk milk in the form of milk, skim milk or cream in a market located 125 miles or more from the City Hall in Springfield, Missouri, which market is under another Federal order and wherein the Class I price is higher than the Class I price established herein, shall account to the producer-settlement fund herein for all such milk at the Class I price plus an amount equal to the difference between the Class I prices in the two markets.

10. Add a new § 921.64 to provide that a handler operating an unapproved plant and disposing of Class I milk within the marketing area shall pay to the market administrator for deposit in the producer-settlement fund an amount of money computed by multiplying the quantity of Class I milk disposed of within the marketing area during the delivery period by the difference between the price of Class II milk and the price of Class I milk, adjusted for butterfat differentials.

11. Open up for consideration and the receipt of evidence and amend all pertinent sections of the order so as to provide for the standard individual-handler type pool in lieu of the market-wide pool as now existing.

By Andrew Howard, Billings, Missouri:

12. Amend the order to provide that in place of the market-wide pool that there simply be a plant pool and each plant establish its blend price for milk, or that the large plant in the area which has a low Class I utilization be eliminated from the pool and no plants be permitted to enter the market pool unless they do have a high Class I utilization for milk.

By Frank Pilley & Sons:

13. Delete § 921.10 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 921.10 Approved plant. "Approved plant" means a milk plant, or portion thereof, which is approved by the appropriate health authorities of the city of Springfield, Missouri, and such plant bottles milk which is disposed of in the marketing area on wholesale or retail routes (including plant stores and routes operated by vendors).

14. Delete paragraph (a) of § 921.51 and substitute therefor the following:

(a) Class I milk. The price for Class I milk shall be the basic formula price, plus the following amounts: $1.08 for the delivery periods of July through December, and 83 cents for the delivery periods of January through June.

15. Delete paragraph (b) of § 921.51 and substitute therefor the following:

(b) Class II milk. The price for Class II milk shall be the basic formula price.

By Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration:

16. Make such other changes as may be required to make the entire marketing agreement and order conform with any amendments thereto that may result from this hearing.

Copies of this notice of hearing and of the order now in effect may be procured from the Market Administrator, 4030 Chouteau Avenue, St. Louis 10, Missouri, or from the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353, South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., or may be there inspected.

Dated: May 29, 1951.

ECONOMIC STABILIZATION AGENCY

Office of Price Stabilization

[Ceiling Price Regulation 7, Section 43, Special Order 47]

SWANK, INC.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL

Statement of considerations. In accordance with section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, the applicant named in the accompanying special order, Swank, Inc., Attleboro, Massachusetts, has applied to the Office of Price Stabilization for maximum resale prices for retail sales of certain of its articles. Applicant has submitted the information required under this section and has produced evidence which in the judgment of the Director indicates that the applicant has complied with other stated requirements.

The Director has determined on the basis of information available to him, including the data and certified conclusions of fact submitted by the applicant, that the retail ceiling prices requested and which are established by this special order are no higher than the level of ceiling prices under Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

The special order contains provisions requiring each article to be marked by the applicant with the retail ceiling price established by the accompanying special order. The applicant is required to send purchasers of the articles a copy of this special order, a notice listing retail ceiling prices for each cost line and, in specified cases, of subsequent amendments of this special order.

The special order also requires applicant to file with the Distribution Price Branch regular reports setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which applicant has delivered during the reporting period. This requirement conforms with the provisions of section 43, Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and pursuant to section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, this special order is hereby issued.

1. The ceiling prices for sales after the effective date of this special order by any seller at retail of men's jewelry and novelty products sold by Swank, Inc., having the brand name(s) "Swank", shall be the proposed retail ceiling prices listed by Swank, Inc., in its application dated April 5, 1951, and filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

2. The retail ceiling price of an article fixed in paragraph 1 of this special order shall apply to any other article of the same type which is otherwise priceable under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 by retailers subject to that regulation, having the same selling price and terms of sale to the retailer, the same brand or company name and first sold by the manufacturer after the effective date of this special order.

3. On and after July 2, 1951, Swank, Inc., must mark each article for which a ceiling price has been established in paragraph 1 of this special order with the retail ceiling price under this special order, or attach to the article a label, tag or ticket stating the retail ceiling price. This mark or statement must be in the following form:

OPS—Sec. 43—CI R 7
Price $_____

On and after July 31, 1951, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is marked or tagged in the form stated above. Prior to July 31, 1951, unless the article is marked or tagged in this form, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

Upon issuance of any amendment to this special order which either adds an article to those already listed in the manufacturer's application or changes the retail ceiling price of a listed article, Swank, Inc., must comply, as to each such article, with the preticketing requirements of this paragraph within 30 days after the effective date of the amendment. After 60 days from the effective date, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is ticketed in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph. Prior to the expiration of the 60-day period, unless the article is so ticketed, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

4. Within 15 days after the effective date of this special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of this special order to each purchaser for resale to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date, the manufacturer had delivered any article covered in paragraph 1 of this special order. The manufacturer shall annex to that order a notice, listing the cost and discount terms to retailers for each article covered by this order and the corresponding retail ceiling price fixed by this order for an article of that cost. The notice shall be in substantially the following form:

(Column 1) Our price to retailers	(Column 2) Retailer's ceilings for articles of cost listed in column 1
$_____ per _____	{unit, dozen, etc.}
Terms _____ (net or percent EOM, etc.) $_____:

Copies shall be sent to all other purchasers on or before the date of the first delivery of any such article subsequent to the effective date of the special order, and shall be accompanied by copies of each amendment thereto (if any) issued prior to the date of the delivery. Within 15 days after the effective date of any subsequent amendment to the special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of the amendment to each purchaser to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment, the seller had delivered any article the sale of which is affected in any manner by the amendment.

5. Within 45 days of the expiration of the first 6 months period following the effective date of this special order and within 45 days of the expiration of each successive 6 months period, the manufacturer shall file with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which he has delivered in that 6 months period.

6. The provisions of this special order establish the ceiling price for sales at retail of the articles covered by it regardless of whether the seller is otherwise subject to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or any other regulation.

7. This special order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

8. The provisions of this special order are applicable to the United States and the District of Columbia.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective June 1, 1951.

EDWARD F. PHELPS, Jr., Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

HARTMANN CO.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL

Statement of considerations. In accordance with section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, the applicant named in the accompanying special order, Hartmann Company, 1500 Hamilton Street, Racine, Wisconsin, has applied to the Office of Price Stabilization for maximum resale prices for retail sales of certain of its articles. Applicant has submitted the information required under this section and has produced evidence which in the judgment of the Director indicates that the applicant has complied with other stated requirements.

The Director has determined on the basis of information available to him, including the data and certified conclusions of fact submitted by the applicant, that the retail ceiling prices requested and which are established by this special order are no higher than the level of ceiling prices under Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

The special order contains provisions requiring each article to be marked by the applicant with the retail ceiling price established by the accompanying special order. The applicant is required to send purchasers of the articles a copy of this special order, a notice listing retail ceiling prices for each cost line and, in specified cases, of subsequent amendments of this special order.

The special order also requires applicant to file with the Distribution Price Branch regular reports setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which applicant has delivered during the reporting period. This requirement conforms with the provisions of section 43, Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and pursuant to section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, this special order is hereby issued.

1. The ceiling prices for sales after the effective date of this special order by any seller at retail of luggage manufactured by Hartmann Company, having the brand name(s) "Hartmann", shall be the proposed retail ceiling prices listed by Hartmann Company in its application dated April 16, 1951, and filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

2. The retail ceiling price of an article fixed in paragraph 1 of this special order shall apply to any other article of the same type which is otherwise priceable under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 by retailers subject to that regulation, having the same selling price and terms of sale to the retailer, the same brand or company name and first sold by the manufacturer after the effective date of this special order.

3. On and after July 2, 1951, Hartmann Company must mark each article for which a ceiling price has been established in paragraph 1 of this special order with the retail ceiling price under this special order, or attach to the article a label, tag or ticket stating the retail ceiling price. This mark or statement must be in the following form:

Price $_____

On and after July 31, 1951, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is marked or tagged in the form stated above. Prior to July 31, 1951, unless the article is marked or tagged in this form, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

Upon issuance of any amendment to this special order which either adds an article to those already listed in the manufacturer's application or changes the retail ceiling price of a listed article, Hartmann Company, must comply, as to each such article, with the preticketing requirements of this paragraph within 30 days after the effective date of the amendment. After 60 days from the effective date, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is ticketed in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph. Prior to the expiration of the 60-day period, unless the article is so ticketed, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

4. Within 15 days after the effective date of this special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of this special order to each purchaser for resale to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date, the manufacturer had delivered any article covered in paragraph 1 of this special order. The manufacturer shall annex to that order a notice, listing the cost and discount terms to retailers for each article covered by this order and the corresponding retail ceiling price fixed by this order for an article of that cost. The notice shall be in substantially the following form:

(Column 1) Our price to retailers	(Column 2) Retailer's ceilings for articles of cost listed in column 1
$_____ per _____	{unit, dozen, etc.}
Terms _____ (net or percent EOM, etc.) $_____:

Copies shall be sent to all other purchasers on or before the date of the first delivery of any such article subsequent to the effective date of the special order, and shall be accompanied by copies of each amendment thereto (if any) issued prior to the date of the delivery. Within 15 days after the effective date of any subsequent amendment to the special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of the amendment to each purchaser to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment, the seller had delivered any article the sale of which is affected in any manner by the amendment.

5. Within 45 days of the expiration of the first 6 months period following the effective date of this special order and within 45 days of the expiration of each successive 6 months period, the manufacturer shall file with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which he has delivered in that 6 months period.

6. The provisions of this special order establish the ceiling price for sales at retail of the articles covered by it regardless of whether the seller is otherwise subject to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or any other regulation.

7. This special order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

8. The provisions of this special order are applicable to the United States and the District of Columbia.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective June 1, 1951.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL

Statement of considerations. In accordance with section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, the applicant named in the accompanying special order, S. Dennis Inc., 1 East 33d Street, New York 16, N. Y., has applied to the Office of Price Stabilization for maximum resale prices for retail sales of certain of its articles. Applicant has submitted the information required under this section and has produced evidence which in the judgment of the Director indicates that the applicant has complied with other stated requirements.

The Director has determined on the basis of information available to him, including the data and certified conclusions of fact submitted by the applicant, that the retail ceiling prices requested and which are established by this special order are no higher than the level of ceiling prices under Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

The special order contains provisions requiring each article to be marked by the applicant with the retail ceiling price established by the accompanying special order. The applicant is required to send purchasers of the articles a copy of this special order, a notice listing retail ceiling prices for each cost line and, in specified cases, of subsequent amendments of this special order.

The special order also requires applicant to file with the Distribution Price Branch regular reports setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which applicant has delivered during the reporting period. This requirement conforms with the provisions of section 43, Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and pursuant to section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, this special order is hereby issued.

1. The ceiling prices for sales after the effective date of this special order by any seller at retail of men's novelty sport shirts manufactured by S. Dennis, Inc., having the brand name(s) "Dennis", shall be the proposed retail ceiling prices listed by S. Dennis, Inc., in its application dated April 2, 1951, and filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

2. The retail ceiling price of an article fixed in paragraph 1 of this special order shall apply to any other article of the same type which is otherwise priceable under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 by retailers subject to that regulation, having the same selling price and terms of sale to the retailer, the same brand or company name and first sold by the manufacturer after the effective date of this special order.

3. On and after July 2, 1951, S. Dennis, Inc., must mark each article for which a ceiling price has been established in paragraph 1 of this special order with the retail ceiling price under this special order, or attach to the article a label, tag or ticket stating the retail ceiling price. This mark or statement must be in the following form:

Price $--------

On and after July 31, 1951, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is marked or tagged in the form stated above. Prior to July 31, 1951, unless the article is marked or tagged in this form, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

Upon issuance of any amendment to this special order which either adds an article to those already listed in the manufacturer's application or changes the retail ceiling price of a listed article, S. Dennis, Inc., must comply, as to each such article, with the preticketing requirements of this paragraph within 30 days after the effective date of the amendment. After 60 days from the effective date, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is ticketed in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph. Prior to the expiration of the 60-day period, unless the article is so ticketed, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

4. Within 15 days after the effective date of this special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of this special order to each purchaser for resale to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date, the manufacturer had delivered any article covered in paragraph 1 of this special order. The manufacturer shall annex to that order a notice, listing the cost and discount terms to retailers for each article covered by this order and the corresponding retail ceiling price fixed by this order for an article of that cost. The notice shall be in substantially the following form:

(Column 1)	(Column 2)
Our price to retailers	Retailer's ceilings for articles of cost listed in column 1
$------- per --------	unit, dozen, etc.
Terms ------- (net or percent EOM, etc.) $-------:

Copies shall be sent to all other purchasers on or before the date of the first delivery of any such article subsequent to the effective date of the special order, and shall be accompanied by copies of each amendment thereto (if any) issued prior to the date of the delivery. Within 15 days after the effective date of any subsequent amendment to the special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of the amendment to each purchaser to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment, the seller had delivered any article the sale of which is affected in any manner by the amendment.

5. Within 45 days of the expiration of the first 6-months period following the effective date of this special order and within 45 days of the expiration of each successive 6-months period, the manufacturer shall file with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which he has delivered in that 6-months period.

6. The provisions of this special order establish the ceiling price for sales at retail of the articles covered by it regardless of whether the seller is otherwise subject to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or any other regulation.

7. This special order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

8. The provisions of this special order are applicable to the United States and the District of Columbia.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective June 1, 1951.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 7, Section 43, Special Order 50]

ENGLANDER CO., INC.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL

Statement of considerations. In accordance with section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, the applicant named in the accompanying special order, The Englander Company, Inc., 2447 West Roosevelt Road, Chicago 8, Illinois, has applied to the Office of Price Stabilization for maximum resale prices for retail sales of certain of its articles. Applicant has submitted the information required under this section and has produced evidence which in the judgment of the Director indicates that the applicant has complied with other stated requirements.

The Director has determined on the basis of information available to him, including the data and certified conclusions of fact submitted by the applicant, that the retail ceiling prices requested and which are established by this special order are no higher than the level of ceiling prices under Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

The special order contains provisions requiring each article to be marked by the applicant with the retail ceiling price established by the accompanying special order. The applicant is required to send purchasers of the articles a copy of this special order, a notice listing retail ceiling prices for each cost line and, in specified cases, of subsequent amendments of this special order.

The special order also requires applicant to file with the Distribution Price Branch regular reports setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which applicant has delivered during the reporting period. This requirement conforms with the provisions of section 43, Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and pursuant to section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, this special order is hereby issued.

1. The ceiling prices for sales after the effective date of this special order by any seller at retail of mattresses and box springs, manufactured by The Englander Company, Inc., having the brand name(s) "Airfoam", "Riviera", "Bodyform", "Fortune", "Super Bodyguard", "Featherest", "Super Properest", "Supreme", "Super Viceroy", "Properest", "Dream King", "Dream Queen", "Dream Prince", "Super Dream Princess", and "King's Rest", shall be the proposed retail ceiling prices listed by The Englander Company, Inc., in its application dated March 6, 1951, and filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

2. The retail ceiling price of an article fixed in paragraph 1 of this special order shall apply to any other article of the same type which is otherwise priceable under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 by retailers subject to that regulation, having the same selling price and terms of sale to the retailer, the same brand or company name and first sold by the manufacturer after the effective date of this special order.

3. On and after July 2, 1951, The Englander Company, Inc., must mark each article for which a ceiling price has been established in paragraph 1 of this special order with the retail ceiling price under this special order, or attach to the article a label, tag or ticket stating the retail ceiling price. This mark or statement must be in the following form:

Price $------

On and after July 31, 1951, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is marked or tagged in the form stated above. Prior to July 31, 1951, unless the article is marked or tagged in this form, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

Upon issuance of any amendment to this special order which either adds an article to those already listed in the manufacturer's application or changes the retail ceiling price of a listed article, The Englander Company, Inc., must comply, as to each such article, with the preticketing requirements of this paragraph within 30 days after the effective date of the amendment. After 60 days from the effective date, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is ticketed in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph. Prior to the expiration of the 60-day period, unless the article is so ticketed, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

4. Within 15 days after the effective date of this special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of this special order to each purchaser for resale to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date of the first 6 months period following the effective date of this special order and within 45 days of the expiration of each successive 6 months period, the manufacturer shall file with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which he has delivered in that 6 months period.

6. The provisions of this special order establish the ceiling price for sales at retail of the articles covered by it regardless of whether the seller is otherwise subject to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or any other regulation.

7. This special order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

8. The provisions of this special order are applicable to the United States and the District of Columbia.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective June 1, 1951.

TAYLOR BEDDING MFG. CO.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL

Statement of considerations. In accordance with section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, the applicant named in the accompanying special order, Taylor Bedding Manufacturing Co., Taylor, Texas, has applied to the Office of Price Stabilization for maximum resale prices for retail sales of certain of its articles. Applicant has submitted the information required under this section and has produced evidence which in the judgment of the Director indicates that the applicant has complied with other stated requirements.

The Director has determined on the basis of information available to him, including the data and certified conclusions of fact submitted by the applicant, that the retail ceiling prices requested and which are established by this special order are no higher than the level of ceiling prices under Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

The special order contains provisions requiring each article to be marked by the applicant with the retail ceiling price established by the accompanying special order. The applicant is required to send purchasers of the articles a copy of this special order, a notice listing retail ceiling prices for each cost line and, in specified cases, of subsequent amendments of this special order.

The special order also requires applicant to file with the Distribution Price Branch regular reports setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which applicant has delivered during the reporting period. This requirement conforms with the provisions of section 43, Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and pursuant to section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, this special order is hereby issued.

1. The ceiling prices for sales after the effective date of this special order by any seller at retail of mattresses and box springs manufactured by Taylor Bedding Manufacturing Co., having the brand name(s) "Morning Glory", shall be the proposed retail ceiling price listed by Taylor Bedding Manufacturing Co., in its application dated March 8, 1951, and filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

2. The retail ceiling price of an article fixed in paragraph 1 of this special order shall apply to any other article of the same type which is otherwise priceable under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 by retailers subject to that regulation, having the same selling price and terms of sale to the retailer, the same brand or company name and first sold by the manufacturer after the effective date of this special order.

3. On and after July 2, 1951, Taylor Bedding Manufacturing Co. must mark each article for which a ceiling price has been established in paragraph 1 of this special order with the retail ceiling price under this special order, or attach to the article a label, tag or ticket stating the retail ceiling price. This mark or statement must be in the following form:

OPS—Sec. 43—CPR 7

On and after July 31, 1951, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is marked or tagged in the form stated above. Prior to July 31, 1951, unless the article is marked or tagged in this form, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

Upon issuance of any amendment to this special order which either adds an article to those already listed in the manufacturer's application or changes the retail ceiling price of a listed article, Taylor Bedding Manufacturing Co. must comply, as to each such article, with the preticketing requirements of this paragraph within 30 days after the effective date of the amendment. After 60 days from the effective date, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is ticketed in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph. Prior to the expiration of the 60-day period, unless the article is so ticketed, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

4. Within 15 days after the effective date of this special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of this special order to each purchaser for resale to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date, the manufacturer had delivered any article covered in paragraph 1 of this special order. The manufacturer shall annex to that order a notice, listing the cost and discount terms to retailers for each article covered by this order and the corresponding retail ceiling price fixed by this order for an article of that cost. The notice shall be in substantially the following form:

(Column 1)	(Column 2)
Our price to retailers	Retailer's ceilings for articles of cost listed in column 1

$_____ per _____ (unit, dozen, etc.)
Terms _____ (net or percent EOM, etc.) $_____

Copies shall be sent to all other purchasers on or before the date of the first delivery of any such article subsequent to the effective date of the special order, and shall be accompanied by copies of each amendment thereto (if any) issued prior to the date of the delivery. Within 15 days after the effective date of any subsequent amendment to the special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of the amendment to each purchaser to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment, the seller had delivered any article the sale of which is affected in any manner by the amendment.

5. Within 45 days of the expiration of the first 6 months period following the effective date of this special order and within 45 days of the expiration of each successive 6 months period, the manufacturer shall file with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which he has delivered in that 6 months period.

6. The provisions of this special order establish the ceiling price for sales at retail of the articles covered by it regardless of whether the seller is otherwise subject to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or any other regulation.

7. This special order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

8. The provisions of this special order are applicable to the United States and the District of Columbia.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective June 1, 1951.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 7, Section 43, Special Order 55]

MORRIS FURNITURE MFG. CO., INC.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL

Statement of considerations. In accordance with section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, the applicant named in the accompanying special order, Morris Furniture Mfg. Co., Inc., 4433 South Alameda Street, Los Angeles 11, California, has applied to the Office of Price Stabilization for maximum resale prices for retail sales of certain of its articles. Applicant has submitted the information required under this section and has produced evidence which in the judgment of the Director indicates that the applicant has complied with other stated requirements.

The Director has determined on the basis of information available to him, including the data and certified conclusions of fact submitted by the applicant, that the retail ceiling prices requested and which are established by this special order are no higher than the level of ceiling prices under Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

The special order contains provisions requiring each article to be marked by the applicant with the retail ceiling price established by the accompanying special order. The applicant is required to send purchasers of the articles a copy of this special order, a notice listing retail ceiling prices for each cost line and, in specified cases, of subsequent amendments of this special order.

The special order also requires applicant to file with the Distribution Price Branch regular reports setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which applicant has delivered during the reporting period. This requirement conforms with the provisions of section 43, Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and pursuant to section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, this special order is hereby issued.

1. The ceiling prices for sales after the effective date of this special order by any seller at retail of occasional tables, desks, dining room, and bedroom furniture manufactured by Morris Furniture Mfg. Co., Inc., having the brand name(s) "Architectural Modern by Morris of California", shall be the proposed retail ceiling prices listed by Morris Furniture Mfg. Co., Inc., in its application dated April 10, 1951, and filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

2. The retail ceiling price of an article fixed in paragraph 1 of this special order shall apply to any other article of the same type which is otherwise priceable under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 by retailers subject to that regulation, having the same selling price and terms of sale to the retailer, the same brand or company name and first sold by the manufacturer after the effective date of this special order.

3. On and after July 2, 1951, Morris Furniture Mfg. Co., Inc., must mark each article for which a ceiling price has been established in paragraph 1 of this special order with the retail ceiling price under this special order, or attach to the article a label, tag or ticket stating the retail ceiling price. This mark or statement must be in the following form:

Price $--------

On and after July 31, 1951, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is marked or tagged in the form stated above. Prior to July 31, 1951, unless the article is marked or tagged in this form, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

Upon issuance of any amendment to this special order which either adds an article to those already listed in the manufacturer's application or changes the retail ceiling price of a listed article, Morris Furniture Mfg. Co., Inc., must comply, as to each such article, with the preticketing requirements of this paragraph within 30 days after the effective date of the amendment. After 60 days from the effective date, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is ticketed in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph. Prior to the expiration of the 60-day period, unless the article is so ticketed, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

4. Within 15 days after the effective date of this special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of this special order to each purchaser for resale to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date, the manufacturer had delivered any article covered in paragraph 1 of this special order. The manufacturer shall annex to that order a notice, listing the cost and discount terms to retailers for each article covered by this order and the corresponding retail ceiling price fixed by this order for an article of that cost. The notice shall be in substantially the following form:

(Column 1)	(Column 2)
Our price to retailers	Retailer's ceilings for articles of cost listed in column 1

$_____ per _____ (unit, dozen, etc.)
Terms _____ (net or percent EOM, etc.) $_____

Copies shall be sent to all other purchasers on or before the date of the first delivery of any such article subsequent to the effective date of the special order, and shall be accompanied by copies of each amendment thereto (if any) issued prior to the date of the delivery. Within 15 days after the effective date of any subsequent amendment to the special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of the amendment to each purchaser to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment, the seller had delivered any article the sale of which is affected in any manner by the amendment.

5. Within 45 days of the expiration of the first 6 months period following the effective date of this special order and within 45 days of the expiration of each successive 6 months period, the manufacturer shall file with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which he has delivered in that 6 months period.

6. The provisions of this special order establish the ceiling price for sales at retail of the articles covered by it regardless of whether the seller is otherwise subject to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or any other regulation.

7. This special order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

8. The provisions of this special order are applicable to the United States and the District of Columbia.

Effective date. This special order shall become effective June 1, 1951.

SEALY MATTRESS CO.

CEILING PRICES AT RETAIL

Statement of considerations. In accordance with section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, the applicant named in the accompanying special order, Sealy Mattress Company, Schenectady 1, New York, has applied to the Office of Price Stabilization for maximum resale prices for retail sales of certain of its articles. Applicant has submitted the information required under this section and has produced evidence which in the judgment of the Director indicates that the applicant has complied with other stated requirements.

The Director has determined on the basis of information available to him, including the data and certified conclusions of fact submitted by the applicant, that the retail ceiling prices requested and which are established by this special order are no higher than the level of ceiling prices under Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

The special order contains provisions requiring each article to be marked by the applicant with the retail ceiling price established by the accompanying special order. The applicant is required to send purchasers of the articles a copy of this special order, a notice listing retail ceiling prices for each cost line and, in specified cases, of subsequent amendments of this special order.

The special order also requires applicant to file with the Distribution Price Branch regular reports setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which applicant has delivered during the reporting period. This requirement conforms with the provisions of section 43, Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

Special provisions. For the reasons set forth in the statement of considerations and pursuant to section 43 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7, this special order is hereby issued.

1. The ceiling prices for sales after the effective date of this special order by any seller at retail of mattresses and box springs manufactured by Sealy Mattress Company, having the brand name(s) "Sealy", shall be the proposed retail ceiling prices listed by Sealy Mattress Company in its application dated March 29, 1951, and filed with the Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

2. The retail ceiling price of an article fixed in paragraph 1 of this special order shall apply to any other article of the same type which is otherwise priceable under Ceiling Price Regulation 7 by retailers subject to that regulation, having the same selling price and terms of sale to the retailer, the same brand or company name and first sold by the manufacturer after the effective date of this special order.

3. On and after July 2, 1951, Sealy Mattress Company must mark each article for which a ceiling price has been established in paragraph 1 of this special order with the retail ceiling price under this special order, or attach to the article a label, tag or ticket stating the retail ceiling price. This mark or statement must be in the following form:

Price $--------

On and after July 31, 1951, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is marked or tagged in the form stated above. Prior to July 31, 1951, unless the article is marked or tagged in this form, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

Upon issuance of any amendment to this special order which either adds an article to those already listed in the manufacturer's application or changes the retail ceiling price of a listed article, Sealy Mattress Company must comply, as to each such article, with the preticketing requirements of this paragraph within 30 days after the effective date of the amendment. After 60 days from the effective date, no retailer may offer or sell the article unless it is ticketed in accordance with the requirements of this paragraph. Prior to the expiration of the 60-day period, unless the article is so ticketed, the retailer shall comply with the marking, tagging, and posting provisions of the regulation which would apply in the absence of this special order.

4. Within 15 days after the effective date of this special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of this special order to each purchaser for resale to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date, the manufacturer had delivered any article covered in paragraph 1 of this special order. The manufacturer shall annex to that order a notice, listing the cost and discount terms to retailers for each article covered by this order and the corresponding retail ceiling price fixed by this order for an article of that cost. The notice shall be in substantially the following form:

(Column 1)	(Column 2)
Our price to retailers	Retailer's ceilings for articles of cost listed in column 1
$------- per -------	{unit, dozen, etc.
Terms ------- (net or percent EOM, etc.) $--------

Copies shall be sent to all other purchasers on or before the date of the first delivery of any such article subsequent to the effective date of the special order, and shall be accompanied by copies of each amendment thereto (if any) issued prior to the date of the delivery. Within 15 days after the effective date of any subsequent amendment to the special order, the manufacturer shall send a copy of the amendment to each purchaser to whom, within two months immediately prior to the effective date of such amendment, the seller had delivered any article the sale of which is affected in any manner by the amendment.

5. Within 45 days of the expiration of the first 6 months period following the effective date of this special order and within 45 days of the expiration of each successive 6 months period, the manufacturer shall file with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., a report setting forth the number of units of each article covered by this special order which he has delivered in that 6 months period.

6. The provisions of this special order establish the ceiling price for sales at retail of the articles covered by it regardless of whether the seller is otherwise subject to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 or any other regulation.

7. This special order or any provision thereof may be revoked, suspended, or amended by the Director of Price Stabilization at any time.

8. The provisions of this special order are applicable to the United States and the District of Columbia.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-1665]

MICHIGAN-WISCONSIN PIPE LINE CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

MAY 28, 1951.

On April 16, 1951, Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Detroit, Michigan, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the acquisition, construction and operation of certain natural gas facilities near Fairfield, Iowa, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, all as more fully described in such application on file with the Commission and open to the public.

The Commission finds:

(1) Applicant has requested that this application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.32 (b)) for noncontested proceedings, and it appears to be a proper one for disposition under the aforesaid rule, no request to be heard, protest or petition raising an issue of substance having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 26, 1951 (16 F. R. 3600).

(2) Good cause exists to set this application for hearing with less than the normal 15 days' notice.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a public hearing be held on June 6, 1951, at 9:45 a. m. (e. d. s. t.), in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application; provided, however, that the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: May 28, 1951.

[Project No. 2078]

VIRGINIA ELECTRIC AND POWER CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR LICENSE (MAJOR)

MAY 28, 1951.

Public notice is hereby given pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act (16 U. S. C. 791a-825r) that Virginia Electric and Power Company of Richmond, Virginia, has made application for license for constructed Project No. 2078, located near Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina, upon the Roanoke River. The project consists of a low masonry dam across the river, a power canal approximately 11,000 feet in length which is provided with control gates and an earth dike and spillways; two powerhouses at the lower end of canal operating under a 30-foot head (one known as the Manually Controlled Power Station and containing three generating units with total capacity of about 3,976 horsepower, and the other known as the Automatic Power Station containing one generating unit rated at 3,200 horsepower); a generating unit rated at 750 horsepower in the mill building of Manchester Board and Paper Company, Incorporated; and an outdoor substation.

Any protest against approval of this application or request for hearing thereon, with reasons for such protest or request, and address of party or parties so protesting or requesting should be submitted on or before the 29th day of June 1951, to the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

[File Nos. 54-50, 54-82, 54-147, 59-10, 59-39]

NORTH AMERICAN CO. ET AL.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION OVER FEES AND EXPENSES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of May 1951.

In the matter of The North American Company and its subsidiary companies, File No. 59-10; The North American Company, File No. 54-82; North American Light & Power Company Holding Company System and The North American Company, File No. 59-39; North American Light & Power Company, File No. 54-50; Illinois Power Company, File No. 54-147.

The Commission by orders herein, dated February 28, 1947, and June 25, 1947, having approved a plan filed under section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by The North American Company, a registered holding company, for the liquidation and dissolution of its subsidiary, North American Light & Power Company, also a registered holding company; and

Said orders having reserved jurisdiction over the payment of all fees and expenses payable in connection with the plan, and applications for payment of fees and expenses and for approval of payments previously made having been filed by certain of the participants, and hearings having been held in connection therewith, and the Commission, on December 21, 1950, and May 7, 1951, having issued its orders with respect to such applications and payments; and

An application having been filed on April 30, 1951, by The North American Company requesting that jurisdiction be released over fees paid or proposed to be paid to the following firms for services rendered to it and to North American Light & Power Company in connection with the aforesaid requests for and payments of fees and expenses:

Sullivan & Cromwell	$20,000
Doran, Kline, Cosgrove, Jeffrey & Russell	2,600
Lovejoy, Morris, Wasson & Huppuch	4,000

The Commission having examined said application and having concluded that the fees requested or paid are not unreasonable:

It is ordered, That jurisdiction with respect to the above-mentioned fees be, and the same hereby is, released.

It is further ordered, That the reservation of jurisdiction over fees and expenses, contained in the aforesaid orders dated February 28, 1947, and June 25, 1947, is continued except insofar as heretofore or herein specifically released.

By the Commission.

(2) and U-50 (a) (2) promulgated thereunder, with respect to the following transactions:

Under separate bank loan agreements with The National City Bank of New York, the borrowing companies propose to borrow, from time to time but not later than January 1, 1952, an aggregate amount of $7,150,000, such borrowings to be evidenced by promissory notes maturing May 1, 1952.

The following table shows the aggregate face amount of promissory notes proposed to be issued by each of the borrowing companies, the proposed rate of interest of said notes, and the application by such companies of the proceeds therefrom:

TABLE

Company	Aggregate amount of notes proposed to be issued	Interest rate per annum [1]	Notes payable to banks	For construction	For conversion costs [2]
		Percent
Arlington	$1,200,000	2¾	$75,000	$841,700	$283,300
Central Massachusetts	400,000	3	----------	200,000	200,000
Gloucester	500,000	3	----------	370,600	129,400
Malden and Melrose	3,000,000	2¾	950,000	937,800	1,112,200

Total	7,150,000	----------	1,025,000	3,418,800	2,706,200

[1] Each of the proposed bank loan agreements provides for a commitment fee at the rate of ½ of 1 percent, for the period from the date of this Commission's order herein to Dec. 31, 1951, on the average daily difference between the amount of the bank's commitment and the amount borrowed.

[2] In payment of conversion costs in connection with the distribution of natural gas expected to be available in the latter half of 1951.

The declarations state that incidental services in connection with the proposed transactions will be performed at cost by New England Power Service Company, an affiliated service company, such cost being estimated not to exceed $500 for each of the borrowing companies, or the aggregate sum of $3,500. Other expenses, including printing of the bank loan agreements, are estimated not to exceed $100 for each of the borrowing companies, or an aggregate amount of $700.

The declarations further state that no State commission has jurisdiction over the proposed transactions.

The borrowing companies request that the Commission's order herein become effective forthwith upon issuance.

Notice of the filing of said declarations having been given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated under the act, and this Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect thereto and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to said declarations that all of the applicable statutory standards are satisfied, finding no basis for making any adverse determinations with respect thereto, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said declarations be permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to said Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, that said declarations be, and the same hereby are, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

AMERICAN NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF FILING WITH RESPECT TO THE ISSUE AND SALE OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of May A. D. 1951.

Notice is hereby given that an application-declaration has been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), by American Natural Gas Company ("American Natural"), a registered holding company. Applicant-declarant designates section 7 of the act and Rule U-50 (a) (1) as applicable to the proposed transactions.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than June 8, 1951 at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request in writing that a hearing be held with respect to the application-declaration, stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request and the issues of fact or law raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert or may request that he be notified if the Commission orders a hearing with respect thereto. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after June 8, 1951, said application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt the proposed transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed, which are summarized as follows:

American Natural proposes to issue and sell 334,935 shares of its authorized but unissued shares of common stock without par value. The application-declaration states that on or about June 15, 1951, the stock will be offered to common stockholders of American Natural of record as of the close of business on or about June 12, 1951, at a price to be determined by the company. Such stockholders will be given rights to subscribe for one share of common stock for each ten shares held and the further Conditional Purchase Privilege to subscribe for shares of additional common stock not purchased pursuant to the exercise of subscription rights. If there are insufficient shares to satisfy all subscriptions pursuant to the Conditional Purchase Privilege, the available shares will be allotted pro rata among those exercising the Conditional Purchase Privilege in proportion to the subscription rights they have exercised.

One right will attach to each share of common stock of American Natural outstanding on the record date. Transferrable Warrants will be issued to evidence the rights and the accompanying Conditional Purchase Privilege. The Warrants will expire at 3:00 p. m., e. d. s. t., on June 29, 1951. The exercise of ten rights will be required to purchase one share of additional common stock, and no fractional shares of additional common stock will be issued. Rights to purchase less than one share may be used in combination with similar rights representing in the aggregate one or more whole shares. American Natural proposes to enter into an arrangement with The National City Bank of New York, New York, Agent, pursuant to which the holder of a Warrant, when forwarding or presenting his Warrant to the Agent for exercise of his rights, may place an order, without charge, either to purchase such additional rights as are necessary for subscription to one full share of stock or for the sale of rights in excess of those necessary for subscription for a full share of stock, subject to the Agent's ability to find a seller or purchaser of such rights, as the case may be. It is further stated that it will be possible to purchase or sell rights through the usual investment channels, and that it is contemplated that arrangements will be made for admission of rights to trading on the New York Stock Exchange.

Orders for the purchase or sale of rights received during each day prior to the expiration date will be executed as soon as practicable after receipt by set-off and any remaining balance of sale or purchase orders will be executed on the New York Stock Exchange or otherwise. Purchasers of rights will be billed and sellers will receive payment on the basis of the average price paid or received by the Agent for such rights on the New York Stock Exchange or otherwise during the day on which their orders are executed. The proceeds from the sales of rights will be remitted to sellers as soon as possible.

Stockholders whose addresses of record are not within the continental limits of the United States and Canada will be notified by air mail of the offering to common stockholders of additional common stock, but the Warrants to which such stockholders would be entitled will be held by the Agent for their account. Such stockholders may, prior to 3:00 p. m., e. d. s. t., on June 27, 1951, instruct the Agent with respect to the exercise, sale or other disposition of their Warrants. All Warrants with respect to which instructions are not received prior to such time will, if practicable and to the extent permitted by law, be sold and the proceeds remitted to or held for the account of the respective stockholders entitled thereto.

The application-declaration states that American Natural may effect transactions on the New York Stock Exchange, in the open market or otherwise for the purpose of stabilizing the price of its common stock, and that such transactions, if commenced, may be terminated at any time and in any event not later than the time fixed for the expiration of the Warrants. It is further stated that, in connection with such stabilizing transactions, American Natural will at no time acquire a long position in shares of its common stock which shall be in excess of 10 percent of the shares of common stock being offered. If all the additional shares of stock are sold upon the exercise of rights and the Conditional Purchase Privilege, it is proposed to sell shares acquired in stabilizing activities in ordinary brokerage transactions on the New York Stock Exchange.

It is stated that the proceeds from the sale of the common stock will be added to the corporate funds of American Natural to be used for corporate purposes, including additional investments in the common stocks of its subsidiaries and to reimburse the treasury for funds used for that purpose.

It is requested that the Commission on or before June 12, 1951, issue an order, to become effective upon its issuance, granting and permitting to become effective the application-declaration, as filed or as amended.

By the Commission.

UNITED CORP.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED EXCHANGE OF SECURITIES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 25th day of May A. D. 1951.

Notice is hereby given that an application-declaration has been filed with this Commission, pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), by The United Corporation ("United"), a registered holding company. Applicant-declarant has designated sections 10 and 12 (d) of the act as applicable to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than June 8, 1951, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application-declaration proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after June 8, 1951, said application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file in the office of this Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized as follows:

Under the provisions of a plan heretofore filed under section 11 (e) of the act by The United Gas Improvement Company ("UGI"), a registered holding company, the holders of the capital stock of UGI are afforded an opportunity to exchange, for each unit of five shares of UGI's capital stock, to the extent of but not exceeding 363,285 shares of such stock, three shares of common stock of Philadelphia Electric Company and two shares of common stock of Consumers Power Company. Hearings have been held on the UGI plan and the matter is now pending before the Commission for decision.

United, as the owner of 80,832 shares of the capital stock of UGI, proposes to tender all, or the major portion, of such shares to UGI under the terms of the plan. Consummation of the proposed exchange by United would result in United's receiving not more than 0.51 percent of the voting securities of Consumers Power Company and not more than 0.45 percent of the voting securities of Philadelphia Electric Company.

United has requested that Commission action upon this application-declaration be taken at the time that Commission action is taken upon the plan filed by UGI.

By the Commission.

UNITED STATES TARIFF COMMISSION

[Investigation No. 1, Supp.]

HARSH OR ROUGH COTTON HAVING A STAPLE OF 1 1/8 INCHES OF MORE BUT LESS THAN 1 3/8 INCHES IN LENGTH

SUPPLEMENTAL INVESTIGATION AND HEARING

The United States Tariff Commission, on this 28th day of May 1951, announces an investigation supplemental to its investigation No. 1 under section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act (of 1933) as amended, and under Executive Order No. 7233 of November 23, 1935, with respect to: Harsh or rough cotton having a staple of $1\frac{1}{8}$ inches or more but less than $1\frac{3}{8}$ inches in length.

The quantity of cotton having a staple of $1\frac{1}{8}$ inches or more but less than $1\frac{11}{16}$ inches in length regularly permitted to be imported in each annual period beginning February 1 is limited to 45,656,420 pounds. This quota covers the permissible imports of all types of cotton of the staple lengths referred to, including harsh or rough cotton to which the supplemental investigation herein announced relates. The quota for the current year has been filled, and the imports have included little of the harsh or rough cotton which is desired in relatively small amounts for certain uses. The object of the present supplemental investigation is to determine whether there is need for supplemental imports of harsh or rough cotton $1\frac{1}{8}$ to $1\frac{3}{8}$ inches in staple length to meet the special requirements for this particular type of cotton during the current quota year.

Hearing. All parties interested will be given opportunity to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard at a public hearing to be held in the Hearing Room of the Commission at Eighth and E Streets NW., in Washington, D. C., at 10 a. m., on June 13, 1951.

Nature of information at hearing. Information submitted at the hearing must be relevant and material to the matters under investigation.

Appearances at hearing. Interested persons may appear at the hearing either in person or by representative.

Issued: May 29, 1951.

PIERSON & CO.

In re: Stock registered in the name of Pierson & Co., Amsterdam, The Netherlands, and owned by persons who names are unknown. F-49-1261.

Under the authority of the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended, Executive Orders 9193, as amended, 9788 and 9989, and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found:

1. That the property described as follows:

Those certain shares of stock described in Exhibit A, set forth below, registered in the name of Pierson & Co., together with all declared and unpaid dividends thereon, excepting from the foregoing, however, those shares of stock described in the attached Exhibit A, together with all declared and unpaid dividends thereon, concerning which, on or prior to the effective date of this vesting order, the issuing corporation or its transfer agent in the United States has received a license or a copy of a license removing such property from the restrictions of Executive Order 8389, as amended, or has been advised in writing by a banking institution in the United States of the removal of such restrictions and of the authorization therefor;

is property within the United States;

2. That the property described in subparagraph 1 hereof is owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to, or is evidence of ownership or control by persons, names unknown, who, if individuals, there is reasonable cause to believe are residents of a designated enemy country and which, if partnerships, associations, corporations, or other organizations, there is reasonable cause to believe are organized under the laws of a designated enemy country or on or since the effective date of Executive Order 8389, as amended, have had their principal places of business in a designated enemy country;

3. That the persons referred to in subparagraph 2 hereof are nationals of a designated enemy country; and it is hereby determined:

4. That to the extent that the persons referred to in subparagraph 2 hereof are not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country.

All determinations and all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and, it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended, and the term "designated enemy country" has reference to Germany or Japan. The term "banking institution" as used herein shall have the meaning prescribed in section 5F of Executive Order 8389, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on May 10, 1951.

SWISS BANK CORP.

In re: Accounts maintained in the name of Swiss Bank Corporation, Schaffhouse, Switzerland, and owned by persons whose names are unknown. F-63-2748.

Under the authority of the Trading With the Enemy Act, as amended, Executive Orders 9193, as amended, 9788 and 9989, and pursuant to law, after investigation, it is hereby found:

1. That the property described as follows: All property, rights and interests in the accounts identified in Exhibit A set forth below and by reference made a part hereof, together with

(a) Any other property, rights and interests which represent accumulations or accruals to, changes in form of, or substitutions for, any of the property, rights and interests in said identified accounts on October 2, 1950, and which are now held in other accounts being maintained as blocked or otherwise subject to the restrictions of Executive Order 8389, as amended, or regulations, rulings, orders or instructions issued thereunder, and

(b) Any and all rights in, to and under any securities (including, without limitation, bonds, coupons, mortgage participation certificates, shares of stock, scrip and warrants) and any and all declared and unpaid dividends on any shares of stock in any of said accounts, excepting from the foregoing, however, all lawful liens and setoffs of the respective institutions in the United States with whom the aforesaid accounts are maintained, is property within the United States;

2. That the property described in subparagraph 1 hereof is owned or controlled by, payable or deliverable to, held on behalf of or on account of, or owing to, or is evidence of ownership or control by persons, names unknown, who, if individuals, there is reasonable cause to believe are residents of a designated enemy country and which, if partnerships, associations, corporations, or other organizations, there is reasonable cause to believe are organized under the laws of a designated enemy country or on or since the effective date of Executive Order 8389, as amended, have had their principal places of business in a designated enemy country;

3. That the persons referred to in subparagraph 2 hereof are nationals of a designated enemy country;

and it is hereby determined:

4. That to the extent that the persons referred to in subparagraph 2 hereof are not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such persons be treated as nationals of a designated enemy country.

All determinations and all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and, it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended, and the term "designated enemy country" has reference to Germany or Japan.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on May 18, 1951.

For the Attorney General.

[SEAL] HAROLD I. BAYNTON,
Assistant Attorney General,
Director, Office of Alien Property.

TITLE 4—ACCOUNTS

Chapter I—General Accounting Office

[Gen. Regs. 104, Rev.; Supp. 1]

MAY 31, 1951.

Part 5 is hereby revised.

Sec.
5.1 Securing claim on public creditor's death.
5.2 Securing claim on government employee's death.
5.3 Securing claim due incompetents.

AUTHORITY: §§ 5.1 to 5.3 issued under secs. 309, 311, 42 Stat. 25, 64 Stat. 396; 31 U. S. C. 49, 52, 5 U. S. C. 61.

§ 5.1 Securing claim on public creditor's death. Claims for amounts due on account of individual deceased public creditors of the United States, except military personnel and civilian officers and employees subject to the provisions of the act of August 3, 1950, 64 Stat. 395, will be made on the newly revised form entitled "Claim Against the United States for Amounts Due in the Case of a Deceased Creditor", Standard Form No. 1055—Revised. Claims to be submitted on such form, except as otherwise provided by law, are for direct settlement by the General Accounting Office and will include, among other things, payments due deceased contractors and other public creditors for supplies furnished or services rendered. Claims for payment of Government checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States or other authorized Government depositary to the order of such public creditors, which cannot be paid because of the death of the payee, will also be stated on the newly revised claim form. Such assistance as is deemed necessary may be granted to claimants to insure proper execution and submission of Standard Form No. 1055—Revised.

§ 5.2 Securing claim on government employee's death. As soon as practicable after the death of a civilian employee included within the provisions of the act of August 3, 1950, 64 Stat. 395, the agency in which he or she was last employed, upon determining that "unpaid compensation" is due the decedent, will request each designated beneficiary, or if no beneficiary was designated, the surviving spouse, to execute a form entitled "Claim of Designated Beneficiary and/or Surviving Spouse for Unpaid Compensation of Deceased Civilian Employee", Standard Form No. 1153. Where there is no designated beneficiary or a surviving spouse, the person or persons claiming the right to share in the disposition of a deceased civilian employee's "unpaid compensation" will be requested to execute Standard Form No. 1155, Claim for Unpaid Compensation of Deceased Civilian Employee (No Designated Beneficiary or Surviving Spouse). The necessary forms will be furnished claimants by the employing agency which may grant such assistance as it deems necessary to insure their proper execution. All unnegotiated Federal checks drawn to the order of a decedent in payment of compensation as defined in the act, and in the possession of the claimant, should accompany the executed form.

§ 5.3 Securing claim due incompetents. Claims for payments due incompetents, except as otherwise provided by law, are for direct settlement by the General Accounting Office. No form is prescribed for use of guardians or committees of estates of incompetents in making claim for sums due from the United States. However, an application setting forth the connection of the incompetent with the United States Government, giving the name of the department, bureau, establishment, or agency, must be submitted by the guardian or committee over his or her signature and address accompanied by a short certificate of the court showing the appointment and qualification of the claimant as guardian or committee. Where the total amount due the estate of the incompetent is small, and no guardian or committee of the estate has been or will be appointed, payment may be made, in the discretion of the Comptroller General, to the person, or persons, having care or custody of the incompetent, or to close relatives who will hold the amount for the use and benefit of the incompetent. Applications for recurring payments need not be accompanied by an additional certificate of the court, but must be supported by a statement that the appointment is still in full force and effect. All Government checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States or other authorized Government depositary to the order of individuals which cannot be paid because of the incompetency of the payee should accompany the claim.

PART 7—GOVERNMENT REQUESTS FOR TRANSPORTATION OF PASSENGERS

Paragraph (c) is hereby added to § 7.17.

§ 7.17 Lost or stolen transportation requests. • • •

(c) In the event that a carrier issues a ticket in exchange for a U. S. Government Request for Transportation and said transportation request is subsequently lost or misplaced, the carrier shall execute Standard Form No. 1158, Certificate in Lieu of Lost U. S. Government Request for Transportation, which is hereby prescribed. Standard Form No. 1158 is to be submitted by the carrier in the same manner as a transportation request, and the Federal department or agency concerned, upon proper verification and annotation of the records, will accept said certificate in lieu of the lost transportation request. Carriers may either purchase Standard Form No. 1158 from the Government Printing Office or may reproduce the form themselves or have it printed by any association of carriers. It is understood that in reproducing the said form outside the Government Printing Office the exact wording as approved by the Comptroller General must be adhered to. The Public Printer has been requested to furnish for the stock of the Superintendent of Documents a supply of Standard Form No. 1158 and the carriers should address inquiries with respect to the cost of the form to the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D. C. If the original transportation request is located after a Certificate in Lieu of Lost U. S. Government Request for Transportation has been issued, the request will be marked "Canceled—Certificate in Lieu Issued" and forwarded to the administrative office which issued the said request. Further disposition of the canceled transportation request will be in accordance with the provisions of § 7.11.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter I—Production and Marketing Administration (Standards, Inspections, Marketing Practices), Department of Agriculture

PART 54—GRADING AND INSPECTION OF DOMESTIC RABBITS AND EDIBLE PRODUCTS THEREOF AND UNITED STATES SPECIFICATIONS FOR CLASSES, STANDARDS, AND GRADES WITH RESPECT THERETO

RULES AND UNITED STATES SPECIFICATIONS

On April 17, 1951, a notice of the proposed issuance of regulations governing the grading and inspection of domestic rabbits and edible products thereof and United States specifications for classes, standards, and grades with respect thereto (7 CFR Part 54) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (16 F. R. 3349). The regulations hereinafter promulgated as Part 54 of the Code of Federal Regulations are pursuant to authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.), and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1951 (Pub. Law 759, 81st Cong., approved September 6, 1950), and will supersede the currently effective provisions of Part 70 insofar as applicable to domestic rabbits and edible products thereof.

Interested persons were given an opportunity to submit written views, data, and arguments concerning the proposed regulations which were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER under proposed rule making; and the suggestions received have been given consideration. The only changes in these regulations from the superseded provisions of Part 70 are the provisions governing the grading of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits by requiring, as a prerequisite thereto, some form of prescribed inspection for wholesomeness; clarification of some of the definitions and wording of provisions; an increase from $3.00 to $3.60 in the hourly rate for rendering grading and inspection service on an intermittent fee basis in order to cover the costs of rendering these services on this basis; and, minor changes in the standards of quality for ready-to-cook domestic rabbits.

Coincident with the issuance of these regulations, there are being issued regulations with respect to the grading and inspection of poultry and edible products thereof.[1] The latter regulations supersede the provisions of 7 CFR Part 70 insofar as applicable to domestic rabbits and such Part 70 will hereafter concern itself solely with poultry and edible products thereof. In view thereof, it is necessary to issue this Part 54 containing the applicable regulations in connection with domestic rabbits. In order to preclude the development of an interim period between the superseded domestic rabbit regulations and the establishment of Part 54, it is necessary that such Part 54 become effective on July 1, 1951, the effective date of the regulations governing the grading and inspection of poultry. Further, the service presently furnished pursuant to 7 CFR Part 70, originally effective January 1, 1950, with respect to domestic rabbits is confined to one official plant in which the operations are in accordance with 7 CFR Part 54. New applicants for the service will not experience any hardship in receiving the service by virtue of any additional requirements that may be contained in such part. Hence, it is found and determined that a reasonable and sufficient time is afforded within which all interested persons may apply for the service. Good cause, therefore, exists for making this part effective on July 1, 1951.

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, the following rules and specifications are hereby promulgated to become effective July 1, 1951:

54.102 United States specifications for standards of quality for individual ready-to-cook domestic rabbits.

AUTHORITY: §§ 54.1 to 54.102 issued under sec. 205, 60 Stat. 1090, Pub. Law 759, 81st Cong., 7 U. S. C. 1624.

SUBPART A—GRADING AND INSPECTION OF DOMESTIC RABBITS AND EDIBLE PRODUCTS THEREOF

DEFINITIONS

§ 54.1 Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the following meaning:

(a) "Act" means the following provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and of the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1951 (Pub. Law 759, 81st Cong., approved September 6, 1950), or any other act of Congress conferring like authority:

AGRICULTURAL MARKETING ACT OF 1946

* * * to develop and improve standards of quality, condition, quantity, grade, and packaging, and recommend and demonstrate such standards in order to encourage uniformity and consistency in commercial practices * * *

To inspect, certify, and identify the class, quality, quantity, and condition of agricultural products when shipped or received in Interstate Commerce under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe, including assessment and collection of such fees as will be reasonable and as nearly as may be to cover the cost of the service rendered, to the end that agricultural products may be marketed to the best advantage, that trading may be facilitated, and that consumers may be able to obtain the quality product which they desire, * * *

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE APPROPRIATION ACT, 1951

* * * Market inspection of farm products: For the investigation and certification, in one or more jurisdictions, to shippers and other interested parties of the class, quality, and condition of any agricultural commodity or food product, whether raw, dried, canned, or otherwise processed, and any product containing an agricultural commodity or derivative thereof when offered for interstate shipment or when received at such important central markets as the Secretary may from time to time designate, or at points which may be conveniently reached therefrom under such rules and regulation as he may prescribe, including payment of such fees as will be reasonable and as nearly as may be to cover the cost for the service rendered. * * *

Marketing farm products: For acquiring and diffusing among the people of the United States useful information relative to the needed supplies, standardization, classification, grading, preparation for market, handling, transportation, storage, and marketing of farm and food products, including the demonstration and promotion of the use of uniform standards of classification of American farm and food products throughout the world, * * *

(b) "Acceptable" means suitable for the purpose intended and acceptable to the Administration.

(c) "Administration" means the Production and Marketing Administration of the Department.

(d) "Administrator" means the Administrator of the Production and Marketing Administration of the Department, or any other officer or employee of the Department to whom there has heretofore been delegated, or to whom there may hereafter be delegated, the authority to act in his stead.

(e) "Applicant" means any interested party who requests any inspection service or grading service.

(f) "Carcass" means any domestic rabbit carcass.

(g) "Class" means any subdivision of a product based on essential physical characteristics that differentiate between major groups of the same kind.

(h) "Condition" means any condition, including, but not being limited to, the state of preservation, cleanliness, or soundness of any product and the processing, handling or packaging which may affect such product.

(i) "Condition and wholesomeness" means the condition of any product, its healthfulness and fitness for human food.

(j) "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture.

(k) "Domestic rabbit grading and inspection service" means the personnel who are engaged in the administration, application, and direction of domestic rabbit grading and inspection programs and services pursuant to the regulations in this part.

(l) "Edible product" means any product other than live domestic rabbits.

(m) "Grader" means any employee of the Department authorized by the Secretary, or any other individual to whom a license has been issued by the Secretary, to investigate and certify, in accordance with the regulations in this part, the class, quality, quantity, and condition of products.

(n) "Grading" or "grading service" means (1) the act whereby a grader determines, according to the regulations in this part, the class, quality, quantity, or condition of any product by examining each unit thereof, or each unit of the representative sample thereof drawn by a grader, and issues a grading certificate with respect thereto; (2) in addition to the foregoing the act whereby the grader identifies, according to the regulations in this part, the graded product; and (3) any regrading or any appeal grading of a previously graded product.

(o) "Grading certificate" means a statement, either written or printed, issued by a grader, pursuant to the regulations in this part, relative to the class, quality, quantity, or condition of a product.

(p) "Identify" means to apply official identification to products or to containers thereof.

(q) "Inspected and certified" or "certified" means, with respect to any product, that it has undergone an inspection and was found, at the time of such inspection, to be sound, wholesome, and fit for human food.

(r) "Inspection," "inspection service" or "inspection of products for condition and wholesomeness" means any inspection by an inspector to determine, in accordance with the regulations in this part, (1) the condition and wholesomeness of domestic rabbits, or (2) the condition and wholesomeness of any edible product at any stage of the preparation or packaging thereof in the official plant where inspected and certified, or (3) the condition and wholesomeness of any previously inspected and certified product if such product has not lost its identity as an inspected and certified product.

(s) "Inspection certificate" means a statement either written or printed, issued by an inspector, pursuant to the regulations in this part, relative to the condition and wholesomeness of products.

(t) "Inspector" means any person who is licensed by the Secretary to investigate and certify, in accordance with the regulations in this part, the condition and wholesomeness of products. An inspector is an employee of the Department or of a State; he may be a graduate veterinarian or a layman.

(u) "Interested party" means any person financially interested in a transaction involving any inspection or grading.

(v) "National supervisor" means (1) the officer in charge of domestic rabbit inspection service of the Administration, (2) the officer in charge of domestic rabbit grading service of the Administration, and (3) such other officers or employees of the Department who may be so designated by the officer in charge of the domestic rabbit grading and inspection service of the Administration.

(w) "Office of grading" means the office of any grader.

(x) "Official identification" means the symbol represented by a stamp, label, seal, or other device approved by the Administrator and affixed to any product, or to any container thereof, stating that the product was graded or inspected, or both; and the class, quality, or condition of such product as determined by a grader may be indicated.

(y) "Official plant" means one or more buildings or parts thereof, comprising a single plant in which the facilities and methods of operation therein have been approved by the Administrator as suitable and adequate for operation under inspection or grading service and in which inspection or grading is carried on in accordance with the regulations in this part.

(z) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(aa) "Potable water" means water which complies with the U. S. Public Health Service drinking water standards.

(bb) "Product" means ready-to-cook domestic rabbits and, with respect to grading service only, live domestic rabbits.

(cc) "Quality" means the inherent properties of any product which determine its relative degree of excellence.

(dd) "Ready-to-cook domestic rabbit" means any domestic rabbit which has been slaughtered for human food, from which the head, blood, skin, feet, and inedible viscera have been removed, that is ready to cook without need of further processing or any cut-up or disjointed portion of such domestic rabbit.

(ee) "Regional supervisor" means any regional supervisor of the Administration in charge of domestic rabbit grading service or domestic rabbit inspection service in a designated geographical area.

(ff) "Regulations" means the provisions of this entire part and such United States specifications for classes, standards, and grades for products as may be in effect at the time grading or inspection is performed.

(gg) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Department, or any other officer or employee of the Department to whom there has heretofore been delegated, or to whom there may hereafter be delegated, the authority to act in his stead.

(hh) "State supervisor" means any authorized and designated individual who is in charge of domestic rabbit grading service or domestic rabbit inspection service in a State. A State supervisor of domestic rabbit inspection service shall be a veterinarian and he is either a Federal-State employee or a Federal employee.

(ii) "Station supervisor" means any authorized individual who is designated to supervise domestic rabbit grading service or domestic rabbit inspection service in a large official plant or in a group of several small plants.

ADMINISTRATION

§ 54.2 Administration. The Administrator shall perform for and under the supervision of the Secretary, such duties as are prescribed in the regulations in this part and as the Secretary may require in the administration of the regulations in this part.

GENERAL

§ 54.3 Grading and inspection services available. The regulations in this part provide for the following kinds of services; and any one or more of the different services, applicable to official plants, may be rendered in an official plant.

(a) Grading of live domestic rabbits.

(b) Inspection of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits.

(c) Grading of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits.

(1) In an official plant.

(2) At terminal markets and other receiving points other than official plants.

§ 54.4 Basis of service. (a) Any inspection service in accordance with the regulations in this part shall be for condition and wholesomeness.

(b) Any grading service in accordance with the regulations in this part shall be for class, quality, quantity, or condition or any combination thereof. Grading service with respect to determination of quality of products shall be on the basis of United States specifications for classes, standards, and grades as contained in Subpart B of the regulations in this part. However, grading service may be rendered with respect to products which are bought and sold on the basis of institutional contract specifications and such service, when approved by the Administrator, shall be rendered on the basis of the specifications of such contract.

(c) (1) Only domestic rabbits which are processed in official plants in accordance with the regulations in this part may be graded or inspected; and only domestic rabbits which are inspected pursuant to the regulations in this part or inspected and passed by any other official inspection system acceptable to the Administration may be graded.

(2) All domestic rabbits that are eviscerated in an official plant where inspection service is maintained, shall be inspected for condition and wholesomeness and no uninspected edible products shall be brought into such official plant.

(d) All grading service and all inspection service shall be subject to supervision at all times by the applicable station supervisor, State supervisor, regional supervisor, and national supervisor. Such service shall be rendered where the facilities and conditions are satisfactory for the conduct of the service and the requisite graders and inspectors are available.

§ 54.5 Performance of services—(a) Licensed graders and inspectors. (1) Any person who is a Federal or State employee possessing proper qualifications as determined by an examination for competency, and who is to perform grading service or inspection service may be licensed by the Secretary as a grader or an inspector.

(2) Any prospective grader, other than a Federal or State employee, possessing proper qualifications as determined by an examination for competency and who is to perform grading service may be licensed by the Secretary as a grader. However, prior to granting of the license, he shall procure and deliver to the Administration a surety bond, issued by such surety as may be approved by the Administrator, in the amount of $1,000 for the proper performance of the duties of such licensee under the regulations in this part.

(3) All licenses issued by the Secretary shall be countersigned by the officer in charge of the domestic rabbit grading and inspection service of the Administration or any other designated official of such service.

(b) Suspension of license or authority; revocation. Pending final action by the Secretary, the aforesaid officer in charge of the domestic rabbit grading and inspection service may, whenever he deems such action necessary, suspend any license or authority effective pursuant to the regulations in this part, by giving notice of such suspension to the respective individual involved, accompanied by a statement of the reasons therefor. Within seven days after the receipt of the aforesaid notice and statement of reasons by such individual, he may file an appeal, in writing, with the Secretary supported by any argument or evidence that he may wish to offer as to why his license or authority should not be suspended or revoked. After the expiration of the aforesaid seven-day period and consideration of such argument and evidence, the Secretary will take such action as he deems appropriate with respect to such suspension or revocation. When no appeal is filed within the prescribed seven days the license is revoked.

(c) Surrender of license. Each license which is suspended or revoked, or has expired, shall promptly be surrendered by the licensee to his immediate superior. Upon termination of the services of a licensed grader, the licensee shall promptly surrender his license to his immediate superior for cancellation.

(d) Identification. Each grader and inspector shall have in his possession at all times, and present upon request while on duty, the means of identification furnished by the Department to such person.

(e) Financial interest of inspectors and graders. No inspector shall inspect and no grader shall grade any product in which he is financially interested.

(f) Political activity. All graders and inspectors who are employees of the Department are forbidden during the period of their respective appointments or licenses, to take an active part in political management or in political campaigns. Political activity in city, county, State, or national elections, whether primary or regular, or in behalf of any party or candidate, or any measure to be voted upon, is prohibited. This applies to all appointees, including, but not being limited to, temporary and cooperative employees and employees on leave of absence with or without pay. Wilful violation of this section will constitute grounds for dismissal in the case of appointees and revocation of licenses in the case of licensees.

§ 54.6 Applying for grading service or inspection service—(a) Who may obtain grading service or inspection service. An application for grading service or inspection service may be made by any interested person, including, but not being limited to, the United States, any State, county, municipality, or common carrier, and any authorized agent of the foregoing.

(b) How application may be made. (1) An application for inspection service shall be made in writing and filed with the Administrator.

(2) An application for grading service to be rendered in an official plant shall be made in writing and filed with the Administrator.

(3) An application for any grading service to be rendered other than in an official plant may be made in any office of grading or with any grader at or nearest the place where the service is desired. Such application may be made orally, in writing, or by telegraph. If the application for grading service is made orally, the office of grading, grader with whom the application is made, or the Administrator may require that the application be confirmed in writing.

(4) Each application for grading service or inspection service shall include such information as may be required by the Administrator in regard to the products and premises where the service is to be rendered.

(c) Filing of application. An application for grading service or inspection service shall be regarded as filed only when made pursuant to the regulations in this part.

(d) Authority of applicant. Proof of the authority of any person applying for grading service or inspection service may be required at the discretion of the Administrator.

(e) Application for inspection service or grading service in official plants; approval. Any person desiring to process and pack products in a plant under grading service or inspection service, or both, must receive approval of such plant as an official plant prior to the rendition of such service. An application for grading service or inspection service to be rendered in an official plant shall be approved according to the following procedure:

(1) Initial survey. When application has been filed for grading service or inspection service, as aforesaid, an examination of the plant and premises shall be made by the regional supervisor, or his assistant, and the necessary facilities specified for the service. Appeals with respect to any such specification may be made to the national supervisor.

(2) Drawings and specifications to be furnished. Four copies of drawings, consisting of floor plans of space to be included in the official plant, showing the locations of such features as the principal pieces of equipment, floor drains, hand washing facilities, hose connections for clean-up purposes, cardinal points of the compass, and the routes of edible and inedible products through the plant, properly drawn to scale, shall be submitted to the regional supervisor. The official plant shall include toilet and dressing rooms, office space for the inspector and grader, store rooms for supplies used in the operations under inspection or grading, feeding rooms, and all rooms, compartments or passageways where products or any ingredients to be used in the preparation of products under inspection service or grading service will be handled or kept, and may include other rooms or compartments located in the building or buildings comprising the official plant. If rooms or compartments shown on the drawings are not to be included as part of the official plant, this should be clearly indicated thereon. Specifications covering the height of ceilings, types of principal pieces of equipment, character of floors, walls, and ceilings, lighting, ventilation, water supply, and drainage, and such other notations as may be required, shall accompany the drawings. Construction or remodeling of buildings, facilities, or premises should not be initiated without prior approval of the drawings. Upon approval of drawings and specifications the application for grading service or inspection service may be approved.

(3) Final survey and plant approval. Prior to the inauguration of the grading service or inspection service, a final survey of the plant and premises shall be made by the regional supervisor or his assistant to determine if the plant is constructed and facilities are installed in accordance with the approved drawings and the regulations in this part. The plant may be approved only when these requirements have been met, except that conditional approval for a specified limited time may be granted only under emergency conditions of restricted availability of facilities and construction materials, provided practices suitable to the Administrator are employed to effect adequate sanitary conditions in the plant.

(f) Rejection of application. Any application for grading service or inspection service may be rejected by the Administrator (1) for noncompliance, by the applicant, with the act or the regulations in this part, or (2) whenever the product involved is owned by, or located on the premises of, a person currently denied the benefits of the act. Each such applicant shall be notified immediately of the reasons for the rejection.

(g) Withdrawal of application. Any application for grading or inspection service may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the service is performed upon payment, by the applicant, of all expenses incurred by the Administration in connection with such application.

(h) Order of service. Grading service or inspection service shall be performed, insofar as practicable, in the order in which application therefor is made except that precedence may be given to any application for an appeal inspection or appeal grading.

(i) Suspension of plant approval. (1) Any plant approval given pursuant to the regulations may be suspended for (i) failure to maintain plant and equipment in a satisfactory state of repairs; (ii) the use of operating procedures which are not in accordance with the regulations; or (iii) alterations of buildings, facilities, or equipment which cannot be approved in accordance with the regulations.

(2) During such period of suspension, inspection and grading service shall not be rendered. However, the other provisions of the contract for service will remain in effect unless terminated in accordance with the terms thereof. If the plant facilities or methods of operation are not brought into compliance within a reasonable period of time, to be specified by the Administrator, the contract shall be terminated. Upon termination of any contract providing for inspection or grading service in an official plant pursuant to the regulations, the plant approval shall also become terminated, and all labels, seals, tags or packaging material bearing official identification shall, under the supervision of a person designated by the Administration, either be destroyed, or the official identification completely obliterated, or sealed in a manner acceptable to the Administration.

§ 54.7 Fraud or misrepresentation. Any wilful violation of the regulations in this part, the use of the terms "Government graded," "Federal-State graded," or terms of similar import in the labeling or advertising of any product without stating in conjunction therewith the U. S. grade of the product, or any wilful misrepresentation or deceptive or fraudulent practice found to be made or committed by any person in connection with:

(a) The making or filing of an application for any grading service or inspection service;

(b) The use of any grading certificate or inspection certificate issued pursuant to the regulations in this part, or the use of any official identification;

(c) The use of the terms "United States" or "U. S." in conjunction with the grade of the product;

(d) The use of any of the aforesaid terms or an official identification in the labeling or advertising of any product; or

(e) The use, in connection with any product, of a facsimile form which simulates in whole or in part any official identification; may be deemed sufficient cause for debarring such person from any or all benefits of the act after opportunity for hearing has been accorded him; and, pending investigation and hearing, the Administrator may, without hearing, direct that such person shall be denied the benefits of the act.

§ 54.8 Interfering with a grader or inspector. Any further benefits of the act and the regulations in this part may be denied any applicant who either personally or through an agent or representative interferes with or obstructs, by intimidation, threats, ridicule, or assault, or in any other manner, a grader or inspector in the performance of his official duties.

§ 54.9 Other applicable regulations. Compliance with the regulations in this part shall not excuse failure to comply with any other applicable Federal, State, or municipal laws or regulations.

§ 54.10 Publications. Publications under the act and the regulations in this part shall be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the Service and Regulatory Announcements of the Department, and such other media as the Administrator may approve for the purpose.

§ 54.11 Identifying and marking products—(a) Approval of official identification. (1) Any label or packaging material which bears any official identification shall be used only in such manner as the Administrator may prescribe. No label or packaging material bearing official identification may be used unless finished copies or samples of such labels and packaging material have been approved by the Administrator. No label bearing official identification shall be printed for use until the printer's final proof has been approved by the Administrator; and no label, other than labels for shipping containers or containers for institutional packs, bearing any official identification shall be used until finished copies or samples of such labels have been approved by the Administrator. Final approval may be given to printer's final proof or photostatic copies of labels for shipping containers or containers for institutional packs, and no such labels shall be used until such proofs or copies have been approved by the Administrator. A label which bears official identification shall not bear any statement that is false or misleading, and if labels in the name of the same packer or distributor, or bearing the same brand name, are used on the same or similar products which are prepared from products which are not inspected, the diameter of the inspection mark, or combination inspection and grading mark, used on labels for inspected products shall be equal to at least one-tenth of the length of the label, plus at least one-tenth of the width of the label. If the labeling is printed or otherwise applied directly to the container, the principal display panel of such container shall, for this purpose, be considered as the label.

(2) Any present supply of labels approved, pursuant to the applicable provisions of Part 70 of this chapter, prior to the effective time of the regulations in this part may continue to be used until such present supply is exhausted.

(b) Products that may be individually grade marked; information required on grade mark. Only ready-to-cook domestic rabbits which are of A Quality or B Quality may be individually identified with a grade mark. Except as otherwise authorized each grade mark which is to be used shall conspicuously indicate the U. S. grade and class of the product it identifies and shall include one of the following phrases: "Federal-State Graded," or "Government Graded," or a phrase of similar import. Such grade mark shall be contained within the outline of a shield of such design as may be prescribed or approved by the Administrator.

(c) Use of grade mark and inspection mark with respect to the same product. The Administrator is authorized to prescribe and approve the form of the grade mark and inspection mark that may be used individually or in combination with respect to the same product.

(d) Marking inspected products—(1) Wording and form of the inspection mark. Except as otherwise authorized the inspection mark permitted to be used with respect to inspected and certified edible products shall include wording as follows: "Inspected for wholesomeness by U. S. Department of Agriculture." This wording, in such form as the Administrator may prescribe or approve, shall be contained within a circle. The Administrator may approve the use of abbreviations of such inspection mark; and such approved abbreviations shall have the same force and effect as the inspection mark. The inspection mark or approved abbreviation thereof, as the case may be, may be applied to the inspected and certified edible product or to the packaging material of such product. The inspection mark, or the approved abbreviation thereof, shall, when used on packaging material, be printed on such material or on a label to be affixed to the packaging material, and the name of the packer or distributor of such product must be legibly printed on the packaging material or label, as the case may be.

(2) Wording on labels. Each trade label to be approved for use pursuant to this section with respect to any inspected and certified edible product shall bear the true name of the edible product, the name and address of the packer or distributor thereof, and in prominent letters and figures of uniform size, the inspection mark, as aforesaid; and the label shall also bear, in such manner as may be prescribed or approved by the Administrator, the plant number, if any, of the official plant in which such product was inspected and certified.

(3) Labels in foreign languages. Any trade label to be affixed to a container of any edible products for foreign commerce may be printed in a foreign language. However, the inspection mark shall appear on the label in English, but, in addition, may be literally translated into such foreign language. Each such trade label which is to be printed in a foreign language must be approved pursuant to this section.

(4) Use of approved labels. Trade labels approved for use pursuant to this section shall be used only for the purpose for which approved.

§ 54.12 Supervision of marking and packaging—(a) Evidence of label approval. No grader or inspector shall authorize the use of official identification for any graded or inspected product unless he has on file evidence that such official identification or packaging material bearing such official identification has been approved in accordance with the provisions of § 54.11.

(b) Affixing of official identification. (1) No official identification or any abbreviation, copy or representation thereof may be affixed to or placed on or caused to be affixed to or placed on any product or container thereof except by a grader or an inspector or under the supervision of a grader or an inspector or other person authorized by the Administrator. All such products shall have been inspected and certified, or graded, or both. The grader or inspector shall have supervision over the use and handling of all material bearing any official identification.

(2) Each container of inspected and certified edible products to be shipped from one official plant to another official plant for further processing shall be marked for identification and shall show the following information:

(i) The name of the inspected and certified edible products in the container;

(ii) The name and address of the packer or distributor of such product;

(iii) The net weight of the container;

(iv) The inspection mark permitted to be used pursuant to the regulations in this part, unless the containers are sealed or otherwise identified in such manner as may be approved by the Administrator; and

(v) The plant number of the official plant where the products were packed.

(c) Packaging. No container which bears or may bear any official identification or any abbreviation or copy or representation thereof may be filled in whole or in part except with edible products which were inspected and certified or graded or both and are at the time of such filling, sound, wholesome and fit for human food. All such filling of containers shall be under the supervision of an inspector or grader.

§ 54.13 Retention labels. An inspector or grader may use such labels, devices and methods as may be approved by the Administrator for the identification (a) of products which are held for further examination, and (b) all equipment and utensils which are to be held for proper cleaning.

§ 54.14 Prerequisites to grading and inspection. Grading and inspection of products shall be rendered pursuant to the regulations in this part and under such conditions and in accordance with such methods as may be prescribed or approved by the Administrator.

§ 54.15 Accessibility of products. Each product for which grading service or inspection service is requested shall be so arranged so as to permit adequate determination of its class, quality, quantity, and condition as the circumstances may warrant.

§ 54.16 Time of grading or inspection in an official plant. The grader or inspector who is to perform the grading or inspection in an official plant shall be informed, in advance, by the applicant of the hours when such grading or inspection is desired. Graders and inspectors shall have access at all times to every part of any official plant to which they are assigned.

§ 54.17 Report of inspection work and grading work. Reports of the work of inspection and grading carried on within official plants shall be forwarded to the Administrator by the inspector and grader in such manner as may be specified by the Administrator.

(a) Information to be furnished to inspectors and graders. When inspection service or grading service is performed within an official plant, the applicant for such inspection or grading shall furnish to the inspector or grader rendering such service such information as may be required for the purposes of this section.

(b) Reports of violations. Each inspector and each grader shall report, in the manner prescribed by the Administrator, all violations of and noncompliance with the act and the regulations in this part of which he has knowledge.

§ 54.18 Fees and charges—(a) Payment of fees and charges. (1) Fees and charges for any grading or inspection shall be paid by the applicant for the service in accordance with the applicable provisions of this section and, if so required by the Administrator, such fees and charges shall be paid in advance.

(2) Fees and charges for any grading or inspection performed by any grader or inspector who is a salaried employee of the Department shall, unless otherwise required pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, be paid by check, draft, or money order payable to the Treasurer of the United States and remitted promptly to the Administration.

(3) Fees and charges for any grading or inspection pursuant to a cooperative agreement with any State or person shall be paid in accordance with the terms of such cooperative agreement.

(b) Grading service on a fee basis. (1) Unless otherwise provided in this part the fees to be charged and collected for any grading service (other than for an appeal grading) on a fee basis shall be based on the applicable rates specified in paragraph (d) of this section.

(2) In the event the aforesaid applicable rates specified in paragraph (d) of this section are deemed by the Administrator to be inadequate fully to reimburse the Administration for all costs and other items paid or incurred by the Administration in connection with such service, the fees for such service shall not be based on the rates specified in paragraph (d) of this section, but shall be based on the time required to perform such service and the travel of each grader at the rate of $3.60 per hour for the time actually required.

(3) If an applicant requests that any grading service be performed on a holiday or a non-work day, he may be charged for such service at a rate one and one-half times the rate which would otherwise be applicable for such service if performed on a day other than on a holiday or non-work day.

(c) Fees for appeal grading. The fees to be charged for any appeal grading shall be double the fee specified in the grading certificate from which the appeal is taken: Provided, That the fee for any appeal grading requested by the United States, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, shall be not more than that set forth in the grading certificate from which the appeal is taken. If the fee on the certificate from which the appeal is taken is based on a contract, then the fee for such appeal grading shall be double the amount specified in paragraph (d) of this section for the applicable volume of product appeal graded. If the result of any appeal grading discloses that a material error was made in the grading appealed from, no fee shall be required.

(d) Domestic rabbits grading fees. For each grading of any lot of domestic rabbits, whether live or ready-to-cook, the following fees shall be applicable:

For 500 pounds or less	$1.50
For 501 to 1,500 pounds, inclusive	2.25
For 1,501 to 3,000 pounds, inclusive	3.00
For 3,001 to 6,000 pounds, inclusive	4.00
For 6,001 to 10,000 pounds, inclusive	6.00
For 10,001 to 20,000 pounds, inclusive	10.00
For each additional 10,000 pounds, or fraction thereof, in excess of $20,000 pounds	3.00

(e) Inspection service on a fee basis. Fees to be charged and collected for inspection services furnished on a fee basis shall be based on the time required to render such services including, but not being limited to, the time required for the travel of the inspector or inspectors in connection therewith, at the rate of $3.60 per hour for each inspector for the time actually required.

(f) Fees for additional copies of grading certificates and inspection certificates. Additional copies other than those provided for in § 54.27 and § 54.32 of any grading certificates or inspection certificates, may be supplied to any interested party upon payment of a fee of $1.00 for each set of five or fewer copies.

(g) Traveling expenses and other charges. Charges may be made to cover the cost of traveling and other expenses incurred by the Administration in connection with the performance of any grading service or inspection service.

(h) On a contract basis. Fees to be charged and collected for any grading service or inspection service, other than for an appeal grading, on a contract basis shall be those provided for in such contract. The fees to be charged for any appeal grading shall be as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(i) Fees for grading service or inspection service performed under cooperative agreement. The fees to be charged and collected for any grading service or inspection service performed under cooperative agreement shall be those provided for by such agreement.

(j) Disposition of fees for inspection made under cooperative agreement. Fees for inspection under a cooperative agreement with any State or person shall be disposed of in acordance with the terms of such agreement. Such portion of the fees collected under a cooperative agreement as may be due the United States shall be remitted to the Administration.

INSPECTION

§ 54.19 Manner of handling products in an official plant. Unless otherwise specified in the regulations in this part by the Administrator, products which are to be further processed under inspection in an official plant shall be prepared and handled in such official plant under the supervision of an inspector.

§ 54.20 Ante-mortem inspection. Ante-mortem examination of domestic rabbits is required as a prerequisite to any inspection; and such ante-mortem examination shall be carried out under such conditions and in accordance with such methods as may be prescribed or approved by the Administrator.

§ 54.21 Evisceration. No viscera or any part thereof shall be removed from any domestic rabbits which are to be processed under inspection in any official plant, except at the time of evisceration and inspection. Each carcass to be eviscerated shall be opened so as to expose the organs and the body cavity for proper examination by the inspector and shall be prepared immediately after inspection as ready-to-cook domestic rabbit.

§ 54.22 Carcasses held for further examination. Each carcass, including all parts thereof, in which there is any lesion of disease, or other condition, which might render such carcass or any part thereof unfit for human food, and with respect to which a final decision cannot be made on first examination by the inspector, shall be held for further examination. The identity of each such carcass, including all parts thereof, shall be maintained until a final examination has been completed.

§ 54.23 Condemnation and treatment of carcasses. Each carcass, or any part thereof, which is found to be unsound, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food shall be condemned by the inspector and shall receive such treatment, under the supervision of the inspector as will prevent its use for human food and preclude dissemination of disease through consumption by animals.

§ 54.24 Certification of carcasses. Each carcass and all parts and organs thereof which are found by the inspector to be sound, wholesome, and fit for human food shall be certified as provided in this part.

§ 54.25 Reinspection of edible products. (a) Any inspected and certified edible product may be brought into an official plant only if the container of such product is marked for identification in the manner prescribed in § 54.12 (b) (2) and the product is reinspected by an inspector at the time it is brought into such plant. Upon reinspection, if any such product or portion thereof is found to be unsound, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food, such product, or portion thereof, shall be condemned and shall receive such treatment as that provided in § 54.23.

(b) Any product which is prepared under inspection in an official plant shall be inspected in such plant as often as the inspector deems it necessary in order to ascertain whether such product is sound, wholesome, and fit for human food at the time such product leaves such plant. Upon any such inspection, if any such product or portion thereof is found to be unsound, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food, such product or portion thereof shall be condemned and shall receive such treatment as that provided in § 54.23.

(c) All substances and ingredients used in the manufacture or preparation of any edible product shall be clean, sound, wholesome, and fit for human food.

§ 54.26 Appeal inspection; how made. Any interested party may, if dissatisfied with any decision of an inspector relating to any inspection, file an appeal from such decision. Any such appeal from a decision of an inspector shall be made to his immediate superior having jurisdiction over the subject matter of the appeal. Review of such appeal findings, when requested, shall be made by the immediate superior of the employee of the Department making the appeal inspection.

§ 54.27 Inspection certificates—(a) Forms of inspection certificates. Each inspection certificate issued pursuant to the regulations in this part shall be approved by the Administrator as to form, and:

(1) Each domestic rabbit inspection certificate shall show the class or classes of domestic rabbits, the quantity of product contained in the respective lot, and all pertinent information concerning the condition and wholesomeness thereof;

(2) Each food product inspection certificate shall show the names of the edible products covered by such certificate, the quantity of each such product, such shipping marks as are necessary to identify such products, and all pertinent information concerning the condition and wholesomeness thereof;

(3) Each export certificate shall show the respective names of the exporter and the consignee, the destination, the shipping marks, the numbers of the export stamps attached to the edible products to be exported and covered by the certificate, and the names of such products and the total net weight thereof.

(b) Issuance and disposition of domestic rabbits inspection certificates. (1) Upon the request of an interested party, any inspector is authorized to issue a domestic rabbit inspection certificate with respect to any lot of dressed domestic rabbits inspected by him. Each certificate shall be signed by the inspector who made the inspection covered by the certificate, and if more than one inspector participated in the inspection of the lot of domestic rabbits, each such inspector shall sign the certificate with respect to such lot.

(2) The original of each inspection certificate, issued pursuant to this section, and not to exceed three copies thereof, shall, immediately upon issuance, be delivered or mailed to the applicant or person designated by him. One copy shall be filed in the office of the regional supervisor serving the area in which the inspection was performed, and the remaining copies to be disposed of in such manner as the Administrator may approve. Additional copies of any such certificate may be furnished to any interested party as provided in § 54.18.

(c) Food product inspection certificates; issuance and disposition. (1) Upon the request of an interested party, any inspector is authorized to issue a food product inspection certificate with respect to any inspected and certified edible product after suitable examination of the product has been made by the inspector.

(2) The original of each food product inspection certificate, and not to exceed two copies thereof, if requested, shall, immediately upon issuance, be delivered or mailed to the applicant or person designated by him. Another copy shall be filed in the office of the regional supervisor serving the area in which such certificate was issued, and one copy shall be forwarded to the Administrator. The last named two copies shall be retained until otherwise ordered by the Administrator.

(d) Export certficates; issuance and disposition. (1) Upon the request of an exporter, any inspector is authorized to issue an export certificate with respect to the shipment to any foreign country of any inspected and certified edible product after suitable examination of the product has been made by the inspector.

(2) Each export certificate shall be issued in quintuplicate; the original shall be delivered to the exporter who requested such certificate; and the duplicate copy shall be delivered to the agent of the railroad or other carrier transporting such products from the United States. The triplicate copy of such export certificate shall be forwarded to the Administrator; the quadruplicate copy shall be filed in the office of the regional supervisor serving the area in which such export certificate was issued and the memorandum copy shall be retained by the inspector for filing. The last named three copies shall be retained until otherwise ordered by the Administrator.

(e) Advance information. Upon the request of an applicant, all or part of the contents of any inspection certificate issued to such applicant may be telephoned or telegraphed to him, or to any person designated by him, at his expense.

GRADING

§ 54.28 General. Grading service performed with respect to any quantity of products shall, as the case may require, be on the basis of an examination, pursuant to the regulations in this part, of each unit thereof or of each unit in the representative sample thereof drawn by a grader. Whenever the grading service is performed on a representative sample basis, such sample shall be drawn and consist of not less than the minimum number of containers as indicated in the following table:

[Minimum number of containers comprising a representative sample]

Containers in lot.	Containers in sample
3 containers, or less	(1)
4 to 10, inclusive	3
11 to 20, inclusive	4
21 to 50, inclusive	7
51 to 100, inclusive	10
In excess of 100 containers	(2)

[1] All containers.

[2] 10 percent of the number of containers in the lot.

§ 54.29 Live domestic rabbits. Grading service performed with respect to any quantity of live domestic rabbits shall, as the case may require, be on the basis of an examination, pursuant to regulations in this part, of each unit thereof or of each unit in the representative sample thereof drawn by a grader. Such domestic rabbits may be identified with official identification on a lot basis only.

§ 54.30 Ready-to-cook domestic rabbits—(a) In an official plant. Grading service performed in an official plant with respect to ready-to-cook domestic rabbits shall, as the case may require, be on the basis of each individual carcass or on a representative sample basis.

(1) Only such ready-to-cook domestic rabbits which have been inspected and certified, pursuant to the regulations in this part, or have been inspected and passed by any other official inspection system which is acceptable to the Administrator, may be graded.

(2) Only such ready-to-cook domestic rabbits which were graded on an individual carcass basis and are of A Quality or B Quality may be individually identified with the appropriate grade mark, and any container of such ready-to-cook domestic rabbits may also be so identified. The grading of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits shall be performed prior to the disjointing or cutting up of the respective carcass.

(3) If the ready-to-cook domestic rabbits are of C Quality only the bulk container of such ready-to-cook domestic rabbits may be identified with the appropriate grade mark even though the grading may have been performed on an individual carcass basis.

(b) At terminal markets and other receiving points. Grading service performed with respect to ready-to-cook domestic rabbits at terminal markets and other receiving points may be on a representative sample basis. Only such ready-to-cook domestic rabbits which were processed in an official plant and are graded on an individual carcass basis may be individually identified with a grade mark. Only ready-to-cook domestic rabbits which were inspected and certified and are marked with the inspection mark or in accordance with the provisions of § 54.12 (b) (2) may be graded.

§ 54.31 Basis of acceptability of other official inspection systems—(a) General. Any domestic rabbit inspection system may be deemed to be acceptable to the Administrator which (1) is conducted under the authority of laws, ordinances, or similar enactments of the State, county, city, or other political subdivision in which is located the official plant at which the ready-to-cook domestic rabbits are prepared and submitted for grading service; and (2) imposes at least the requirements set forth in paragraph (b) of this section: Provided, That no such inspection shall be deemed acceptable to the Administrator with respect to any official plant in which ready-to-cook domestic rabbits are prepared if he finds at any time that such requirements are not adequately enforced.

(b) Requirements as to manner of inspection. (1) The inspection shall be conducted by an inspector who is a qualified veterinarian or under the supervision of a qualified veterinarian. All such inspectors shall be employed by the State, county, city, or other political subdivision in which the official plant is located.

(2) The inspection shall include postmortem examination of each domestic rabbit carcass during the evisceration operation.

(3) All carcasses which show evidence of disease or any other condition which may render them unwholesome or unfit for food shall be condemned and shall be destroyed for food purposes under the supervision of an inspector. Each carcass and part thereof which has been inspected and passed or containers of carcasses or parts thereof shall bear the identifying inspection symbol of the other official inspection system and the marking devices or labels shall be in the custody of the inspector at all times.

(c) Determining compliance with paragraph (b) of this section. A qualified veterinary supervisor of the domestic rabbit grading service of the Administration shall investigate the manner of operation of the inspection system to determine the adequacy of the postmortem examination and the compliance with the requirements contained in this section prior to approving the official plant for the grading of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits. This supervisor as well as any official graders who may be stationed in the official plant shall periodically observe the inspection operations in the official plant to determine that the requirements of this section are being met. If at any time the inspector fails to enforce the requirements as set forth in the inspection system, grading service may be withdrawn from the official plant.

§ 54.32 Grading certificates — (a) Forms. Grading certificates (including appeal grading certificates and regrading certificates) shall be issued on forms approved by the Administrator.

(b) Issuance and disposition. (1) Each grader shall issue a grading certificate covering each product graded.

(2) The original of each grading certificate, issued pursuant to this section, and not to exceed three of the copies thereof, shall, immediately upon issuance, be delivered or mailed to the applicant or person designated by him. One copy shall be filed in the office of grading serving the area in which the grading service was performed, and the remaining copies shall be disposed of in such manner as the Administrator may approve. Additional copies of any such certificate may be furnished to any interested party as provided in § 54.18 (f).

(c) Advance information. Upon the request of an applicant, all or part of the contents of any grading certificate issued to such applicant may be telephoned or telegraphed to him, or to any person designated by him, at his expense.

§ 54.33 Application for regrading of a graded product; regrading certificates—(a) Application for regrading of a graded product. An application for a regrading of any previously graded product may be made at any time by any interested party, and such application shall clearly state the reasons for requesting the regrading. The provisions of the regulations relative to grading service shall apply to regrading service.

(b) Regrading certificates. Immediately after a regrading has been completed, a regrading certificate shall be issued showing the results of such regrading; and such certificate shall thereupon supersede, as of the time of issuance of the regrading certificate, the grading certificate previously issued for the product involved. Each regrading certificate shall clearly set forth the number and date of the grading certificate which it supersedes. The provisions of § 54.32 shall, whenever applicable, also apply to regrading certificates except that copies of such regrading certificates shall be furnished each interested party of record.

§ 54.34 Appeal grading—(a) Application for appeal grading. An application for an appeal grading may be made by any interested party who is dissatisfied with any determination stated in any grading certificate only if the identity of the product, or representative sample thereof, on the basis of which a determination was made has not been lost, and such application for the appeal grading is made within two days following the day on which the grading was performed. Upon approval by the Administrator, the time within which an application for an appeal grading may be made may be extended.

(b) How to obtain appeal grading. Appeal grading may be obtained by filing a request therefor (1) with the Administrator, (2) with the grader who issued the grading certificate with respect to which the appeal grading is requested, (3) with the immediate superior of such grader, or (4) with the officer in charge of any office of grading. The application for appeal grading shall clearly state the reasons therefor and may be accompanied by a copy of the aforesaid grading certificate or any other information the applicant may have secured regarding the product, at the time of grading, from which the appeal is requested. Such application may be made orally (in person or by telephone), in writing, or by telegraph. If made orally, written confirmation may be required.

(c) Record of filing time. A record showing the date and hour when each such application for appeal grading is received shall be maintained in such manner as the Administrator may prescribe.

(d) When an application for an appeal grading may be refused. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, if it appears to the Administrator that the reasons for an appeal grading are frivolous or not substantial, or that the quality or condition of the products has undergone a material change since the grading from which the appeal is made, or the identical products that were examined to ascertain the grade thereof cannot be made accessible for reexamination, or the act or regulations in this part have not been complied with, the Administrator may refuse the applicant's request for the appeal grading, and such applicant shall be promptly notified of the reason for such refusal.

(e) When an application for appeal grading may be withdrawn. An application for appeal grading may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the appeal grading is made upon payment, by the applicant, of all expenses incurred by the Administration in connection with such application.

(f) Who shall perform the appeal grading. An appeal grading of any graded product shall be made by any grader (other than the one from whose grading the appeal is made) designated for this purpose by the Administrator; and, whenever practical, such appeal grading shall be conducted jointly by two such graders.

(g) Appeal grading by immediate superior. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, whenever the immediate superior of a grader has evidence that such grader incorrectly graded a product, such superior shall immediately make a regrading of the product.

(h) Order of performance of appeal gradings. Appeal gradings shall be performed, insofar as practical, in the order in which applications therefor are received; but any such application may be given precedence pursuant to § 54.6.

(i) Appeal grading certificates. Immediately after an appeal grading has been completed, an appeal grading certificate shall be issued showing the results of such appeal grading. Such certificate shall thereupon supersede the grading certificate for the product involved and such supersedure shall be effective as of the time of issuance of the grading certificate with respect to which the appeal is made. Each appeal grading certificate shall clearly set forth the number and the date of the grading certificate which it supersedes. The provisions of § 54.32 shall, whenever applicable, also apply to appeal grading certificates except that copies of such appeal grading certificates shall be furnished each interested party of record.

§ 54.35 Superseded certificates. Whenever any grading certificate is superseded in accordance with the regulations in this part such certificate shall become null and void as of the effective time of supersedure. If the original and all copies of such superseded certificate are not delivered to the person issuing the regrading certificate or appeal grading certificate, he shall notify such persons as he considers necessary to prevent fraudulent use of the superseded certificate.

SANITARY REQUIREMENTS

§ 54.36 Minimum standards for sanitation, facilities, and operating procedures in official plants. The provisions of this section shall apply with respect to grading service and inspection service in all official plants. The table set forth in this section indicates some of the types of material which may be used in the construction of equipment, utensils and facilities for use in the plant.

BUILDINGS AND PLANT FACILITIES

(a) The buildings shall be of sound construction and kept in good repair, and shall be of such construction as to prevent the entrance or harboring of vermin—(1) Outside openings. (i) The doors, windows, skylights and other outside openings of the plant, except receiving rooms and live rabbit holding rooms, shall be protected by properly fitted screens or other suitable devices, against the entrance of flies and other insects.

(ii) Outside doors, except in receiving rooms and live rabbit holding rooms shall be self-closing and so hung that not over ¼ inch clearance remains when closed. Screen doors shall open toward the outside of the building.

(b) Rooms and compartments used for edible products shall be separate and distinct from inedible products departments and from rooms where rabbits are slaughtered and skinned. Separate rooms shall be provided when required for conducting processing operations in a sanitary manner; and all rooms shall be of sufficient size to permit the installation of the necessary equipment for processing operations and the conduct of such operations in a sanitary manner. (1) The official plant should have separate rooms for each of the following operations depending upon the various types of operations conducted; but in no case shall the receiving or holding of live rabbits or killing operations be permitted in rooms in which eviscerating operations are performed:

(i) The receiving and feeding of live rabbits.

(ii) Killing and skinning operations.

(iii) Eviscerating, chilling, and packing operations for ready-to-cook rabbits.

(iv) Inedible products departments.

(v) Refuse room.

(2) Rooms and compartments in which carcasses or parts thereof are held for further inspection shall be in such number and such location as the needs of the inspection in the plant may require. They shall be equipped with locks and keys and the keys shall not leave the custody of the inspector in charge of the plant. All such rooms and compartments shall be marked conspicuously with the word "retained" in letters not less than 2 inches high.

(3) Coolers and freezers. Coolers and freezers of adequate size and capacity shall be provided to reduce the internal temperature of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits prepared and otherwise handled in the plant to 36° F. within 24 hours unless other cooling facilities are available.

(4) Refuse rooms. Refuse rooms shall be entirely separate from other rooms in the plant, and shall have tight fitting doors and be properly ventilated.

(5) Storage and supply rooms. The storage and supply rooms shall be in good repair, kept dry, and maintained in a sanitary condition.

(6) Boiler room. The boiler room shall be a separate room, if necessary, to prevent its being a source of dirt and objectionable odors entering any room where ready-to-cook rabbits are prepared, processed, handled and stored.

(7) Inspector's office. Furnished office space, including, but not being limited to, light, heat and janitor service shall be provided rent free in the official plant, for the exclusive use for official purposes of the inspector or grader and the Administration. The room or rooms set apart for this purpose must meet with the approval of the regional supervisor and be conveniently located, properly ventilated and provided with lockers or cabinets suitable for the protection and storage of supplies and with facilities suitable for inspectors and graders to change clothing.

(8) Toilet rooms opening directly into rooms where domestic rabbit products are exposed shall have self-closing doors and shall be ventilated to the outside of the building.

(c) The floors, walls, ceilings, partitions, posts, doors and other parts of all compartments shall be of such material, construction, and finish as will make them susceptible of being readily and thoroughly cleaned—(1) Floors. (i) All floors, except those which are kept dry, shall be constructed of hardened concrete, or of tile laid closely together with impervious joint material, or of other similar impervious material and kept in good repair.

(ii) All floors except those which are kept dry shall be graded to permit run-off with no standing water and in new construction and renovated plants the pitch shall be not less than ¼ inch per foot to drains.

(2) Ceilings and walls. (i) Ceilings and walls in rooms and compartments where exposed edible products are processed, handled, or stored shall have tiled, enameled, or other smooth surface impervious to moisture.

(ii) Cooler and freezer rooms shall have interior surfaces as are impervious to moisture and permit thorough cleaning.

(3) Blood disposal. (i) Adequate facilities shall be provided for the disposal of blood in a sanitary manner.

(ii) When bleeding troughs are used they shall be long enough to catch the blood during the bleeding process and shall be cleaned daily. Such troughs shall be installed so as to pitch at least ½ inch per foot toward a smooth metal catch basin or basins, of sufficient capacity for a day's operation at peak production, or shall be flushed continuously.

(d) There shall be an efficient drainage and plumbing system for the plant and premises. (1) All drains and gutters shall be properly installed with approved traps and vents. The drainage and plumbing system must permit the quick run-off of all water from plant buildings, and surface water around the plant and on the premises; and all such water shall be disposed of in such a manner as to prevent a nuisance or health hazard.

(2) Sewage and plant wastes. (i) The sewerage system shall have adequate slope and capacity to remove readily all waste from the various processing operations and to minimize, and if possible to prevent, stoppage and surcharging of the system.

(ii) Grease traps which are connected with the sewerage system shall be suitably located but not near any edible products department or in any area where products are unloaded from, or loaded into, vehicles. To facilitate cleaning, such traps shall have inclined bottoms and be provided with suitable covers.

(iii) In new construction toilet soil lines schall be separate from house drainage lines to a point outside the buildings; and drainage from toilet bowls and urinals shall not be discharged into a grease catch basin.

(iv) All floor drains shall be equipped with traps, constructed so as to minimize clogging; and the plumbing shall be so installed as to prevent sewerage from backing up and from flooding the floor.

(v) Floor drainage lines should be of metal and at least 4 inches in diameter and open into main drains of at least 6 inches in diameter and shall be properly vented to outside air.

(vi) Where refrigerators are equipped with drains, such drains should be properly trapped and should discharge through an air gap into the sewer system. All new installations, and all replacements, of refrigerators equipped with drains shall meet these requirements.

(e) The water supply shall be ample, clean, and potable with adequate facilities for its distribution in the plant, and its protection against contamination and pollution. (1) Hot water at a temperature not less than 180° F. shall be available for sanitation purposes.

(2) Hose connections with steam and water mixing valves or hot water hose connections shall be provided at convenient locations throughout the plant for cleaning purposes.

(3) The refuse rooms shall be provided with adequate facilities for washing refuse cans and other equipment in the rooms; and the rooms, cans, and equipment shall be cleaned after each day's use.

(f) Modern lavatory accommodations, and properly located facilities for cleaning utensils and hands shall be provided. (1) Adequate lavatory and toilet accommodations, including, but not being limited to, running hot water and cold water, soap, and towels, shall be provided. Such accommodations shall be in or near toilet and locker rooms and also at such other places in the plant as may be essential to the cleanliness of all persons handling products.

(2) Sufficient metal containers shall be provided for used towels and other wastes.

(3) The water supply in all hand washing facilities serving areas where edible products are prepared shall be operated by other than hand operated controls or shall be of a continuous-flow type.

(4) Durable signs shall be posted conspicuously in each toilet room and locker room directing employees to wash their hands before returning to work.

(5) Toilet facilities shall be provided according to the following formula:

Persons of same sex:	Toilet bowls required
1 to 15, inclusive	1
16 to 35, inclusive	2
36 to 55, inclusive	[1]3
56 to 80, inclusive	[1]4
For each additional 30 persons in excess of 80	[1]1

[1] Urinals may be substituted for toilet bowls but only to the extent of ⅓ of the total number of bowls stated.

(g) There shall be ample light, either natural or artificial or both, of good quality and well distributed, and sufficient ventilation for all rooms and compartments to insure sanitary conditions. (1) All rooms in which domestic rabbits are killed, eviscerated, or otherwise processed shall have at least 10 foot candles of light intensity on all working surfaces except that at the grading and inspection stations such light intensity shall be 50 foot candles. In all other rooms there shall be provided at least 4 foot candles of light intensity when measured at a distance of 30 inches from the floor.

(2) All rooms shall be adequately ventilated to eliminate objectionable odors and minimize moisture condensation.

EQUIPMENT AND UTENSILS

(h) Equipment and utensils used for the preparation, processing, or otherwise handling any product in the plant shall be suitable for the purpose intended and shall be of such material and construction as will facilitate their thorough cleaning and insure cleanliness in the preparation and handling of products. (1) Live rabbit holding pens shall be so constructed as to allow satisfactory ante-mortem examination and to permit proper cleaning.

(2) Metal refuse containers shall be provided; and such containers shall be kept covered.

(3) Insofar as it is practical, equipment and utensils shall be made of metal or other impervious material. Trucks and receptacles used for handling inedible products shall be of similar construction and shall be conspicuously and distinctly marked and shall not be used for handling any edible products.

(4) Chilling vats. Chilling vats or tanks used for chilling ready-to-cook domestic rabbits shall be made of metal or other hard-surfaced impervious material.

(5) Grading and packing bins. Where grading bins are used for ready-to-cook domestic rabbits they shall be of sufficient number and capacity to handle the grading adequately without the use of makeshift bins and all ready-to-cook domestic rabbits shall be kept off the floor. Grading bins may be made of metal or enameled wood and shall be constructed and maintained in such a manner as to allow easy and thorough cleaning. All replacements of such bins shall, however, be of metal.

(6) Except as otherwise provided herein, all equipment and utensils used in the killing, skinning, and the eviscerating, chilling, and packing rooms shall be of metal or other impervious material and constructed so as to permit proper and complete cleaning.

(7) Conveyors. (i) Conveyors used in the preparation of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits shall be of metal or other acceptable material and of such construction as to permit thorough and ready cleaning and easy identification of viscera with its carcass.

(ii) Overhead conveyors shall be so constructed and maintained that they do not allow grease, oil, or dirt to accumulate on the drop chain or shackle, which shall be of non-corrosive metal.

(iii) Non-metallic belt-type conveyors used in moving edible products shall be of water-proof composition.

(8) Inspection, eviscerating, and cutting tables shall be made of metal and have coved corners and be so constructed and placed to permit thorough cleaning.

(9) In plants where no conveyors are used, each carcass shall be eviscerated in an individual metal tray of seamless construction.

(10) Water spray washing equipment shall be used for washing carcasses inside and out.

(11) Watertight metal receptacles shall be used for entrails and other waste resulting from preparation of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits.

(12) Watertight trucks and receptacles for holding or handling diseased carcasses and diseased parts of carcasses shall be so constructed as to be readily and thoroughly cleaned; such trucks and receptacles shall be marked in a conspicuous manner with the word "condemned" in letters not less than 2 inches high and, when required by the inspector in charge, shall be equipped with facilities for locking and sealing.

(13) Freezing rooms should be adequately equipped to freeze ready-to-cook domestic rabbits solid in less than 48 hours. Ready-to-cook domestic rabbits should be frozen at temperatures of −10° F. to −40° F. and should be stored at 0° F. or below, with the temperature maintained as constant as possible. Freezing rooms should be equipped with floor racks or pallets and fans to insure air circulation.

(14) Cooling racks should be made of metal and be readily accessible for thorough washing and cleaning. All replacements of cooling racks shall be made of metal.

(15) Trucks and receptacles in which carcasses or parts thereof are held for further inspection shall be in such number and such location as the needs of the inspection in the plant may require. They shall be equipped for locking by means of lock and key and the key shall not leave the custody of the inspector in charge of the plant. Such trucks and receptacles shall be marked conspicuously with the word "retained" in letters not less than 2 inches high.

(i) All equipment shall be so placed as to be readily accessible for all processing and cleaning operations.

(j) Equipment and utensils used in the official plant shall not be used outside the official plant except under such conditions as may be prescribed or approved by the national supervisor, and equipment used in the preparation of any article (including, but not being limited to, animal food), from inedible material shall not be used outside of the inedible products department except under such conditions as may be prescribed or approved by the national supervisor.

MAINTENANCE OF SANITARY CONDITIONS AND PRECAUTIONS AGAINST CONTAMINATION OF PRODUCTS

(k) The premises shall be kept free from refuse, waste materials, and all other sources of objectionable odors and conditions.

(l) Rooms, compartments, or other parts of the official plant shall be kept clean and in sanitary condition. (1) All blood, condemned rabbits or parts of rabbits too severely damaged to be salvaged and all discarded containers and other materials shall be completely disposed of daily.

(2) All windows, doors, and light fixtures in the official plant shall be kept clean.

(3) All docks and rooms shall be kept clean and free from debris and unused equipment and utensils.

(4) Live rabbit receiving docks and receiving rooms shall be of such construction as readily to permit their thorough cleaning; and such docks and rooms should be kept clean at all times.

(5) Floors in live rabbit holding rooms shall be cleaned with such regularity as may be necessary to maintain them in a sanitary condition.

(6) The killing and skinning room shall be kept clean and free from offensive odors at all times.

(7) The walls, floors, and all equipment and utensils used in the killing and skinning room shall be thoroughly washed and cleaned after each days' operation.

(8) The floors in the killing and skinning room shall be cleaned frequently during killing and skinning operations and be kept reasonably free from accumulated blood, offal, water and dirt.

(9) All equipment in the toilet room and locker room, as well as the room itself, shall be kept clean, sanitary, and in good repair.

(10) Cooler and freezer rooms shall be free from objectionable odors of any kind and shall be maintained in a sanitary condition (including, but not being limited to, the prevention of drippings from refrigerating coils onto products).

(m) Equipment and utensils used for preparing or otherwise handling any product shall be kept clean and in a sanitary condition and in good repair. (1) Pens shall be cleaned regularly and the manure removed from the plant daily.

(2) All equipment and utensils used in the killing and skinning rooms shall be thoroughly washed and cleaned after each day's operation. The eviscerating, chilling, and packing room and equipment and utensils used therein shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition.

(3) Graders' and packers' gloves and grading bins shall be washed daily and used only for grading or packing, as the case may be.

(4) All crates or pens used for transporting live domestic rabbits to the plant shall be cleaned regularly.

(5) Chilling vats or tanks, if practicable, shall be emptied after each use. They shall be thoroughly cleaned once daily, and after each cleaning operation they shall be sanitized with such compounds or by such methods as may be approved or prescribed by the Administrator.

(6) When synchronized overhead conveyors and tray conveyors are used, the trays shall be completely washed and sanitized after being automatically emptied of inedible viscera.

(7) When a conveyor tray operation is used, each carcass shall be eviscerated in an individual metal tray of seamless construction; and such trays shall be completely washed and sanitized after each use.

(8) Tables, shelves, bins, trays, pans, knives, and all other tools and equipment used in the preparation of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits shall be kept clean and sanitary at all times. Cleaned equipment and utensils shall be drained on racks and shall not be nested.

(9) Drums, cans, tanks, vats, and other receptacles used to hold or transport ready-to-cook domestic rabbits, shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition.

(n) Operations and procedures involving the preparation, storing, or handling of any product shall be strictly in accord with clean and sanitary methods. (1) There shall be no handling or storing of materials which create an objectionable condition in rooms, compartments, or other places in the plant where any product is prepared, stored, or otherwise handled.

(2) Blood from the killing operation shall be confined to a relatively small area and kept from being splashed about the room.

(3) In the final washing, the carcass shall be passed through a system of sprays providing an abundant supply of fresh clean water.

(4) The floors in the eviscerating room shall be kept clean and reasonably dry during eviscerating operations and free of all refuse.

(5) Conveyors shall be operated at such speeds as will permit a sanitary eviscerating operation and will permit adequate inspection for condition and wholesomeness.

(6) Mechanized packaging equipment shall be maintained in good sanitary condition.

(7) All offal resulting from the eviscerating operation shall be removed as often as necessary to prevent the development of a nuisance.

(8) Paper and other material used for lining containers in which products are packaged shall be of such kinds as do not tear readily during use, but remain intact when moistened by the product.

(9) Protective coverings shall be used for product in the plant and it is distributed from the plant as will afford adequate protection for the product against contamination by any foreign substance (including, but not being limited to, dust, dirt, and insects), considering the means intended to be employed in transporting the product from the plant.

(10) Refuse may be moved directly to loading docks only for prompt removal.

(11) Cleanliness and hygiene of personnel. (i) All employees coming in contact with exposed edible products or edible products handling equipment shall wear clean garments and should wear caps or hair nets, and shall keep their hands clean at all times while thus engaged.

(ii) Hands of employees handling edible products or edible products handling equipment shall be free of infected cuts, boils, and open sores at all times while thus engaged.

(iii) Every person after each use of toilet or change of garments shall wash his hands thoroughly before returning to duties that require the handling of edible products, or containers therefor, or edible products handling equipment.

(iv) Neither smoking nor chewing of tobacco shall be permitted in any room where exposed edible products are prepared, processed, or otherwise handled.

(o) Temperatures and procedures which are necessary for cooling and freezing of domestic rabbits in accordance with sound commercial practice shall be maintained in the coolers and freezers, and chilling temperatures and procedures shall also be in accordance with sound commercial practice.—(1) Cooling. Immediately after evisceration and washing of the carcass, it shall be placed in a cooling tank containing running cold tap water to remove the animal heat from the carcass. Carcasses shall not be allowed to remain in the cooling tank for longer than one hour.

(2) Air chilling. Immediately after the initial water chilling, the carcasses shall be placed in cooling racks and thereupon placed in a refrigerated cooler with moderate air movements and a temperature which will reduce the internal temperature of the carcasses to from 36° F. to 40° F., both inclusive, within 24 hours.

(3) Freezing. (i) When ready-to-cook domestic rabbits are packaged in bulk or shipping containers, the carcasses should be individually wrapped or packaged in water-vapor resistant cartons or the containers should be lined with heavy water-vapor resistant paper so as to assure adequate overlapping of the lining to completely surround the carcasses and to permit unsealed closure or sealing in such a manner that water-vapor loss from the product is considerably retarded or prevented. The rabbit carcasses should receive an initial rapid freezing under such packaging, temperature, air circulation, and stacking conditions which will result in freezing the carcasses solid in less than 48 hours.

(ii) Frozen ready-to-cook rabbits should be stored at 0° F., or below, with temperatures maintained as constant as possible.

(4) Immediately after packaging, all ready-to-cook domestic rabbits, other than those which are shipped from the plant in a refrigerated carrier, should be moved into the freezer, except that a period not exceeding 72 hours will be permitted for transportation and temporary holding before placing in the freezer provided such rabbits are held at not above 36° F.

(p) Every practicable precaution shall be taken to exclude flies, rats, mice, and other vermin from the official plant. (1) Dogs, cats, and other pets shall be excluded from rooms where edible products are processed, handled, or stored.

(q) No person affected with any communicable disease (including, but not being limited to, tuberculosis) in a transmissible stage shall be permitted in any room or compartment where exposed or unpacked edible products are prepared, processed, or otherwise handled.

(r) Table showing types of materials.

§ 54.37 Authority of Administrator to amend minimum standards for sanitation, facilities, and operating procedures in official plants. The Administrator is authorized to amend the provisions in § 54.36 and such amended provisions shall be applicable to official plants.

SUBPART B—UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR DOMESTIC RABBITS AND EDIBLE PRODUCTS THEREOF

§ 54.101 U. S. Specifications for classes of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits. For the purpose of this section, the classes of ready-to-cook domestic rabbits are fryer rabbits and roaster rabbits. The flesh of a fryer domestic rabbit is tender and fine-grained, and of a bright pearly white color. The flesh of a roaster domestic rabbit is more firm and coarse-grained; the muscle fiber is slightly darker in color and less tender than that of a fryer domestic rabbit; and the fat may be more creamy in color than that of a fryer domestic rabbit.

(a) Fryer. A fryer is a young domestic rabbit carcass weighing not less than 1½ pounds and rarely more than 3½ pounds; and processed from a rabbit usually less than 12 weeks of age.

(b) Roaster. A roaster is a mature or old domestic rabbit carcass of any weight but usually over 4 pounds; and processed from a rabbit over 12 weeks of age, usually 8 months old or older.

§ 54.102 U. S. Specifications for standards of quality for individual ready-to-cook domestic rabbits.—(a) General. Carcasses found to be unsound, unwholesome, or unfit for food shall not be included in any of the quality designations specified in this section.

(b) Standards of quality—(1) A Quality. To be of A Quality the carcass:

(i) Is short, thick, well-rounded, and full-fleshed.

(ii) Has a broad back, broad hips, and broad, deep fleshed shoulders, and firm muscle texture.

(iii) Has well-developed strips of fat extending from the neck part-way down the back, and some exterior fat well distributed over loins, shoulders, and back, and a plentiful amount of interior fat in the crotch and over the inner walls of the carcass, the kidneys being practically surrounded by thick layers of firm white fat.

(iv) Shows no evidence of coagulated blood in the veins and is free from any evidence of reddening of the flesh due to blood in the connective tissues.

(v) Is free from all foreign material (including, but not being limited to, hair, dirt, and bone particles) and from crushed bones caused by removing the head or the feet.

(vi) Is free from broken bones, flesh bruises, defects, and deformities. Ends of leg bones may be broken due to removing the feet.

(2) B Quality. To be of B Quality the carcass:

(i) Is short, thick, fairly well-rounded, and fairly well-fleshed.

(ii) Has a fairly broad back, fairly broad hips, and fairly broad and deep-fleshed shoulders, and fairly firm muscle texture.

(iii) Has fairly well developed strips of fat extending from the neck part-way down the back and some evidence of fat fairly well distributed over loins and shoulders; has interior fat that is fairly plentiful in the crotch and over the inner walls of the carcass; and has a considerable quantity of interior fat around the kidneys.

(iv) Shows no evidence of coagulated blood in the veins and is free from any evidence of reddening of the flesh due to blood in the connective tissues.

(v) Is free from all foreign material (including, but not being limited to, hair, dirt, and bone particles) and from crushed bones caused by removing the head or the feet.

(vi) Is free from broken bones and practically free from bruises, defects, and deformities. Ends of leg bones may be broken due to removing the feet.

(3) C Quality. A carcass that does not meet the requirements of B Quality may be of C Quality and such carcass:

(i) May be long, rangy, and fairly well fleshed.

(ii) May have thin, narrow back and hips, and soft flabby muscle texture.

(iii) May show very little evidence of exterior fat.

(iv) May show very slight evidence of reddening of the flesh due to blood in the connective tissues.

(v) Is free from all foreign material (including, but not being limited to, hair, dirt, and bone particles) and from crushed bones caused by removing the head or feet.

(vi) May have moderate bruises of the flesh, moderate defects, and moderate deformities; have not more than one broken bone; and may have a small portion of the carcass removed because of serious bruises.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 1st day of June 1951.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

[F. R. Doc. 51-6509; Filed, June 4, 1951; 8:45 a. m.]

PART 70—GRADING AND INSPECTION OF POULTRY AND EDIBLE PRODUCTS THEREOF; UNITED STATES SPECIFICATIONS FOR CLASSES, STANDARDS, AND GRADES WITH RESPECT THERETO

RULES AND UNITED STATES SPECIFICATIONS

On March 13, 1951, a notice of proposed issuance of regulations governing the grading and inspection of poultry and edible products thereof and United States specifications for classes, standards, and grades with respect thereto (7 CFR, Part 70) was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (16 F. R. 2350). The regulations hereinafter promulgated as Part 70 of the Code of Federal Regulations are pursuant to authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1951 (Pub. Law 759, 81st Cong., approved September 6, 1950), and will supersede the currently effective provisions of Part 70.

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, the rules and United States specifications hereinafter set forth are promulgated to become effective July 1, 1951. Unless these regulations become operative not later than July 1, 1951, some of the provisions (e. g., sanitary requirements) of the current regulations will be more restrictive on that date and so continue until the effective date of these regulations. In order to prevent the occurrence of a short interim period during which different requirements will be imposed with respect to the same operations, and to permit the continuous availability of service under uniform requirements, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making these regulations effective prior to 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The principal differences in these regulations from the superseded regulations are provisions requiring, as a prerequisite to the grading of ready-to-cook poultry, some form of prescribed inspection for wholesomeness; clarification of some of the definitions and wording of the provisions; the conditions under which operations may be conducted in an official plant without inspection; modification of the sanitary requirements to the extent deemed practicable for the effective conduct of processing operations in a sanitary manner; the hourly rate for rendering grading and inspection service on an intermittent fee basis has been increased from $3.00 to $3.60 in order to cover the costs of rendering these services on this basis; and the deletion of reference to domestic rabbits within the regulations. The provisions of the regulations contained herein are slightly modified from those which were published in the Notice of Proposed Rule Making. The superseded provisions of Part 70 applicable to domestic rabbits are contained in Part 54 which will become effective at the same time as the regulations contained herein.

The rules and specifications are as follows:

SUBPART A—GRADING AND INSPECTION OF POULTRY AND EDIBLE PRODUCTS THEREOF

DEFINITIONS

§ 70.1 Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the following terms shall have the following meaning:

(a) "Act" means the following provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act of 1951 (Pub. Law 759, 81st Cong., approved September 6, 1950), or any other act of Congress conferring like authority:

AGRICULTURAL MARKETING ACT OF 1946

* * * to develop and improve standards of quality, condition, quantity, grade, and packaging, and recommend and demonstrate such standards in order to encourage uniformity and consistency in commercial practices * * *

To inspect, certify, and identify the class, quality, quantity, and condition of agricultural products when shipped or received in interstate commerce under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of Agriculture may prescribe, including assessment and collection of such fees as will be reasonable and as nearly as may be to cover the cost of the service rendered, to the end that agricultural products may be marketed to the best advantage, that trading may be facilitated, and that consumers may be able to obtain the quality products which they desire. * * *

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE APPROPRIATION ACT, 1951

* * * Market inspection of farm products: For the investigation and certification, in one or more jurisdictions, to shippers and other interested parties of the class, quality, and condition of any agricultural commodity or food product, whether raw, dried, canned, or otherwise processed, and any product containing an agricultural commodity or derivative thereof when offered for interstate shipment or when received at such important central markets as the Secretary may from time to time designate, or at points which may be conveniently reached therefrom under such rules and regulations as he may prescribe, including payment of such fees as will be reasonable and as nearly as may be to cover the cost for the service rendered, * * *

Marketing farm products: For acquiring and diffusing among the people of the United States useful information relative to the needed supplies, standardization, classification, grading, preparation for market, handling, transportation, storage, and marketing of farm and food products, including the demonstration and promotion of the use of uniform standards of classification of American farm and food products throughout the world, * * *

(b) "Acceptable" means suitable for the purpose intended and acceptable to the Administration.

(c) "Administration" means the Production and Marketing Administration of the Department.

(d) "Administrator" means the Administrator of the Production and Marketing Administration of the Department, or any other officer or employee of the Department to whom there has heretofore been delegated, or to whom there may hereafter be delegated, the authority to act in his stead.

(e) "Applicant" means any interested party who requests any inspection service or grading service.

(f) "Carcass" means any poultry carcass.

(g) "Circuit supervisor" means the officer in charge of the poultry inspection service in a circuit consisting of a group of stations within an area.

(h) "Class" means any subdivision of a product based on essential physical characteristics that differentiate between major groups of the same kind or between species.

(i) "Condition" means any condition, including but not being limited to, the state of preservation, cleanliness, or soundness of any product; or any condition, including but not limited to, the processing, handling, or packaging which affects such product.

(j) "Condition and wholesomeness" means the condition of any product and its healthfulness and fitness for human food.

(k) "Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture.

(l) "Dressed poultry" means poultry which has been slaughtered for human food with head, feet, and viscera intact and from which the blood and feathers have been removed.

(m) "Edible poultry byproduct" means any giblets or any edible part of dressed poultry other than eviscerated poultry.

(n) "Edible product" means any product other than live poultry and dressed poultry.

(o) "Food product containing poultry product" means any article of food for human consumption which is prepared in part from any edible portion of dressed poultry or from any product derived wholly from such edible portion, if such edible portion or product does not comprise a substantial portion of such article of food.

(p) "Giblets" means the liver from which the bile sac has been removed, the heart from which the pericardial sac has been removed, and the gizzard from which the lining and contents have been removed: Provided, That each such organ has been properly trimmed and washed.

(q) "Grader" means any employee of the Department authorized by the Secretary, or any other individual to whom a license has been issued by the Secretary, to investigate and certify, in accordance with the regulations in this part, the class, quality, quantity, and condition of products.

(r) "Grading" or "grading service" means (1) the act whereby a grader determines, according to the regulations in this part, the class, quality, quantity, or condition of any product by examining each unit thereof, or each unit of the representative sample thereof drawn by a grader, and issues a grading certificate with respect thereto; (2) in addition to the foregoing, the act whereby the grader identifies, according to the regulations in this part, the graded product; (3) with respect to an official plant, the act whereby a grader determines that the products in such plant are processed, handled, and packaged in accordance with § 70.39 of the regulations in this part; and (4) any regrading or any appeal grading of a previously graded product.

(s) "Grading certificate" means a statement, either written or printed, issued by a grader, pursuant to the regulations in this part, relative to the class, quality, quantity, or condition of a product.

(t) "Identify" means to apply official identification to products or the containers thereof.

(u) "Inspected and certified" or "certified" means, with respect to any product, that it has undergone an inspection and was found, at the time of such inspection, to be sound, wholesome, and fit for human food.

(v) "Inspected," "inspection service," or "inspection of products for condition and wholesomeness" means any inspection by an inspector to determine, in accordance with regulations in this part, (1) the condition and wholesomeness of dressed poultry, or (2) the condition and wholesomeness of any edible product at any stage of the preparation or packaging thereof in the official plant where inspected and certified, or (3) the condition and wholesomeness of any previously inspected and certified product if such product has not lost its identity as an inspected and certified product. In addition to the foregoing, the terms "inspection" and "inspection service" shall each mean any inspection by an inspector to determine, in accordance with the regulations in this part, the condition of dressed poultry as it applies to the processing, handling or packaging of such product.

(w) "Inspection certificate" means a statement, either written or printed, issued by an inspector, pursuant to the regulations in this part, relative to the condition and wholesomeness of products.

(x) "Inspector" means any person who is licensed by the Secretary to investigate and certify in accordance with the regulations in this part, the condition and wholesomeness of products or the condition of dressed poultry. An inspector is an employee of the Department or of a State; he may be a graduate veterinarian or a layman.

(y) "Interested party" means any person financially interested in a transaction involving any inspection or grading.

(z) "National supervisor" means (1) the officer in charge of the poultry inspection service of the Administration, (2) the officer in charge of the poultry grading service of the Administration, and (3) such other officers or employees of the Department who may be so designated by the officer in charge of the poultry inspection and grading service of the Administration.

(aa) "Office of grading" means the office of any grader.

(bb) "Official identification" means the symbol represented by a stamp, label, seal, or other device approved by the Administrator and affixed to any product, or to any container thereof, stating that the product was inspected or graded or both; and the class, quality, or condition of such product as determined by a grader may be indicated.

(cc) "Official plant" means one or more buildings, or parts thereof, comprising a single plant in which the facilities and methods of operation therein have been approved by the Administrator as suitable and adequate for operation under inspection or grading service and in which inspection or grading is carried on in accordance with the regulations in this part.

(dd) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(ee) "Potable water" means water which complies with the U. S. Public Health Service drinking water standards.

(ff) "Poultry" means any kind of domesticated bird, including, but not being limited to, chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese, pigeons, and guineas.

(gg) "Poultry food product" means any article of human food or any article intended for or capable of being so used which is prepared or derived in whole or in substantial part, from any edible portion of dressed poultry.

(hh) "Poultry grading and inspection service" means the personnel who are actively engaged in the administration, application, and direction of poultry grading and inspection programs and services pursuant to the regulations in this part.

(ii) "Product" means each of the following: (1) Dressed poultry; (2) ready-to-cook poultry; (3) edible poultry byproduct; (4) poultry food product; and (5) with respect to grading service only, live poultry.

(jj) "Quality" means the inherent properties of any product which determine its relative degree of excellence.

(kk) "Ready-to-cook poultry" means any dressed poultry from which the pinfeathers, vestigial feathers (hair or down as the case may be) head, shanks, crop, oil gland, trachea, esophagus, entrails, reproductive organs and lungs have been removed and with or without the giblets, is ready-to-cook without need of further processing; or any cut-up or disjointed portion of such poultry.

(ll) "Regional supervisor" means any employee of the Department in charge of poultry grading service or poultry inspection service in a designated geographical area.

(mm) "Regulations" means the provisions of this entire part and such United States specifications for classes, standards, and grades for products as may be in effect at the time grading or inspection is performed.

(nn) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Department, or any other officer or employee of the Department to whom there has heretofore been delegated or to whom there may hereafter be delegated, the authority to act in his stead.

(oo) "Soundness" means freedom from external evidence of any disease or condition which may render a carcass unfit for food.

(pp) "State supervisor" means any authorized and designated individual who is in charge of the poultry grading service or the poultry inspection service in a State. A State supervisor of poultry inspection service shall be a veterinarian and he is either a Federal-State employee or a Federal employee.

(qq) "Station supervisor" means any authorized individual who is designated to supervise the poultry grading service or the poultry inspection service in a large official plant or in a group of several smaller plants.

ADMINISTRATION

§ 70.2 Administration. The Administrator shall perform for and under the supervision of the Secretary, such duties as are prescribed in the regulations in this part and as the Secretary may require in the administration of the regulations in this part.

GENERAL

§ 70.3 Grading and inspection services available. The regulations in this part provide for the following kinds of service; and any one or more of the different services, applicable to official plants, may be rendered in an official plant.

(a) Grading of live poultry.

(b) Certification of dressed poultry produced under sanitary requirements; in official plants.

(c) Grading of dressed poultry. (i) In an official plant.

(ii) At terminal markets and other receiving points other than official plants.

(d) Inspection of dressed poultry in official plants for processing as ready-to-cook poultry.

(e) Grading of ready-to-cook poultry. (i) In an official plant.

(ii) At terminal markets and receiving points other than official plants.

(f) Inspection service in official canning plants.

§ 70.4 Basis of service. (a) Any inspection service in accordance with the regulations in this part shall be for condition and wholesomeness but, with respect to dressed poultry, as such, the inspection may be for condition only.

(b) Any grading service in accordance with the regulations in this part shall be for class, quality, quantity, or condition or any combination thereof. Grading service with respect to determination of quality of products shall be on the basis of United States specifications for classes, standards, and grades as contained in Subpart B of the regulations in this part. However, grading service may be rendered with respect to products which are bought and sold on the basis of institutional contract specifications and such service when approved by the Administrator, shall be rendered on the basis of the specifications of such contract.

(c) Continuous grading service in an official plant other than the service provided in § 70.3 (b) may be rendered only when a majority of the graders' time each month is utilized in performing grading for quality on the basis of the United States standards set forth in Subpart B of the regulations in this part.

(d) All grading service and all inspection service shall be subject to supervision at all times by the applicable station supervisor, State supervisor, circuit supervisor, regional supervisor, and national supervisor. Such services shall be rendered where the facilities and conditions are satisfactory for the conduct of the service and the requisite graders and inspectors are available.

(e) Dressed poultry to be eligible for grading or inspection service shall have been processed in official plants. Except as may be approved by the Administrator for a specified limited period with respect to dressed poultry which is to be inspected for canning, and except with respect to dressed poultry which is owned by the applicant prior to the effective date of these regulations, only dressed poultry which was processed in an official plant in accordance with the regulations in this part may be graded or inspected. Dressed poultry from other than official plants may be brought into an official plant only in instances where the Administration can determine that such dressed poultry will be adequately segregated and its form and identity maintained until it is shipped from the official plant.

(f) Inspection in official plants; extent required. All dressed poultry that is eviscerated in an official plant where inspection service is maintained shall be processed in a sanitary manner; and no uninspected edible products may be brought into such plant. Dressed poultry may be eviscerated in such plants without inspection for condition and wholesomeness but uninspected and inspected operations may not be carried on simultaneously except in plants where processing rooms (including packing rooms) are separate and effective segregation of inspected and uninspected products can be maintained; and evisceration without inspection may be conducted only if an inspector or a governmentally employed grader is on duty at all times when plant operations are carried on for the purpose of (1) effecting adequate segregation of inspected and uninspected products, (2) control of official inspection marks and grade marks, and (3) supervision of the sanitation in the official plant.

(g) Certification of dressed poultry produced under sanitary requirements. With respect to any official plant, dressed poultry, as such, may be certified by a grader as having been processed, handled and packed in accordance with the minimum standards for sanitation, facilities, and operating procedures in official plants. However, in official plants which have available the services of an inspector who is authorized to inspect for condition and wholesomeness, such inspector is also authorized to certify dressed poultry, as such, as having been processed, handled, and packed in accordance with the minimum standards for sanitation, facilities, and operating procedures in official plants. The bulk containers of such dressed poultry which has been certified, as aforesaid, shall be marked for identification purposes and appropriate grading or inspection processing reports shall be issued with respect thereto as required by the regulations in this part. In an official plant where this kind of service is rendered all of the poultry that is processed in such official plant as dressed poultry shall be prepared in accordance with the regulations in this part and under the supervision of a grader or inspector.

§ 70.5 Performance of services—(a) Licensed graders and inspectors. (1) Any person who is a Federal or State employee possessing proper qualifications as determined by an examination for competency, and who is to perform grading service or inspection service may be licensed by the Secretary as a grader or an inspector.

(2) Any prospective grader, other than a Federal or State employee possessing proper qualifications as determined by an examination for competency and who is to perform grading service may be licensed by the Secretary as a grader. However, prior to granting of the license, he shall procure and deliver to the Administration a surety bond, issued by such surety as may be approved by the Administrator, in the amount of $1,000 for the proper performance of the duties of such licensee under the regulations in this part.

(3) All licenses issued by the Secretary shall be countersigned by the officer in charge of the poultry grading and inspection service of the Administration or any other designated official of such service.

(b) Suspension of license or authority; revocation. Pending final action by the Secretary, the officer in charge of the poultry grading and inspection service may, whenever he deems such action necessary, suspend any license or authority effective pursuant to the regulations in this part, by giving notice of such suspension to the respective individual involved, accompanied by a statement of the reasons therefor. Within seven days after the receipt of the aforesaid notice and statement of reasons by such individual, he may file an appeal, in writing, with the Secretary supported by any argument or evidence that he may wish to offer as to why his license or authority should not be suspended or revoked. After the expiration of the aforesaid seven-day period and consideration of such argument and evidence, the Secretary will take such action as he deems appropriate with respect to such suspension or revocation. When no appeal is filed within the prescribed seven days the license is revoked.

(c) Surrender of license. Each license which is suspended, or revoked, or has expired shall promptly be surrendered by the licensee to his immediate superior. Upon termination of the services of a licensed grader or inspector the licensee shall promptly surrender his license to his immediate superior.

(d) Identification. Each grader and inspector shall have in his possession at all times, and present upon request while on duty, the means of identification furnished by the Department to such person.

(e) Financial interest of inspectors and graders. No inspector shall inspect and no grader shall grade for quality any product in which he is financially interested.

(f) Political activity. All graders and inspectors who are employees of the Department are forbidden during the period of their respective appointments, or licenses, to take an active part in political management or in political campaigns. Political activity in city, county, State, or national elections, whether primary or regular, or in behalf of any party or candidate, or any measure to be voted upon, is prohibited. This applies to all appointees, including, but not being limited to, temporary and cooperative employees and employees on leave of absence with or without pay. Willful violation of this section will constitute grounds for dismissal in the case of appointees and revocation of licenses in the case of licensees.

§ 70.6 Applying for grading service or inspection service—(a) Who may obtain grading service or inspection service. An application for grading service or inspection service may be made by any interested person, including, but not being limited to, the United States, any State, county, municipality, or common carrier, and any authorized agent of the foregoing.

(b) How application may be made. (1) An application for inspection service must be made in writing and filed with the Administrator.

(2) An application for grading service to be rendered in an official plant must be made in writing and filed with the Administrator.

(3) An application for any grading service to be rendered other than in an official plant may be made in any office of grading, or with any grader at or nearest the place where the service is desired. Such application may be made orally, in writing, or by telegraph. If the application for grading service is made orally, the office of grading or the grader with whom the application is made, or the Administrator may require that the application be confirmed in writing.

(4) Each application for grading service or inspection service shall include such information as may be required by the Administrator in regard to the products and premises where the service is to be rendered.

(c) Filing of application. An application for grading service or inspection service shall be regarded as filed only when made pursuant to the regulations in this part.

(d) Authority of applicant. Proof of the authority of any person applying for grading service or inspection service may be required at the discretion of the Administrator.

(e) Application for inspection service or grading service in official plants; approval. Any person desiring to process and pack products in a plant under grading service or inspection service, or both, must receive approval of such plant and facilities as an official plant prior to the rendition of such service. An application for grading service or inspection service to be rendered in an official plant shall be approved according to the following procedure:

(1) Initial survey. When application has been filed for grading service or inspection service, as aforesaid, the regional supervisor, or his assistant, shall examine the plant, premises, and facilities and shall specify any additional or necessary facilities required for the service. Appeals with respect to any such specification may be made to the national supervisor.

(2) Drawings and specifications to be furnished in advance of construction or alterations. Four copies of drawings, consisting of floor plans of space to be included in the official plant, showing the locations of such features as the principal pieces of equipment, floor drains, hand washing facilities, hose connections for clean-up purposes, cardinal points of the compass, and the routes of dressed poultry, and edible and inedible products through the plant, properly drawn to scale, shall be submitted to the regional supervisor. The official plant shall include toilet and dressing rooms, office space for the inspector and grader, store rooms for supplies used in the operations under inspection or grading, feeding rooms, and all rooms, compartments or passageways where products or any ingredients to be used in the preparation of products under inspection service or grading service will be handled or kept, and may include other rooms or compartments located in the buildings comprising the official plant. If rooms or compartments shown on the drawings are not to be included as part of the official plant this should be clearly indicated thereon. Specifications covering the height of ceilings, types of principal pieces of equipment, character of floors, walls, and ceilings, lighting, ventilation, water supply, and drainage, and such other notations as may be required, shall accompany the drawings. Construction or remodeling of buildings, facilities, or premises should not be initiated without prior approval of the drawings. Upon approval of drawings and specifications the application for grading service or inspection service may be approved.

(3) Final survey and plant approval. Prior to the inauguration of the grading service, or inspection service, a final survey of the plant and premises shall be made by the regional supervisor or his assistant to determine if the plant is constructed and facilities are installed in accordance with the approved drawings and the regulations in this part. The plant may be approved only when these requirements have been met, except that conditional approval for a specified limited time may be granted only under emergency conditions of restricted availability of facilities and construction materials, provided practices suitable to the Administrator are employed to effect adequate sanitary conditions in the plant.

(f) Rejection of application. Any application for grading service or inspection service may be rejected by the Administrator (1) for noncompliance, by the applicant, with the act or the regulations in this part, or (2) whenever the product involved is owned by, or located on the premises of, a person currently denied the benefits of the act. Each such applicant shall be notified immediately of the reasons for the rejection.

(g) Withdrawal of application. Any application for grading or inspection service may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the service is performed upon payment by the applicant, of all expenses incurred by the Administration in connection with such application.

(h) Order of service. Grading service or inspection service shall be performed, insofar as practicable, in the order in which application therefor is made except that precedence may be given to any application for an appeal inspection or appeal grading.

(i) Suspension of plant approval. Any plant approval given pursuant to the regulations may be suspended for (1) failure to maintain plant and equipment in a satisfactory state of repair; (2) the use of operating procedures which are not in accordance with the regulations; or (3) alterations of buildings, facilities, or equipment which cannot be approved in accordance with the regulations.

During such period of suspension, inspection and grading service shall not be rendered. However, the other provisions of the contract for service will remain in effect unless terminated in accordance with the terms thereof. If the plant facilities or methods of operation are not brought into compliance within a reasonable period of time, to be specified by the Administrator, the contract shall be terminated. Upon termination of any contract providing for inspection or grading service in an official plant pursuant to the regulations, the plant approval shall also become terminated, and all labels, seals, tags or packaging material bearing official identification shall, under the supervision of a person designated by the Administration, either be destroyed, or the official identification completely obliterated, or sealed in a manner acceptable to the Administration.

§ 70.7 Fraud or misrepresentation. Any willful violation of the regulations in this part, the use of the terms "Government graded," "Federal-State graded," or terms of similar import in the labeling or advertising of any product without stating in conjunction therewith the U. S. grade of the product, or any willful misrepresentation or deceptive or fraudulent practice found to be made or committed by any person in connection with:

(a) The making or filing of any application for any grading service or inspection service;

(b) The use of any grading certificate or inspection certificate issued pursuant to the regulations in this part, or the use of any official identification;

(c) The use of the terms "United States" or "U. S." in conjunction with the grade of the product;

(d) The use of any of the aforesaid terms or an official identification in the labeling or advertising of any product; or

(e) The use, in connection with any product, of a facsimile form which simulates in whole or in part any official identification; may be deemed sufficient cause for debarring such person from any or all benefits of the act after opportunity for hearing has been accorded him; and, pending investigation and hearing the Administrator may, without hearing, direct that such person shall be denied the benefits of the act.

§ 70.8 Interfering with a grader or inspector. Any further benefits of the act and the regulations in this part may be denied any applicant who either personally or through an agent or representative interferes with or obstructs, by intimidation, threats, ridicule, or assault, or in any other manner, a grader or inspector in the performance of his duties.

§ 70.9 Other applicable regulations. Compliance with the regulations in this part shall not excuse failure to comply with any other Federal, or any State or municipal, applicable laws or regulations.

§ 70.10 Publications. Publications under the act and the regulations in this part shall be made in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the Service and Regulatory Announcements of the Department, and such other media as the Administrator may approve for the purpose.

§ 70.11 Identifying and marking products—(a) Approval of official identification. (1) Any label or packaging material which bears any official identification shall be used only in such manner as the Administrator may prescribe. No label or packaging material bearing official identification may be used unless finished copies or samples of such labels and packaging material have been approved by the Administrator. No label bearing the official identification shall be printed for use until the printer's final proof has been approved by the Administrator; and no label, other than labels for shipping containers for institutional packs, bearing any official identification shall be used until finished copies or samples of such labels have been approved by the Administrator. Final approval may be given to printer's final proof or photostatic copies of labels for shipping containers or containers for institutional packs, and no such labels shall be used until such proofs or copies have been approved by the Administrator. A label which bears official identification shall not bear any statement that is false or misleading, and if labels in the name of the same packer or distributor, or bearing the same brand name, are used on the same or similar products which are prepared from products which are not inspected, the diameter of the inspection mark, or combination inspection and grading mark, used on labels for inspected products shall be equal to at least one-tenth of the length of the label, plus at least one-tenth of the width of the label. If the labeling is printed or otherwise applied directly on the container, the principal display panel of such container shall, for this purpose, be considered as the label.

(b) Products that may be individually grade marked; information required on grade mark. Only the following products may be individually identified with a grade mark if the respective product is of A Quality or B Quality: Dressed poultry, and ready-to-cook poultry. Except as otherwise authorized each grade mark which is to be used shall conspicuously indicate the U. S. grade of the product which it identifies, and shall indicate whether the bird is "young" or "mature" or "old," and shall include one of the following phrases: "Federal-State Graded," "Government Graded," or a phrase of similar import. Such grade mark shall be contained within the outline of a shield of such design as may be prescribed or approved by the Administrator.

(c) Use of grade mark and inspection mark with respect to the same product. The Administrator is authorized to prescribe and approve the form of the grade mark and inspection mark that may be used individually or in combination with respect to the same product.

(d) Marking inspected products—(1) Wording and form of the inspection mark. Except as otherwise authorized, the inspection mark permitted to be used with respect to inspected and certified edible products shall include wording as follows: "Inspected for wholesomeness by U. S. Department of Agriculture." This wording, in such form as the Administrator may prescribe or approve, shall be contained within a circle. The Administrator may approve the use of abbreviations of such inspection mark; and such approved abbreviations shall have the same force and effect as the inspection mark. The inspection mark or approved abbreviation thereof, as the case may be, may be applied to the inspected and certified edible product or to the packaging material of such product. The inspection mark, or the approved abbreviation thereof, shall, when used on packaging material, be printed on such material or on a label to be affixed to the packaging material, and the name of the packer or distributor of such product must be legibly printed on the packaging material or label, as the case may be, excepting that on shipping containers and containers for institutional packs the inspection mark may be stenciled on the container and when the inspection mark is so stenciled, the name and address of the packer or distributor may be applied by the use of a stencil or a rubber stamp.

(2) Wording on labels. Each trade label to be approved for use pursuant to this section with respect to any inspected and certified edible product shall bear the true name of the edible product, the name and address of the packer or distributor thereof, and, in prominent letters and figures of uniform size, the inspection mark, as aforesaid; and the label shall also bear, in such manner as may be prescribed or approved by the Administrator, the plant number, if any, of the official plant in which such product was inspected and certified.

(3) Formulas required. Copies of each trade label submitted for approval pursuant to this section shall, when the Administrator requires, be accompanied by a statement showing the kinds and percentages of the ingredients comprising the edible product with respect to which the label is to be used. Approximate percentages may be given in cases where the percentages of ingredients may vary from time to time, if the limits of variation are stated.

(4) Wording permitted on food products containing poultry products. Any trade label which is to be affixed to a container of any food product containing poultry product which is packed under the supervision of an inspector in any official plant may bear the phrase: "The poultry product contained herein has been inspected and certified at a plant where Federal inspection is maintained." Each such trade label shall also be subject to the applicable provisions of this section.

(5) Labels in foreign languages. Any trade label to be affixed to a container of any edible products for foreign commerce may be printed in a foreign language. However, the inspection mark shall appear on the label in English, but, in addition, may be literally translated into such foreign language. Each such trade label which is to be printed in a foreign language must be approved pursuant to this section.

(6) Use of approved labels. Trade labels approved for use pursuant to this section shall be used only for the purpose for which approved.

(e) Marking dressed poultry which was certified as having been produced under sanitary requirements. The Administrator is authorized to prescribe and approve the manner in which dressed poultry which was processed in accordance with minimum standards for sanitation, facilities, and operating procedures in official plants may be marked for identification purposes.

§ 70.12 Supervision of marking and packaging—(a) Evidence of label approval. No grader or inspector shall authorize the use of official identification for any graded or inspected product unless he has on file evidence that such official identification or packaging material bearing such official identification has been approved in accordance with the provisions of § 70.11.

(b) Affixing of official identification. (1) No official identification or any abbreviation, copy or representation thereof may be affixed to or placed on or caused to be affixed to or placed on any product or container thereof except by a grader or an inspector or under the supervision of a grader or an inspector or other person authorized by the Administrator. All such products shall have been inspected and certified or graded or both. The grader or inspector shall have supervision over the use and handling of all material bearing any official identification.

(2) Each container of inspected and certified edible products to be shipped from one official plant to another official plant for further processing shall be marked for identification and shall show the following information:

(i) The name of the inspected and certified edible products in the container;

(ii) The name and address of the packer or distributor of such product;

(iii) The net weight of the container;

(iv) The inspection mark permitted to be used pursuant to the regulations in this part, unless the containers are sealed or otherwise identified in such manner as may be approved by the Administrator; and

(v) The plant number of the official plant where the products were packed.

(c) Packaging. No container which bears or may bear any official identification or any abbreviation or copy or representation thereof may be filled in whole or in part except with edible products which were inspected and certified or graded or both and are at the time of such filling, sound, wholesome and fit for human food. All such filling of containers shall be under the supervision of an inspector or grader.

§ 70.13 Retention labels. An inspector or grader may use such labels, devices and methods as may be approved by the Administrator for the identification (a) of products which are held for further examination, and (b) all equipment and utensils which are to be held for proper cleaning.

§ 70.14 Prerequisites to grading and inspection. Grading and inspection of products shall be rendered pursuant to the regulations in this part and under such conditions and in accordance with such methods as may be prescribed or approved by the Administrator.

§ 70.15 Accessibility of products. Each product for which grading service or inspection service is requested shall be so placed as to disclose fully its class, quality, quantity, and conditions as the circumstances may warrant.

§ 70.16 Time of grading or inspection in an official plant. The grader or inspector who is to perform the grading or inspection in an official plant shall be informed, in advance, of the hours when such grading or inspection will be required. Graders and inspectors shall have access at all times to every part of any official plant to which they are assigned.

§ 70.17 Report of inspection work and grading work. Reports of the work of inspection and grading carried on within official plants shall be forwarded to the Administrator by the inspector and grader in such manner as may be specified by the Administrator.

(a) Information to be furnished to inspectors and graders. When inspection service or grading service is performed within an official plant, the applicant for such inspection or grading shall furnish to the inspector or grader rendering such service such information as may be required for the purposes of this section.

(b) Reports of violations. Each inspector and each grader shall report, in the manner prescribed by the Administrator, all violations of and noncompliance with the act and the regulations in this part of which he has knowledge.

§ 70.18 Fees and charges—(a) Payment of fees and charges. (1) Fees and charges for any grading or inspection shall be paid by the applicant for the service in accordance with the applicable provisions of this section and, if so required by the Administrator, such fees and charges shall be paid in advance.

(2) Fees and charges for any grading or inspection performed by any grader or inspector who is a salaried employee of the Department shall, unless otherwise required pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, be paid by check, draft, or money order payable to the Treasurer of the United States and remitted promptly to the Administration.

(3) Fees and charges for any grading or inspection pursuant to a cooperative agreement with any State or person shall be paid in accordance with the terms of such cooperative agreement.

(b) Grading service on a fee basis. (1) Unless otherwise provided the fees to be charged and collected for any grading service (other than for an appeal grading) on a fee basis shall be based on the applicable rates specified in paragraph (d) of this section.

(2) In the event the aforesaid applicable rates specified in paragraph (d) of this section are deemed by the Administrator to be inadequate fully to reimburse the Administration for all costs and other items paid or incurred by the Administration in connection with such service, the fees for such service shall not be based on the rates specified in paragraph (d) of this section, but shall be based on the time required to perform such service and the travel of each grader at the rate of $3.60 per hour for the time actually required.

(3) If an applicant requests that any grading service be performed on a holiday or a non-work day, he may be charged for such service at a rate one and one-half times the rate which would be applicable for such service if performed on a day other than a holiday or non-work day.

(c) Fees for appeal grading. The fees to be charged for any appeal grading shall be double the fee specified in the grading certificate from which the appeal is taken: Provided, That the fee for any appeal grading requested by the United States, or any agency or instrumentality thereof, shall be not more than that set forth in the grading certificate from which the appeal is taken. If the fee on the certificate from which the appeal is taken is based on a contract, then the fee for such appeal grading shall be double the amount specified in paragraph (d) of this section for the applicable volume of product appeal graded. If the result of any appeal grading discloses that a material error was made in the grading appealed from, no fee shall be required.

(d) Poultry grading fees. For each grading of any lot of poultry, whether live, dressed, or ready-to-cook, the following fees shall be applicable:

For 500 pounds or less	$1.50
For 501 to 1,500 pounds, inclusive	2.25
For 1,501 to 3,000 pounds, inclusive	3.00
For 3,001 to 6,000 pounds, inclusive	4.00
For 6,001 to 10,000 pounds, inclusive	6.00
For 10,001 to 20,000 pounds, inclusive	10.00
For each additional 10,000 pounds or fraction thereof, in excess of 20,000 pounds	3.00

(e) Inspection service on a fee basis. Fees to be charged and collected for inspection services furnished on a fee basis shall be based on the time required to render such services including, but not being limited to, the time required for the travel of the inspector or inspectors in connection therewith, at the rate of $3.60 per hour for each inspector for the time actually required.

(f) Fees for additional copies of grading certificates and inspection certificates. Additional copies, other than those provided for in § 70.30 and § 70.35, of any grading certificates or inspection certificates may be supplied to any interested party upon payment of a fee of $1.00 for each set of five or fewer copies.

(g) Traveling expenses and other charges. Charges may be made to cover the cost of traveling and other expenses incurred by the Administration in connection with the performance of any grading service or inspection service.

(h) Additional charges. With respect to any grading service performed in a freight or express car or any other place where the entire lot of the product is not readily accessible to the grader, a charge of $5.00 shall be made in addition to the applicable rates specified in paragraph (d) of this section.

(i) On a contract basis. Fees to be charged and collected for any grading service or inspection service, other than for an appeal grading, on a contract basis shall be those provided for in such contract. The fees to be charged for any appeal grading shall be as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(j) Fees for grading service or inspection service performed under cooperative agreement. The fees to be charged and collected for any grading service or inspection service performed under cooperative agreement shall be those provided for by such agreement.

(k) Disposition of fees for inspections made under cooperative agreement. Fees for inspection under a cooperative agreement with any State or person shall be disposed of in accordance with the terms of such agreement. Such portion of the fees collected under a cooperative agreement as may be due the United States shall be remitted to the Administration.

INSPECTION

§ 70.19 Manner of handling products in an official plant. Unless otherwise specified in the regulations in this part or by the Administrator, products which are to be further processed under inspection in an official plant shall be prepared and handled in such official plant under the supervision of an inspector.

§ 70.20 Ante-mortem inspection. Ante-mortem examination of poultry may be required by the Administrator as a prerequisite to any inspection; and such ante-mortem examination shall be carried out under such conditions and in accordance with such methods as may be prescribed or approved by the Administrator.

§ 70.21 Evisceration. No viscera or any part thereof shall be removed from any dressed poultry which is to be processed under inspection in any official plant, except at the time of evisceration and inspection. Each carcass to be eviscerated shall be opened so as to expose the organs and the body cavity for proper examination by the inspector and shall be prepared immediately after inspection as ready-to-cook poultry. If a carcass is frozen, it shall be thoroughly thawed before being opened for examination by the inspector. Each carcass, or all parts comprising such carcass, shall be examined by the inspector: Provided, That the Administrator may, whenever he deems it advisable and under such conditions as he may prescribe, authorize the removal from such carcass or parts as aforesaid, of any part thereof prior to such inspection if such part will not be used in the preparation of any edible product.

§ 70.22 Carcasses held for further examination. Each carcass, including all parts thereof, in which there is any lesion of disease, or other condition, which might render such carcass or any part thereof unfit for human food, and with respect to which a final decision cannot be made on first examination by the inspector, shall be held for further examination. The identity of each such carcass, including all parts thereof, shall be maintained until a final examination has been completed.

§ 70.23 Condemnation and treatment of carcasses. Each carcass, or any part thereof, which is found to be unsound, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food shall be condemned by the inspector and shall receive such treatment; under the supervision of the inspector as will prevent its use for human food and preclude dissemination of disease through consumption by animals.

§ 70.24 Certification of carcasses. Each carcass and all parts and organs thereof which are found by the inspector to be sound, wholesome, and fit for human food shall be certified as provided in this part.

§ 70.25 Reinspection of edible products. (a) Any inspected and certified edible product may be brought into an official plant only if the container of such product is marked for identification in the manner prescribed in § 70.12 (b) (2) and the product is reinspected by an inspector at the time it is brought into such plant. Upon reinspection, if any such product or portion thereof is found to be unsound, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food, such product, or portion thereof, shall be condemned and shall receive such treatment as that provided in § 70.23.

(b) Any product which is prepared under inspection in an official plant shall be inspected in such plant as often as the inspector deems it necessary in order to ascertain whether such product is sound, wholesome, and fit for human food at the time such product leaves such plant. Upon any such inspection, if any such product or portion thereof is found to be unsound, unwholesome, or otherwise unfit for human food, such product or portion thereof shall be condemned and shall receive such treatment as that provided in § 70.23.

(c) All substances and ingredients used in the manufacture or preparation of any edible product shall be clean, sound, wholesome, and fit for human food.

§ 70.26 Edible products for canning. Only inspected and certified edible products may be canned in an official plant; and such edible products shall be processed and handled in compliance with the following requirements:

(a) Immediate containers (whether of metal, glass, or other material) shall be cleaned thoroughly by washing in an inverted position with running water of a temperature of at least 180° F. prior to filling with edible products; and precaution shall be taken to avoid any subsequent soiling of the inner surfaces of such containers.

(b) Only perfect closure is acceptable for hermetically sealed containers; and heat processing of the products in such containers shall follow immediately after closing.

(1) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, such products shall be so processed at such temperature and for such period of time as will insure preservation of the products under usual conditions of storage and transportation.

(2) Immediately after closing, and again after the containers have cooled sufficiently for handling after heat processing, careful examination shall be made by competent plant employees of all containers to ascertain whether such containers are perfectly sealed. The edible products in such containers as are defectively closed or sealed shall, as promptly as practicable, be filled into other containers, hermetically sealed, and heat processed unless the containers are promptly placed in a cooler at a temperature not exceeding 36° F. under conditions that will promptly and effectively chill them. Such chilled containers of products shall be opened and the contents removed and reprocessed immediately after removal from the cooler: Provided, That if such containers remained in the cooler for a period of 24 hours or longer, the contents shall be inspected by an inspector prior to the reprocessing thereof. Failure to comply with the provisions of this paragraph shall subject the edible products to condemnation.

(c) After heat processing, and after the containers have cooled sufficiently for handling, the containers shall be examined by competent plant employees and shall not be passed unless showing the external characteristics of sound containers, that is, there is no bulging or slack or loose tin.

(d) After heat processing, any containers of edible products showing characteristics of short vacuum or overstuffed containers shall, when an inspector deems it necessary in order to determine whether spoilage of the product has taken place, be incubated under the supervision of an inspector, after which the containers shall be opened and sound products passed for food and spoiled products condemned.

(e) Edible products may, when authorized by the national supervisor, and under such conditions as he may prescribe or approve, be canned without steam-pressure cooking, and such products shall be labeled "Perishable, keep under refrigeration."

(f) Each lot of canned edible products shall be identified, during the handling preparatory to heat processing, by tagging the baskets, cases, or containers with a tag which will change color on going through the heat processing or by other effective means which will positively prevent failure to heat process.

(g) Facilities shall be provided to incubate at least representative samples of fully processed canned edible products. The incubation shall consist of holding the samples for at least 10 days at about 98° F. The extent to which incubation tests shall be required will depend on conditions such as the efficiency of the plant in conducting canning operations, the kind of equipment used, and the degree of efficiency at which such equipment is maintained.

(1) In the event the official plant fails to provide suitable facilities for incubation of test samples of any lot of fully processed canned edible products, the inspector in charge may require holding of the entire lot under such conditions and for such period of time as will, in his discretion, be necessary to ascertain the stability of the product.

(2) The inspector in charge may, prior to completion of any required incubation of a representative sample, permit lots of fully processed canned edible products to be shipped from the official plant when he has no reason to suspect unsoundness of such products; however, such shipments shall be made under circumstances which will assure the return of the products to the plant for reinspection should such action be indicated by the incubation results.

(h) All canned products, excepting those in glass, shall be plainly and permanently marked, by code or otherwise, on the containers, with the identity of the contents and date of canning. If the marking is by code, its meaning shall be on record in the office of the inspector in charge.

§ 70.27 Products contaminated by polluted water; procedure for handling. (a) In the event there is polluted water (including, but not being limited to, flood water and harbor water) in an official plant, all edible products that have been contaminated by the water shall be condemned.

(b) After the polluted water has receded, all walls, ceilings, posts, and floors of the rooms and compartments involved, including the equipment therein, shall, under the supervision of an inspector, be cleansed thoroughly. An adequate supply of hot water, under pressure, is essential for effective cleansing. After cleansing, a solution of sodium hypochlorite containing approximately ½ of 1 percent of available chlorine (5,000 parts per million), or other disinfectant approved by the national supervisor, shall be applied; and all metal surfaces shall be rinsed thoroughly with water to prevent corrosion. Any such equipment that will afterwards be used in connection with any edible product shall be rinsed thoroughly with clean water before being used.

(c) Hermetically sealed containers of edible products which have been submerged in, or otherwise contaminated by, the polluted water shall be rehandled promptly under supervision of an inspector as follows:

(1) Such of the containers as are swollen or leaky or otherwise do not show the external characteristics of sound containers shall be segregated and the contents thereof condemned.

(2) Paper labels, if any, attached or affixed to the remaining containers shall be removed and the containers washed in warm soapy water; and, if necessary to remove rust and other foreign material, a brush shall be used.

(3) Thereafter, such containers shall be immersed in a solution of sodium hypochlorite containing not less than 100 parts per million of available chlorine, or other disinfectant approved specifically for this purpose by the national supervisor, and rinsed in clean fresh water and dried thoroughly. Any such containers which show extensive rusting or corrosion, such as might materially weaken the container, shall be opened under the supervision of an inspector. The edible products from such containers that are found by the inspector to be sound and wholesome shall be passed for human food.

(4) The remaining containers may be relacquered, if necessary, and then relabeled with approved labels applicable to the edible products therein.

(5) The identity of the canned edible products shall be maintained throughout all stages of the rehandling operation to insure correct labeling of the containers.

§ 70.28 Preparation of animal food or similar uninspected articles in an official plant. (a) When an article (including, but not being limited to, animal food) that will not be prepared for use as human food is prepared in any room or compartment in an official plant where edible products are prepared or handled (such room or compartments being herein referred to as "edible products department"), there shall be sufficient space allotted, and adequate equipment provided, so, that the preparation of the article in no way interferes with the preparation or handling of the edible products. Where necessary, separate equipment shall be provided for the preparation of the article. To assure the maintenance of the requisite sanitary conditions in the edible products department, the operations incident to the preparation of the article shall be subject to the same sanitary requirements as apply to the edible products department. Preparation of the article shall be limited to those hours during which the official plant operates under the supervision of an inspector. The ingredients used in the preparation of the article shall, unless otherwise approved by the national supervisor, be such as may be used in the preparation of an edible product. The article may be stored in, and distributed from, the edible products department if the article is properly identified.

(b) When any article (including, but not being limited to, animal food) that will not be prepared for use as human food, is prepared in any part of an official plant other than an edible products department (such part of the plant being herein referred to as "inedible products department"), the area in which such article is prepared shall be distinctly separated from all edible products departments. Edible products and inedible products may be brought from any edible products department into any inedible products department, but no edible product or inedible product from an inedible products department may be brought into an edible products department except under such conditions as may be prescribed or approved by the national supervisor. Any such articles as are in sealed containers or are handled in the manner prescribed or approved by the national supervisor may be brought into an edible products department. Diseased carcasses or diseased parts of any carcass shall not be used in the preparation of any animal food. Trucks or containers used for the transportation of edible products or inedible products into an inedible products department shall be cleaned before being returned to or brought into an edible products department. Sufficient space shall be allotted and adequate equipment and facilities provided so that the preparation of the article does not interfere with the preparation of edible products in the plant or the maintenance of the requisite sanitary conditions in the official plant. The preparation of any article shall be subject to supervision by an inspector.

(c) The immediate container of any such article that is prepared in an official plant shall be conspicuously labeled so as to distinguish it from human food.

§ 70.29 Appeal inspections; how made. Any interested party may, if dissatisfied with any decision of an inspector relating to any inspection, file an appeal from such decision. Any such appeal from a decision of an inspector shall be made to his immediate superior having jurisdiction over the subject matter of the appeal. Review of such appeal findings, when requested, shall be made by the immediate superior of the employee of the Department making the appeal inspection.

§ 70.30 Inspection certificates—(a) Forms of inspection certificates. Each inspection certificate issued pursuant to the regulations in this part shall be approved by the Administrator as to form, and:

(1) Each dressed poultry inspection certificate shall show the class or classes of poultry, the quantity of product contained in the respective lot, and all pertinent information concerning the condition and wholesomeness thereof;

(2) Each food product inspection certificate shall show the names of the edible products covered by such certificate, the quantity of each such product, such shipping marks as are necessary to identify such products, and all pertinent information concerning the condition and wholesomeness thereof;

(3) Each export certificate shall show the respective names of the exporter and the consignee, the destination, the shipping marks, the numbers of the export stamps attached to the edible products to be exported and covered by the certificate, and the names of such products and the total net weight thereof.

(b) Issuance and disposition of dressed poultry inspection certificates. (1) Upon the request of an interested party, any inspector is authorized to issue a dressed poultry inspection certificate with respect to any lot of dressed poultry inspected by him. Each certificate shall be signed by the inspector who made the inspection covered by the certificate, and if more than one inspector participated in the inspection of the lot of poultry, each such inspector shall sign the certificate with respect to such lot.

(2) The original of each inspection certificate, issued pursuant to this section, and not to exceed three copies thereof, shall, immediately upon issuance, be delivered or mailed to the applicant or person designated by him. One copy shall be filed in the office of the regional supervisor serving the area in which the inspection was performed, and the remaining copies to be disposed of in such manner as the Administrator may approve. Additional copies of any such certificate may be furnished to any interested party as provided in § 70.18 (f).

(c) Food product inspection certificates; issuance and disposition. (1) Upon the request of an interested party, any inspector is authorized to issue a food product inspection certificate with respect to any inspected and certified edible product after suitable examination of the product has been made by the inspector.

(2) The original of each food product inspection certificate, and not to exceed two copies thereof, if requested, shall, immediately upon issuance, be delivered or mailed to the applicant or person designated by him. Another copy shall be filed in the office of the regional supervisor serving the area in which such certificate was issued, and one copy shall be forwarded to the Administrator. The last named two copies shall be retained until otherwise ordered by the Administrator.

(d) Export certificates; issuance and disposition. (1) Upon the request of an exporter, any inspector is authorized to issue an export certificate with respect to the shipment to any foreign country of any inspected and certified edible product after suitable examination of the product has been made by the inspector.

(2) Each export certificate shall be issued in quintuplicate; the original shall be delivered to the exporter who requested such certificate; and the duplicate copy shall be delivered to the agent of the railroad or other carrier transporting such products from the United States. The triplicate copy of such export certificate shall be forwarded to the Administrator; the quadruplicate copy shall be filed in the office of the regional supervisor serving the area in which such export certificate was issued; and the memorandum copy shall be retained by the inspector for filing. The last named three copies shall be retained until otherwise ordered by the Administrator.

(e) Advance information. Upon the request of an applicant, all or part of the contents of any inspection certificate issued to such applicant may be telephoned or telegraphed to him, or to any person designated by him, at his expense.

GRADING

§ 70.31 General. Grading service performed with respect to any quantity of products shall, as the case may require, be on the basis of an examination, pursuant to the regulations in this part, of each unit thereof or of each unit in the representative sample thereof drawn by a grader. Whenever the grading service is performed on a representative sample basis, such sample shall be drawn and consist of not less than the minimum number of containers as indicated in the following table:

[Minimum number of containers comprising a representative sample]

Containers in lot:	Containers in sample
3 containers, or less	(1)
4 to 10, inclusive	3
11 to 20, inclusive	4
21 to 50, inclusive	7
51 to 100, inclusive	10
In excess of 100 containers	(2)

[1] All containers.
[2] Ten percent of the number of containers in the lot.

§ 70.32 Live poultry. Grading service performed with respect to any quantity of live poultry shall, as the case may require, be on the basis of an examination, pursuant to regulations in this part, of each unit thereof or of each unit in the representative sample thereof drawn by a grader. Such poultry may be identified with official identification on a lot basis only.

§ 70.33 Dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry—(a) In an official plant. Grading service performed in an official plant with respect to dressed poultry or ready-to-cook poultry shall, as the case may require, be on the basis of each individual carcass or on a representative sample basis.

(1) Only such ready-to-cook poultry which has been inspected and certified, pursuant to the regulations in this part, or has been inspected and passed by any other official inspection system which is acceptable to the Administrator, may be graded.

(2) Only such dressed poultry or ready-to-cook poultry which has been graded, on an individual carcass basis, as A Quality or B Quality may be individually identified with the appropriate grade mark, and any container of such dressed poultry or ready-to-cook poultry may also be so identified. The grading of ready-to-cook poultry shall be performed prior to the disjointing or cutting up of the respective carcass.

(3) If the dressed poultry or ready-to-cook poultry is of C Quality only the bulk container of such dressed poultry or ready-to-cook poultry may be identified with the appropriate grade mark even though the grading may have been performed on an individual carcass basis.

(b) At terminal markets and other receiving points. Grading service performed with respect to dressed poultry or ready-to-cook poultry at terminal markets and other receiving points may be on a representative sample basis. Only such dressed poultry which was processed in an official plant and is graded on an individual carcass basis may be individually identified with a grade mark. Only ready-to-cook poultry which was inspected and certified and is marked with the inspection mark or in accordance with the provisions of § 70.12 (b) (2) may be graded.

§ 70.34 Basis of acceptability of other official inspection systems—(a) General. Any poultry inspection system may be deemed to be acceptable to the Administrator which (1) is conducted under the authority of laws, ordinances, or similar enactments of the State, county, city, or other political subdivision in which is located the official plant at which the ready-to-cook poultry is prepared and submitted for grading service; and (2) imposes at least the requirements set forth in paragraph (b) of this section: Provided, That no such inspection system shall be deemed acceptable to the Administrator with respect to any official plant in which ready-to-cook poultry is prepared if he finds at any time that such requirements are not adequately enforced.

(b) Requirements as to manner of inspection. (1) The inspection shall be made by a State, county or city inspector who is a qualified veterinarian or under the supervision of a qualified veterinarian. All such inspectors shall be employed by the State, county, city, or other political subdivision in which the official plant is located.

(2) The inspection shall include postmortem examination of each poultry carcass during the evisceration operation.

(3) All carcasses which show evidence of disease or any other condition which may render them unwholesome or unfit for food shall be condemned and shall be destroyed for food purposes under the supervision of an inspector. Each carcass and part thereof which has been inspected and passed or containers of carcasses or parts thereof shall bear the identifying inspection symbol of the other official inspection system and the marking devices or labels shall be in the custody of the inspector at all times.

(c) Determining compliance with paragraph (b) of this section. A qualified veterinary supervisor of the poultry grading service of the Administration shall investigate the manner of operation of the inspection system to determine the adequacy of the post-mortem examination and the compliance with the requirements contained in this section prior to approving the official plant for the grading of ready-to-cook poultry. This supervisor as well as any official graders who may be stationed in the official plant shall periodically observe the inspection operations in the official plant to determine whether the requirements of this section are being met. If at any time the inspector fails to enforce the requirements as set forth in the inspection system, grading service may be withdrawn from the official plant.

§ 70.35 Grading certificates—(a) Forms. Grading certificates (including appeal grading certificates and regrading certificates) shall be issued on forms approved by the Administrator.

(b) Issuance and disposition. (1) Each grader shall issue a grading certificate covering each product graded.

(2) The original of each grading certificate, issued pursuant to this section, and not to exceed three of the copies thereof, shall, immediately upon issuance, be delivered or mailed to the applicant or person designated by him. One copy shall be filed in the office of grading which serves the area in which the grading service was performed, and the remaining copies shall be disposed of in such manner as the Administrator may approve. Additional copies of any such certificate may be furnished to any interested party as provided in § 70.18 (f).

(c) Advance information. Upon the request of an applicant, all or part of the contents of any grading certificate issued to such applicant may be telephoned or telegraphed to him, or to any person designated by him, at his expense.

§ 70.36 Application for regrading of a graded product; regrading certificates—(a) Application for regrading of a graded product. An application for a regrading of any previously graded product may be made at any time by any interested party, and such application shall clearly state the reasons for requesting the regrading. The provisions of the regulations relative to grading service shall apply to regrading service.

(b) Regrading certificates. Immediately after a regrading has been completed, a regrading certificate shall be issued showing the results of such regrading; and such certificate shall thereupon supersede, as of the time of issuance of the regrading certificate, the grading certificate previously issued for the product involved. Each regrading certificate shall clearly set forth the number and date of the grading certificate which it supersedes. The provisions of § 70.35 shall, whenever applicable, also apply to regrading certificates except that copies of such regrading certificates shall be furnished each interested party of record.

§ 70.37 Appeal grading—(a) Application for appeal grading. An application for an appeal grading may be made by any interested party who is dissatisfied with any determination stated in any grading or regrading certificate only if the identity of the product, or representative sample thereof, on the basis of which a determination was made has not been lost, and such application for the appeal grading is made within two days following the day on which the grading was performed. Upon approval by the Administrator, the time within which an application for an appeal grading may be made may be extended.

(b) How to obtain appeal grading. Appeal grading may be obtained by filing a request therefor (1) with the Administrator, (2) with the grader who issued the grading certificate with respect to which the appeal grading is requested, (3) with the immediate superior of such grader, or (4) with the officer in charge of any office of grading. The application for appeal grading shall clearly state the reasons therefor and may be accompanied by a copy of the aforesaid grading certificate or any other information the applicant may have secured regarding the product, at the time of grading, from which the appeal is requested. Such application may be made orally (in person or by telephone), in writing, or by telegraph. If made orally, written confirmation may be required.

(c) Record of filing time. A record showing the date and hour when each such application for appeal grading is received shall be maintained in such manner as the Administrator may prescribe.

(d) When an application for an appeal grading may be refused. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, if it appears to the Administrator that the reasons for an appeal grading are frivolous or not substantial, or that the quality or condition of the products has undergone a material change since the grading from which the appeal is made, or the identical products that were examined to ascertain the grade thereof cannot be made accessible for reexamination, or the act or regulations in this part have not been complied with, the Administrator may refuse the applicant's request for the appeal grading; and such applicant shall be promptly notified of the reason for such refusal.

(e) When an application for appeal grading may be withdrawn. An application for appeal grading may be withdrawn by the applicant at any time before the appeal grading is made upon payment, by the applicant, of all expenses incurred by the Administration in connection with such application.

(f) Who shall perform the appeal grading. An appeal grading of any graded product shall be made by any grader (other than the one from whose grading the appeal is made) designated for this purpose by the Administrator; and, whenever practicable, such appeal grading shall be conducted jointly by two such graders.

(g) Appeal grading by immediate superior. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, whenever the immediate superior of a grader has evidence that such grader incorrectly graded a product, such superior shall immediately make a regrading of the product.

(h) Order of performance of appeal gradings. Appeal gradings shall be performed, insofar as practicable, in the order in which applications therefor are received; and any such application may be given precedence pursuant to § 70.6.

(i) Appeal grading certificates. Immediately after an appeal grading has been completed, an appeal grading certificate shall be issued showing the results of such appeal grading. Such certificate shall thereupon supersede the grading certificate for the product involved and such supersedure shall be effective as of the time of issuance of the grading certificate with respect to which the appeal is made. Each appeal grading certificate shall clearly set forth the number and the date of the grading certificate which it supersedes. The provisions of § 70.35 shall, whenever applicable, also apply to appeal grading certificates except that copies of such appeal grading certificates shall be furnished each interested party of record.

§ 70.38 Superseded certificates. Whenever any grading certificate is superseded in accordance with the regulations in this part such certificate shall become null and void as of the effective time of supersedure. If the original and all copies of such superseded certificate are not delivered to the person issuing the regrading certificate or appeal grading certificate, he shall notify such persons as he considers necessary to prevent fraudulent use of the superseded certificate.

SANITARY REQUIREMENTS

§ 70.39 Minimum standards for sanitation, facilities, and operating procedures, in official plants. Except as otherwise provided in this part the provisions of this section shall apply with respect to grading service and inspection service in all official plants other than with respect to the grading of live poultry. The table set forth in this section indicates some of the types of material which may be used in the construction of equipment, utensils and facilities for use in the plant.

BUILDINGS AND PLANT FACILITIES

(a) The buildings shall be of sound construction and kept in good repair, and shall be of such construction as to prevent the entrance or harboring of vermin—(1) Outside openings. (i) The doors, windows, skylights and other outside openings of the plant, except receiving rooms and feeding rooms shall be protected by properly fitted screens or other suitable devices, against the entrance of flies and other insects.

(ii) Outside doors, except in receiving rooms and feeding rooms shall be self-closing and so hung that not over ¼ inch clearance remains when closed. Screen doors shall open toward the outside of the building.

(b) Rooms and compartments used for edible products shall be separate and distinct from inedible products departments and from rooms where live poultry is held or slaughtered. Separate rooms shall be provided when required for conducting processing operations in a sanitary manner; and all rooms shall be of sufficient size to permit the installation of the necessary equipment for processing operations and the conduct of such operations in a sanitary manner.

(1) The official plant should have separate rooms for each of the following operations depending upon the various types of operations conducted; but in no case shall the receiving or feeding of live poultry or killing operations be permitted in rooms in which eviscerating operations are performed:

(i) The receiving and feeding of live poultry.

(ii) Killing, scalding, and roughing operations.

(iii) Pinning, finishing, and chilling and packing operations for dressed poultry.

(iv) Evisceration operations. Final pinning of dressed poultry and chilling and packaging of edible products may be performed in this room. Opening in walls for conveyor lines are permissible.

(v) Inedible products departments.

(vi) Refuse rooms. Separate refuse room, or other equally adequate facilities, shall be required in eviscerating plants and in other plants where accumulations of refuse occur.

(2) Rooms and compartments in which carcasses or parts thereof are held for further inspection shall be in such numbers and such locations as the needs of the inspection in the plant may require. These rooms and compartments shall be equipped with locks and keys and the keys shall not leave the custody of the inspector in charge of the plant. All such rooms and compartments shall be marked conspicuously with the word "retained" in letters not less than 2 inches high.

(3) Coolers and freezers. Coolers and freezers of adequate size and capacity shall be provided to reduce the internal temperature of dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry prepared and otherwise handled in the plant to 36° F. within 24 hours unless other cooling facilities are available.

(4) Refuse rooms. Refuse rooms shall be entirely separate from other rooms in the plant, shall have tight fitting doors and be properly ventilated.

(5) Storage and supply rooms. The storage and supply rooms shall be in good repair, kept dry, and maintained in a sanitary condition.

(6) Boiler room. The boiler room shall be a separate room, if necessary, to prevent its being a source of dirt and objectionable odors entering any room where dressed poultry or edible products are prepared, processed, handled, and stored.

(7) Inspector's office. Furnished office space, including, but not being limited to, light, heat and janitor service shall be provided rent free in the official plant, for the exclusive use for official purposes of the inspector or grader and the Administration. The room or rooms set apart for this purpose must meet the approval of the regional supervisor and be conveniently located, properly ventilated and provided with lockers or cabinets suitable for the protection and storage of supplies and with facilities suitable for inspectors and graders to change clothing.

(8) Toilet rooms opening directly into rooms where poultry products are exposed shall have self-closing doors and shall be ventilated to the outside of the building.

(c) The floors, walls, ceilings, partitions, posts, doors and other parts of all compartments shall be of such material, construction, and finish as will make them susceptible of being readily and thoroughly cleaned—

(1) Floors. (i) All floors, except those in receiving rooms and feeding rooms and floors which are kept dry, shall be constructed of hardened concrete, or of tile laid closely together with impervious joint material, or of other similar impervious material and kept in good repair.

(ii) The floors in killing, ice-cooling, ice-packing, and eviscerating rooms shall be graded to permit run-off with no standing water and in new construction and renovated plants the pitch shall be not less than ¼ inch per foot to drains.

(iii) In new construction the junction of the wall with the floor shall be coved on a radius of not less than 2 inches and the window ledges shall be set at an angle of approximately 45°, and all upper horizontal surfaces shall be kept to a minimum.

(2) Ceilings and walls. (i) Ceilings and walls in rooms and compartments where exposed edible products are processed, handled or stored shall have tiled, enameled, or other smooth surface impervious to moisture.

(ii) Cooler and freezer rooms shall have interior surfaces impervious to moisture so as to permit thorough cleaning.

(3) Blood disposal. (i) Adequate facilities shall be provided for the disposal of blood in a sanitary manner.

(ii) When bleeding troughs are used they shall be long enough to catch the blood during the bleeding process and shall be cleaned daily. Such troughs shall be installed so as to pitch at least ½ inch per foot toward a smooth metal catch basin or basins, of sufficient capacity for a day's operation at peak production, or shall be flushed continuously.

(d) There shall be an efficient draining and plumbing system for the plant and premises.

(1) All drains and gutters shall be properly installed with approved traps and vents. The drainage and plumbing system must permit the quick run-off of all water from plant buildings, and surface water around the plant and on the premises; and all such water shall be disposed of in such a manner as to prevent a nuisance or health hazard.

(2) Sewerage and plant wastes. (i) The sewerage system shall have adequate slope and capacity to remove readily all waste from the various processing operations and to minimize, and if possible to prevent stoppage and surcharging of the system.

(ii) Grease traps which are connected with the sewerage system shall be suitably located but not near any edible products department or in any area where products are unloaded from, or loaded into, vehicles. To facilitate cleaning such traps shall have inclined bottoms and be provided with suitable covers.

(iii) In new construction, toilet soil lines shall be separate from house drainage lines to a point outside the buildings; and drainage from toilet bowls and urinals shall not be discharged into a grease catch basin.

(iv) All floor drains shall be equipped with traps, constructed so as to minimize clogging; and the plumbing shall be installed so as to prevent sewerage from backing up and from flooding the floor.

(v) Floor drainage lines should be of metal and at least 4 inches in diameter and open into main drains of at least 6 inches in diameter and shall be properly vented to the outside air.

(vi) In new construction, valley or gutter drains shall have concave bottoms or the junctions of the sides and the bottoms shall be coved.

(vii) Where refrigerators are equipped with drains, such drains should be properly trapped and should discharge through an air gap into the sewer system. All new installations, and all replacements, of refrigerators equipped with drains shall meet these requirements.

(e) The water supply shall be ample, clean, and potable with adequate pressure and facilities for its distribution in the plant, and its protection against contamination and pollution.

(1) Hot water at a temperature not less than 180° F. shall be available for sanitation purposes.

(2) Hose connections with steam and water mixing valves or hot water hose connections shall be provided at convenient locations throughout the plant for cleaning purposes.

(3) The refuse rooms shall be provided with adequate facilities for washing refuse cans and other equipment in the rooms; and the rooms, cans, and equipment shall be cleaned after each day's use.

(f) Modern lavatory accommodations, and properly located facilities for cleaning utensils and hands shall be provided. (1) Adequate lavatory and toilet accommodations, including, but not being limited to, running hot water and cold water, soap, and towels, shall be provided. Such accommodations shall be in or near toilet and locker rooms and also at such other places in the plant as may be essential to the cleanliness of all personnel handling products.

(2) Sufficient metal containers shall be provided for used towels and other wastes.

(3) The water supply in all hand washing facilities serving areas where dressed poultry and edible products are prepared shall be operated by other than hand operated controls or shall be of a continuous-flow type.

(4) Durable signs shall be posted conspicuously in each toilet room and locker room directing employees to wash their hands before returning to work.

(5) Toilet facilities shall be provided according to the following formula.

Persons of same sex:	Toilet bowls required
1 to 15, inclusive	1
16 to 35, inclusive	2
36 to 55, inclusive	[1]3
56 to 80, inclusive	[1]4
For each additional 30 persons in excess of 80	[1]1

[1] Urinals may be substituted for toilet bowls but only to the extent of ⅓ of the total number of bowls stated.

(g) There shall be ample light, either natural or artificial or both, of good quality and well distributed, and sufficient ventilation for all rooms and compartments to insure sanitary conditions. (1) All rooms in which poultry is killed, eviscerated, or otherwise processed shall have at least 10 foot candles of light intensity on all working surfaces except that at the grading and inspection stations such light intensity shall be of 50 foot candles. In all other rooms there shall be provided at least 4 foot candles of light intensity when measured at a distance of 30 inches from the floor.

(2) All rooms shall be adequately ventilated to eliminate objectionable odors and minimize moisture condensation.

EQUIPMENT AND UTENSILS

(h) Equipment and utensils used for the preparation, processing, or otherwise handling any product in the plant shall be suitable for the purpose intended and shall be of such material and construction as will facilitate their thorough cleaning and insure cleanliness in the preparation and handling of products. (1) Insofar as it is practical, equipment and utensils shall be made of metal or other impervious material. Trucks and receptacles used for handling inedible products shall be of similar construction and shall be conspicuously and distinctly marked and shall not be used for handling any edible products.

(2) Batteries should be constructed entirely of metal and have metal dropping pans so as to permit proper and complete washing and cleaning. Batteries that are not made entirely of metal shall be replaced with metal batteries whenever replacement becomes necessary.

(3) Metal refuse containers with covers shall be provided; and such containers shall be kept covered.

(4) Scalding equipment. (i) Scalding equipment, tank or spray type, shall be made of metal and have smooth surfaces, and be of such construction as to permit proper and complete washing and cleaning.

(ii) The scalding tanks, when used, shall be so constructed as to prevent contamination of potable water lines and to permit water to enter continuously at the rate of ¼ gallon per bird per minute and to flow out through an overflow.

(iii) The overflow outlets in scalding equipment shall be of sufficient size to permit feathers and water to be carried off.

(iv) The overflow, draw-off valves, and sediment basin drain shall discharge into a floor or valley drain, or onto the floor in close proximity to a floor or valley drain.

(5) Mechanical pickers. When necessary, safety guards shall be installed around moving machine parts of mechanical pickers, and such guards shall be of such construction as not to be difficult or laborious to remove or to keep clean. Sheet metal or metal grills fastened down with sufficient bolts and wing nuts are preferable.

(6) Wax finishing. (i) When wax dipping is used, metal troughs shall be provided to catch the wax removed from the dipped poultry. Acceptable facilities and methods shall be employed in reclaiming the wax.

(7) Ice chilling vats. (i) Chilling vats or tanks used for chilling dressed poultry should be, and all replacements thereof and all chilling vats or tanks used for chilling ready-to-cook poultry shall be, made of metal or other hard-surfaced impervious material.

(ii) Ice shovels shall be smooth surfaced and made of metal.

(8) Grading and packing bins. Where grading bins are used for poultry, they shall be of sufficient number and capacity to handle the grading adequately without the use of makeshift bins; and all dressed poultry shall be kept off the floor. Grading bins may be made of metal or enameled wood and shall be constructed and maintained in such a manner as to allow easy and thorough cleaning. All replacements of such bins shall, however, be of metal.

(9) Except as otherwise provided herein, all equipment and utensils used in the killing, roughing, pinning, chilling and packing rooms shall be of metal or other impervious material and constructed so as to permit proper and complete cleaning.

(10) Conveyors. (i) Conveyors used in the preparation of ready-to-cook poultry shall be of metal or other acceptable material and of such construction as to permit thorough and ready cleaning and easy identification of viscera with its carcass and so designed as will present each carcass or all parts thereof in a way that will permit adequate, and efficient inspection.

(ii) Overhead conveyors shall be so constructed and maintained that they will not allow grease, oil, or dirt to accumulate on the drop chain or shackle which shall be of non-corrosive metal.

(iii) Non-metallic belt-type conveyors used in moving edible products shall be of water-proof composition.

(iv) When individual trays or other acceptable equipment are not used during eviscerating operations, each carcass shall be suspended and a metal trough shall be provided beneath the conveyor to extend from the point where the carcass is opened to the point where the viscera has been completely removed, and such troughs shall be flushed continuously by a water spray.

(11) Inspection, eviscerating, and cutting tables shall be made of metal and have coved corners and be so constructed and placed to permit thorough cleaning.

(12) In plants where no conveyors are used, each carcass shall be eviscerated in an individual metal tray of seamless construction.

(13) Water spray washing equipment with sufficient water pressure to thoroughly and efficiently wash carcasses shall be used for washing carcasses inside and out.

(14) Watertight metal receptacles shall be used for entrails and other waste resulting from preparation of eviscerated poultry.

(15) Watertight trucks and receptacles for holding or handling diseased carcasses and diseased parts of carcasses shall be so constructed as to be readily and thoroughly cleaned; such trucks and receptacles shall be marked in a conspicuous manner with the word "condemned" in letters not less than 2 inches high and, when required by the inspector in charge, shall be equipped with facilities for locking and sealing.

(16) Freezing rooms should be adequately equipped to freeze ready-to-cook poultry solid in less than 60 hours. Freezing rooms shall be equipped with floor racks or pallets and fans to insure air circulation.

(17) Cooling racks should be made of metal and be readily accessible for thorough washing and cleaning. All replacements of cooling racks shall be made of metal.

(18) Trucks and receptacles in which carcasses or parts thereof are held for further inspection shall be in such numbers and in such locations as the needs of the inspection in the plant may require. They shall be equipped for locking by means of lock and key and the key shall not leave the custody of the inspector in charge of the plant. Such trucks and receptacles shall be marked conspicuously with the word "retained" in letters not less than 2 inches high.

(i) All equipment shall be so placed as to be readily accessible for all processing and cleaning operations. (1) Mechanical pickers. When used in the plant, mechanical pickers shall be so installed as to be accessible for thorough cleaning and removal of the accumulation of feathers.

(j) Equipment and utensils used in the official plant shall not be used outside the official plant except under such conditions as may be prescribed or approved by the national supervisor, and equipment used in the preparation of any article (including, but not being limited to, animal food), from inedible material shall not be used outside of the inedible products department except under such conditions as may be prescribed or approved by the national supervisor.

MAINTENANCE OF SANITARY CONDITIONS AND PRECAUTIONS AGAINST CONTAMINATION OF PRODUCTS

(k) The premises shall be kept free from refuse, waste materials, and all other sources of objectionable odors and conditions.

(1) Rooms, compartments, or other parts of the official plant in which products are handled and kept shall be kept clean and in sanitary condition. (1) All feathers, blood, offal, birds or parts of birds too severely damaged to be salvaged, and all discarded containers and other materials shall be completely disposed of daily.

(2) All windows, doors, and light fixtures in the official plant shall be kept clean.

(3) All docks and rooms shall be kept clean and free from debris and unused equipment and utensils.

(4) Live poultry receiving docks and receiving rooms shall be of such construction as readily to permit their thorough cleaning.

(5) Floors in feeding rooms shall be cleaned with such regularity as may be necessary to maintain them in a sanitary condition.

(6) The killing, roughing, and pinning room shall be kept clean and free from offensive odors at all times.

(7) The walls, floors, and all equipment and utensils used in the killing, roughing and pinning room shall be thoroughly cleaned after each day's operation.

(8) The floors in the killing, roughing, and pinning room shall be cleaned frequently during roughing and finishing operations and be kept reasonably free from accumulated blood, feathers, manure, water, and dirt.

(9) All equipment in the toilet and locker room, as well as the room itself, shall be kept clean, sanitary, and in good repair.

(10) Cooler and freezer rooms shall be free from objectionable odors of any kind and shall be maintained in a sanitary condition (including, but not being limited to, the prevention of drippings from refrigerating coils onto products).

(m) Equipment and utensils used for preparing or otherwise handling any product shall be kept clean and in a sanitary condition and in good repair. (1) Batteries and dropping pans shall be cleaned regularly and the manure removed from the plant daily.

(2) The feed mixer shall be cleaned daily.

(3) Scalding tanks shall be completely emptied and thoroughly cleaned as often as may be necessary but not less frequently than once a day.

(4) Ice shovels shall be kept clean, free of corrosion, and shall be stored off the floor.

(5) All equipment and utensils used in the killing, roughing, and pinning rooms shall be thoroughly washed and cleaned after each day's operation. The chilling and packing room and equipment and utensils used therein shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition.

(6) Graders' and packers' gloves and grading bins shall be washed daily and used only for grading or packing, as the case may be.

(7) Chilling vats or tanks shall be emptied after each use. They shall be thoroughly cleaned once daily, and after each cleaning operation they shall be sanitized with such compounds or by such methods as may be approved or prescribed by the Administrator.

(8) Thawing. When frozen or chilled poultry is to be eviscerated, adequate tanks or vats shall be provided with running tap water or air-circulated water for thawing such poultry. Such poultry shall not be thawed in still water and the water used for thawing shall be changed after each lot of poultry is thawed. If water is heated it shall not be heated above 70° F. The tanks or vats shall be equipped with properly installed overflow pipes to discharge the water over floor drains or a valley drain. Where mechanical devices are not used for removing thawed carcasses, from the tanks or vats, the tanks or vats, as the case may be, shall be of such size as to enable employees to remove poultry without getting inside the tanks or vats.

(9) When synchronized overhead conveyors and tray conveyors are used, the trays shall be completely washed and sanitized after being automatically emptied of inedible viscera.

(10) When a conveyor tray operation is used, such trays shall be of metal of seamless construction and shall be completely washed and sanitized after each use.

(11) Tables, shelves, bins, trays, pans, knives, and all other tools and equipment used in the preparation of ready-to-cook poultry shall be kept clean and sanitary at all times. Cleaned equipment and utensils shall be drained on racks and shall not be nested.

(12) Drums, cans, tanks, vats, and other receptacles used to hold or transport dressed poultry, or eviscerated poultry, shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition.

(n) Operations and procedures involving the preparation, storing, or handling of any product shall be strictly in accord with clean and sanitary methods.

(1) There shall be no handling or storing of materials which create an objectionable condition in rooms, compartments, or other places in the plant where any product is prepared, stored, or otherwise handled.

(2) The pinning and finishing operations shall be performed in a part of the room that is away from the killing and roughing operations.

(3) Blood from the killing operation shall be confined to a relatively small area and kept from being splashed about the room.

(4) In finishing and cleaning dressed poultry, feed shall be removed from the crop and the fecal material in the cloaca shall be removed by venting and such operations shall be completed prior to or during the final washing, and prior to chilling, and packaging of dressed poultry.

(5) The head of each dressed poultry carcass shall be washed thoroughly to remove feed from the mouth and blood from the head and mouth.

(6) In the final washing, the carcass shall be passed through a system of sprays providing an abundant supply of fresh clean water either under pressure or scrubbing action.

(7) Grading and packaging. Dressed poultry may be graded and packaged in the killing, roughing, pinning, chilling, and packing room; however, such poultry shall be graded and packed in an area of the room which is well isolated from the killing and roughing operation.

(8) The floors in the eviscerating room shall be kept clean and reasonably dry during eviscerating operations and free of all refuse.

(9) Conveyors shall be operated at such speeds as will permit a sanitary eviscerating operation and will permit adequate inspection for condition and wholesomeness.

(10) Mechanized packaging equipment shall be maintained in good sanitary condition.

(11) All offal resulting from the eviscerating operation shall be removed as often as necessary to prevent the development of a nuisance.

(12) Paper and other material used for lining barrels or other containers in which products are packaged shall be of such kinds as do not tear readily during use, but remain intact when moistened by the product.

(13) Protective coverings shall be used for the product in the plant and as it is distributed from the plant, as will afford adequate protection for the product against contamination by any foreign substance (including, but not being limited to, dust, dirt, and insects), considering the means intended to be employed in transporting the product from the plant.

(14) Refuse may be moved directly to loading docks only for prompt removal.

(15) Cleanliness and hygiene of personnel. (i) All employees coming in contact with exposed edible products or edible products handling equipment shall wear clean garments and shall keep their hands clean at all times while thus engaged.

(ii) Hands of employees handling dressed poultry or edible products or edible products handling equipment shall be free of infected cuts, boils, and open sores at all times while thus engaged.

(iii) Every person after each use of toilet or change of garments shall wash his hands thoroughly before returning to duties that require the handling of dressed poultry or edible products, or containers therefor, or edible products handling equipment.

(iv) Neither smoking nor chewing of tobacco shall be permitted in any room where exposed edible products are prepared, processed, or otherwise handled.

(o) Temperatures and procedures which are necessary for cooling and freezing of poultry in accordance with sound commercial practice shall be maintained in the coolers and freezers, and ice chilling temperatures and procedures shall also be in accordance with sound commercial practice—(1) Ice chilling. (i) Only ice manufactured or produced from potable water may be used for ice chilling. The ice shall be handled and stored in a sanitary manner. If of block-type, the ice shall be washed by spraying with clean water before crushing. Metal ice crushers shall be washed at least once daily.

(ii) Enough clean crushed ice shall be used to maintain a temperature in vats or tanks under 40° F. at all times during chilling. Any dressed poultry carcass weighing less than 8 pounds shall not be permitted to remain in a chilling vat or tank for longer than six hours unless the water is drained. Any dressed poultry carcass weighing 8 pounds or more shall not be permitted to remain in a chilling vat or tank for longer than eight hours unless the water is drained. Any such poultry carcass, however, shall not be allowed to remain in a chilling vat or tank after the internal temperature of the carcass has been lowered to 36° F. unless the water is drained.

(2) Air chilling. In air chilling, dressed poultry shall be passed through a spray of clean water immediately following the removal of the feathers, and then hung on racks. Thereupon the racks of dressed poultry shall be placed in a refrigerated room with moderate air movements and a temperature which will reduce the internal temperature of the carcass to from 36° F. to 40° F., both inclusive, within 24 hours.

(3) Freezing. (i) When dressed poultry is packaged in bulk or shipping containers, the carcasses should be individually wrapped or packaged in water-vapor resistant cartons or the containers should be lined with heavy water-vapor resistant paper so as to assure adequate overlapping of the lining to completely surround the carcasses and to permit unsealed closure or sealing in such a manner that water-vapor loss from the product is considerably retarded or prevented. The dressed poultry should receive an initial rapid freezing under such packaging, temperature, air circulation, and stacking conditions which will result in freezing the carcasses solid in less than 60 hours. Any carcass weighing less than 8 pounds should freeze solid in from 30 to 40 hours, whereas a carcass weighing more than 8 pounds should freeze solid in from 48 to 60 hours. (The approximate highest temperatures which will attain this result under average to most favorable conditions, are −10° F. with circulated air and −20° F. with still air; however, freezing temperatures of −20° F. to −40° F. are desirable).

(ii) Frozen dressed poultry should be stored at 0° F. or below, with temperature maintained as constant as possible.

(4) Immediately after packaging, all dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry, other than that which is ice-packed or shipped from the plant in a refrigerated carrier, should be moved into the freezer; except, that a period not exceeding 72 hours shall be permited for transportation and temporary holding before placing in the freezer provided such poultry is held at not above 36° F. The provisions in subparagraphs 1 and 3 of this paragraph, shall be applicable to ready-to-cook poultry.

(5) When poultry is packed in ice in barrels or other containers the barrels and containers shall be covered and shall have an adequate number of drain holes to permit water to drain out.

(p) Every practicable precaution shall be taken to exclude flies, rats, mice, and other vermin from the official plant. (1) Dogs, cats, and other pets shall be excluded from rooms where edible products and dressed poultry are processed, handled and stored.

(q) No person affected with any communicable disease (including, but not being limited to, tuberculosis) in a transmissible stage shall be permitted in any room or compartment where exposed or unpacked dressed poultry or edible products are prepared, processed, or otherwise handled.

§ 70.40 Authority of Administrator to amend minimum standards for sanitation, facilities, and operating procedures in official plants. The Administrator is authorized to amend the provisions in § 70.39; and such amended provisions shall be applicable to official plants.

SUBPART B—UNITED STATES SPECIFICATIONS FOR CLASSES, STANDARDS, AND GRADES OF POULTRY AND EDIBLE PRODUCTS THEREOF

§ 70.101 United States specifications for kinds and classes of live poultry, dressed poultry, and ready-to-cook poultry. The specifications contained in this section apply to live poultry, dressed poultry, and individual carcasses of ready-to-cook poultry, in determining the kind of poultry and its class. The kinds of poultry are as follows: Chickens, turkeys, ducks, geese, guineas, and pigeons.

(a) Chickens. For the purpose of this section, the following classes of chickens are specified:

(1) Broiler or fryer. A broiler or fryer is a young chicken (usually under 16 weeks of age), of either sex, that is tender-meated with soft, pliable, smooth-textured skin and flexible breastbone cartilage.

(2) Roaster. A roaster is a young chicken (usually under 8 months of age), of either sex, that is tender-meated with soft, pliable, smooth-textured skin and breastbone cartilage that is somewhat less flexible than that of a broiler or fryer.

(3) Capon. A capon is an unsexed male chicken (usually under 10 months of age) that is tender-meated with soft, pliable, smooth-textured skin.

(4) Stag. A stag is a male chicken (usually under 10 months of age) with coarse skin, somewhat toughened and darkened flesh, and considerable hardening of the breastbone cartilage. Stags show a condition of fleshing and a degree of maturity intermediate between that of a roaster and a cock or old rooster.

(5) Hen or stewing chicken or fowl. A hen or stewing chicken or fowl is a mature female chicken (usually more than 10 months old) with meat less tender than that of a roaster, and nonflexible breastbone.

(6) Cock or old rooster. A cock or old rooster is a mature male chicken with coarse skin, toughened and darkened meat, and hardened breastbone.

(b) Turkeys. For the purpose of this section, the following classes of turkeys are specified:

(1) Fryer. A fryer is a young turkey (usually under 16 weeks of age), of either sex, that is tender-meated with soft, pliable, smooth-textured skin, and flexible breastbone cartilage.

(2) Young hen turkey. A young hen turkey is a young female turkey (usually under 8 months of age) that is tender-meated with soft, pliable, smooth-textured skin, and breastbone cartilage that is somewhat less flexible than in a turkey fryer.

(3) Young tom turkey. A young tom turkey is a young male turkey (usually under 8 months of age) that is tender-meated with soft, pliable, smooth-textured skin and breastbone cartilage that is somewhat less flexible than in a turkey fryer.

(4) Mature hen turkey or old hen turkey. A mature hen turkey or old hen turkey is a mature female turkey (usually over 10 months of age) with toughened flesh and hardened breastbone that may have coarse or dry skin and patchy areas of surface fat.

(5) Mature tom turkey or old tom turkey. A mature tom turkey or old tom turkey is a mature male turkey (usually over 10 months of age) with coarse skin, toughened flesh, and hardened breastbone.

(c) Ducks. For the purpose of this section the following classes of ducks are specified:

(1) Broiler duckling or fryer duckling. A broiler duckling or fryer duckling is a young duck (usually under 8 weeks of age) of either sex, that is tender-meated and has a soft bill and soft windpipe.

(2) Roasting duckling. A young roasting duckling is a young duck (usually under 16 weeks of age), of either sex, that is tender-meated and has a bill that is not completely hardened and a windpipe that is easily dented.

(3) Mature duck or old duck. A mature duck or an old duck is a duck (usually over 6 months of age), of either sex, with toughened flesh, hardened bill, and hardened windpipe.

(d) Geese. For the purpose of this section, the following classes of geese are specified:

(1) Young goose. A young goose may be of either sex, is tender-meated, and has a windpipe that is easily dented.

(2) Mature goose or old goose. A mature goose or old goose may be of either sex and has toughened flesh and hardened windpipe.

(e) Guineas. For the purpose of this section, the following classes of guineas are specified:

(1) Young guinea. A young guinea may be of either sex and is tender-meated.

(2) Mature guinea or old guinea. A mature guinea or an old guinea may be of either sex and has toughened flesh.

(f) Pigeons. For the purpose of this section, the following classes of pigeons are specified:

(1) Squab. A squab is a young, immature pigeon of either sex, and is extra tender-meated.

(2) Pigeon. A pigeon is a mature pigeon of either sex, with coarse skin and toughened flesh.

§ 70.102 United States specifications for standards of quality for live poultry on an individual bird basis—(a) General. (1) The United States specifications for standards of quality for individual live birds contained in this section are applicable only to poultry of the kinds and classes set forth in § 70.101.

(2) Birds showing evidence of any disease or other condition which may render then unwholesome or unfit for human food shall not be included in any of the quality designations specified in this section.

(3) The following factors are considered in ascertaining the quality of an individual bird: (i) Health and vigor; (ii) feathering; (iii) conformation; (iv) fleshing; (v) fat covering; and (vi) the degree of freedom from defects.

(b) Standards of quality—(1) A Quality or No. 1 Quality. To be of A Quality or No. 1 Quality the live bird:

(i) Is alert, has bright eyes, and is of good health and vigor.

(ii) Is well feathered, with feathers showing luster or sheen and quite thoroughly covering all parts of the body; however, there may be a slight scattering of pinfeathers.

(iii) Is of normal physical conformation except that it may have a slightly curved breastbone or other slight abnormality in the shape of the breastbone which does not interfere with the normal distribution of the flesh. The bird may also have a slightly curved back. There may be a dent in the breastbone which does not exceed ⅛ inch in depth except that for turkeys the depth does not exceed ¼ inch.

(iv) Has a well developed, moderately broad and long breast that is well-fleshed throughout its entire length; and the thighs and back are well covered with flesh according to the age and sex of the bird.

(v) Has the breast, back, hips, and pin bones well covered with fat, except that a fryer (whether chicken or turkey) and a young tom turkey may have only a moderate amount of fat covering these parts, and a hen, stewing chicken, or fowl does not have excessive abdominal fat.

(vi) Is free from tears and broken bones; however, it may have slight scratches, slight skin bruises, and slight callouses (i. e., slightly thickened, hardened, and darkened areas of skin over the breastbone), if these conditions do not materially affect the appearance of the bird, especially the breast. It may also have slightly scaly shanks.

(2) B Quality or No. 2 Quality. To be of B Quality or No. 2 Quality the live bird:

(i) Is of good health and vigor.

(ii) Is fairly well feathered (i. e., some feathers may be lacking on some parts of the body); however, there may be a moderate number of pinfeathers.

(iii) Is of normal physical conformation except that it may have a slightly crooked breastbone which does not seriously interfere with the normal distribution of the flesh. It may also have a moderately crooked back and slightly misshapen legs and wings.

(iv) Is fairly well fleshed in relation to length and depth of body, with all parts fairly well covered with flesh according to the age and sex of the bird.

(v) Has sufficient coverage of fat on breast and legs to prevent a distinct appearance of the flesh through the skin; however, a hen, stewing chicken, or fowl may have excessive abdominal fat.

(vi) Is free from tears, broken bones, severe breast blisters, heavy callouses (i. e., thickened, hardened, and darkened areas of skin over the breastbone) and seriously scaly shanks; however, it may have moderate skin bruises and slight flesh bruises.

(3) C Quality or No. 3 Quality. A live bird that does not meet the requirements of B Quality or No. 2 Quality may be of C Quality or No. 3 Quality and such bird may:

(i) Be lacking in vigor.

(ii) Have a large number of pinfeathers over all parts of its body and complete lack of plumage feathers on the back.

(iii) Have definite deformities (including, but not being limited to, a crooked breastbone, hunchback, and slight crippling).

(iv) Have a poorly developed, narrow breast and thin covering of flesh over all parts of its body.

(v) Have only a small amount of fat in the feather tracts and is completely lacking in fat on back and thighs; and

(vi) Have skin bruises, small or moderate flesh bruises, and severe breast blisters; however, it has no broken bones.

The term "Reject" is not a standard of quality within the purview of this section; however, such term may be used with respect to an individual live bird to indicate that it is affected by, or shows evidence of, any disease or condition (including, but not being limited to, large flesh bruises, severe discolorations, severe injury, and emaciation) which may render the bird unfit for human food.

§ 70.103 United States specifications for standards of grades for live poultry—(a) General. (1) The United States specifications for standards of grades for live poultry contained in this section are applicable to live poultry of the kinds and classes set forth in § 70.101 and are based upon United States specifications for standards of quality as set forth in § 70.102.

(2) Birds showing evidence of any disease or other condition which may render them unwholesome or unfit for human food shall not be included in any of the grade designations specified in this section.

(3) All terms in the United States specifications for standards of quality, as set forth in § 70.102, shall, when used in this section, have the same meaning as when used in the specifications.

(b) Specifications for grades—(1) U. S. Grade A or U. S. No. 1. Any lot of live poultry may be designated as U. S. Grade A or U. S. No. 1 if at least 90 percent, by count, of the birds are of A Quality or No. 1 Quality and the remainder are of B Quality or No. 2 Quality. When more than one container comprises the lot, no container shall have more birds of B Quality or No. 2 Quality than that specified in the following table:

[When lot consists of more than 1 container]

Grade	Number of birds in container	Maximum number of B quality or No. 2 quality birds
U. S. Grade A or U. S. No. 1	Less than 10	1 bird.
	10 to 15, inclusive	2 birds.
	16 to 20, inclusive	3 birds.
	21 to 25, inclusive	4 birds.
	26 or more	5 birds.

(2) U. S. Grade B or U. S. No. 2. Any lot of live poultry may be designated as U. S. Grade B or U. S. No. 2 if at least 90 percent, by count, of the birds are of B Quality or No. 2 Quality, or better, and the remainder are of C Quality, or No. 3 Quality. When more than one container comprises the lot, no container shall have more birds of C Quality or No. 3 Quality than that specified in the following table:

[When lot consists of more than 1 container]

Grade	Number of birds in container	Maximum number of C quality or No. 3 quality birds
U. S. Grade B or U. S. No. 2	Less than 10	1 bird.
	10 to 15, inclusive	2 birds.
	16 to 20, inclusive	3 birds.
	21 to 25, inclusive	4 birds.
	26 or more	5 birds.

(3) U. S. Grade C or U. S. No. 3. Any lot of live poultry may be designated as U. S. Grade C or U. S. No. 3 if it consists of birds of not less than C Quality or No. 3 Quality.

The term "No Grade" is not a grade within the meaning of this section. Such term may be applied to any lot of live poultry if such lot contains any birds of less than C Quality or No. 3 Quality or has not been graded in accordance with this section.

§ 70.104 United States specifications for standards of quality for individual carcasses of dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry—(a) General. (1) The United States specifications for standards of quality contained in this section are applicable to individual carcasses of dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry of the kinds and classes set forth in § 70.101.

(2) Carcasses found to be unsound, unwholesome, or unfit for food shall not be included in any of the quality designations specified in this section. If the carcass is dressed poultry, determination of unsoundness or unwholesomeness will be based on external characteristics only.

(3) The quality designations specified in this section may not be made applicable to dressed poultry that is not free from the following conditions: Dirty head; bloody head; dirty carcass; bloody carcass; dirty vent; dirty feet; fan feathers on the wing tips; garter feathers around the hock joints; neck feathers; and, if the crop is not removed, feed in the crop.

(4) The A Quality designation may not be made applicable to any poultry carcass if the poultry was wet picked in such a manner that the skin has been damaged by extended immersion in, or high temperature of, the water which resulted in immediate discoloration or may result in later objectionable discoloration.

(5) The following factors are considered in ascertaining, pursuant to this section, the quality of an individual carcass: (i) Conformation; (ii) fleshing; (iii) fat covering; (iv) the degree of freedom from pinfeathers and vestigial feathers (i. e., hair or down, as the case may be); (v) the degree of freedom from tears, cuts (including, but not being limited to, any cut for the removal of the crop), disjointed bones, and broken bones; (vi) the degree of freedom from discolorations of the skin and of the flesh and of blemishes and bruises of the skin and flesh; and (vii) the degree of freedom from freezer burn.

(6) In addition to the respective requirements specified in this section for A Quality, B Quality, and C Quality, the intensity, aggregate area involved, and locations of all (i) discolorations (whether or not caused by dressing operations), (ii) bruises, (iii) pinfeathers, and (iv) freezer burn, as such combination of defects detracts from the general appearance of the carcass, will also be considered in determining the particular quality of an individual carcass.

(b) Standards of quality—(1) A Quality. To be of A Quality the carcass:

(i) Is of normal physical conformation except that it may have a slightly curved breastbone or other slight abnormality in the shape of the breastbone which does not interfere with the normal distribution of the flesh. The carcass may also have a very slightly curved back. There may be a dent in the breastbone which does not exceed $\frac{1}{8}$ inch in depth except that for turkeys the depth does not exceed $\frac{1}{4}$ inch.

(ii) Has a well-developed, moderately broad and long breast, well-fleshed throughout its entire length, with the flesh carrying sufficiently well up to the crest of the breastbone so that the breastbone is not prominent; and, with respect to young tom turkeys, there may be a slight thickening and slight pouchiness of the skin on the forepart of the breast. The legs are well covered with flesh.

(iii) Has the breast, back, hips, and pin bones well covered with fat except that chicken broilers or fryers, turkey fryers, and young tom turkeys may have only a moderate amount of fat covering these parts, but a hen, stewing chicken, or fowl does not have excessive abdominal fat.

(iv) Is practically free from pinfeathers, especially on the breast, and is free from vestigial feathers (i. e., hair or down, as the case may be) if the carcass is dressed poultry. If the carcass is ready-to-cook poultry, it is free from protruding pinfeathers, practically free from nonprotruding pinfeathers, especially on the breast, and free from vestigial feathers.

(v) Is free from skin tears and cuts on the breast and legs; however, elsewhere on the carcass there may be tears and cuts (exclusive of the cuts usually made to remove the neck and viscera in the production of eviscerated poultry) the aggregate length of which does not exceed $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches except that, with respect to any turkey carcass or goose carcass, such aggregate length does not exceed 3 inches. There are no sewn tears or cuts. The carcass has no disjointed bones or broken bones except that it may have one disjointed bone in either a leg or wing but only if there is no evidence of a related bruise or blood clot; and, if the carcass is of a chicken broiler or fryer, it may have one nonprotruding broken bone in a wing in addition to such disjointed bone but only if there is no evidence of a related bruise or blood clot. The wing tips may have been removed.

(vi) Is free from bruises and discolorations of the flesh on the breast and legs; however, elsewhere on the carcass there may be bruises and discolorations of the flesh showing not more than a slightly reddened color the aggregate area of which does not exceed the area of a circle $\frac{1}{2}$ inch in diameter, except that, with respect to any turkey or goose carcass, such aggregate area does not exceed the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter. The carcass is free from skin bruises, on the breast and legs, the aggregate area of which exceeds the area of a circle $\frac{1}{2}$ inch in diameter, and from skin bruises, elsewhere on the carcass, the aggregate area of which exceeds the area of a circle $\frac{3}{4}$ inch in diameter. With respect to any turkey or goose carcass, such aggregate area on the breast and legs does not exceed the area of a circle $\frac{3}{4}$ inch in diameter; and elsewhere on the carcass such aggregate area does not exceed the area of a circle $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the total aggregate area, on the breast and legs, of all such flesh bruises, skin bruises, and all other discolorations and blemishes of the skin, is not in excess of the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter; and elsewhere on the carcass such total aggregate area is not in excess of the area of a circle $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter. Furthermore, with respect to any turkey or goose carcass, such total aggregate area on the breast and legs is not in excess of the area of a circle 2 inches in diameter; and elsewhere on the carcass such total aggregate area is not in excess of the area of a circle 3 inches in diameter. The skin may show only slight reddening in the feather follicles on the neck, near the head, and on the wings because of improper bleeding.

(vii) Shows only slight freezer burn, or evidence thereof (i. e., a few pockmarks, or evidence thereof, none of which exceeds the area of a circle $\frac{1}{8}$ inch in diameter).

(2) B Quality. To be of B Quality the carcass:

(i) Is of at least practically normal physical conformation except that it may have a dented, curved, and slightly crooked breastbone which does not seriously interfere with the normal distribution of flesh. The carcass may also have a moderately crooked back or misshapen legs or misshapen wings.

(ii) Is sufficiently well-fleshed on the breast and legs so as to prevent a thin appearance and a prominent breastbone; however, a young tom turkey may have a pouchy, thick, and somewhat flabby skin on the forepart of the breast.

(iii) Has a sufficient coverage of fat on the breast and legs to prevent a distinct appearance of the flesh through the skin.

(iv) Has not more than a slight scattering of pinfeathers over the entire carcass with only relatively few on the breast and is free from vestigial feathers (i. e., hair or down, as the case may be) if the carcass is dressed poultry. If the carcass is ready-to-cook poultry, it is free from protruding pinfeathers and vestigial feathers but may have not more than a few scattered, nonprotruding pinfeathers.

(v) Is free from tears and cuts, on the breast and legs, the aggregate length of which exceeds $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches; however, elsewhere on the carcass there may be tears and cuts (exclusive of the cuts usually made to remove the neck and viscera in the production of eviscerated poultry), the aggregate length of which does not exceed 3 inches except that, with respect to any turkey or goose carcass, such aggregate lengths do not exceed 3 inches on the breast and legs and 6 inches elsewhere on the carcass. There are no sewn tears or cuts. The carcass may have not more than a total of 2 disjointed bones in either the legs or wings, or both, but only if there is no evidence of a related bruise or blood clot, and, in addition, 1 broken bone in a leg or wing, but only if it is nonprotruding and does not show an excessive related bruise or blood clot. The wing tips may have been removed.

(vi) Is free from bruises and discolorations, of the flesh on the breast and legs, showing not more than a slightly darkened color and which in the aggregate is in excess of the area of a circle $\frac{1}{2}$ inch in diameter; however, elsewhere on the carcass there may be bruises and discolorations of the flesh the aggregate area of which does not exceed the area of a circle $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter, except that, with respect to any turkey or goose carcass, such aggregate area on the breast and legs does not exceed the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter, and, elsewhere on the carcass, it does not exceed the area of a circle 3 inches in diameter. The carcass is free from skin bruises, on the breast and legs, the aggregate area of which exceeds the area of a circle $\frac{3}{4}$ inch in diameter, and from skin bruises, elsewhere on the carcass, the aggregate area of which exceeds the area of a circle $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter. With respect to any turkey or goose carcass, such aggregate area on the breast and legs does not exceed the area of a circle $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter, and, elsewhere on the carcass, such aggregate area does not exceed the area of a circle 3 inches in diameter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the total aggregate area on the breast and legs of all such flesh bruises, skin bruises, and all other discolorations and blemishes of the skin is not in excess of the area of a circle $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in diameter; and elsewhere on the carcass such total aggregate area is not in excess of the area of a circle 3 inches in diameter. Furthermore, with respect to any turkey or goose carcass, such total aggregate area on the breast and legs is not in excess of the area of a circle 3 inches in diameter; and elsewhere on the carcass such total aggregate area is not in excess of the area of a circle 6 inches in diameter. The skin may show not more than moderate reddening in the feather follicles on the neck, near the head, and on the wings and thighs because of improper bleeding.

(vii) Shows no more than moderate freezer burn, or evidence thereof, on any part of the carcass and no dried area in excess of the area of a circle $\frac{1}{2}$ inch in diameter.

(3) C Quality. A carcass that does not meet the requirements of B Quality may be of C Quality and such carcass may:

(i) Be of abnormal physical conformation (i. e., possess serious abnormal physical conditions, including, but not being limited to, a crooked breastbone) if it is fairly well fleshed.

(ii) Be poorly fleshed and a young tom turkey may have a thick, coarse skin and extended breast that is pouchy or flabby.

(iii) Be lacking in fat covering, over all parts of the carcass.

(iv) Have numerous pinfeathers and vestigial feathers (i. e., hair or down, as the case may be) scattered over the entire carcass if the carcass is dressed poultry; if ready-to-cook poultry, the carcass is free from protruding pinfeathers and vestigial feathers, but may have nonprotruding pinfeathers that do not seriously detract from the appearance of the carcass.

(v) Have torn skin, disjointed bones, and broken bones but only if there is no evidence of a related severe bruise or blood clot. There are no sewn tears or cuts. Wing tips may have been removed.

(vi) Have numerous and large discolored areas or blemishes of the skin which may be accompanied by some reddening and darkening of the flesh beneath, if such discolored areas and blemishes do not render any part of the carcass unfit for food.

(vii) Show more than moderate freezer burn or evidence thereof (including, but not being limited to, numerous pockmarks or large dried areas) on any part of the carcass.

§ 70.105 United States specifications for standards of grades for dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry—(a) General. (1) The United States specifications for standards of grades for dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry are applicable to dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry of the kinds and classes as set forth in § 70.101 when individual carcasses are not separately identified and are based upon the United States specifications for standards of quality set forth in § 70.104 except the provisions in paragraph (a) (3) thereof.

(2) When any lot of dressed poultry is graded on the basis of an examination of each carcass in a representative sample thereof, any carcass that would be of A Quality if it did not possess any of the following conditions shall, for the purpose of this section, be considered as being of B Quality; dirty or bloody head of carcass, dirty feet or vent, fan feathers or neck feathers or garter feathers, or feed in the crop. Any carcass that would be of B Quality or C Quality if it did not possess any of the foregoing conditions shall, for the purpose of this section, be considered as being of C Quality.

(3) All terms in the United States specifications for standards for quality set forth in § 70.104 shall, when used in this section, have the same meaning as when used in the specifications.

(4) The suggested weight specifications for dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry contained in paragraph (c) of this section are not incorporated in the standards of grades for dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry since weight, as such, is not a factor of grade for the purpose of the standards in this section. It is recommended, however, that each container of dressed poultry and ready-to-cook poultry contain carcasses of the weights specified in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Specifications for grades—(1) U. S. Grade A. Any lot of dressed poultry or ready-to-cook poultry composed of one or more containers of carcasses of the same kind and class may be designated as U. S. Grade A if not less than 90 percent, by count, of the carcasses in such lot are of A Quality, the remainder is of B Quality, and no individual container in such lot contains more carcasses of B Quality than in the proportion of 2 to each 12 carcasses in the container.

(2) U. S. Grade B. Any lot of dressed poultry or ready-to-cook poultry composed of one or more containers of carcasses of the same kind and class may be designated as U. S. Grade B if not less than 90 percent, by count, of the car-

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter E—Alaska Wildlife Protection

PART 46—TAKING ANIMALS, BIRDS, AND GAME FISHES

MOOSE

Basis and purpose. In the issuance of miscellaneous amendments to the regulations relating to the taking of animals, birds, and game fishes of Alaska, which amendments were signed by the Acting Secretary of the Interior on April 24, 1951, and published in 16 F. R. 3801 on May 1, 1951, an error was made in regard to the open seson for moose in a portion of the "Palmer" area. This area is particularly important to the protection of these animals and I have determind that the following amendment to correct the existing regulation should be adopted.

Since the amendment simply corrects an error and does not constitute any restriction not intended to be imposed originally, I have determined that section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237) does not apply, and this amendment shall be effective on July 1, 1951.

1. Section 46.104 is amended to read as follows:

§ 46.104 Moose. Bulls (with forked horns or larger).

East of longitude 138° W., September 15 to October 14. Limit, 1 a year. On the Kenai Peninsula, September 1 to September 20. Limit, 1 a year. Elsewhere west of longitude 141° W. (except in the Copper River Delta, Turnagain Arm, Northwest Arctic Slope and Alaska Peninsula areas as described in §§ 46.195 to 46.198, inclusive). September 1 to September 20 and December 1 to December 10. Limit, 1 a year. Provided, That there shall be no open season after September 20 (except by permit as described in § 165.3 of the Alaska Game Commission Regulations), in that area known as the Palmer area and described as follows:

Beginning at Mile 72 Alaska Railroad, containing all of the northern drainage into Turnagain Arm, all of the drainage into Knik Arm, all of the drainage of the Little Susitna River from its headwaters to its intersection with the Alaska Railroad, all of the eastern drainage to the Little Susitna River from the Railroad to its mouth, all of the drainage to Cook Inlet between the mouth of the Little Susitna River and Knik Arm.

There shall be no open season between meridians 138° and 141° W. longitude.

(Sec. 9 43 Stat. 743, as amended; 48 U. S. C. 198)

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN,
Secretary of the Interior.

Article I—Scope of Regulation

SECTION 0. Introduction. This regulation fixes ceiling prices for sales by retailers of a wide range of commodities. The pricing chart method of determining applicable mark-ups or margins is used. Retailers are required to file with the Office of Price Stabilization (hereafter referred to as OPS) a "list date pricing chart" and to fix their ceiling prices by using this chart. (Sample charts are shown in Appendix "A.") The list date under this regulation is February 24, 1951, except where another list date is specified in section 13 (b).

[Last sentence above added by Amdt. 2]

Article I tells you the scope of this regulation.

Article II tells you how to prepare your charts.

Article III sets forth the rules for computing ceiling prices by reference to your charts. It also tells you how to fix your ceiling prices if you cannot use the pricing rules.

Article IV prescribes rules for pricing in special cases (for example, up-stream and cross stream sales, transfers of business, sales of branded articles, etc.).

Article V contains general provisions such as record-keeping requirements, marking or posting ceiling prices, how to treat taxes, sales slips, prohibitions, etc.

SEC. 1. What commodities are covered. This regulation applies only to sales at retail of the articles listed in Appendix B. This includes a wide variety of consumer goods. They are grouped into categories and each category is given a category number. For example, men's and boys' underwear and nightwear constitute category 116. From time to time articles not listed may be added by amendments to this regulation.

This regulation supersedes the General Ceiling Price Regulation for all articles listed in Appendix B. It does not apply, however: (1) to such articles listed in Appendix B for which ceiling prices for sales at retail are hereafter established by other regulations; nor (2) to any article for which sales at retail are hereafter exempted or suspended from price control by this or any other regulation; nor (3) to any imported article if it is sold by the one who imports it; nor (4) to antiques (any article made prior to 1850).

SEC. 2. What sales are covered. This regulation applies to sales at retail. It applies to all sales to ultimate consumers of all kinds (including individual, commercial, and industrial users[1]) of articles which are "bought and sold in substantially the same form." (See definition in section 59.) It applies to sales to persons other than ultimate consumers (such as other retailers and wholesalers) if those sales customarily amount to less than 10 per cent of the retailer's total sales of articles covered by this regulation and the retailer's ceiling prices for those sales are fixed by Section 40.

SEC. 3. What sellers are covered. (a) This regulation applies to you if you are a seller whose sales to individual ultimate consumers of rticles covered by this regulation constitute more than 10 percent of sales of the merchandise covered by this regulation which you buy and sell in substantially the same form. You may, however, elect to continue to fix your ceiling prices under the General Ceiling Price Regulation:

(1) For all articles covered by this regulation if all your sales to individual ultimate consumers are "accommodation sales" (see definition in section 59 of this regulation); or

(2) For articles in Categories 101 through 895; 920; and 1001 through 1030, if your annual net dollar volume of total sales of articles in those categories which you buy and sell in substantially the same form in all your departments taken together to individual ultimate consumers amounts to less than $20,000; or

(3) For articles in Categories 901 through 908; 915 through 919; 921 through 924; 940 through 951; 970 through 985.

(i) If your[1a] annual net dollar volume of total sales of articles in those categories which you buy and sell in substantially the same form in all your departments taken together to individual ultimate consumers amounts to less than $60,000 or

(ii) If your[1a] annual net dollar volume of total sales in all departments taken together of all merchandise which you buy and sell in substantially the same form amounts to less than $100,000.

An election in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph must, if made, apply without exception to all categories in the group as to which the particular election is permitted. You may not subsequently alter an election made under this paragraph, except that if you are a seller permitted to elect to price under the provisions of the General Ceiling Price Regulation pursuant to this paragraph, you may, if you have already filed your chart, exercise this election by requesting the return of your chart from your OPS office on or before July 2, 1951.

The election provided in this paragraph does not apply to new sellers. As used in this paragraph "annual" means your most recent calendar or fiscal year (or if you were in business less than one year the dollar volume for the period you were in business projected to cover a one year period.)

[Paragraph (a) amended by Amdt. 5]

(b) When used in this regulation, the word "seller" refers to each single separate seller covered by this regulation. (1) If a seller makes sales at retail through more than one selling unit or department, each selling unit or department is considered to be a separate seller subject to all the provisions of this regulation. (2) A person who sells through salesmen making sales at uniform prices is a single seller. (3) All of the selling outlets of a chain, which are under common ownership or control and which are included in one group, zone, class or area to which immediately prior to January 26, 1951, the chain regularly sent invoices or statements showing the same selling prices for certain articles in a category (whether or not costs were shown), and which regularly sold those articles at such uniform prices, constitute, as to the categories in which those articles are included, a single seller.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Amdt. 3]

(c) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this regulation any seller at retail of an article for which a ceiling price has been established under section 43 (Uniform dollar and cents prices for certain articles) of this regulation or for which a ceiling price is established under a Supplementary Regulation to this regulation shall be permitted to sell the article at the price so established.

SEC. 4. Where this regulation applies. This regulation shall be applicable in the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia.

SEC. 5. When to begin using pricing rules. (a) You may begin to use the applicable pricing rules after you file your chart, but you must begin to use the rules not later than May 30, 1951 (unless you are a mail order establishment subject to paragraph (b) of this section). Where under the provisions of section 11 you file a part of your chart separately, you may begin using the rules for pricing the categories in any such part after you have filed it.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Amdts. 1, 2 and 4]

(b) If you operate a mail order establishment as defined in section 59 of this regulation you are not required to observe the pricing rules of this regulation as to any mail order sales of articles covered by any of your catalogs, booklets, circulars, flyers, or other forms of printed lists which were printed before the list date. Your ceiling prices for such sales continue to be established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation for so long as the printed price lists remain in effect or until you establish a price for an article pursuant to the pricing rules of this regulation. However, you are required to observe the other requirements of this regulation and to price new articles, new catalogs, booklets, circulars, flyers or other forms of printed price lists on the basis of the pricing rules in this regulation.

Article II—Pricing Charts

SEC. 11. Filing of charts. (a) If you are a seller subject to this regulation you must prepare two copies of a list date pricing chart. The chart must be dated and must be signed by one of your officers or owners. A chart for an outlet which is itself a separate seller under this regulation or a department in a departmentalized establishment may be signed by the store manager or department head. One copy of the chart must be kept for your use and for inspection by the Office of Price Stabilization and the other must be filed with your OPS office[2] on or before May 30, 1951.

[Paragraph 11 (a) amended by Amdts. 1, 2 and 4]

(b) You may at your option prepare a separate list date chart for Categories 860–895; 901–924 and 940–985, and file that as a supplemental chart instead of including those categories as part of the initial list date chart prepared in accordance with this regulation. If you file a supplemental chart, you must prepare it in accordance with this regulation, numbering the pages as if they followed the last page of your original chart. One copy of this supplemental chart must be kept with your original list date chart for your use and for inspection by the OPS, and the other must be filed with your OPS office[2] on or before May 30, 1951.

[Paragraph (b) added by Amdt. 2]

(c) If, by the addition to this regulation of Categories 860–895; 901–924; and 940–985 you are a seller subject to this regulation, you must prepare two copies of a list date pricing chart in accordance with this regulation. One copy of the chart must be kept for your use and for inspection by the OPS and the other must be filed with your OPS office[2] on or before May 30, 1951.

[Paragraph (c) added by Amdts. 2 and 4]

SEC. 12. Failure to file charts. On and after May 30, 1951, you may not offer, sell, or deliver any article covered by this regulation unless you have filed the chart described above. On and after June 30, 1951, you may not offer, sell or deliver any article covered by this regulation until you have received from the OPS an acknowledgment of the filing of your chart.

[Sec. 12 amended by Amdts. 1, 4]

SEC. 13. Contents of charts; general. Put at the top of your chart the following general information:

(a) Your business name and address;

(b) Your list date or list dates. Your list date is February 24, 1951, except:

(1) it is March 31, 1951, for Categories 860 to 895; 901 to 924; and 940 to 985;

(2) it is March 31, 1951, for all categories if after April 10, 1951, you first become subject to or first elect to become subject to the regulation.

In the event you were not open for business on the appropriate list date, your list date is the most recent date before that day on which you were open for business and offered for sale any article covered by the regulation.

[Paragraph (b) amended by Amdt. 2]

(c) Your type of store.[3] First, state whether it is a mail order establishment, a chain outlet, or an independent retail store; and second, state whether it is a men's and boys' clothing and furnishing store, a women's clothing store, an infants' and children's wear shop, a women's specialty shop, a millinery store, a shoe store, a department in a department store, a general merchandise store, a limited price variety store, a dry goods store, a furniture store, a home furnishings store, or other type of store. (A department in a departmentalized establishment must also state its department number or name; and a group of outlets which is a single seller under section 3 (b) must show the names and addresses of all retail outlets in the group.)

[Paragraph (c) amended by Amdt. 3]

(d) State which of the following brackets includes the approximate net dollar volume of your total retail sales of all commodities covered by this regulation in the calendar year 1950 or your most recent fiscal year:

Over—	Up to and including—
	$10,000
$10,000	30,000
30,000	50,000
50,000	100,000
100,000	300,000
500,000	1,000,000
1,000,000	2,000,000
2,000,000	5,000,000
5,000,000	10,000,000
10,000,000	20,000,000
20,000,000

(A department in a departmentalized establishment may omit the volume of its retail sales if the establishment files a statement of its approximate total net dollar volume of retail sales of all commodities in all departments, although each department is required to file a separate chart.)

SEC. 14. Contents of charts: related general information. This section tells what the chart must contain about the costs and offering prices of each category which you offered for sale on the list date. List the information in five (5) columns below the general information called for in the preceding section. List an article as "offered for sale on the list date" if it was in your store, unpacked, and available for sale on that date. (If you are a mail order establishment list an article as "offered for sale on the list date" if it was listed in one of your catalogs, booklets, circulars, flyers, or other printed price lists in effect on that date.)

If in the course of your business you regularly buy used or imperfect articles (including such articles when received as trade-ins) for the purpose of repairing and reconditioning them and selling them as reconditioned or repaired, in preparing your chart you shall omit every item which you repaired or reconditioned before sale. Note on the chart each category from which such items have been omitted.

If you offered for sale on the list date any article which you acquired by a transfer from another department or part of the same legal entity you must omit such article in preparing your chart.

When the phrase "you offered" is used in this regulation it means "you offered for sale on the list date." Before you begin to prepare your list date chart study the sample charts in Appendix A for the appropriate form. (The OPS will not supply chart forms.)

SEC. 15. Column 1: List of categories offered for sale. In the first column from the left, list by the number given for that category in Appendix B, each category which you offered. If you are including in a "general" category (as defined in Appendix B) any article not specifically listed for that category in Appendix B, list such article in parenthesis in column 1 immediately below the category number in which you are including it.

SEC. 16. Column 2: List of net costs. In the second column from the left, list opposite each category shown in column 1, the last "net cost" at which you bought each different article, style, model, or lot number in that category which you offered. Follow these directions for listing net costs:

(a) Find your "net cost" by deducting all discounts (including cash discounts) from the invoice cost on the last invoice you received[4] before the list date for a particular article, style, model or lot number which you have listed. In order that markups on your chart may as nearly as possible reflect your normal markups, if your last invoice was received after January 1, 1951 and your selling price on the list date was unchanged from your initial offering price based on the next to the last invoice which you had received for that article prior to February 24, 1951, you may list the net cost on the next to the last invoice received prior to February 24, 1951. Deduct discounts you could have taken whether you took them or not. No freight, handling charge, OPS adjustment charge, or other similar charge may be added.[5]

[Paragraph (a) amended by Amdts. 2 and 4]

(b) List your net costs in order from the lowest to the highest.

(c) List each different net cost separately even though you bought other articles, styles, models, or lot numbers in the category for the same gross invoice cost. Thus, if you bought three different articles, styles, models, or lot numbers in a category at $3.50, 8/10 EOM,[6] $3.50, 3/10 EOM, or $3.50 net, list each of these net costs separately as $3.22, $3.40, and $3.50, respectively.

(d) List each different net cost only once in the category even though you offered more than one article, style, model, or lot number of that net cost in that category.

(e) If you offered a particular style, model, or lot number which you bought at more than one net cost, list only the net cost shown on the last invoice you received before the list date for that style, model, or lot number, unless you are permitted by paragraph (a) of this section to use an earlier invoice.

(f) List each net cost per unit. Thus, if you buy at "per dozen" prices divide the net cost per dozen by 12 and list the result as your net cost per unit. Similarly, if you buy at a price per gross or per hundred, divide your net cost per gross by 144, or per hundred by 100 to find your net unit cost.

(g) You may round your cost to the nearest cent. Thus, you may list $1.735 as $1.74 and $1.734 as $1.73.[7]

SEC. 17. Column 3: Offering prices. In the third column from the left, list opposite each net cost shown in column 2, each different price at which you offered to your most numerous class of purchaser[8] an article of that category having that net cost. Follow these directions for listing offering prices:

(a) Do not list offering prices which are higher than your ceiling price for the article on the list date. If your offering price was higher than your ceiling price on the list date you must list your ceiling price.

(b) To avoid the distortion caused by markdowns you may list as your offering price for an article either the price at which you actually offered it on the list date or the price at which you offered the article when you first offered it for sale. If you list your first offering price rather than your list date offering price, place the letter "M" after the price in this column.

(c) To avoid the distortion caused by your having re-marked an article prior

[1] Examples of ultimate consumers who are not individual ultimate consumers are hospitals, schools, and clubs.

[1a] For the purpose of exercising this election, insofar as chain food stores are concerned, each retail outlet (or each department in such outlet) of the chain may be considered a seller, even though the chain determines uniform prices centrally.

[2] Your OPS office is the District Office having jurisdiction over the area in which your store is located. If, however, you are a mail order establishment or the type of chain which under this regulation is a separate seller, your OPS office is the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C.

[3] "Store" means a separate seller as defined in section 3(b), or the separate establishment or a department in the establishment at or from which you make sales to ultimate consumers. A mail order establishment is also called a store.

[4] If you are an outlet of a chain not included in a group of outlets for which your central office is permitted to use the same pricing chart in accordance with section 3 (b) of this regulation, you may use the invoice furnished by your central office.

[5] An alternative method for preparing charts for and pricing categories 701 to 752, which permits freight to be reflected is provided in Supplementary Regulation 2 to this regulation.

[6] "8/10 EOM" means 8 percent discount if paid within 10 days after the end of the month.

[7] You may, if you wish, list your gross invoice cost per dozen, per gross, or per hundred, and your purchase discounts, in parenthesis, following the net unit cost. Thus, you might list $1.29 ($16.00, 3/10 EOM per doz.).

[8] This will be the class containing the greatest number of purchasers. If you have more than one class of purchaser, use a footnote to show the class of purchaser used in preparing your chart. Section 30 provides that other classes of purchasers must get their customary differentials.

to January 26, 1951, to a price greater than that at which you first offered it, you must list in column 3 the price at which you first offered it. If you list such a price you must place a letter "U" after the price in column 3.

(d) To avoid the distortion caused by your having initially marked an article since December 1, 1950, at a price greater than that at which you normally would have marked that article you must list in column 3 the price at which you normally would have marked that article (as, for example, if you had marked the article in anticipation of an increase in replacement cost). You must put the actual price at which you offered the article on the list date in parenthesis beside the net cost in column 2 and place a letter "R" after each such price listed in column 3.

(e) If your offering price includes a tax on a particular sale or delivery (such as a sales tax or a compensating use tax) which the law permits you to state separately from the price, you must deduct the full amount of such tax included in your offering price before you list it. You need not deduct from your offering price any tax which you stated separately from and in addition to your offering price.

(f) You will find that in some cases you have listed more than one offering price opposite a single net cost in a particular category. You must draw a circle around one of these prices; section 19 tells you which offering price to circle. To select your circled price you first have to find your average percentage markup for the category. Section 18 explains how to find a category average percentage markup.

SEC. 18. Category average percentage markup. Compute your average percentage markup for a category as follows:

Step 1. Add together all the net costs listed for that category in column 2. To find the correct average, you must, of course, add together an equal number of costs and offering prices. Therefore, just for purposes of this step (you should use a separate work sheet), you must add in each net cost as many times as you have listed different offering prices opposite it;

Step 2. Add together all the offering prices listed in column 3 for that category;

Step 3. Substract the total of the net costs found in Step 1 from the total of the offering prices found in Step 2;

Step 4. Divide the remainder found in Step 3 by the total of the net costs found in Step 1. The result is your average percentage markup on cost.[9] When you have found your average percentage markup for a category, enter it in column 1 for that category.

Example: The way to compute average percentage markup for men's and boys' shirts, category 117, may be illustrated as follows:

Total the net costs	Total the offering prices
$1.21	$1.98
1.25	1.98
1.38	2.25
(1.38)	2.50
1.82	2.98
1.94	3.50
3.64	5.95
(3.64)	6.95
5.34	7.95
(5.34)	8.95
26.94	44.99

(Note that the costs in parentheses appear only on your work sheet. They do not appear on your chart.)

Subtract the total of the net costs from the total of the offering prices ($44.99—$26.94=$18.05). Divide the remainder, $18.05 by the total of the costs, $26.94 ($18.05÷$26.94=67%). The result, 67 percent, is the average percentage markup on cost for category 117. Enter 67% in column 1.

SEC. 19. Circled price. Where you have listed more than one offering price opposite a single net cost in a particular category, you must draw a circle around the offering price which comes closest to reflecting the average percentage markup for the category. If the price you get is midway between two offering prices, draw a circle around the lower of the two.

Example. You have listed offering prices of $2.88, $3.00 and $3.25 for a net cost of $2.00 in category 202, and your average percentage markup for category 202 is 52%. To apply this rule multiply $2.00 by 52% ($2.00×0.52=$1.04) and add $2.00 to the result ($2.00+$1.04=$3.04) resulting in a price of $3.04. When you look at the three offering prices which you have listed for a $2.00 net cost, you find that the offering price closest to $3.04 is $3.00. Therefore, $3.00 is the "circled" price.

If your average percentage markup had been 47% you would have found a price of $2.94 ($2.00×0.47=$0.94; $2.00+$0.94=$2.94). Since $2.94 is midway between your listed offering prices of $2.88 and $3.00, you would have selected the lower of the two, and $2.88 would have been your circled price.

SEC. 20. Column 4: Percentage markups. In the fourth column from the left, list the percentage markup for each different net cost listed in column 2. If more than one offering price is listed opposite the same net cost in a category, you list the percentage markup for the circled price only. To figure a percentage markup, subtract the net cost listed in column 2 from the offering price listed opposite it in column 3, and divide the difference by the net cost. Round the result to one decimal place. For example, you should list 53.72 percent as 53.7 percent and 53.75 percent as 53.8 percent.

Example. If you have listed a net cost of $3.22 and an offering price of $4.95, you subtract $3.22 from $4.95 ($4.95—$3.22=$1.73) and divide the difference, $1.73, by the net cost, $3.22 ($1.73÷$3.22=0.53773). Your percentage markup over cost for your $3.22 net cost is, therefore, 53.8%. Enter 53.8% in Column 4 opposite the $3.22 net cost.

SEC. 21. Column 5: List of invoices—(a) What invoices must be listed. In the fifth column from the left, list one invoice for every offering price shown in column 3. The invoice you list must cover your purchase at the corresponding net cost listed in column 2 for an article of that category which you offered at that price. If pursuant to section 16 (a) you have listed in column 1 a net cost from an invoice other than the last invoice you got before the list date, you must place a letter "E" beside the invoice listed in column 5.

(b) How to list an invoice. State your supplier's name and the date and number of the invoice. In parenthesis following the listing of the invoice you must identify the article the purchase of which at the cost shown in column 2 is covered by the invoice. (An alternative method of listing invoices is provided in Supplementary Regulation 2 to this regulation.)

(c) Inspection of invoices. On request you must supply for examination to the OPS or its agent any invoice which you have listed in column 5.

SEC. 22. Amendment of charts—(a) Amendment by seller. If you find that you have filed an incorrect chart you must file an amendment to your chart with the OPS office where you filed your original chart and you must attach to the amendment a statement explaining why the changes conform your chart to the requirements of the regulation.

Example. If you wish to amend an inaccurate offering price listed on your original chart, you must also recompute your average percentage markup for that category, and reexamine your circled prices for that category to see if the new category average percentage markup requires a change in any of them. If changes are required, the amendment to your chart must show all the corrections which were necessary.

You may not use the amendment to your chart in fixing ceiling prices until you have received acknowledgment from your OPS office of receipt of the amendment.

(b) Amendment by Office of Price Stabilization. The OPS may at any time issue an order amending your chart to bring your mark-ups into line with mark-ups established by this regulation for sellers of the same class. Also, upon examination of your chart and any amendment thereto if the records necessary to substantiate information appearing on your chart or the amendment are inadequate the OPS may issue an order amending your chart to bring the mark-ups in line with the level of mark-ups established under this regulation.

Article III—Computing Ceiling Prices

SEC. 30. How to compute ceiling prices. To compute your ceiling price for the sale to an ultimate consumer, of an article covered by this regulation, refer to your chart and use the first applicable pricing rule found below in this Article III. (Note that sales covered by this regulation to persons other than ultimate consumers must be priced under section 40. "'Upstream' and 'Cross Stream' Sales and sales of 'Cross Stream' articles to ultimate consumers.")

In applying these rules, you must compute your ceiling price for each article to the class of purchaser you used in preparing your chart and apply your customary differentials to that price to find your ceiling price to all other classes of purchasers. You may not change the terms, allowances, discounts, or differentials which you customarily gave to various classes of purchasers, if the change would result in a higher net price.

Wherever this regulation refers to a list date chart it means only a chart correctly prepared in accordance with sections 13 to 21 of this regulation. If your chart is improper or inaccurate, your ceiling prices shall be prices computed on the basis of a correct chart.

SEC. 30a. "Permitted increase." Various OPS regulations may provide for increases in your supplier's ceiling prices. Some of these regulations may require your supplier to break down his price to you into two parts, the first part being the basic price and the second part a "permitted increase" (that is, the portion of the increase granted your supplier which the regulation allows you to pass on to the consumer). You must use the basic price (without adding the "permitted increase") to find your net cost for determining your ceiling price under this regulation. Then you may add the amount designated as a "permitted increase" to your ceiling price as otherwise determined under this regulation.

[Sec. 30 (a) added by Amdt. 2]

SEC. 31. Net cost; OPS adjustment charge. "Net cost," in this regulation means net unit cost of an article after deducting all discounts you could have taken, or your supplier's ceiling price[10] for the article, whichever is lower. (You may round your cost to the nearest cent.) You may not include in "net cost" any item on an invoice received by you labelled "OPS adjustment charge." Freight, handling charge, or other similar charges may not be added.[11]

SEC. 32. Rule 1: Articles belonging to a category on your chart and with a net cost listed on your chart. If the article you are pricing is in a category listed in Column 1 of your chart, and if it has a net cost listed in column 2, its ceiling price is the offering price you listed in column 3 for that net cost and category. If you have a circled price for that net cost and category, the circled price is the ceiling price for the article.

Example. You wish to price a pair of men's pajamas which cost you $1.29 net. On your chart you have listed offering prices of $2.00 and $2.24 for a $1.29 net cost in category 116. You have circled $2.00. Therefore, your ceiling price for these pajamas is $2.00 per pair.

If you had listed only one price $2.24 for a $1.29 net cost, your ceiling price would be, of course, $2.24.

SEC. 33. Rule 2: Articles belonging to a category listed on your chart but having a net cost lower than the lowest cost listed for that category. If the article you are pricing has a net cost lower than the lowest net cost listed for that category in column 2 of your chart, you compute your ceiling price by multiplying the net cost of the article by the average of the percentage markups in column 4 of the two lowest costs shown on the chart for that category, and adding the result to the net cost.

Example. You wish to price a girl's sweater having a $1.94 net cost. The two lowest net costs on your chart for category 208 are $2.07 and $2.26. The percentage markups listed for the last two are 55.6% and 54% respectively. You average the last two (55.6+54=109.6÷2=54.8) and find that 54.8% is the average. The ceiling price for the sweater is found by multiplying $1.94 by 54.8 (1.94×54.8=1.06) and adding the result, $1.06 to $1.94 (1.94+1.06=3.00). The total, $3.00 is your ceiling price.

SEC. 34. Rule 3. Articles belonging to a category listed on your chart, but having a net cost higher than the highest cost listed for that category. If the article you are pricing has a net cost higher than the highest net cost listed for that category in column 2 of your chart, you compute your ceiling price by multiplying the net cost of the article by the lower of (a) the average of the percentage markups listed in column 4 for the two highest costs shown on the chart for that category, or (b) the average percentage markup for the category, and adding the result to the net cost.

Example. You wish to price a woman's slip having a $7.95 net cost. The two highest net costs on your chart for category 211 are $6.95 and $5.95. The percentage markups listed for the last two are 67.6% and 63.5%, respectively. You average the last two (67.6+63.5=131.1÷2=65.6) and find 65.6%. The category average percentage markup for category 211 is 67%. Since the average of the percentages for the two highest cost lines (65.6%) is lower than the category average (67%), you use 65.6% to find the ceiling price of the slip. The ceiling price for the slip is found by multiplying $7.95 by 65.6 (7.95×65.6=5.22) and add the result $5.22 to the net cost, $7.95 (7.95+5.22=13.17). The total, $13.17 is the ceiling price.

SEC. 35. Rule 4. Articles belonging to a category listed on your chart but having a net cost between two net costs listed for that category. (a) If the article you are pricing has a net cost between two net costs listed for that category (except between the two lowest net costs for the category) in column 2 of your chart, you compute your ceiling price by multiplying the net cost of the article by the lower of (1) the percentage markup listed in column 4 for the net cost next lower than the one you are pricing, or (2) the average percentage markup listed for that category in column 1, and adding the result to the net cost.

Example: You wish to price a man's shirt with a net cost of $1.47. You have not listed any net cost of $1.47 for category 117, but you have listed net costs of $1.50 and $1.46. Your percentage markup for your $1.46 net cost is 54%. Your average markup for category 117 is 53.1%. Since 53.1% is the lower, your ceiling price is found by multiplying the net cost $1.47 by .531 (1.47×.531=.78) and adding the result, $0.78 to $1.47. The total ($1.47+.78=$2.25) $2.25 is the ceiling price.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Amdt. 1]

(b) If the article you are pricing has a net cost between the two lowest net costs listed for that category in column 2 of your chart, you compute your ceiling price for that article by using Rule 2 (section 33).

SEC. 36. Rule 5: Articles belonging to a category comparable to a category listed on your chart. If the article you are pricing does not belong to a category which is listed in column 1 of your chart, look in Appendix C where you will find for each category a list of other categories which are "comparable" to that category. See whether column 1 of your chart contains the first comparable category listed in Appendix C for the category to which the article you are pricing belongs. If it does not contain the first comparable category, see whether you have listed in column 1 the second, then the third, and so on until you find a comparable category which is listed on your chart. Then compute your ceiling price by applying Rules 1, 2, 3, or 4, as if the article you are pricing belonged in that comparable category.

Example. You have not listed category 701 on your chart, but now purchase a bedroom suite at a net cost of $85.00. You look in Appendix C and find that categories 706, 708, 714, 703, and 710 are listed as comparable to category 701. When you look in column 1 of your chart to see whether you have listed any of these categories. You have not listed category 706 on your chart, but you have listed category 708. Rule 5 requires you to figure your ceiling price for this bedroom suite as if it belonged to category 708. You find that you have listed a net cost of $85.00 in column 2 for category 708, and an offering price of $150.00 in column 3 for that net cost. You therefore apply Rule 1 and your ceiling price for the bedroom suite is $150.00.

SEC. 37. Rule 6. Articles belonging to a category where your chart has at least three categories in the same group of categories. If the article you are pricing is not in a category on your chart and you have no comparable category but you do have on your chart at least three categories in the same group[12] of categories, you compute your ceiling price under this rule. (If you cannot price under this rule you determine your price under section 39 which provides for the use of a markup table or in special instances for application for a pricing method.)

(a) Groups of categories. All categories are divided into the following groups:

Group I—Categories 101–607.
Group II—Categories 701–752.
Group III—Categories 801–854.
Group IV—Categories 1001–1030.

(b) Pricing method. (1) List the appropriate categories and category average percentages. If you have at least three categories of the appropriate group[12] on your chart, you list as many of these categories as you have on your chart, setting forth opposite each, your

[9] You may, if you wish, figure your percentage markups as "margins on selling price" instead of on your net cost, but you must use the same method of figuring all percentage margins and average percentage margins. If you have chosen to list margins on selling price, you must state this on your chart, and must use margins on offerings (or selling) price wherever this regulation refers to a markup over net cost.

[10] If you operate an outlet of a chain not included in a group of outlets for which your central office is permitted to use the same pricing chart in accordance with section 36(b), and if your chart was not prepared on the basis of net cost of articles to your central office, "your supplier's ceiling price" for articles shipped to you by your central office is the amount shown on your central office's invoice to you correctly prepared under Supplementary Regulation 1 to this Regulation.

[11] An alternative method for pricing categories 701–752 which permits freight to be reflected is provided in Supplementary Regulation 2 to this regulation.

[12] "Group" as defined for this purpose includes any category which appears in the appropriate series of category numbers excluding categories 105A, 105B, 105C, 105D, 204, 214, 353, and 803D.

average percentage markup [15] for each category. Note: You may not use this rule for a category in Group II (701–752) if your chart for these categories was prepared pursuant to the alternative method provided in Section 5 of Supplementary Regulation 2 to this regulation.

(2) Compute the "group average" for these categories. You do this by adding together all the average markups for the categories you have listed and dividing this sum by the number of categories which you have listed.

(3) Apply table in Appendix D. Turn to the table in Appendix D. The top row of the table is divided into a series of percentage brackets. In the first column to the left find the category number which includes the article you are pricing. Follow this category number across and find the markup which appears in the column under the percentage bracket which includes the "group average markup which you computed under subparagraph (2). This is your percentage markup over cost for the new category.

(4) Multiply the net cost of the article you are pricing by this percentage markup. Add the result to the net cost of the article. This final result is your ceiling price for the article you are pricing.

Example. You wish to price a set of boy's ear muffs on which your net cost is 50 cents. Ear muffs belong to category 123 on the CPR 7 chart. You find, on examining your chart, that neither this category, nor any one of the "comparable" categories is listed on your chart.

Since category 123 belongs to the group of categories numbered from 101–607 inclusive, you look on your chart to find whether you have listed at least three categories in this group. If you do not have at least three such categories listed on your chart (excluding categories 105A, 105B, 105C, 105D, 204, 214 and 353), you cannot use this pricing rule and the ear muffs must be priced under section 39.

Let us assume that actually you have listed on your chart articles belonging to eight categories of this group of numbers. These categories have percentage markups over cost as follows:

Category:	Average percentage markup	Category:	Average percentage markup
102	63	215	62
105	63	217	68
110	63	302	65
116	65	304	60

You must compute your "group average" for all these categories by adding the average markups for these categories and dividing the result by the number of categories which you have listed above (509÷8). Your "group average" is 63.625%.

You next turn to the table in Appendix D. In the first column to the left you will find a series of category numbers. Follow this column downward until you reach category 123.

[15] Computations under this section are based on markups over cost. If you are on the "retail system," that is, if your chart markups are expressed as percentages of selling prices, you must convert your category markups to markups over cost. You do this by subtracting your average percentage margin on selling price for the category from 100%. You divide the result thus obtained into your percentage margin on selling price. After the percentage margin on selling price for all your categories have been converted to markups on cost you proceed as set forth above.

Follow this row across the table until you come to the percentage bracket appearing in the top row of the table which includes your "group average"—In this case the bracket designated "over 62 including 65." At this point you will find that the allowable percentage markup for category 123 is 65.7%. This is your percentage markup for this category and for the article you are pricing.

You next multiply the net cost of the article you are pricing by this percentage markup ($.50×.657=$.328). Add this figure to your net cost of the article you are pricing ($.50+.33=$.83). The result, $.83, is your ceiling price for the article you are pricing.

(5) Group averages above table in Appendix D. If, in pricing a category included in Group I (101–607), your group average is over 101 percent; in Group II (701–752) over 127 percent; Group III (801–854) over 101 percent; and, Group IV (1001–1030) over 109 percent, you find your percentage markup over cost by multiplying your group average by the multiplier listed for that category in Appendix F.

Example: If you are a house to house seller and have a "group average" of 150% for your categories in the group 101 to 607, inclusive, and you now wish to sell handbags (category 218) which you find you must price under this rule, you determine your markup over net cost as follows: refer to the multiplier opposite category 218 in Appendix F. There you will find the figure 1.045. This means that your markup on cost for handbags is 156.8% (150×1.045=156.75).

(c) Articles which cannot be priced under Rule 6. If the article you are pricing is included in categories 105A, 105B, 105C, 105D, 204, 214, 353 and 803D; or if your chart for categories 701–752 was prepared pursuant to the alternative method provided in section 5 of Supplementary Regulation 2 to this regulation; or if you do not have three categories in the appropriate group on your chart, you price such article under section 39.

SEC. 38. Rule 7: Pricing method for repaired or reconditioned items. If in the course of your business you regularly buy used or imperfect articles (including such articles when received as trade-ins) for the purpose of repairing and reconditioning them and selling them as reconditioned or repaired, and your chart as filed indicates that such articles have been omitted, you may compute a price for such a used or imperfect article which you have repaired or reconditioned in the following manner: (a) add to the net cost of the article the net cost of reconditioning or repairing the article) but not a cost greater than that required to restore the article to a factory standard article of the same type); (b) multiply the total thus obtained by the category average percentage markup for the category including the article you are pricing, and (c) add the result to the total found in (a). If your chart has no markup for that category you use the markup for the category in Appendix E.

[Sec. 38 amended by Amdt. 1]

SEC. 39. Ceiling prices for sellers who cannot price under other sections of the regulation. If sections 30 to 38 do not provide a method for establishing your ceiling price for an article, you figure your ceiling under this section.

(a) Use of Appendix E markups—(1) Pricing method. If you have never priced an article under this section you find your ceiling price for all articles which must be priced under this section as follows by using the Table in Appendix E: On the left side is listed a column of category numbers; opposite each category number is a percentage markup. Find the percentage markup for the category to which the article you are pricing belongs. Multiply the net cost of the article you are pricing by this percentage markup. Add the result so obtained to the net cost of the article. The amount so arrived at is your ceiling price for the article you are pricing.

(2) Reports. You may not sell or deliver any article which you are required to price under this section until you have filed whichever of the following reports is applicable:

(i) You must file a statement that you have filed a list date pricing chart (if that is a fact) and a list of the categories you intend to price under subsection (1) of this section; or

(ii) If you have not filed a list date pricing chart you must file a statement containing the following information:

(a) Your name and address or your proposed name and address and the names and addresses of all owners, stockholders, or officers of the business establishment. (Owners holding less than 10 percent of the total number of shares of corporations preparing this statement need not be listed.)

(b) The date or the proposed date of the organization of the business establishment.

(c) A list of the articles which you intend to price under this section.

(d) The type of store you operate or intend to operate (dry goods, furniture, men's furnishings, specialty shop, etc.).

(e) Special services which you offer or intend to offer (installment selling, charge accounts, other credit terms, free delivery terms, etc.)

(f) If you are a leased department, the name and address of the prior lessee.

(b) Applications for markups in excess of those specified in Appendix E. You may not sell at markups in excess of those specified in Appendix E until you have received authorization to do so. (1) Eligibility. If you are a seller who fixes ceiling prices under paragraph (a) of this section, you may apply to the Office of Price Stabilization office having jurisdiction over the area in which your business is located for authorization to use markups in excess of those set forth in Appendix E, if:

(i) You already own one or more established stores selling merchandise covered by this regulation at markups higher than those set forth in Appendix E; or

(ii) You already own one or more establishments selling articles not covered by this regulation at markups which for such goods represent markups higher than the average markups secured by other sellers of those goods; or

[Subpart (II) amended by Amdt. 9]

(iii) You (if you are an individually owned establishment) or any of the principal stockholders or managing officers had previous experience in selling merchandise covered by this regulation or related commodities as owner, officer, principal, or employee in an executive or managerial capacity in a business handling merchandise covered by this regulation at markups higher than those listed in Appendix E and have not operated at or below markups set forth in Appendix E since the list date.

(2) Filing and contents of applications. The application filed with the OPS must set forth the markups applied for and information which would permit determination pursuant to the rules of eligibility set forth above.

(3) Authorization. (i) Upon application made pursuant to subparagraph (2) the OPS may, by order, authorize you to use markups higher than those listed in Appendix E. Such markups will be in line with those of sellers most nearly like you in your trading area but not higher than your own past experience and in no case (except in an OPS district or resort center where the average of markups is unusually high) will markups be authorized which exceed the highest markups at or below which those sellers comprising three-fourths of the sellers covered by the regulation operate.

(c) Applications by certain sellers who sell exclusively in sets (groups of articles) to which services have been added—(1) Eligibility. If prior to February 24, 1951, you have been engaged in the business of assembling, packaging, and selling sets (groups of articles) to which you have added services the cost of which is more than 10 percent of the total of the net costs of the constituent articles of the assembled sets, you may apply to your OPS office for a pricing method for the sale of your assembled sets. You must file two (2) copies of an application containing the following information:

(i) Your name and address;

(ii) Date when you entered business;

(iii) Description of manner in which you conduct your business (indicating whether you are a department store, a leased department, a specialty store, or other; cash, installment or other terms; and class of merchandise you handle);

(iv) A list of all sets offered by you for sale on the list date, enumerating for each the articles included in each set, the cost of each set, the cost of each article, the cost of services added by you on each set, and the selling price of each set on the list date; and

(v) Substantiating evidence such as advertisements, catalogs, or prospectuses to show that you sold or offered for sale the sets (listed under (iv)) on the list date.

(2) Authorization. Upon application made pursuant to subparagraph (2), the OPS may, by order, permit you to add to the total of the net costs of the constituent articles the cost of the services you provide (packaging, monogramming, etc.) and a markup in line with the level of prices established by this regulation.

(d) Applications by sellers who repair or recondition. If you do not have a list date pricing chart and you are in or propose to enter the business of regularly buying (or taking in as trade-ins) used or imperfect articles for the purpose of reconditioning them and selling them as reconditioned or repaired, you may apply to your OPS office for a pricing method which will reflect your costs of repairing or reconditioning the articles which you sell. In such a case the OPS may, by order, permit you to add to the ceiling price established under this regulation the actual net cost of reconditioning or repairing the articles which you sell. In no case shall the cost of reconditioning or repairing include a cost greater than that required to restore the article to a factory standard article of the same type.

Article IV—Ceiling Prices in Special Cases

SEC. 40. "Up stream" and "cross stream" sales and sales of "cross stream" articles to ultimate consumers. If your sales to persons other than ultimate consumers constitute less than 10% of your total sales of articles covered by this regulation you are governed by this regulation as to those sales and your ceiling prices for those sales are computed under this section.

(a) Ceiling prices for "up stream" sales. Your ceiling price for a sale of any article covered by this regulation to any person other than an individual ultimate consumer, another retailer, or an industrial, commercial, or institutional user, is the net cost of that article to you.

(b) Ceiling prices for "cross stream" sales. (1) Your ceiling price for a sale to another retailer of any article covered by this regulation shall be the sum of the following items:

(i) the net cost of the article to you (which, as defined in Section 31 excludes any freight, OPS adjustment charge or handling charge);

(ii) the incoming freight allocable to that article which you have paid in addition to the net cost;

(iii) the OPS adjustment charge, if any, shown on the invoice received by you;

(iv) the handling charge, if any, which you customarily made when selling articles covered by this regulation to another retailer immediately prior to January 26, 1951. In no event, however, may your handling charge exceed 10 percent of the net cost of the article to you.

You must give to the buyer an invoice which must state separately each item making up your costs as itemized in this subparagraph (1) and, in addition, must contain the following notice:

NOTICE

You must compute the price for resale of the above articles pursuant to section 40 (c) of Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

(2) If you customarily made sales of commodities covered by this regulation to other retailers immediately prior to January 26, 1951, on which you figured your price by granting a specific discount from your retail price, you may continue to make such sales (excepting sales of articles purchased by you from other retailers). On such sales you must furnish the buyer with an invoice, which, in addition to showing your retail price as established by this regulation and the discount you granted, must contain the following notice:

NOTICE OF CEILING PRICE

Under Section 40 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7 you may not sell the above articles to consumers at prices higher than our retail ceiling shown on this invoice.

(c) Ceiling prices for sales to ultimate consumers of articles purchased from other retailers. (1) If you purchase articles covered by this regulation from another retailer and pay the seller his costs permitted to him under paragraph (b) (1), you must determine your ceiling price for sales of these articles to ultimate consumers in accordance with the pricing rules of this regulation taking your net cost from your supplier's invoice and excluding all freight, OPS adjustment charge and handling charges.

(2) If you purchase articles covered by this regulation and pay the seller his retail price less a specified discount, you must use as your ceiling price for sales of those articles to ultimate consumers the seller's retail price as stated on his invoice to you.

(d) Articles acquired by transfer from another seller in the same selling establishment. If one department or part of the same legal entity acquired an article by a transfer from another part of the same legal entity, the transferee pricing such an article must use as his net cost the net cost determined from the invoice received by the transferor.

The document covering the transfer must show the original invoice cost and must be preserved for inspection by the OPS.

SEC. 41. Pricing methods for certain chain stores and mail order establishments. Special pricing methods for certain chain stores and mail order establishments are provided in Supplementary Regulation 1 to this Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

SEC. 42. Transfers of business—(a) How a transferee fixes his ceiling prices. This section applies to you if:

(1) After the list date, you purchase or otherwise acquire a substantial part of the business, assets, or stock in trade of any business which sells or sold any articles covered by this regulation at retail; and

(2) You carry on the business or continue to sell at retail articles in any category covered by this regulation and sold by your transferor before the transfer; and

(3) You carry on the business or continue to sell in a store separate from any other store previously owned or operated by you for the sale of such articles at retail. If this section applies to you, your ceiling prices are the same as those which your transferor would have had if the transfer had not taken place (except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section). Your obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same as if the transfer had not taken place. The transferor must either preserve and make available to you or turn over to you all records of transactions before the transfer which you need to comply with this regulation.

(b) Filing charts. If your transferor has not already filed a chart, you must prepare a chart based on his experience on the list date, using the list date which he would have used if no transfer had occurred. If your transferor has filed a chart, you must file a statement showing your business name and address and the date of the transfer. (You must attach a copy of this statement to the chart in your possession.) If the transferor's records are not available to you, you must fix your ceiling prices under section 39.

(c) Mergers and combinations. If, after the list date, two or more sellers merge, consolidate, or combine and continue operations as one seller, the seller who continues to operate shall fix his ceiling prices under this regulation on the same basis as that which the seller who had the largest dollar volume of sales of articles covered by this regulation during the 12 months immediately preceding the merger or combination would have had to follow.

SEC. 43. Uniform dollar-and-cents prices for certain articles. (a) How prices are established. The OPS may by order, upon application, establish dollar-and-cent retail ceiling prices for branded articles and ceiling prices for sales at wholesale for the same articles whenever it appears that:

(1) The article (or an article of the same type) was sold at retail at substantially uniform prices for a period immediately prior to January 26, 1951. The OPS may establish uniform retail ceiling prices for any article if the applicant has received or is eligible to receive an order under this section for any of his articles.

If the applicant had a policy of uniform retail prices for his branded merchandise and can show that the article was sold at substantially uniform prices except for a limited area, the OPS may establish uniform retail ceiling prices for the article. Uniform retail ceiling prices may be established for separate zones (not to exceed five zones) where the applicant can show that such differential was maintained as part of his uniform pricing policy immediately prior to January 26, 1951.

(2) The price requested for the article is no higher than the existing level of ceiling prices under this regulation.

Orders issued under this section will remain effective unless revoked or suspended by the Director. Orders may be revoked or suspended only if the Director is satisfied that such revocation or suspension is not inconsistent with the effective control of prices.

(3) If the applicant had a policy of uniform prices for sales at wholesale for his branded merchandise for a period immediately prior to January 26, 1951 and can establish that the merchandise when resold at wholesale was sold at substantially uniform prices, except for a limited area, the OPS in establishing uniform retail ceiling prices for the merchandise may also establish uniform resale wholesale ceiling prices for the merchandise.

[Paragraph (a) amended by Amdt. 4. Subparagraph (3) added by Amdt 4]

(b) What the order may contain. (1) An order may be issued under this section establishing uniform ceiling prices for all retail sales or sales at wholesale of an article covered by this regulation, although such sales may not otherwise be subject to this regulation.

[Subparagraph (1) amended by Amdt. 4]

(2) An order issued under this section generally will include a provision requiring the applicant to tag or ticket the article with the retail ceiling price and other specified information.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Amdt. 4]

(3) An order issued under this section will require the applicant to send copies of the order and any subsequent amendments thereto to those purchasers for resale of the articles covered by the order.

(4) An order issued under this section will ordinarily be in the form of applicant's selling price and retail ceiling price relationships. Such an order will ordinarily require the applicant to submit, from time to time as specified in the order, a description of the articles which he is pricing pursuant to the terms of the order, changes in his prices to his customers, and any other information that may be required by the terms of the order. Such an order in appropriate instances may also establish wholesale ceiling prices.

[Subparagraph (4) amended by Amdt. 4]

(c) Who may apply. (1) A manufacturer or a wholesaler of a branded article may apply under this section if he can submit the information required by paragraph (d).

(2) A group of manufacturers selling the same article under the same brand name may apply as a group under this section if they can submit the information required by paragraph (d).

(d) What the application must contain. Two copies of each application must be filed with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C. The application must contain the following:

(1) Business name and address of the applicant.

(2) A complete identification of the article for which the price is sought including:

(i) The brand name identifying the article and its style or lot number.

(ii) Applicant's ceiling price.

(iii) An identification of the regulation and the section in that regulation or the identification of the order issued by the OPS under which his ceiling price was established.

(iv) His invoice price and terms to various classes of retailers and wholesalers.

(v) His suggested retail price, if any, immediately prior to January 26, 1951. (If he had a suggested retail price prior to January 26, 1951 he should submit evidence to show his method of retail price maintenance, such as national advertising, catalogues sent to retailers, advertising mats furnished retailers, etc. If he had no suggested retail price prior to January 26, 1951, or did not attempt to enforce his suggested retail price, but can show that the article was sold at substantially uniform prices, he should submit a list of the names and addresses, giving their retail selling price of the article immediately prior to January 26, 1951 of all of his retail customers in fifteen cities representing a cross section of his customers.)

(vi) His suggested price for sales at wholesale, if any, immediately prior to January 26, 1951 (including evidence to show his method of price maintenance), or if he had no such suggested price prior to January 26, 1951, or did not attempt to enforce such suggested price but can show that the merchandise was sold at substantially uniform prices, he should submit evidence similar to that specified for retail prices in subdivision (v) of this subparagraph.

[Subparagraph (2) amended by Amdt. 4; subpart (vi) added by Amdt. 4]

(3) The uniform retail and wholesale ceiling prices requested for the article.

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Amdt. 4]

(4) In the case of wholesalers applying under this section, the name and address of the manufacturer of the article and the manufacturer's style or lot numbers.

(5) In the case of a group of manufacturers applying for a single order covering the articles manufactured in common by the group, the application must contain, in addition to the requirements of sub-paragraph (2) above, evidence to show that each manufacturer of the group, who sold the article, maintained the same retail prices on the same article with the same brand.

Article V—General Provisions

SEC. 50. How to treat taxes. The ceiling prices determined under the pricing rules in this regulation are your ceiling prices exclusive of tax. If a tax on a particular sale or delivery such as a sales tax or a compensating use tax is imposed and the tax law permits the tax to be separately stated, you may charge or collect the tax on the sale or delivery of the article in addition to the ceiling price fixed under the pricing rules. You must state the tax separately.

SEC. 51. Marking, tagging or posting. On and after July 1, 1951, you may not offer or sell any article covered by this regulation unless it is marked or tagged with the selling price in a manner plainly visible to, and understandable by, the purchasing public.

(a) Marking. You may mark the selling price on the shelf, bin, rack, or other holder or container upon or in which the article is kept provided all the articles kept on, or in the shelf, bin, rack, holder or container have the same selling price.

(b) Tagging. If you do not wish to mark the prices as described in (a) you must mark the selling price on each article itself by writing the price directly on the article or by attaching to the article a tag or ticket stating the selling price.

(c) Posting. On and after July 1, 1951, you may not offer or sell any article covered by this regulation unless you post in a prominent and clearly visible position in your store, a sign stating the following:

NOTICE

The prices of merchandise in this store are no higher than the OPS ceiling prices of the articles.

(d) Rule for mail order establishments. Mail order establishments must mark their ceiling prices for articles listed in printed price lists which have been printed after the list date in either of the following ways:

(1) State the ceiling price for each article covered by this regulation and listed in the price list, at the place in the publication where the article is listed.

(2) Print on the front cover of each printed price list (or on the front page of any list that has no cover) the following statement:

NOTICE

No price for any article listed or described herein exceeds the ceiling price for that article, as determined under the applicable OPS ceiling price regulation.

SEC. 52. Records. The records required by this section must be kept for as long as the Defense Production Act of 1950 remains in effect and for two years thereafter. All such records must be kept at your store, except in the case of certain chain stores for which special record keeping requirements are provided in Supplementary Regulation 1 to this regulation.

(a) List date records. You must preserve for inspection by the OPS:

(1) All records which you were required to prepare and preserve pursuant to section 16 (a) (1) and (4) of the General Ceiling Price Regulation[14] relating to articles covered by this regulation;

(2) All records relating to articles covered by this regulation which you were required to prepare and keep pursuant to section 16 (b) of the General Ceiling Price Regulation[15] from January 26, 1951, to the date you begin pricing under this regulation, not later than May 30, 1951;

[Subparagraph (3) amended by Amdts. 1 and 4]

(3) The last invoice which you received before the list date for each kind, style, model, or lot number of the articles offered for sale by you on the list date, and all other invoices which you used in preparing your list date chart; and

(4) All other records and data, such as sales slips, inventory records or work sheets, used by you in preparing your chart or showing your costs and offering prices on the list date.

(b) Current records—(1) Obtaining and preserving invoices. On and after February 27, 1951, you must obtain a purchase invoice (or some other record of cost) and preserve the purchase invoices (or other cost record) which you received for all articles covered by this regulation. You must keep these invoices according to some recognized filing system, such as alphabetical, numerical, or chronological order. Upon request of any authorized agent of the OPS, you must let him examine your purchase invoices for any articles covered by this regulation.

(2) "Retailing" invoices. Before selling or offering for sale any article covered by this regulation which is delivered to you on or after February 27, 1951, you must "retail" the invoice, that is, you must mark your first selling price for each article on the invoice covering your purchase of the article, and the number of the section or the pricing rules under this regulation, or the special order or other order under which you figured your ceiling price for the article. The pricing rule and method may be stated merely as "Rule 1" or "Rule 3" or "Rule 6."

If the invoice does not state the quantity of each article, style, model or lot number which it covers, you must also enter the quantity on each invoice.

(3) Preserving sales slips. If you customarily prepared your sales slips in more than one copy, you must preserve for at least six months after delivery a duplicate copy of each sales slip delivered by you pursuant to section 54.

(4) Listing items in General Category not enumerated in category or on chart. If you fix ceiling prices for articles in a "general" category (as described in Appendix B) not specifically listed in that category and not offered for sale by you on the list date, you must prepare and preserve with your chart a list of such articles designating as to each the general category in which you placed the item.

SEC. 53. Records and reports of initial markups or gross margins—(a) Records and reports of initial percentage markups—(1) Records.

(i) Base period records of initial percentage markups. If you use the so-called "retail method" of accounting, or if you have other records from which the following information can be readily computed, you must preserve for inspection the data showing for each of the smallest subdivisions of your business (such as department, subdepartment, or store) for which you have such records:

(a) Your initial percentage markup on total purchases (not including opening inventory) for the calendar quarter beginning July 1, 1949 (or if your fiscal fiscal quarter beginning nearest to July quarters begin on some other date, the 1, 1949); and

(b) The corresponding initial percentage markup for each of the subsequent three calendar or fiscal quarters.

(ii) Current records of initial percentage makup. You must continue to prepare and preserve such records for the same periods and on the same accounting basis as you used in maintaining the records upon which the reports required in paragraph (2) (i) below are based.

(2) Reports.

(i) Base period reports of initial percentage markups. If you have the records required by paragraph (a) (1) (i) above you must prepare two copies of a report labelled "Initial Percentage Markups Report," listing your name and address and the initial percentage markup for each subdivision of your business for which you have such records for the periods described in paragraph (a) (1) (i). You must file one copy of this report with your list date chart and keep the other available for inspection by the OPS.[16]

(ii) Current reports of initial percentage markups. If you have filed a report of your initial percentage markup under paragraph (a) (2) (i) above for any subdivision of your business you must file a similar report for any succeeding period in which your initial percentage markup for that subdivision exceeds your base period markup for the comparable period. The report must also indicate the period which it covers, the current initial percentage markup, and the number of percentage points by which the

"Sec. 16. Records. This section tells you what records you must preserve and what additional records you must prepare.

"(a) Base period records.

"(1) You must preserve and keep available for examination by the Director of Price Stabilization those records in your possession showing the prices charged by you for the commodities or services which you delivered or offered to deliver during the base period, and also sufficient records to establish the latest net cost incurred by you prior to the end of the base period in purchasing the commodities (if you are a wholesaler or retailer). • • •

"(4) You must also prepare and preserve a statement of your customary price differentials for terms and conditions of sale and classes of purchasers, which you had in effect during the base period."

[15] The pertinent section follows: "(b) Current records. If you sell commodities or services covered by this regulation you must prepare and keep available for examination by the Director of Price Stabilization for a period of two years, records of the kind which you customarily keep showing the prices which you charge for the commodities or services. In addition, you must prepare and preserve records indicating clearly, the basis upon which you have determined the ceiling price for any commodities or services not delivered by you or offered for delivery during the base period. If you are a retailer you are required to preserve your purchase invoices and to record thereon both your initial selling price and the section of this regulation under which you have determined your ceiling price."

[16] This report may be filed on OPS Public Form No. 3, available at OPS local or regional Offices.

current initial percentage markup exceeds the base period. All such reports must be filed with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., within 45 days from the close of the period.

(b) Records and reports of gross margin—(1) Records—(i) Base period records of gross margin. If you do not keep the records described in paragraph (a) (1) (i) above and your annual dollar volume of articles covered by this regulation exceeds $50,000 00 for the calendar year 1949 or your fiscal year beginning nearest to June 1, 1949, you must preserve for inspection the data showing for each of the smallest subdivisions of your business (such as d partment, subdepartment or store) for which you have such records, as follows:

(a) Your quarterly percentage of gross margin for the calendar quarter beginning July 1, 1949 (or if your fiscal quarter begins on some other date, the fiscal quarter beginning nearest to July 1, 1949).

(b) The corresponding percent of gross margin for each of the subsequent three calendar or fiscal quarters.

(c) If you do not have monthly or quarterly records of gross margin your percentage of gross margin for the calendar year 1949 or your fiscal year beginning nearest to June 1, 1949.

"Gross margin" as used in this regulation is found as follows:

Step 1. Add the invoice cost of your beginning inventory for the reporting period and the invoice cost of your total purchases for the reporting period.

Step 2 Subtract the cost of your ending inventory from the total found in Step 1. The result is cost of goods sold.

Step 3. Subtract the cost of goods sold found in Step 2 from your total sales. The result is your dolla gross margin.

Step 4. Divide the dollar gross margin by your total sales. This is your percentage gross margin on sales.

Example: Period—January 1, 1949–December 31, 1949.

Step 1:
Beginning inventory	$100,000
Total purchases	250,000
Total	350,000
Step 2:
Ending inventory	−90,000
Cost of goods sold	260,000
Step 3:
Total sales	395,000
Cost of goods sold	−260,000
Gross dollar margin	135,000

Step 4: 135,000 ÷ 395,000 = 34.2% = Percentage gross margin on sales.

(ii) Current records of gross margin. You must continue to prepare and preserve such records for the same periods, that is quarter-year or annual and on the same accounting basis as you used in maintaining the records upon which the reports required in paragraph (2) (i) below are based.

(2) Reports—(i) Base period reports of gross margin. If you are covered by paragraph (b) (1) (i) above you must prepare two copies of a report labelled "Gross Margin Report," listing your name and address and the gross margin percentages for each of the subdivisions of your business for which you have such records for the periods described in that paragraph. You must file one copy of this report with your list date chart and keep the other available for inspection by the OPS.[17]

(ii) Current reports of gross margin. If you have filed a report of your gross margin under (i) above for any subdivision of your business you must file a similar report for any succeeding period in which your gross margin percentage for that subdivision exceeds your base period gross margin percentage. This report must indicate the period which it covers, the current gross margin, and must also state the number of percentage points by which the current report exceeds the base period report. All such reports must be filed with the Distribution Price Branch, Office of Price Stabilization, Washington 25, D. C., within 75 days of the close of the period.

[Subpart 2 amended by Amdt. 1]

SEC. 54. Sales slips. If you customarily gave your customers a sales slip, receipt, or similar evidence of purchase you must continue to do so. Upon request from a customer, regardless of previous custom, you shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, your name and address, a description of each article sold and the price received for it.

SEC. 55. What acts are prohibited by this regulation. On and after February 27, 1951, regardless of any contract or other obligation, the following practices are forbidden:

(a) Charging more than ceiling prices. You are prohibited from selling or delivering any article at a price higher than the ceiling price permitted by this regulation. A lower price may, of course, be charged.

(b) Buying for more than ceiling price. You are prohibited from buying or receiving, in the course of trade or business, any article sold in violation of any of the provisions of this regulation.

(c) Changing customary terms of sale. You are prohibited from changing your customary terms, discounts, allowances, or price differentials on sales of articles, if the change results in a higher net price. This includes differentials allowed to cash purchasers by sellers who customarily extend credit.

(d) Combination sales. You are prohibited from requiring any purchaser to buy or agree to buy any other article, service, package, or wrapper in connection with the sale or delivery of any article covered by this regulation. Every person is likewise prohibited from making a sale of articles which is conditioned directly or indirectly on the purchase of any other commodity or service. (Matched sets, however, if designed by the manufacturer for sale at a unit price, and so purchased by you, may be sold at a unit price; matched groupings of furniture articles (covered by categories 701–752) may also be sold at a unit price as suites or sets, if all the articles in the grouping were produced by the same manufacturer; and sets priced pursuant to Section 39 (c) may be sold at a unit price.)

(e) Indirect price increases. You are prohibited from doing any other act which directly or indirectly increases, above the ceiling price, the consideration paid for any article or delivery of any article, or, for the purposes of evading the price limitations set forth in this regulation, to purchase, deliver, contract, deal or otherwise operate with or through any other person under common control with, controlled by, controlling, or otherwise affiliated with you. You shall not do any other act which directly or indirectly increases the consideration paid for any article. Any practice which is a device to secure the effect of a higher-than-ceiling price is as much a violation as an outright sale above the ceiling price.

(f) Attempts to violate. Every person is prohibited from agreeing, offering, soliciting, or attempting to do any of the acts prohibited by this regulation.

SEC. 56. Enforcement. Any person who violates any provision of this regulation is subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for damages, provided by the Defense Production Act of 1950.

SEC. 57. Petitions to amend this regulation. Any person may file a petition for an amendment of general applicability to any provision of this regulation in accordance with the provisions of Price Procedural Regulation No. 1.

SEC. 58. Supplementary regulations modifying this regulation. The provisions of this regulation, as applied to certain commodities or persons subject to this regulation, may be modified by Supplementary Regulations issued under this section.

SEC. 59. Definitions:

"Accommodation sale" means a sale made entirely without profit, solely for the benefit or convenience of the purchaser. For example, a sale by an employer to his employees, or by a school to its students—and not for the purpose of promoting trade is an accommodation sale. It does not include sales by cooperative, nonprofit, or other organizations which make sales initially above cost, but later give refunds, bonuses, dividends, or other allowances to purchasers.

"Buy and sell in substantially the same form." An article is bought and sold in substantially the same form if the article which you sell belongs to the same category as the article you bought and, except as provided in section 38 and section 39 (d) (pricing of repaired or reconditioned articles) if, before offering it for sale you have not added to the article you sell, materials which cost you more than 10 percent of the net cost (as defined in section 31) of the original article.

"Director of Price Stabilization." This term extends to any official (including officials of regional or local offices) to whom the Director of Price Stabilization by order delegates the function, power or authority referred to in this regulation.

"Mail order establishment" means a person who regularly makes deliveries by mail to individual ultimate consumers in response to orders received by mail on the basis of catalogs, booklets, circulars, flyers or other forms of printed price lists.

"Office of Price Stabilization." Wherever the Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) is referred to in connection with some action to be taken it means action by the Director of Price Stabilization.

"Person." A person includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association or other organized groups of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing and includes the United States, any agent thereof, any other government, or any of its subdivisions, and any agency of the foregoing.

"Purchaser of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller in selling different prices for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers (for example, manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber, retailer, government agency, public institution or individual consumer) or for purchasers located in different areas or for purchasers of different quantities or grades or under different conditions of sale.

"Records" includes books of account, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, invoices, bills of lading, and other papers and documents.

"Sale at retail" or "retailer." "Selling at retail" means a sale or selling to an ultimate consumer (including an industrial or commercial user) of an article which you buy and sell in substantially the same form. A seller who in the regular course of business makes sales at retail is a retailer.

"Sell" includes sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale," "selling," "sold," "seller," "buy," "purchase," and "purchaser," shall be construed accordingly. Nothing in this regulation shall be construed to prohibit the making of a contract to sell an article at a price not to exceed the ceiling price at the time of delivery.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Effective date: This regulation shall become effective on the 27th day of February 1951.

MICHAEL V. DISALLE,
Director of Price Stabilization.

APPENDIX B

What Commodities Are Covered by This Regulation

This appendix describes the articles covered by this regulation. These articles are grouped into "categories," each of which is given a number in this appendix. Paragraph (A) lists some categories of apparel and apparel accessories. Paragraph (B) lists the categories of piece goods and certain household textile commodities covered. Paragraph (C) lists the categories of certain consumer durable goods covered. Paragraph (D) lists women's, misses', teens', girls' and toddlers' apparel.

Each category is intended to be a "general" category unless designated as "specific" category. A "specific" category is one which includes only the articles that are specifically listed for that category. A "general" category is one which includes not only the articles that are specifically listed for that category but also all other related articles that fall within the general category description and are not listed in any other category in this appendix. In making your chart you must include in a "general" category all the articles listed in that category; you must include in addition all other related articles that fall within the general description and are not listed in any other category.

If you buy together at a unit price two or more articles (unless the combination is listed in a particular category) place the combination in the category of the article which bears the greatest percentage of the cost price of the combination.

(A) Categories of Apparel and Apparel Accessories

(1) Masculine Apparel and Apparel Accessories.

Certain categories are for men only and certain ones for boys only. There are some categories that apply to both men and boys apparel, and some categories which apply to men, women and children. No categories include sizes commonly known as toddlers' or infants'.

*You establish a price for a straw hat (Category 123A) by pricing it as if it belonged to Category 123. After you have found the price under the appropriate pricing rule as if the straw hat belonged to Category 123, you may add 8% of that selling price to the selling price and the result is your ceiling price for the straw hat.

Example: If you are pricing a straw hat, Category 123A, having a net cost of $3.00, you look at your chart for Category 123. Assume there is a net cost of $3.00 and an offering price of $5.00 on your chart for Category 123. Your ceiling price for the straw hat will be $5.00 plus 8% of $5.00 (5.00+.40). Thus the ceiling price will be $5.40.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 7, Amendment 6]

CPR 7—RETAIL CEILING PRICES FOR CERTAIN CONSUMER GOODS

CHANGES AFFECTING NEW SELLERS, JEWELRY RETAILERS, AND MINOR CORRECTIONS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Amendment 6 to Ceiling Price Regulation 7 (16 F. R. 1872) is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Retailers handling sterling and plated flatware, hollowware, silverware accessory items, and jewelry, watches and clocks, customarily determine their markups without deducting their cash discounts from their invoices. Retailers handling these categories also customarily enter a large percentage of their invoices in a register which provides a record of their cost information and a ready reference to their invoices. The Office of Price Stabilization wishes to preserve customary business practices to the greatest extent possible and to impose a minimum of new record-keeping requirements on the retailer in connection with ceiling price regulations.

Accordingly, under this amendment retailers handling Categories 940 through 943 and 970 through 985 are permitted to prepare their charts and to price without deducting cash discounts from their invoice costs and to use their purchase registers instead of the actual invoices.

Under the regulation a new seller is required to price pursuant to Appendix "E" markups or to apply for markups in line with his experience not to exceed the markups at which three-quarters of all sellers operate. The planning of a new retail store frequently starts months before its opening. This is, of course, true where a building is constructed for the purpose. There are a large number of cases where merchants have made commitments for the purchase of their merchandise and for the purchase of their fixtures and equipment and for the alteration of their building or leased premises a number of months before the issuance of Ceiling Price Regulation 7. Likewise, these retailers may have planned the selling prices of their merchandise to conform with the prices in other units of their organization for a period of months prior to the issuance of Ceiling Price Regulation 7. For retailers who had partially executed plans for opening stores, as set forth in the amendment prior to March 31, 1951, this amendment removes the limitation that markups not exceed those at which three-fourths of all sellers under the regulation operate.

The amendment also deletes from classification 4 of Category 908 the specifically enumerated items "cleansers" and "powders." This is being done in view of the fact that another method of price control for the bulk of these household cleansers and powders is contemplated by the Office of Price Stabilization. Meanwhile, sellers who do not elect to continue pricing these articles under their charts will price under the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

This amendment also supplies a method for pricing articles acquired prior to February 27, 1951, for which a seller has no invoice or other cost record and makes several minor corrections in the regulation.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 7 is amended in the following respects:

1. In footnote 2, section 11, substitute for the word "separate" in the second sentence the word "single."

2. In section 13 (d) in the column labeled "over," insert between the figures 100,000 and 500,000 the figure "300,000," and in the column "up to and including" insert between the figure 300,000 and the figure 1,000,000 the figure "500,000."

3. In section 16 (a) insert after the parenthesis in the first sentence the footnote designation "3a" and insert footnote 3a as follows:

[3a] An alternative method for preparing charts for and pricing Categories 940 through 943 and 970 through 985 which permits discounts for prompt payment (cash discounts) not to be deducted from net invoice cost and which permits the use of a cost record other than an invoice in certain instances is provided in Supplementary Regulation 2 to this regulation.

4. In section 31, after the phrase "all discounts you could have taken," insert the footnote designation "9a" and insert footnote 9a to read as follows:

[9a] An alternative method for pricing Categories 940 to 943 and 970 to 985 which permits discounts for prompt payment (cash discounts) not to be deducted is provided in Supplementary Regulation 2 to this regulation.

5. A new section 38a is added to read as follows:

SEC. 38a. Rule 8: Pricing method for articles acquired before February 27, 1951, and for which seller has no cost record. If the article you are pricing is one which you acquired prior to February 27, 1951, and for which you have no cost record, your ceiling price for that article is the ceiling price as determined under the General Ceiling Price Regulation. This pricing method may not be used for any article acquired after February 27, 1951.

6. In section 39, in the first sentence, change the number 38 to 38a.

7. Section 39 (b) (3) (i) is amended by inserting within the parentheses after the word "high" the phrase "or, except as permitted in subdivision (ii),"

8. A new subdivision (ii) is added to section 39 (b) (3) to read as follows:

(ii) The limitation in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph on authorization of markups which exceed the highest markup at or below which those sellers comprising three-fourths of the sellers covered by the regulation operate shall not apply to any seller who, with his application under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, files a certification that prior to March 31, 1951, he had taken one of the following steps with respect to the store as to which the certification is made:

(a) That he had actually commenced construction of the store building; or

(b) That he had made an irrevocable written commitment for alterations or improvements of the store building or for the installation of a substantial amount of fixtures and equipment; or

(c) That he had made an irrevocable written commitment for the purchase of not less than 25 percent of his planned opening inventory.

9. In section 50, delete the last sentence reading as follows: "You must state the tax separately."

10. In Appendix B in Category 908 delete from Classification 4 the items "cleansers" and "powders."

11. In Appendix C insert between the line for Category 403 and Category 406 the following:

Category you are pricing	Comparable categories
	First	Second	Third
405	406	407	408

CPR 7—RETAIL CEILING PRICES FOR CONSUMER GOODS

SR 2—ALTERNATIVE METHODS FOR PREPARING LIST DATE PRICING CHARTS AND PRICING

SILVER, JEWELRY, WATCHES, AND CLOCKS

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Amendment 1 to Supplementary Regulation 2 of Ceiling Price Regulation 7 (16 F. R. 1897) is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment reflects action taken in an amendment to Celing Price Regulation 7 issued simultaneously herewith. The grounds for the changes in preparing charts and pricing jewelery, watches, clocks, and silverware permitted by this amendment are stated in the concurrently issued amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

AMENDATORY PROVISION

Supplementary Regulation 2 is amended by adding thereto a new section 6 to read as follows:

SEC. 6. Modified method for preparing charts and pricing in Categories 940 through 943 and 970 through 985. If you handle Categories 940 through 943 and 970 through 985, you may modify the requirements of Ceiling Price Regulation 7 as permitted in this section with respect to the use of invoices and the determination of "net cost." You may determine net cost without deduction of discounts for prompt payment (cash discounts) provided you determine net cost in the same way for each item in the category and provided you note on your chart beside the category number in Column 1 the phrase "no cash discounts." If you compute net cost in this way in preparing your chart for these categories, you must also compute net cost for articles in these categories the same way in pricing under Ceiling Price Regulation 7.

You may also, wherever in Ceiling Price Regulation 7 use of an invoice is required, substitute for the invoice any registry record maintained by you in the regular course of business, provided the registry record contains the information which would otherwise be obtained from an invoice and also contains a reference to the invoice which makes it possible to refer to the invoice itself. If you use a registry entry in lieu of an invoice, you must list in Column 5, in lieu of the invoice, the word "registry" and an identification, either by number or date, of the entry in your registry record. You must, of course, preserve your invoices as required in section 52 of the regulation.

NOTE: The record-keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget, in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

(Sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.)

Effective date. This amendment shall become effective on the 1st day of June 1951.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 11, Amdt. 2]

CPR 11—RESTAURANTS

BASE PERIOD

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Amendment 2 to CPR 11 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 11 is issued for the purpose of clarifying the base period provision of the regulation for those eating and drinking establishments which customarily have kept their accounting records on a thirteen period year of four weeks each instead of on a twelve-month year.

This amendment is designed to permit such operators to continue their established accounting practices and still come within the meaning of the regulation. The amendment provides that these operators may use as their base period a thirteen period year equivalent to the fifty-two week year of the calendar year 1949 or the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950. For the purpose of compliance a current "food cost per dollar of sales" ratio for any four-month period must be based on a period of sixteen weeks rather than on a full four-month period.

In the formulation of this amendment, special circumstances have rendered impractical consultation with official advisory committees, including trade association representatives; however, the provisions of this amendment incorporate the recommendations of persons representing substantial segments of the industry. In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this amendment are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title VI of the Defense Production Act of 1950.

So far as practicable the Director of Price Stabilization gave due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objective of the Defense Production Act of 1950; to prices prevailing during the period from May 24, 1950 to June 24, 1950, inclusive, and to relevant factors of general applicability.

AMENDATORY PROVISIONS

Ceiling Price Regulation 11, as amended, is further amended in the following respects:

1. Paragraph (a) of section 3 is amended by deleting the second sentence thereof and substituting therefor a new sentence to read as follows: You must fix your prices so as to maintain during each four month period (or during each sixteen week period if it was your established accounting practice during your base period to keep your records on the basis of a thirteen period year rather than a twelve month year), beginning April 1, 1951, no lower "food cost per dollar of sales" than you had in your base period.

2. Paragraph (c) of section 3 is amended by deleting the present paragraph (c) and substituting therefor a new paragraph to read as follows:

(c) Duty to lower prices if in violation. If your "food cost per dollar of sales" is too low at the end of any one four month period (or any one sixteen week period), you are in violation of this regulation and subject to the penalties prescribed in the Defense Production Act of 1950. Moreover, until you are in compliance you shall not charge a higher price for any food or beverage item than the price charged for that item during the period when the violation occurred. In order to be in compliance, you must adjust your prices during the next four month period (or the next sixteen week period) so that the "food cost per dollar of sales" computed for that four month period (or the next sixteen week period) and for the eight month period (or for the thirty-two week period) is in balance. If you are still out of balance, you must continue to adjust your prices during each succeeding four month period (or each succeeding sixteen week period) until you are in compliance for the full period.

3. Paragraph (d) of section 3 is amended by deleting the present paragraph (d) and substituting therefor a new paragraph (d) as follows:

(d) Seasonal operators. If your "food cost per dollar of sales" varies seasonally, you may use a monthly basis for determining your "food cost per dollar of sales" using for each current month the corresponding month during the twelve month period selected by you as your base period. If it has been your established accounting practice during your base period to keep your records on the basis of a thirteen period year rather than a twelve month year you may use a four week month as the basis for determining your "food cost per dollar of sales" using for each current four week month the corresponding four week month during the thirteen period year selected by you as your base period. You must, however, still be in compliance at the end of each four month period (or each sixteen week period) commencing April 1, 1951.

4. Paragraph (f) of section 3, as amended, is further amended by deleting the present paragraph (f) and substituting therefor a new paragraph (f) to read as follows:

(f) Base-period. Your base period is the calendar year 1949 or the twelve month period ending June 30, 1950. If it was your established accounting practice during your base period to keep your records on the basis of a thirteen period year rather than a twelve month year, you may use as your base period a thirteen period year equivalent to the fifty-two week year of the calendar year 1949 or the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950. Once you have chosen your base period, you may not change it.

5. Subparagraph 2 of paragraph (a) of section 4, as amended, is further amended to read as follows:

(2) A statement whether you elect the entire calendar year 1949 or the entire twelve month period July 1, 1949, to June 30, 1950, as your base period, and whether you want to compute your ratio on a monthly basis. Once you have chosen your base period and whether to compute your ratio on a monthly or annual basis, you may not change your base period option. If you were not in operation for the entire twelve month period ending June 30, 1950, you shall use as your base period that portion of the period ending June 30, 1950, during which you were in operation and compute your ratio as if on an annual basis. In the event the portion of time you were in operation during the twelve month period ending June 30, 1950, is less than a full four month period you may, at your option, instead of using that portion of time you were in operation prior to July 1, 1950, use as your base period the first full four month period that you were in operation and compute your ratio as if on an annual basis. If it was your established accounting practice during your base period to keep your records on the basis of a thirteen period year rather than a twelve month year, you may continue to do so. In such case your base period year shall consist of thirteen periods of four weeks each instead of twelve full months.

Effective date. This amendment is effective June 9, 1951.

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Supplementary Regulation 32]

GCPR, SR 32—CEILING PRICES OF GREEN SHEEP INTESTINES

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738), this Supplementary Regulation 32 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

Green sheep intestines are used among other things in the manufacture of surgical sutures. This supplementary regulation establishes ceiling prices for sales of these green sheep intestines to manufacturers of surgical sutures and to string makers who supply such manufacturers.

A shortage of green sheep intestines has resulted from the decline of sheep kill in the past year. As a result the manufacturers of sutures and their suppliers who have customarily used only the first nine yards of sheep intestines now need an additional 4½ yards. They are unable to obtain the additional 4½ yards because slaughterers have ceiling prices for sales of that additional 4½ yards to sausage makers higher than those applicable to sales to suture manufacturers or their suppliers. In order to assure an adequate supply of green sheep intestines for surgical sutures, ceiling prices are established in this regulation for sales of the additional 4½ yards of green sheep intestines to manufacturers of surgical sutures or to string makers who supply such manufacturers, comparable to the ceiling prices prevailing under the General Ceiling Price Regulation for sales of the same product to sausage makers.

Ceiling prices for sales of the additional 4½ yards of green sheep intestines to persons other than manufacturers of surgical sutures or to their suppliers continue to be subject to the General Ceiling Price Regulation except that in no event may they exceed those fixed in this supplementary regulation for sales to such manufacturers or their suppliers. This will eliminate any possibility that buyers who use green sheep intestines for other purposes will be able to outbid suture manufacturers or their suppliers.

In formulating this supplementary regulation, the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted with industry representatives and has given full consideration to their recommendations. In his judgment the provisions of this supplementary regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950. So far as practicable, the Director of Price Stabilization gave due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950; to prices prevailing during the period from May 24, 1950, to June 24, 1950, inclusive; and to relevant factors of general applicability.

SECTION 1. What this supplementary regulation does. This supplementary regulation establishes ceiling prices for sales of the first 13½ yards of green sheep intestines to manufacturers of surgical sutures or to string makers who sell processed sheep intestines to such manufacturers.

SEC. 2. Ceiling prices. (a) Your ceiling prices for the sale to manufacturers of surgical sutures or to string makers who sell processed sheep intestines to such manufacturers, of green sheep intestines packed and delivered to such buyers shall be 17 cents for the first nine yards (or a proportionate amount for any fraction thereof) and 4 cents per yard for each additional yard up to 13½ yards.

(b) Your ceiling prices for the sale of green sheep intestines to buyers other than manufacturers of surgical sutures or string makers who sell processed sheep intestines to such manufacturers, shall be your ceiling prices as established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation, except that in no event shall they exceed those established in paragraph (a) of this section.

[General Ceiling Price Regulation, Supplement Regulation 33]

GCPR, SR 33—ADJUSTMENTS IN CEILING PRICES FOR PRIMARY NICKEL PRODUCTS AND FOR ROLLING, MILL, FOUNDRY AND SIMILAR PRODUCTS CONTAINING MORE THAN 5 PERCENT NICKEL.

Pursuant to the Defense Product Act of 1950 (Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738) this Supplementary Regulation 33 to the General Ceiling Price Regulation is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This supplementary regulation increases the ceiling prices established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation for primary nickel products and for rolling, mill, foundry and similar products containing more than 5 percent nickel.

Nickel is a basic industrial material which is essential to our defense program as well as to the civilian economy. Almost all of the nickel used in the United States is produced from Canadian ores and is imported in such primary forms as electrolytic nickel, nickel oxides, and metallic nickel.

The Government of Canada has approved an increase of 6 cents per pound in the price of nickel, effective June 1, 1951. This represents a substantial increase in costs to sellers of primary nickel products in the United States (the prevailing ceiling base price for electrolytic nickel before the issuance of this regulation was 50½ cents per pound, duty included) and it is clear that unless a corresponding adjustment is made in their ceiling prices the maximum flow of vitally needed supplies will be jeopardized. This regulation, therefore, increases by 6 cents per pound of nickel content the ceiling prices for primary nickel products established by the General Ceiling Price Regulation.

This regulation also grants an increase of 6 cents per pound of nickel content in excess of 5 percent in the ceiling prices for rolling mill, foundry, and similar products containing more than 5 percent nickel. This action is considered necessary to avoid any interruption in the output of such products which might result if producers were required to absorb all of the increase in costs resulting from the higher ceiling prices which have been established for primary nickel products. Since the amount of nickel contained in rolling mill, foundry, and similar products varies widely, it is not possible at this time to measure precisely what effect the 5 percent cutoff will have upon producers of these commodities, but it appears that the absorption which will be accomplished will not result in undue hardship. In taking this action, consideration was given to the fact that producers of these products use some nickel scrap and that no change is being made in the ceiling prices for such material.

While a portion of the output of rolling mill, foundry, and similar products is sold by producers directly to consumers, considerable quantities of some products are handled by warehouses which supply small manufacturers and fabricators. These resellers generally have relatively small margins and if they were not permitted to pass on the cost increases which they will sustain there is danger that the amount of material moving through these channels would be reduced and that small consumers would have difficulty in obtaining needed supplies. It has been determined, therefore, to permit resellers to increase their prices by the exact amount of the increases in producers' ceiling prices.

In the judgment of the Director of Price Stabilization, the provisions of this supplementary regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of Title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950.

In formulating this supplementary regulation, the Director has given due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objectives of the Defense Production Act of 1950 and to relevant factors of general applicability.

REGULATORY PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this regulation does.
2. Ceiling price adjustments.
3. Definitions.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 3 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 704, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply Title IV, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. This supplementary regulation increases the ceiling prices estabished by the General Ceiling Price Regulation for primary nickel products and for rolling mill, foundry, and similar products containing more than 5 percent nickel.

SEC. 2. Ceiling price adjustments—(a) Primary nickel products. If you are a seller of primary nickel products, your ceiling price for any such product is the ceiling price determined in accordance with the General Ceiling Price Regulation plus 6 cents per pound of nickel content.

(b) Rolling mill, foundry, and similar products. If you are a seller of rolling mill, foundry, and similar products which contain more than 5 percent nickel, your ceiling price for any such product is the ceiling price determined in accordance with the General Ceiling Price Regulation plus 6 cents per pound of nickel content in excess of 5 percent.

SEC. 3 Definitions. When used in this supplementary regulation, the term:

(a) "Primary nickel products" includes electrolytic nickel; nickel and "F" nickel ingots and shot; nickel powder and pellets; metallic nickel; nickel bars and anodes for electroplating; nickle oxide sinter and other nickel oxides; copper refinery nickel residues and nickel chemicals with a nickel content of 14 percent or more by weight; and nickel and nickel alloys in any other form (other than scrap) customarily used for melting.

(b) "Rolling mill, foundry, and similar products" includes any rolled, drawn, extruded, or cast metallic nickel or nickel alloy products (other than primary nickel products) in the usual commercial forms, including, but not limited to, sheet, strip, bar, rod, shapes, wire, tubing, and castings.

(c) "Castings" means any metal products which are cast and on which no further operations are performed except cleaning, snagging, rough grinding, inspecting, testing, rough drilling, or machining only for the purpose of inspection or cleaning.

Effective date. This regulation becomes effective June 2, 1951.

[Ceiling Price Regulation 44]

CPR-44—CEILING PRICES FOR CONTRACTORS' SERVICES IN THE NEEDLEWORK INDUSTRY IN PUERTO RICO

Pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Public Law 774, 81st Congress), Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105), and Economic Stabilization Agency General Order No. 2 (16 F. R. 738) this Ceiling Price Regulation 44 is hereby issued.

STATEMENT OF CONSIDERATIONS

This regulation establishes ceiling prices for contractors' services rendered in connection with needlework in Puerto Rico. The needlework industry in Puerto Rico ranks first among the service trades as a source of employment in the territory. In 1950 it provided employment to a total of 60,000 workers, or approximately 9 percent of all persons gainfully employed on the Island. The industry ranks second only to sugar as a source of income for Puerto Rico.

Predominantly, the needlework industry consists of performing sewing and stitching operations in Puerto Rico on materials designed, cut and patterned in the States. The work is performed under the direction of and paid for by "contractors" in the territory. The principal furnishes and retains ownership in the material which is processed by the contractor. For undertaking and having performed these needlework operations for the principal, the contractor charges a fee which is comprised of (a) the wages paid by the contractor to the needleworkers for the services performed plus (b) a charge based upon the amount paid out by him in wages. Materials furnished by the contractors, to the extent of 29 percent of their charge, are included by the contractor within his charge. As a general rule these materials do not exceed 5 percent of the total value of the price charged for the service. Where the contractor supplies material with a value equal to or exceeding 30 percent of the price of the charge for the service, he is regarded as a manufacturer and therefore excluded from this regulation.

Consultation with representatives of the industry has disclosed that the service charges during the base period for the different lines of needlework were about the same as charges made during the entire twelve month period from June 25, 1949 to June 24, 1950 inclusive. Competition with other contract areas has forced contractors to absorb minor adjustments in wages and in the cost of certain materials supplied by them.

Minimum wages for the needleworkers in Puerto Rico are established by the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor. The minimum wage presently in effect was established in 1945. The needlework industry was then, as now, operating under price regulations, and the Office of Price Administration at that time authorized needlework contractors to add to their fee the increase in wages ordered by the Department of Labor. The Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor has announced an increase in the minimum wages for the needleworkers in Puerto Rico to become effective June 4, 1951. The new minimum wage represents an increase in wage rates in all lines of the needlework industry from existing minima ranging from 16⅔ percent to 50 percent. It is estimated that under these new wage rates the cost of labor alone will exceed contractors' present ceiling prices. Consequently, it is clear that such wage increases cannot be absorbed but must be reflected in higher ceiling prices.

Under this regulation, therefore, the contractor will determine his ceiling price by adding to the highest amount he charged for the same service performed on the same or a similar article of needlework between May 24, 1950 and June 24, 1950, the actual dollar and cents increase in the cost of the labor required to perform that service resulting from the higher minimum wages for needleworkers ordered by the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor. If the contractor did not sell such a service between May 24, 1950 and June 24, 1950 he may compute his cost increase on his most recent sale of such a service prior to May 24, 1950 but within the twelve month period from June 25, 1949 to June 24, 1950 inclusive. This regulation will prevent the disruption of the needlework industry in Puerto Rico, and will permit the continued operation of the contract method of doing business by authorizing the contractors to pass onto the principals only the increases in labor costs directed by the Wage and Hour Division and actually paid by the contractor. No other increases in the contractor's costs are authorized to be passed on to the principal.

Recognition of the wage increase directed by the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor is consistent with the Defense Production Act of 1950 and the regulations of the Wage Stabilization Board. General Regulation No. 3, adopted by the Wage Stabilization Board on January 31, 1951, provides:

> Section 402, subdivision (d) (2) of the Defense Production Act of 1950 (Public Law 774, 81st Congress) provides that "No action shall be taken under authority of this title with respect to wages, salaries, or other compensation which is inconsistent with the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, or the Labor Management Relations Act, 1947, or any other law of the United States, or of any State, the District of Columbia, or any Territory or Possession of the United States." Since statutes and orders of the duly constituted authorities acting under any Federal or State law fixing minimum rates for certain types of workers are consistent with the purposes and intent of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, the Wage Stabilization Board hereby authorizes increases in wages, salaries, and other compensation to bring such wages, salaries, and other compensation into compliance with the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended, and such other statutes and orders establishing minimum rates of compensation.

Reporting requirements are designed to secure sufficient information to determine whether the service charged is computed in accordance with the regulation.

FINDINGS OF THE DIRECTOR OF PRICE STABILIZATION

In formulating this regulation, the Director of Price Stabilization has consulted extensively with industry representatives and has given full consideration to their recommendations. In his judgment, the provisions of this regulation are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to effectuate the purposes of title IV of the Defense Production Act of 1950.

So far as practicable, the Director of Price Stabilization gave due consideration to the national effort to achieve maximum production in furtherance of the objective of the Defense Production Act of 1950; to prices prevailing during the period from May 24, 1950 to June 24, 1950, inclusive; and to relevant factors of general applicability.

SECTION 1. What this regulation does. This regulation fixes ceiling prices for the services rendered by contractors in the needlework industry in Puerto Rico.

SEC. 2. Applicability. This regulation applies to contractors in the needlework industry in the Territory of Puerto Rico.

SEC. 3. Definitions and explanations. (a) When used in this regulation:

(1) "Articles of needlework" means any article processed by the needlework industry.

(2) "Contractor" includes any person who performs one or more processes in the production of an article of needlework, the principal materials of which are supplied by a principal, and who receives payment for the process or processes so performed and for additional materials furnished, if any, that are incidental to such operations, but does not include a person who furnishes materials the value of which constitutes 30 percent or more of the total price charged for his service.

(3) "Needlework industry" includes the processing from any material of all apparel and apparel furnishings and accessories made by the knitting, crocheting, cutting, sewing, embroidering, or other processes, and the processing of household art linens, needlepoint, embroideries and trimmings, and similar products.

(4) "Person" includes any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or the legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing.

(5) "Principal" includes any person who engages the services of a contractor, as defined in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph for the processing or production of an article of needlework for the purposes of resale. A principal may or may not perform processes on the article of needlework in addition to those performed by the contractor, and may himself be a contractor.

(6) "Records" means books of account, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, deeds, bills of lading, and other papers and documents.

(7) "You" refers to any contractor subject to the regulation.

SEC. 4. Ceiling prices for contractors. (a) Your ceiling price for a service rendered in connection with the processing of an article of needlework is the highest price you charged for that service rendered in connection with the processing of the same or a similar article of needlework between May 24, 1950 and June 24, 1950, inclusive, plus the amount of the increase in labor costs, or the amount of the increase in piece rates, for processing the same or a similar article of needlework, resulting from the increase in minimum wage rates established for the needlework industry of Puerto Rico by the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor, issued May 4, 1951 (16 F. R. 4101) and effective June 4, 1951 (29 CFR Part 655).

(b) If you did not render the same service in connection with the processing of the same or a similar article of needlework between May 24, 1950 and June 24, 1950, inclusive, your ceiling price for a service rendered in connection with the processing of an article of needlework is the price at which you most recently rendered that service in connection with the processing of the same or a similar article of needlework prior to May 24, 1950 and subsequent to June 24, 1949, plus the amount of the increase in labor costs, or the amount of the increase in piece rates, for processing the same or a similar article of needlework, resulting from the increase in minimum wage rates established for the needlework industry of Puerto Rico by the Wage and Hour Division of the Department of Labor, issued May 4, 1951 (16 F. R. 4101) and effective June 4, 1951 (29 CFR Part 655).

SEC. 5. Contractors who cannot price under section 4 of this regulation. If you cannot determine your ceiling prices for a service under section 4 of this regulation, you may apply, in writing, to the Territorial Director of the Office of Price Stabilization in Puerto Rico for the establishment of a ceiling price. This application shall contain all pertinent information describing the service and the articles of needlework which are to be processed, your estimated direct labor cost, your proposed ceiling price, and the method used by you to determine it. You may sell the service at the price applied for until notified of its approval, disapproval, or revision by the Director of Price Stabilization or his delegatee.

SEC. 6. Modification of reported ceiling prices by the Director of Price Stabilization. The Director of Price Stabilization or his delegatee may at any time revise ceiling prices reported under this regulation so as to bring them into line with the level of ceiling prices otherwise established by this regulation.

SEC. 7. Records and reports. Every person making any charges subject to this regulation shall: (a) Keep for inspection by the Director of Price Stabilization, for a period so long as the Defense Production Act of 1950 remains effective, accurate records of the prices charged between May 24, 1950 and June 24, 1950, inclusive, or, if no charge was made between May 24, 1950 and June 24, 1950, the prices charged on the most recent sales prior to May 24, 1950, and subsequent to June 24, 1949, for each type of service, showing date thereof, the name and address of the principal, and the nature of the service rendered; (b) preserve for a period of two years all records showing the prices at which sales of services subject to this regulation have been made; and (c) submit such additional records and reports to the Director of Price Stabilization as he may from time to time require subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget, pursuant to the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

SEC. 8. Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets, or stock in trade are sold, or otherwise transferred, after the date of this regulation, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of service, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the ceiling prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the provisions of this regulation.

SEC. 9. Evasion. Any practice which results in obtaining indirectly a higher price than is permitted by this regulation is a violation of this regulation. Such practices include, but are not limited to devices making use of commissions, services, cross sales, transportation arrangements, premiums, discounts, special privileges, tie-in agreements and trade understandings.

SEC. 10. Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this regulation are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, and suits for damages provided for by the Defense Production Act of 1950.

SEC. 11. Prohibitions. On and after the effective date of this regulation, regardless of any contract or other obligation, you shall not sell any service subject to this regulation at a price exceeding your ceiling price as determined under this regulation, and no person shall buy from you in the regular course of business or trade any service subject to this regulation at a price exceeding your ceiling price as determined under this regulation.

Effective date. The effective date of this regulation shall be June 4, 1951.

NOTE.—The record keeping and reporting requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

EDWARD F. PHELPS, Jr.,
Acting Director of Price Stabilization.

Chapter VI—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[NPA Order M-7, as Amended June 1, 1951]

M-7—ALUMINUM FOR CIVILIAN USE

This order as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. However, in the formulation of this amendment, consultation with representatives of all trades and industries affected has been rendered impracticable by the fact that the order affects a very substantial number of different trades and industries.

This amendment affects NPA Order M-7 as amended May 1, 1951, as follows: It amends paragraph (c) of section 6, and paragraphs (b) and (d) of section 8; it adds a new paragraph (e) to section 8; and it makes certain changes in list A. As so amended, NPA Order M-7 reads as follows:

Sec.
1. Purpose and scope.
2. Definitions.
3. Aluminum forms and products to which this order applies.
4. Application of order.
5. Use of aluminum.
6. Use of aluminum for certain purposes.
7. Maintenance, repair, and operating supplies.
8. Exemptions.
9. Inventories.
10. Applications for adjustment or exception.
11. Records and reports.
12. Communications.
13. Violations.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 13 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61.

SECTION 1. Purpose and scope. The purpose of this order is to describe how the aluminum remaining after allowing for the requirements of national defense may be distributed and used in the civilian economy. It is the policy of the National Production Authority that aluminum and articles made of aluminum, not required to fill rated orders, shall be distributed equitably through normal channels of distribution, and that due regard shall be given by suppliers to the needs of new and small business.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this order:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Base period" means the 6-month period ending June 30, 1950.

(c) "Manufacture" means to put into process, machine, fabricate, or otherwise alter materials by physical or chemical means: Provided, however, That as applied to "castings (foundry products as shipped by the producer)" specified in section 3 of this order the word "manufacture" also means the assembly of said items into components or end products, and that as applied to "powder (including atomized, flake, paste, and pigments)," the word "manufacture" also means segregating, weighing, or packaging for sale or resale by persons other than producers.

(d) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue a building, machine, piece of equipment or facility in sound working condition, and "repair" means the restoration of a building, machine, piece of equipment, or facility to sound working condition when the same has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, failure of parts or the like: Provided, however, Neither maintenance nor repair includes the improvement of any such item with material of a better kind, quality, or design.

(e) "Operating supplies" means any aluminum forms or products listed in section 3 of this order which are normally carried by a person as operating supplies according to established accounting practice and are not included in his finished product, except that materials included in such product which are normally chargeable to operating expense may be treated as operating supplies.

SEC. 3. Aluminum forms and products to which this order applies. The word "aluminum" as used in this order means only the following aluminum forms and products obtained from either domestic or foreign sources:

Rod and bar.
Wire (under 3/8 inch).
Cables (electrical transmission only).
Rivets.
Forgings and pressings (before machining).
Impact extrusions.
Castings (foundry products as shipped by the producer).
Rolled structural shapes (angles, channels, zees, tees, etc.).
Extruded shapes.
Sheet (coiled and flat), plate, circles and blanks.
Slugs.
Plain coil foil.
Tubing (extruded, drawn, and roll formed).
Tube blooms.
Powder (including atomized, flake, paste, and pigments).
Ingot, pig, billets, slabs, granulated.
Purchased scrap.

SEC. 4. Application of order. Subject to the exemptions stated in section 8 of this order, this order applies to the use of aluminum for purposes of manufacture or construction, or for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies. It does not apply to (a) the production of aluminum in or the conversion of aluminum to the forms and products listed in section 3 of this order; or (b) the use of aluminum in the production of other metals (including aluminized steel), or of metal alloys, the chief constituent of which is not aluminum, or of chemical salts of aluminum and compositions of aluminum used as a catalyst.

SEC. 5. Use of aluminum. Subject to the exemptions stated in section 8 of this order, and unless specifically directed by the National Production Authority, no person shall use in manufacture or construction:

(a) During December 1950, a quantity by weight of aluminum in excess of 100 percent of his average monthly use of aluminum during the base period.

(b) During the following months a total quantity by weight of aluminum in excess of the percentages specified with respect to each month of his average monthly use of aluminum during the base period:

	Percent
January 1951	80
February 1951	75
March 1951	65

(c) During the calendar quarter commencing April 1, 1951, a total quantity by weight of aluminum in excess of 65 percent of his average quarterly use of aluminum during the base period: Provided, however, That no person shall use during each of the months of May and June 1951, in the manufacture of nonresidential type windows (excluding architectural type, curved head windows) a total quantity by weight of aluminum in excess of 65 percent of his average monthly use of aluminum for that purpose during the base period. Any person who was authorized by the National Production Authority to use an adjusted monthly base to determine permitted use of aluminum during January, February, or March 1951, shall not use during the second calendar quarter of 1951 a quantity by weight of aluminum in excess of 65 percent of three times such adjusted monthly base; and no manufacturer of nonresidential windows who was authorized by the National Production Authority to use such an adjusted base to determine permitted use of aluminum during January, February, or March 1951 shall use during either of the months of May or June 1951 a quantity by weight of aluminum in excess of 65 percent of such adjusted monthly base. The National Production Authority reserves the right to review and modify or revoke any such adjustment. An authorization by the National Production Authority to use a specific quantity of aluminum in any specified month or months or in the first quarter of 1951 shall not be considered an adjusted base for the purposes of this paragraph.

SEC. 6. Use of aluminum for certain purposes. In addition to the limitations on the use of aluminum set forth in section 5 of this order:

(a) No person shall use in manufacture, assembly, or construction a greater quantity or better grade of aluminum than is necessary for functional or operational purposes.

(b) No person shall use aluminum in manufacture, assembly, or construction for decorative or ornamental purposes.

(c) Subject to the exemptions stated in section 8 of this order, or unless specifically directed by the National Production Authority, no person shall use during each of the months of May and June 1951, in the manufacture of any item included in list A or, in construction for any item in list A, a total quantity by weight of aluminum in excess of 50 percent of his average monthly use of aluminum in such item during the base period. However, any person who, during the months of May or June 1951, purchases parts made wholly or partly of aluminum for incorporation in an item in list A, which parts he manufactured during the base period, shall deduct, to the extent that he purchases such parts, the quantity of aluminum he used in such manufacture during the base period in computing his permitted use during said months. During each of the months of May and June 1951, any person who does not use aluminum in the manufacture of an item in list A, but who assembles parts made wholly or partly of aluminum into such item in list A, shall not assemble a total number of units of such item in excess of 50 percent of the average monthly number of such units which he assembled during the base period: Provided, however, That this sentence shall not apply to a person who assembles an item in list A at the point of installation on the order of the ultimate user of the item.

(d) Any person who was authorized by the National Production Authority to use an adjusted monthly base to determine permitted use of aluminum during January, February, or March 1951, shall not use during either of the months of May or June 1951, in the manufacture of any item in list A, a total quantity by weight of aluminum in excess of 50 percent of such adjusted monthly base. The National Production Authority reserves the right to review and modify or revoke any such adjustment. An authorization by the National Production Authority to use a specific quantity of aluminum in any specified month or months or in the first quarter of 1951 shall not be considered an adjusted base for the purposes of this paragraph.

(e) Any person who has placed an order with a supplier for aluminum for use in the manufacture of an item in list A, which order is included in such supplier's mill schedule for the second quarter, may accept delivery thereof after the end of the quarter, and may use such aluminum during the third quarter of 1951 subject to such restrictions as the National Production Authority may prescribe.

SEC. 7. Maintenance, repair, and operating supplies. Unless specifically directed by the National Production Authority, during the 6-month period commencing on December 1, 1950, and each 6-month period thereafter, no person shall use for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies a quantity by weight of aluminum in excess of the quantity of aluminum that he used for such purposes during the base period.

SEC. 8. Exemptions. (a) The use of aluminum required by any person to fill an order that is rated under the priorities system established by NPA Reg. 2 (excluding orders for items included in list A), or to meet any other mandatory order of the National Production Authority, is permitted in addition to the use of aluminum authorized by the provisions of sections 5 or 7 of this order. The use of aluminum required by any person to fill a rated order for any item included in list A which is marked by an asterisk is permitted in addition to the use of aluminum authorized by the provisions of section 5, 6, or 7 of this order where such item is for the use of the Armed Forces of the United States, including the United States Coast Guard, in the construction, fitting, or furnishing of ships (other than pleasure craft), aircraft, and hospitals, or to supply military specification organizational equipment items. The use of aluminum required to fill an order, whether or not rated, for any item in list A which is not marked by an asterisk shall be subject to the limitations on use stated in section 6 of this order.

(b) The procurement and use by electric utilities of aluminum conductor and aluminum conductor accessories as those terms are defined in NPA Order M–50, is subject to order M–50 and is accordingly exempt from this order. The use by electric utilities of forms and shapes of aluminum listed in section 3 of this order, other than aluminum conductor and aluminum conductor accessories, remains subject to the restrictions of this order.

(c) The provisions of sections 5, 6, and 7 of this order do not apply to persons who use less than 1,000 pounds of aluminum during any period of 12 consecutive months: Provided, however, That persons who by reason of the provisions of section 5 or 6 would be permitted to use less than 1,000 pounds during any period of 12 consecutive months may use during such period a quantity up to 1,000 pounds.

(d) The provisions of section 5 of this order will not apply, commencing on February 1, 1951, to the use of aluminum in the manufacture of collapsible tubes as defined in NPA Order M–27, nor, commencing on April 6, 1951, to the use of aluminum in the manufacture of packaging closures as defined in NPA Order M–26, nor, commencing on June 1, 1951, to the use of aluminum foil in the manufacture of containers and packaging materials as defined in NPA Order M–67.

(e) Whenever, under the provisions of this section, the use of aluminum for certain purposes is exempted from the limitations of this order, the use of aluminum for such purposes during the base period shall be deducted in determining the base consumption for the purpose of computing permitted use of aluminum under the provisions of this order.

SEC. 9. Inventories. In addition to the provisions of NPA Reg. 1 (15 F. R. 6253), relating to inventory control, it is considered that a more exact requirement applying to users of aluminum is necessary. No person obtaining aluminum for use in manufacture or construction, or for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies, may receive or accept delivery of a quantity of aluminum if his inventory is, or by such receipt would become, in excess of that necessary to meet his deliveries or supply his services on the basis of his scheduled method and rate of operation pursuant to this order during the succeeding 60-day period, or in excess of a "practicable minimum working inventory" (as defined in NPA Reg. 1), whichever is less. For the purpose of this section, aluminum shapes and forms listed in section 3 of this order in which only minor changes or alterations have been effected shall be included in inventory. NPA Reg. 1 will apply to aluminum except as modified by this section.

SEC. 10. Applications for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that his business operation was commenced during or after the base period, or because any provision otherwise works an undue and exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. Each request shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

SEC. 11. Records and reports. (a) Persons subject to this order shall preserve the records which they have maintained and will maintain of inventories, receipts, deliveries, and uses of aluminum forms and products commencing with January 1, 1950.

(b) Persons subject to this order shall make records and submit such reports to the National Production Authority as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 12. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: M–7.

SEC. 13. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority or who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order, as amended, shall take effect on June 1, 1951.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
MANLY FLEISCHMANN,
Administrator.

LIST A

See section 6 of this order as to the limitations on the use of aluminum in manufacture and construction in connection with the items on the following list.

See section 8 (a) of this order as to the effect of a rated order for items on the following list which are marked by an asterisk.

Airfoil (tubing) for windmills.
Aluminum wool (except for aircraft maintenance and automotive air filters).
Andirons, screens, and fireplace fixtures.
Animal cages.
Animal training equipment.
Animal traps.
Applicators for moistening envelopes.
Arbors and trellises.
Ash trays.
Automobile hardware and trim (except functional parts).
Awnings.
Badges.
Balloon molds.
Bar rails, fixtures, and equipment.
Barber chairs.
Batons.
Bathtubs.
Beauty parlor equipment.
Beer equipment: all items.
Bells (except parts where nonmagnetic gong material is required for electrically operated signaling devices used as adjuncts to communication systems).
Beverage mixing and serving equipment, such as bottle coolers, cocktail shakers, ice buckets and pails, ice chippers and shavers.
Bicycles and accessories.
Bird and pet cages, houses, aquariums, accessories and equipment.
Blackboard frames and chalk troughs.
Boards: shampoo, tanning.
Book covers.
Book stacks
*Boxes, including match, cigarette, typewriter ribbon (except instrument cases that require nonmagnetic properties)
*Brackets: light, shelf and wall
*Brooms and brushes (except toothbrushes and industrial)
*Buckles, all types
Buckets, household
*Burglar alarms and protective systems (except where essential to the proper servicing or functioning of the parts)
Burial vaults and urns
*Buttons (except for work clothing where necessary to resist corrosion)
*Cabinets: kitchen, medicine
Calendars, calendar pads and parts
Cameras, amateur box type still picture, fixed focus (except reflex)
Candle molds
Cards
Canopies
*Cases, including ignition coil and motion picture humidor
Caps: chimney and vent flue (except for industrial) Card tables
Cards, greeting
Carriages: baby, luggage, strollers, scooters (except functional parts) Cases: Cigar Film
  Radio, home type
  Soft drink Spectacle
  Vanity
Caskets, and accessory devices
Caster cups, wheel casters and glides (except for industrial and materials handling equipment)
Chicken crates
*Chutes: coal, package, and waste
Cigarette lighters
Cleaning accessories, such as carpet sweepers, dust pans and scrubbing sets Clothespins
Coasters
Combs
Coops: brooder, chicken, quail, etc.
*Copings
*Cornices
Crayon molds
*Cups
Curtain, drapery, and carpet hardware
Cutlery handles
Cuspidors
Desk pads
Dispensers, fixed or portable, for soap, lotion, papers, straws, etc. (except where necessary to resist corrosion for hospital, scientific laboratory, and industrial use)
Dolls
Door chimes
*Doors, including, but not limited to:
  Coal
  Door frames
  Dumbwaiter
  Incinerator Screen Storm
Draperies
Dresser sets
*Ducts, air conditioning, warm air, ventilating
Emblems, medals (except religious), crestings and plates
Fences, wire
Flag poles, stanchions, and sockets.
Flower boxes, stands, and pot holders.
Forms, concrete vault casting, wax Fountains Frames:
  Electric sign Picture
Frozen fruit sticks
*Furniture (except medical, dental, and hospital)
*Furniture, hardware (except functional parts)
Games
Garden tools and equipment
Garment hooks, brackets, racks, rods, trees, and hangers
Giftware
Gutters, leaders and downspouts.
Hair curlers
Hand-tool handles (except portable electric tools)
Hedge clipping machines
Highway markers, signals, and signs (except electrically operated traffic control signals)
Holders: Brush Pen
  Soda fountain cup
*Hollow ware
Horse shoes
Ice cream freezers for home use
Jewelry, all types (except religious goods)
Ladders and step stools (except industrial, fire, and marine)
Laundry accessories, domestic, such as tubs and boilers, washboards, drain board and tub covers, clothes hampers, ironing boards and tables, garment stretchers and dryers, clothes drying frames, and clothes-line hardware
Lawn and garden hose accessories, such as sprinklers, nozzles, couplings, clamps, menders, and reels
Lawn mowers, seeders, rollers, and tampers
Letter openers
Lightning rods
Luggage, fittings, rim, and hardware
Machines: rowing, voting
Mail boxes
Maps and globes (world)
Marine construction: pleasure craft and fittings of all kinds, including but not limited to:
  Boats
  Canoes
  Rowboats
  Sailboats
Markers: Grave
  License plates
  Price
  Tee
  Traffic
  Tree
Memorials and tablets
Mesh bags
Metal lath, and accessories
*Metal letters and numbers (except for industrial or public utility control identification)
Mops
*Mouldings and trim (except functional retaining mouldings, shapes, or forms)
Mud scrapers
Nursing bottles
Oil cloth, foil-covered
Ornaments, Christmas tree Packaging: Containers for:
    Bath salts
    Cosmetics, except collapsible tubes
    Gifts Powder
    Shoe polish
  Tubes, for cigars
  Jars, beauty cream
  Shakers, talcum powder
  Foil for:
    Capsules (except therapeutical)
    Cartons
    Florist
    Household
    Labels
    Wraps: gift, cosmetic, liquor
    Wine bottles
Paper clips
*Plates: name, scuff, push, kick (except instruction and identification plates on equipment)
Playground equipment
Pleasure boat fastenings, fittings and hardware
Portable bleachers
Roofing, and accessories, residential type (including shingles)
*Rulers (except technical rulers such as slide rules and others used in engineering)
Saddlery, and harness hardware
*Screening (except insect and that used in technical and scientific equipment)
Shoe heels (except orthopedic)
Shovels, scoops, scrapers and pushers, (except as required for handling food, chemical products and grain in processing and distribution)
Siding and accessories (except industrial)
*Signs, including advertising
Smokers' accessories
*Soap dishes and bathroom accessories
Souvenirs and novelties, advertising specialties
Spandrels
Spools such as wire (except magnet), adhesive tape, solder
Sporting goods, all kinds (except commercial fishery goods, life raft equipment, fishing rod offset handles, and firearms components)
Spray guns (except paint spraying equipment and agricultural sprays)
Spurs, climbing
Statuary (except religious and artists' originals)
Stencils
Store fronts, (except glass holding members)
Stove pipe and other flue connections
*Tent poles, frames, and pegs.
*Thermostatic containers (except shoulders and cups on vacuum bottles of one quart and under size, and special laboratory and hospital equipment)
Toilet seats and covers
Tokens (except where necessary for electrical operation)
Tombstones
*Tooth brush and tumbler holders
*Towel bars
Toys

Tricycles and other children's vehicles
Umbrellas and parasols

[NPA Order M-46, as Amended, June 1, 1951]

M-46—PRIORITIES ASSISTANCE FOR THE PETROLEUM AND GAS INDUSTRIES IN THE UNITED STATES AND CANADA

This order as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the National Defense and is issued pursuant to the authority granted by section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. Consultation with industry representatives in advance of the order was rendered impracticable due to the fact that it applied to all branches of the petroleum and gas industries. In the formulation of this order as amended, consultation with the petroleum and gas industries was also rendered impracticable by the necessity for immediate action.

PURPOSES AND DEFINITIONS

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order sets out the rules by which priorities assistance is made available to petroleum and gas operators in the United States of America and Canada to obtain material for maintenance and repair purposes, as operating supplies, or laboratory equipment. It also tells operators how to get assistance in obtaining materials for use in production and construction operations. This order does not apply to operations other than in the United States of America and Canada, nor does it apply to those uses of material identified in schedule A as "Non-industry uses of material."

SEC. 2. Definitions. (a) "Operator" means:

(1) any person located in the United States of America to the extent he is engaged in the petroleum and gas industries (domestic operator), or (2) any person located in the Dominion of Canada to the extent that he is engaged in the petroleum and gas industries (Canadian operator).

(b) "Petroleum" means crude oil and associated hydrocarbons, including the products thereof.

(c) "Gas" means natural gas, manufactured gas, or mixtures thereof.

(d) "Petroleum and gas industries" includes any of the following activities and any operations directly incident to these activities as they pertain to petroleum or gas:

(1) The discovery, development, or depletion of petroleum or gas (production);

(2) The extraction or recovery of natural gasoline or associated hydrocarbons (natural gasoline recovery);

(3) The movement, loading, or unloading of petroleum (transportation);

(4) The transportation of gas (gas transmission);

(5) The processing, reprocessing, or alteration of petroleum, including but not limited to compounding or blending (refining);

(6) The processing of material for the production of manufactured gas (manufactured gas production);

(7) The distribution or dispensing of petroleum, gas, or the products thereof, and the storage incident thereto (distribution); and shall include for each of the above listed branches of the industries, to the extent applicable, the control of, or the investigation into more effective methods of conducting, petroleum or gas operations by means of research, technical, or control laboratories.

(e) "Material" means any raw, in-process, or manufactured commodity, equipment, component, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind;

(f) "Production operation" means any use of material for construction, expansion, improvement, reconstruction, remodeling, alteration, maintenance, repair, or replacement incident to production, except (1) a use of material for a gathering line for a gas or condensate well; a crude oil gathering line connecting a lease or field shipping tank or battery where petroleum is first gauged to any other petroleum gathering or movement facility or any refinery facility; or (2) a use of material for any of the following enumerated plants or facilities where the material to be installed or added increases the rated capacity of the plant more than 500 horsepower: vacuum plant or facilities; cycling plant or facilities; plant or facilities for the extraction or recovery of natural gasoline or associated hydrocarbons, or for other treatment, processing, or compression of natural gas.

(g) "Construction operation" means any use of material for construction, expansion, improvement, reconstruction, remodeling, alteration, maintenance, repair, or replacement incident to any branch of the petroleum and gas industries, other than production, but shall include any such use of material for the type of construction or installation which is specifically excepted from the definition of a production operation.

(h) "Maintenance and repair" means (without regard to accounting practice):

(1) The upkeep of any structure, equipment, or material in a sound working condition, or the restoration or fixing of any structure, equipment, or material which has broken down or is worn out, damaged, or destroyed;

(2) Any other use of material in any branch of the industry other than distribution not exceeding in material cost $1,000 for any one complete operation which has not been subdivided for the purpose of coming within this definition;

(3) Any other use of material for the distribution or dispensing of petroleum, gas, or the products thereof, and the storage incident thereto (distribution) not exceeding in material cost $100 for any one complete operation which has not been subdivided for the purpose of coming within this definition.

(i) "Operating supplies" means any material other than material used for maintenance and repair which is essential to and consumed in the petroleum and gas industries and which is normally carried by an operator as operating expense or which is normally chargeable to operating expense, including among other items, chemicals, additives, and blending agents.

(j) "Laboratory equipment" means material or equipment used exclusively for the purpose of controlling, or investigating more effective methods of conducting, petroleum and gas industries operations by means of research, technical, or control laboratories. This material or equipment shall not, however, include material for use in the construction of laboratory buildings or other structures.

(k) "Controlled material" means steel, copper, and aluminum, in the forms and shapes indicated in schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(l) "Allotment", "class A product", and "class B product" have the same meanings, respectively, as in CMP Regulation No. 1 of the National Production Authority.

(m) "PAD district" means any one of the five areas designated as a PAD district in schedule B of the order with respect to domestic operators, or the Dominion of Canada in the case of Canadian operators.

(n) "Delivery order" means any purchase order, contract, shipping, or other instruction calling for delivery of any material or product on a particular date or dates or within specified periods of time.

(o) "Authorized controlled material order" means any delivery order for any controlled material (as distinct from a product containing controlled material) which is placed pursuant to an allotment or which is specifically designated to be such by any regulation or order of the Petroleum Administration for Defense or the National Production Authority.

(p) "Administrative operations" means the supervisory, fiscal, administrative, or clerical activities necessary to the operation of plants, units, or facilities involved in and a part of the petroleum and gas industries.

MRO MATERIAL—MAINTENANCE AND REPAIR, OPERATING SUPPLIES AND LABORATORY EQUIPMENT

SEC. 3. The symbol for MRO material. To secure material, including controlled material, for maintenance and repair, operating supplies, or laboratory equipment (all known as MRO material) an operator may use and apply DO–97. An operator may not use the symbol until he has complied with the rules set forth in section 4 and, where applicable, sections 5 and 15 of this order.

SEC. 4. How to use the symbol for MRO material. (a) To use DO–97 for MRO material, other than MRO material to be used for administrative operations, an operator must place DO–97 on each delivery order for material together with the words set forth in section 14 of this order and must submit copies of each such order for approval or information as required by section 15 of this order.

(b) To use DO–97 for MRO material to be used for administrative operations an operator must:

(1) Establish a quota in accordance with the provisions of schedule C.

(2) Place DO–97 on each delivery order for material together with the words set forth in section 14 of this order.

an operator may not use DO–97 for MRO material to be used for administrative operations in excess of a quota applicable to him established pursuant to the provisions of schedule C.

(c) A domestic operator should make the necessary filings with the Petroleum Administration for Defense, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Materials Division. A Canadian operator will make the filings with the Petroleum Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Toronto, Canada.

SEC. 5. Emergency MRO material. (a) Where there has been an actual breakdown or suspension of operations, and where the methods specified in section 4 of this order will not get the material on the date or in the quantity required, an operator may request priorities assistance to secure emergency MRO material by letter, telegram, or telephone to the Washington office of the Petroleum Administration for Defense, or, in the case of Canadian operators, to the Petroleum Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Toronto, Canada, advising the date of the actual breakdown or suspension of operations and the operations affected, the branch of the industry (see section 2 (d)), a description of the equipment to be repaired and its function in maintaining continuous operation, the price, quantity, and a detailed description of the material required including the number and the date of delivery orders therefor, and the supplier or suppliers from whom the material is to be obtained.

(b) If information is supplied by telephone, it must be confirmed within 3 days by letter or telegram.

(c) No delivery order for emergency MRO material need be submitted for approval, but an operator may not place a delivery order bearing DO–97 with the supplier for emergency MRO material until approval to do so has been received and a delivery order has been certified in accordance with section 14 of this order.

ASSISTANCE FOR PRODUCTION OPERATIONS

SEC. 6. Material covered. The order provides priorities assistance to get materials for all types of production operations. Sections 6 through 9 set forth the rules to be followed by an operator in obtaining and using this priorities assistance. The only production operations for which priorities assistance is not provided in these sections are production offices and camp facilities. Priorities assistance for production offices and camp facilities must be obtained under sections 10, 11, and 12 of the order dealing specifically with priorities assistance for construction operations. In sections 8 and 9 of this order, certain specific rules are set forth for three classes of materials. These are: class 1 material—casing and tubing; class 2 material—drill pipe; and class 3 material—all other. The rules are different for each of these classes of materials because it is necessary in the interest of the over-all program to provide different methods by class for obtaining authority to use the priorities assistance which is made available. Class 1 and class 2 material are also divided into two groups: (a) normal requirements and (b) emergency requirements. Separate rules apply to each. In general, normal requirements are the quantities of casing and tubing or drill pipe necessary to meet an operator's projected quarterly drilling program, including exploratory wells. Emergency requirements are those quantities of casing, tubing, or drill pipe found necessary to carry out exploratory operations, drilling obligations, or the like in circumstances where sufficient materials are not on hand, readily available, or otherwise obtainable without the use of priorities assistance.

SEC. 7. The symbol. To secure casing, tubing, or drill pipe for normal requirements an operator may use and apply DO–48. The operator may also use and apply DO–48 for class 3 material, which includes all controlled materials except casing, tubing, and drill pipe. For emergency requirements an operator may use and apply DO–48E. An operator may not use either of these until he has complied with the rules set forth in sections 8 or 9 and, where applicable, section 5 of this order.

SEC. 8. How to use the symbol for normal requirements, and class 3 material. (a) To use DO–48 for normal requirements of class 1 and class 2 material, an operator must receive specific approval as to the quantities which he may procure through use of the symbol. The following filings are required:

(1) Class 1 material. An operator must file 4 copies of Form PAD 17 (Petroleum and Gas Operator's Quarterly Requirements Statement) for each PAD district in which operations are to be conducted during the calendar quarter when delivery of material requested on the form is required. Where an operator proposes to undertake operations during that quarter in more than one PAD district, he must also file at the same time a summary report of all proposed operations, using Form PAD 17.

(2) Class 2 material. An operator must file 4 copies of Form PAD 17DP (Domestic Petroleum [Oil and Gas] Operator's Drill Pipe Inventory Statement and Requirements Application) for operations to be conducted during the calendar quarter when delivery of the material requested on the form is required.

After review, the operator will receive one copy of Form PAD 17 for casing and tubing and one copy of Form PAD 17DP for drill pipe, together with a communication giving in each case the quantities of material which the operator may obtain by the use of DO–48, or otherwise disposing of the application. To use DO–48 to obtain deliveries of quantities which may be authorized, an operator must place the symbol on each delivery order for such material together with the words set forth in section 14 of this order.

(b) To use DO–48 for class 3 material, an operator must place DO–48 on each delivery order for such material together with the words set forth in section 14 of this order, and must submit copies of each such order for approval or information as required by section 15 of this order.

(c) A domestic operator will make the above filings with the Petroleum Administration for Defense, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Materials Division. A Canadian operator will make the filings with the Petroleum Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Toronto, Canada.

(d) Form PAD 17 must be filed for deliveries for the fourth quarter (October, November, December) not later than June 30, 1951. Form PAD 17DP must be filed for deliveries for the fourth quarter not later than June 15, 1951. Delivery orders for class 3 material may be filed at any time convenient to the operator but should be filed in sufficient time to permit placement of orders with the supplier for delivery of materials in the quarter when delivery is wanted. For the quarters following (that is, for deliveries during the first quarter of 1952, etc.) an operator must file Form PAD 17 at least 3 months prior to the beginning of the quarter in which delivery of the material is to be made and Form PAD 17DP at least 3½ months prior to that quarter.

(c) After Form PAD 17 or PAD 17DP has been returned to an operator, he may find that the quantities authorized are inadequate for his normal requirements during the ensuing calendar quarter. In that event, the operator may file a supplemental request for casing, tubing, or drill pipe. This filing should be by Form PAD 17 for casing and tubing, or Form PAD 17DP for drill pipe (4 copies in each instance), accompanied by an explanatory letter in duplicate. The filing should be within 2 weeks of the time that the operator receives his original authorization. Each supplemental request should make reference to the operator's original application by government file number and the like. In the event that additional quantities are authorized, the operator will be appropriately notified and may then apply DO-48 to his delivery orders for these quantities in the manner specified in section 8 (a) of this order.

SEC. 9. How to use the symbol for emergency requirements; (a) Since priorities assistance for class 3 material is made available by delivery order filing, no special rules exist for emergency requirements. Special arrangements have been made, however, for class 1 and class 2 material.

(1) Class 1 material. Four copies of Form PAD 15 (Emergency Requirements Application) must be filed for casing and tubing.

(2) Class 2 material. Four copies of Form PAD 17DP, identified in section 8, must be filed for drill pipe.

The form may be filed in the case of either class 1 or class 2 material before or during the month in which deliveries of materials for emergency purposes are required.

(b) The operator will be notified of the quantities for which he is authorized to use DO-48E. The operator may not use the symbol until he has been authorized to apply it to a specific quantity of material. The operator may use DO-48E by placing the symbol on each delivery order for the material authorized together with the words set forth in section 14 of this order.

ASSISTANCE FOR CONSTRUCTION OPERATIONS

SEC. 10. Material covered. The order provides assistance for all types of construction operations. Sections 10 through 12 set forth the rules to be followed by an operator in obtaining and using this priorities assistance. In addition to construction operations as defined, these sections also are to be used in securing priorities assistance for production office and camp facilities. For the purposes of this order, production office and camp facilities shall be deemed to be a type of construction covered by the term "construction operation." In sections 12 and 13 of this order, certain specific rules are set forth for two types of construction operations. These are: Large construction operations—any construction operation in which, for any one complete operation, the total cost of controlled materials to be used is $5,000 or more, or in which, for any one complete operation involving a building, warehouse, office, residence, or other enclosed structure, the total cost of all materials to be used is $5,000 or more; and small construction operations—any construction operation in which, for any one complete operation, the total cost of controlled materials to be used is less than $5,000, or in which, for any one complete operation involving a building, warehouse, office, residence, or other enclosed structure, the total cost of all materials to be used is less than $5,000. The rules are different for each of these types because it is necessary, prior to granting assistance, to provide a review as to the essentiality of all proposed construction which uses large quantities of material. There may be certain types of material which by virtue of special prohibitions of the National Production Authority cannot be obtained as MRO material. Specifically, these materials are those that appear in section 2 of schedule D. Where an operator wants priorities assistance for these materials he must use the rules set forth in section 13 applicable to small construction operations. For the purposes of this order, procurement of this material will be deemed to be covered by the term "construction operation."

SEC. 11. The symbol. To secure material for any construction operation an operator may use and apply DO-48. An operator may not use the symbol until he has complied with the rules set forth in sections 12 or 13, and where applicable, section 15 of this order.

SEC. 12. How to use the symbol for large construction operations. (a) To use DO-48 for large construction operations, an operator must receive specific approval as to the quantities of controlled material and other critical material to be used in the operation which he may procure through use of the symbol. To do this, he must file four copies of Form PAD 26 (Application to Complete or Construct a Petroleum or Gas Project) for each large construction operation for which the operator wants priorities assistance. After review, the operator will receive one copy of Form PAD 26 together with a communication giving the quantities of material which the operator may obtain by the use of DO-48 or otherwise disposing of the application. To use DO-48 to obtain deliveries of quantities which may be authorized, an operator must place the symbol on each delivery order for such material together with the words set forth in section 14 of this order.

(b) A domestic operator will file Form PAD 26 with the Petroleum Administration for Defense, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Materials Division. A Canadian operator will file the form with the Petroleum Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Toronto, Canada.

SEC. 13. How to use the symbol for small construction operations. To use DO-48 for small construction operations, an operator must place DO-48 on each delivery order for material to be used in a small construction operation together with the words set forth in section 14 of this order, and must submit copies of each such order for approval or information as required by section 15 of this order. A domestic operator will file delivery orders with the Petroleum Administration for Defense, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Materials Division. A Canadian operator will file with the Petroleum Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Toronto, Canada.

CERTIFICATION AND FILING

SEC. 14. Certification. The words which an operator must use are:

The undersigned certifies that the rating hereby applied is authorized by and properly used pursuant to the provisions of NPA Order M-46.

SEC. 15. Filing requirements. (a) In a number of instances operators must file delivery orders either for approval or information. This section tells when such filings must be made and what information should be furnished. Where a delivery order must be filed for approval, the operator may not use any priorities assistance made available by this order until there has been returned to the operator one approved copy of the order. Every delivery order for which approval is required must be submitted in duplicate; only one copy of a delivery order need be submitted if it is sent for information purposes.

(b) There are two instances where delivery orders must be submitted for approval, whether the delivery order is for MRO material or for material to be used for production or construction operations. The instances are: (1) Every delivery order for a controlled material in the total amount of $25 or more must be submitted for approval, unless the use of priorities assistance has been authorized through application on Form PAD 15, 17, 17DP, or 26; and (2) Every delivery order for other than a controlled material if it is for a total amount of $5,000 or more or if any single item costs more than $1,500 must be submitted for approval, unless the use of priorities assistance has been authorized through application on Form PAD 26.

(c) An operator must submit for information any delivery order for a total amount of $500 or more but less than $5,000 containing no single item which costs more than $1,500, unless the use of priorities assistance has been authorized through application on Form PAD 15 or 26. An operator must submit for information, within 48 hours after it has been placed by the operator and accepted by the supplier, every delivery order for quantities of material authorized as a result of application on Form PAD 17 or PAD 17DP.

(d) In every instance where a delivery order is submitted for approval, an operator shall prepare a statement of the reasons why assistance is required, containing the following information: The branch of industry in which the material will be used (see section 2 (d)), the price, quantity, and a detailed description of the material required, the number and date of delivery orders therefor, date at which delivery must be made or has been promised by the supplier, the reasons why timely delivery cannot be effected without the assistance requested, the relationship of the materials to operations (end-use); and the circumstances which justify assistance in the interests of national defense. This statement in duplicate should be submitted with, or be a part of, the delivery order.

ALLOTMENTS, CANCELLATIONS, AND INVENTORY RESTORATION

SEC. 16. Allotments. Any priorities assistance obtained through this order when used in connection with a specific quantity of controlled material constitutes an allotment for the purposes of CMP Regulation No. 1. Any delivery order for controlled materials placed pursuant to this order and bearing the certification provided for in this order is an authorized controlled material order, provided that such delivery order must be in sufficient detail to permit entry on mill schedules and must be received by the controlled material producer or other supplier at such time as is specified in CMP Regulation No. 1 or at such later time as the controlled material producer may find it practicable to accept the same.

SEC. 17. Use and cancellation of allotments. (a) After an operator has been authorized to use a symbol on a quantity of controlled materials he must do so promptly. If delivery orders are not placed within 30 days after receiving authority pursuant to this order, an operator must promptly notify either the Petroleum Administration for Defense, Washington, D. C., or the Petroleum Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Toronto, Canada, as appropriate, of this fact and of the extent to which authorized controlled material orders have not been placed. If an operator elects not to use an allotment, he shall, within 30 days after receiving it, notify the Petroleum Administration for Defense or the Petroleum Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, as appropriate, of this fact and of the extent to which he has elected not to use the allotment.

(b) An operator who has placed a delivery order for controlled material pursuant to the authority of this order may cancel or reduce the same by notice in writing to the person with whom the order has been placed. Where an authority received by an operator is cancelled in whole or in part, he must, to the extent of the cancellation, cancel all delivery orders placed pursuant to that authority.

SEC. 18. Inventory restoration. An operator may, subject to the provisions of this order, use a symbol duly authorized in accordance with the order to restore to a practicable working minimum his inventory of material where the inventory has been depleted through the use of MRO material or material necessary to a production or construction operation, provided that no delivery of material which would result in surplus material as defined in NPA Order M-46C may be accepted by the operator.

GENERAL

SEC. 19. Restrictions. An operator may not use any symbol authorized pursuant to this order to obtain material: (a) for any purpose other than a purpose authorized under this order or in greater amounts or on earlier dates than required for any authorized purpose; (b) if it can be secured without the use of priorities assistance; (c) the use of which could be eliminated without serious loss of efficiency by substitution of less scarce material or by change of design; (d) in such amounts or at such dates that receipt of the amounts on the requested dates would result in surplus material as defined in NPA Order M-46C; or (e) of a type for which use of priorities assistance is prohibited as set forth in schedule D.

SEC. 20. Authority. The Petroleum Administration for Defense may, pursuant to the provisions of Delegation 13 of the National Production Authority, as amended, take additional or other action in respect to the receipt, use, delivery, or other disposition of material covered by this order and priorities assistance therefor authorized pursuant to this order.

SEC. 21. Added use of assistance. The priorities assistance made available pursuant to this order may be used to secure services to the extent provided for in NPA Reg. 2 as amended from time to time.

SEC. 22. Other orders. This order and all transactions affected hereby, except as herein otherwise provided, are subject to all applicable orders and regulations of the NPA as amended from time to time. None of the provisions of NPA Reg. 4 or of CMP Regulation Nos. 2, 4, 5, or 6 (or the limitations incorporated in any NPA or CMP regulation which would otherwise subject an operator to the provisions of such regulation) shall apply to an operator, and no operator shall obtain any material under it or be limited by the provisions of such regulations or limitations to the extent that he is entitled to obtain material through the assistance made available by this order.

SEC. 23. Records, reports, and forms. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall retain in his files, for at least 2 years, records of receipts, deliveries, inventory, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this order have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method, nor does it require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided the system provides adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copy instead of the original.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority or the Petroleum Administration for Defense.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to the Petroleum Administration for Defense and the National Production Authority as they shall require subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139-139F).

SEC. 24. Communications. All communications from domestic operators should be addressed to the Petroleum Administration for Defense, New Interior Building, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: Materials Division. All communications from Canadian operators should be addressed to the Petroleum Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Toronto, Canada.

SEC. 25. Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this order or any other order or regulation of NPA, or who willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order as amended shall take effect on June 1, 1951.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
MANLY FLEISCHMANN,
Administrator.

SCHEDULE A—NON-INDUSTRY USES OF MATERIAL

Other than as specifically provided for in this schedule, use of the following material shall not be considered as a use of material in the petroleum and gas industries:

(a) Material or equipment which is to be used by consumer accounts for or in the storage or dispensing of petroleum, including liquefied petroleum gas.

(b) Material or equipment which is to be used for transportation by means of a tank truck or trailer, railroad rolling stock, or marine equipment: Provided, That:

(1) Where material is to be used on a tank truck or trailer and is specialized petroleum or gas material or equipment which is actually to be attached to the truck or trailer and is necessary to the containing, dispensing, measuring the movement, or distributing of petroleum or gas, such use shall be considered a use of material in the petroleum and gas industries.

(2) Where material is to be used on railroad rolling stock and the rolling stock is owned or leased by the operator, used on his premises and in the petroleum industry, and is not under the jurisdiction of the Interstate Commerce Commission, such use shall be considered a use of material in the petroleum and gas industries.

(3) Where material is to be used on marine equipment and the marine equipment is used or chartered by the operator, is used on or in the vicinity of his premises and in the industry, and is not under the jurisdiction of the United States Maritime Administration, the Navy Department, or any other Federal agency, for the purpose of establishing methods by which material incident to the operation of the marine equipment may be made available, such use shall be considered a use of material in the petroleum and gas industries.

SCHEDULE B—PETROLEUM ADMINISTRATION FOR DEFENSE DISTRICTS

District 1. Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, District of Columbia.

District 2. Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, North Dakota.

District 3. Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas, New Mexico.

District 4. Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Idaho.

District 5. Arizona, California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington, Territory of Alaska.

SCHEDULE C—ADMINISTRATIVE QUOTAS

Schedule C is applicable to the use of the symbol DO–97 for the procurement by an operator of material to be used for administrative operations. Such material consists of office supplies, office equipment and machinery, and the like, to the extent that these materials come within the definitions of maintenance and repair and operating supplies set forth in the order.

The symbol DO–97 for material to be used for administrative purposes may be used pursuant to the provisions of section 4 (b) only if the operator has a quota as established through this schedule.

TYPES OF QUOTA

An operator may elect one of the three types of quotas described below. If an operator elects or obtains permission to use any one of the three quotas, he may not change to either of the other two without obtaining permission. (See section 4 (c).)

(a) Standard quota. The standard quota is on a quarterly basis and is one-fourth of the dollar amount which the operator spent during the calendar year 1950 for MRO material for administrative operations. If he operated on a fiscal year basis, it is one-fourth of the dollar amount spent for MRO material for administrative operations during the fiscal year ending nearest December 31, 1950.

(b) Seasonal quota. The seasonal quota is is the dollar amount which the operator spent during the corresponding calendar quarter of the calendar year 1950 for MRO material for administrative operations. If he operated on a fiscal year basis, it is the dollar amount spent for MRO material for administrative operations during the corresponding quarter of the fiscal year ending nearest December 31, 1950.

(c) Administrative quota. The administrative quota is the quota determined by the Petroleum Administration for Defense or the Petroleum Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, which the operator may use in lieu of either the standard quota or seasonal quota.

HOW TO OBTAIN AN ADMINISTRATIVE QUOTA

The administrative quota must be applied for. It is designed to provide relief where an operator was only in partial operation in 1950, did not operate at all in 1950, or has had such expansion of operations since 1950 that neither the standard quota nor seasonal quota properly represents the operator's demands for MRO material to be used for administrative purposes. To procure an administrative quota, a domestic operator must file with the Petroleum Administration for Defense, and a Canadian operator must file with the Petroleum Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, four copies of a letter setting forth in full the circumstances as to his operations which make inappropriate the use of either the standard quota or the seasonal quota. An operator may use only a standard quota or seasonal quota until he has received authority to use the administrative quota.

SCHEDULE D—MATERIALS FOR WHICH SYMBOLS MAY NOT BE USED

SECTION 1. The following items are not subject to any ratings issued by or under authority of the National Production Authority at the present time, and no rating issued pursuant to NPA Order M–46 may be used to obtain such items unless specific authorization is given:

Communications services.
Electric power.
Farm equipment.
Fertilizer, commercial.
Food.
Fuels, solid.
Gas.
Ice.
Mineral aggregates:
  Sand.
  Gravel.
  Crushed stone.
  Slag.
Ores and scrap.
Petroleum.
Source and fissionable materials.
Steam heating, central.
Transportation services, domestic, storage, and port facilities.
Transportation services, other.
Waste paper.
Water.
Wood pulp.

SEC. 2. The following materials may not be obtained through use of the symbol DO–97, and a DO–97 may not be used to obtain such materials:

All basic, organic, or inorganic chemicals, their intermediates and derivatives other than compounded end-products not customarily sold as chemicals.
Casing, tubing, and drill pipe.
Items appearing in list A of NPA Order M–47, as the same may be amended from time to time.
Nylon fibers and yarns.
Packaging materials and containers.
Paint, lacquer, and varnish.
Paper and paper products.
Paperboard and paperboard products.
Photographic film.
Rails, tie plates, track spikes, splice bars, rail joints, frogs, and switches.
Rubber tires and tubes.

[NPA Order M–46B]

M–46B—CONSTRUCTION LIMITATIONS FOR THE PETROLEUM AND GAS INDUSTRIES OF THE UNITED STATES

This order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority granted by section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. Consultation with industry representatives in advance of the issuance of this order has been rendered impracticable due to the fact that it applies to all branches of the petroleum and gas industries.

PURPOSE, DEFINITIONS, AND SCOPE

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order sets out the rules which must be followed by petroleum and gas operators who want to construct facilities in the petroleum and gas industries. The order does not apply to foreign operations.

SEC. 2. Definitions. (a) "Operator" means any person located in the United States of America to the extent he is engaged in the petroleum and gas industries.

(b) "Petroleum" means crude oil and associated hydrocarbons, including the products thereof.

(c) "Gas" means natural gas, manufactured gas, or mixtures thereof.

(d) "Petroleum and gas industries" includes any of the following activities and any operations directly incident to these activities as they pertain to petroleum or gas:

(1) The discovery, development, or depletion of petroleum or gas (production);

(2) The extraction or recovery of natural gasoline or associated hydrocarbons (natural gasoline recovery);

(3) The movement, loading, or unloading of petroleum (transportation);

(4) The transportation of gas (gas transmission);

(5) The processing, reprocessing, or alteration of petroleum, including but not limited to compounding or blending (refining);

(6) The processing of material for the production of manufactured gas (manufactured gas production);

(7) The distribution or dispensing of petroleum, gas, or the products thereof, and the storage incident thereto (distribution); and shall include for each of the above listed branches of the industries, to the extent applicable, the control of, or the investigation into more effective methods of conducting, petroleum or gas operations by means of research, technical, or control laboratories.

(e) "Material" means any raw, in-process, or manufactured commodity, equipment, component, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind.

(f) "Production operation" means any use of material for construction, expansion, improvement, reconstruction, remodeling, alteration, maintenance, repair, or replacement incident to production, except (1) a use of material for a gathering line for a gas or condensate well; a crude oil gathering line connecting a lease or field shipping tank or battery where petroleum is first gaged to any other petroleum gathering or movement facility or any refinery facility; or (2) a use of material for any of the following enumerated plants or facilities where the material to be installed or added increases the rated capacity of the plant more than 500 horsepower: Vacuum plant or facilities; cycling plant or facilities; plant or facilities for the extraction or recovery of natural gasoline or associated hydrocarbons, or for other treatment, processing, or compression of natural gas.

(g) "Construction operation" means any use of material for construction, expansion, improvement, reconstruction, remodeling, alteration, maintenance, repair, or replacement incident to any branch of the petroleum and gas industries, other than production, but shall include any such use of material for the type of construction or installation which is specifically excepted from the definition of a production operation.

(h) "Maintenance and repair" means (without regard to accounting practice):

(1) The upkeep of any structure, equipment, or material in a sound working condition, or the restoration or fixing of any structure, equipment, or material which has broken down or is worn out, damaged, or destroyed.

(2) Any other use of material not exceeding in material cost $1,000 for any one complete operation which has not been subdivided for the purpose of coming within this definition;

(3) Maintenance and repair does not include: (i) The deepening, redrilling, or plugging back of any well or the initial installation on any well of pumping or artificial lifting equipment, or (ii) any use of material in connection with a service station or retail outlet other than for upkeep or restoration purposes, or the replacement of equipment worn out and beyond repair.

(i) "Operating supplies" means any material other than material used for maintenance and repair which is essential to and consumed in the petroleum and gas industries and which is normally carried by an operator as operating expense or which is normally chargeable to operating expense, including among other items, chemicals, additives, and blending agents.

(j) "Laboratory equipment" means material or equipment used exclusively for the purpose of controlling, or investigating more effective methods of conducting, petroleum and gas industries operations by means of research, technical, or control laboratories. This material or equipment shall not, however, include material for use in the construction of laboratory buildings or other structures.

SEC. 3. Scope. Provisions of this order shall be applicable to the petroleum and gas industries in the United States, its territories and possessions. This order does not apply to tank cars, tank trucks, railroad rolling stock, tankers, barges, or other mobile marine equipment, or the construction of service stations.

RESTRICTIONS AND PERMISSIONS

SEC. 4. Restrictions on use of material. No material may be used in the petroleum and gas industries unless permission to use material is granted pursuant to the provisions of sections 5 and 6 of this order.

SEC. 5. Permitted uses of material. (a) Material may be used in the petroleum and gas industries: (1) For maintenance and repair purposes, as operating supplies, or for laboratory equipment or its installation, notwithstanding any other provision in this section; (2) for any production operation, except (i) a multiunit residential building in excess of three stories and basement or (ii) a residential unit for single family occupancy where the total floor space in the unit exceeds 2,500 square feet; (3) for any construction operation in which, for any one complete operation, the total cost of controlled materials to be used is less than $5,000, except a construction operation involving a service station; and (4) for any production or construction operation which as of May 3, 1951, has actually commenced or which has been duly authorized pursuant to the provisions of NPA Order M–4

(b) A production or construction operation will be deemed to have commenced if there has been substantial site clearance (including demolition of buildings or structures) preliminary to the start of or incident to the proposed construction operation, or if there has actually been incorporated as a part of a construction operation a substantial quantity of material which is to be an integral and permanent part of the completed operation.

SEC. 6. Application for authorization to use material. (a) Where a person wants to use material in the petroleum and gas industries but cannot do so because of the preceding provisions of this order, he must make application for authorization to use material on PAD Form 26. Five copies of the form should be prepared. One copy should be retained by the applicant, and the original and three copies, together with supporting attachments, should be sent to the Petroleum Administration for Defense, Interior Building, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–46B.

(b) The Petroleum Administration for Defense will after review, notify the applicant whether or not permission is granted to use material in the proposed operation.

(c) Any priorities assistance needed for the operation may be requested on Form PAD 26 pursuant to NPA Order M–46.

(d) Any communications in connection with Form PAD 26 should be submitted to PAD, Ref: M–46B.

SEC. 7. Prohibited deliveries. No person shall accept an order for, sell, deliver, or cause to be delivered, material which he knows or has reason to believe will be used in violation of provisions of this order.

SEC. 8. Defense against claims for damages. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for any default under contract or order which shall result directly or indirectly from compliance with any regulation or order of the National Production Authority or the Petroleum Administration for Defense (including any direction, directive, or other instruction) notwithstanding that any such regulation or order shall thereafter be declared by judicial or other competent authority invalid.

GENERAL

SEC. 9. Applicability of NPA Order M–4. Every operator shall be bound by the provisions of this order to the extent that this order is applicable to him or his operations; and except as specified herein, no operator is bound by or will be governed by the provisions of NPA Order M–4, as amended from time to time. Limitations on the construction of service stations will continue to be imposed by NPA Order M–4. Operators must make application for authority to construct a service station pursuant to the provisions of that order.

SEC. 10. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority or the Petroleum Administration for Defense, or who furnishes false information in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against such person to suspend any authority to use material or any other assistance as may be rendered pursuant to the provisions of this order.

SEC. 11. Authority. The Petroleum Administration for Defense may, pursuant to the provisions of Delegation 13 of the National Production Authority, as amended, take additional or other action in respect to the receipt, use, delivery, or other disposition of material covered by this order.

NOTE: The reporting requirements and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order shall take effect on June 1, 1951.

[NPA Order M–47 as Amended June 1, 1951]

M–47—USE OF IRON AND STEEL

This order, as amended, is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

NPA Order M-47 as amended May 4, May 29, and June 1 now reads as follows:

Sec.
1. What this order does.
2. Definitions.
3. Iron and steel products to which this order applies.
4. Application of order.
5. Use of iron and steel products in consumer durable goods.
6. Exemptions.
7. Applications for adjustment or exception.
8. Records and reports.
9. Communications.
10. Violations.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 10 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61.

SECTION 1. What this order does. The purpose of this order is to limit the use of iron and steel in the manufacture and assembly of certain products.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this order:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Base period" means the 6-month period ending June 30, 1950.

(c) "Manufacture" means to put into process, machine, fabricate, or otherwise alter materials by physical or chemical means.

(d) "Conversion steel" means steel mill products which have been obtained by the consumer in consequence of the consumer or some other person having furnished, directly or indirectly, to one or more steel producers or converters, steel mill products in a less finished form such as, but not limited to, ingots, blooms, billets, slabs, rods, skelp, and hot rolled sheets in coils, for the express purpose of procuring such steel mill products.

SEC. 3. Iron and steel products to which this order applies. This order applies to the iron and steel products listed in table I of NPA Order M-1, as amended.

SEC. 4. Application of order. This order applies to persons who use iron and steel products or parts or components made wholly or partly therefrom, for purposes of manufacture or assembly, and limits the use of such materials and parts in the manufacture or assembly of certain items. This order does not apply to the production of iron and steel.

SEC. 5. Use of iron and steel products in consumer durable goods. (a) Subject to the exemptions stated in section 6 of this order, and unless specifically authorized in writing by the National Production Authority, no person shall use during the calendar quarter commencing on April 1, 1951, in the manufacture of any item included in list A at the end of this order, a total quantity by weight of iron and steel products in excess of 80 percent of his average quarterly use of such materials in the manufactured item during the base period: Provided, however, That such use in any one month shall not exceed 40 percent of the permitted quarterly use. However, if such person manufactured one or more units of a part made wholly or partly from iron or steel products during the base period, and uses one or more purchased units of that part during said calendar quarter in any item in list A, he shall include the weight of the iron and steel products used in the manufacture of each such part, whether by himself or another, in computing his use of iron and steel products during the base period and during said calendar quarter. During the calendar quarter commencing on April 1, 1951, any person who does not use any iron and steel product in the manufacture of an item in list A, but who assembles parts made wholly or partly from such material into such item, shall not assemble a total number of units of such item in excess of 40 percent of the number of such units which he assembled during the base period.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, subject to the exemptions stated in section 6 of this order and unless specifically authorized in writing by the National Production Authority, no person shall use during the calendar quarter commencing on April 1, 1951, in the manufacture of item 1 of group VII of list A attached hereto, a total quantity by weight of iron and steel products in excess of 78⅓ percent of his average quarterly use of such materials in said manufactured item during the base period: Provided, however, That such use in the month of June 1951 shall in no event exceed 40 percent of such permitted quarterly use. However, if such person manufactured one or more units of a part made wholly or partly from iron and steel products during the base period, and uses one or more purchased units of that part during said calendar quarter in said item 1 of group VII, he shall include the weight of the iron and steel products used in the manufacture of each such part, whether by himself or another, in computing his use of iron and steel products during the base period and during said quarter. During the calendar quarter commencing on April 1, 1951, any person who does not use any iron and steel product in the manufacture of said item, but who assembles parts made wholly or partly from such material into said item, shall not assemble a total number of units of said item in excess of 39⅙ percent of the number of such units which he assembled in the base period. However, nothing in this paragraph shall preclude any person from the manufacture or assembly of such item, during the months of April and May 1951, to the extent permitted by paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Any person who during the 6-month period ending December 31, 1950, used conversion steel in the manufacture of any items included in list A at the end of this order shall, during the calendar quarter commencing on April 1, 1951, use conversion steel in the manufacture of such items to the extent stated in this paragraph. The ratio between nonconversion steel used and the total permitted use of steel shall not exceed the ratio between nonconversion steel and total steel received by him during the 6-month period ending December 31, 1950: Provided, however, That in the alternative and in the event it is not practicable to determine the quantity of conversion steel used in the manufacture of items in list A, the ratio between nonconversion steel and total steel used in his total production, including all items in list A, shall not exceed the ratio between nonconversion steel and total steel received by him during said period. Any person who selects and applies either of the alternatives above stated may not subsequently apply the other alternative without the written approval of the National Production Authority.

SEC. 6. Exemptions. (a) The manufacture or assembly of any item in list A to fill rated orders, or to meet any mandatory order of the National Production Authority, is permitted in addition to the manufacture or assembly permitted by section 5 of this order.

(b) Section 5 shall not apply to any person whose total output of manufactured and assembled items included in list A during the calendar quarter commencing April 1, 1951, has an iron and steel content (including the estimated iron and steel content of parts and semifabricated materials purchased from others) of less than 100 short tons: Provided, however, (1) That no such person shall, during said quarter, use iron and steel products (not including the estimated iron and steel content of parts and semifabricated materials purchased from others) in the manufacture of items in list A a total quantity by weight of such material in excess of his average quarterly use thereof for such purposes during the base period; and (2) That any such person who does not use any iron and steel product in the manufacture of an item in list A, but who assembles parts made wholly or partly from such material into such item, shall not assemble a total number of units of such item in excess of 50 percent of the number of such units which he assembled during the base period.

SEC. 7. Applications for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that his business operation was commenced during or after the base period, that any provision otherwise works an undue and exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. Each request shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

SEC. 8. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall retain in his possession for at least 2 years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this order have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to the National Production Authority as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 9. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-47.

SEC. 10. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority or who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act.

This order as amended shall take effect, except as otherwise specifically stated, on June 1, 1951.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
MANLY FLEISCHMANN,
Administrator.

LIST A

The items on this list A, made in whole or in part from iron and steel products or containing parts made wholly or partly from iron and steel products, are subject to the provisions of this order. (Joining hardware is not considered "parts" within the meaning of list A.) The listing following each arabic numeral shall be considered a separate item hereunder.

I. HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE

1. Household furniture: livingroom, dining room, kitchen, breakfast room, and bedroom furniture (excluding bed springs, mattresses, and dual purpose sleeping equipment).
2. Other household furniture, including but not limited to beach, sunroom, garden, porch, lawn furniture, and steamer chairs.
3. Household cabinets such as kitchen, wardrobe, broom, and medicine cabinets.

II. OFFICE, PUBLIC BUILDING, PROFESSIONAL, BUSINESS, AND STORE FURNITURE AND FIXTURES (EXCLUDING MEDICAL, DENTAL, AND HOSPITAL SPECIALTIES)

1. Furniture and fixtures such as desks (excluding seats and desks designed for school use), bookcases, shelving, tables, stands, booths, filing cabinets, and transfer cases, including card and document cases.
2. Furniture and fixtures such as chairs, stools, benches, sofas, couches, settees, clothing racks, and costumers.
3. Restaurant furniture and fixtures, including tray stands and serving tables.
4. Theater, auditorium, stadium, and grandstand chairs and seats, ganged and single, indoor or outdoor types.
5. Barber shop and beauty shop furniture especially designed for such use, including but not limited to manicure tables, dresserettes, hydraulic and reclining chairs, and couch units.
6. Soda fountain creamers.
7. Beer dispensing equipment and fixtures.

III. OFFICE, PUBLIC BUILDING, PROFESSIONAL, BUSINESS, AND STORE PARTITIONS, SHELVING, LOCKERS, AND FIXTURES (EXCLUDING MEDICAL, DENTAL, AND HOSPITAL SPECIALTIES)

1. Lockers (except especially designed and made for the armed services), partitions, and shelving.
2. Show and display cases (including wall types), show and display tables, cabinets (floor and wall types), and counters.
3. Store and office decorative and ornamental fixtures.
4. Telephone booths.

IV. HOUSEHOLD APPLIANCES, HOUSEHOLD MACHINES, AND HOUSEHOLD EQUIPMENT

1. Cooking stoves and ranges.
2. Small electric appliances, including but not limited to: broilers; coffee percolators and urns; heating units for coffee makers; hot plates and disc stoves; roasters; toasters; waffle irons; sandwich grills; cookers; casseroles; food mixers; juice extractors; drink mixers and whippers; hand and hair dryers; vibrators; portable electric air space heaters; electric steam radiators; flat irons, including steam irons; and immersion heaters.
3. Electric fans, 16 inches and under.
4. Floor waxing and polishing machines.
5. Portable electric lamps, including office types, such as, floor, bridge, desk, torch, table, pin-up lamps, and lamp shades.
6. Home laundry equipment, including but not limited to: clothes dryers, gas and electric; mechanical ironers and mangles; and washing machines, electric and gasoline types.
7. Refrigerators, mechanical and ice, and cabinets for household refrigerators sold separately.
8. Home and farm freezers under 13 cubic foot capacity, and cabinets for same sold separately.
9. Dish-washing machines.
10. Water softeners.
11. Automatic food and garbage disposal units.
12. Vacuum cleaners.
13. Carpet sweepers.
14. Packaged air conditioning units (window and console types) ¾ horsepower and under.

V. UTENSIL AND CUTLERY

1. Pocket knives.
2. Silverware, including but not limited to: flatware, hollow ware, novelties, toilet ware, and trophies.
3. Plated ware, including but not limited to: flatware, hollow ware, novelties, toilet ware, and trophies.
4. Table and kitchen cutlery, such as all types of knives, forks, spoons, and carving sets.

VI. RADIO, TELEVISION, AND PHONOGRAPHS

1. Radio receivers, home, portable, and broadcast band automobile receivers.
2. Radio-phonograph combinations.
3. Television receivers.
4. Radio-television receivers, television-phonograph combinations, and radio-television-phonograph combinations.
5. Phonographs and record players.

VII. TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

1. Passenger automobiles and station wagons.
2. Motorcycles, motor scooters, motor bikes.
3. Bicycles.
4. Ships and boats, except military and commercial.
5. Aircraft, except military and commercial.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS

1. Cameras, amateur box type still picture, fixed focus (except reflex), and 8-mm. motion picture cameras and projectors.
2. Coin operated scales and automatic merchandising machines.
3. Games, toys, and children's vehicles.
4. Jewelry, novelties, ornaments, and jewelry cases.
5. Lawn mowers, rollers, seeders, and tampers.
6. Musical instruments.
7. Pianos and organs.
8. Paper weights, desk and document trays, and letter openers.
9. Smokers' articles such as ash trays; cigar, cigarette, and match cases; and holders, lighters, pipe cleaners, and smoking stands.
10. Venetian blinds, shades, and awnings.
11. Fireplace fixtures and equipment such as dampers, irons, and fire screens.
12. Sporting and athletic goods.
13. Morticians' goods and equipment such as caskets, coffins, vaults, liners, but excluding wooden coffin hardware, instruments, and supplies.
14. Coin or slug operated gambling, amusement, or musical devices or machines.
15. Signs and advertising displays.
16. Mirror and picture frames.
17. Wire garment hangers.

IX. ACCESSORIES

Accessories for any single item in this list A shall constitute a separate item for the purposes of this order, and shall also be an item separate from the item to which it is an accessory.

An "accessory" shall mean any product used with or attachable to an item described in this list A and which is generally known in the trade as an "accessory."

[Amendment No. 1 to NPA Order M-47, as Amended June 1, 1951]

M-47—USE OF IRON AND STEEL

This amendment is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this amendment, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. However, consultation with representatives of all trades and industries affected has been rendered impracticable due to the necessity for immediate action and because the order affects a large number of different trades and industries.

This amendment affects NPA Order M-47, as amended, as follows:

A. Paragraph (b) of section 2 is amended to read as follows:

(b) "Base period" means the 6-month period ending June 30, 1950, except as otherwise provided in section 7 of this order.

B. Paragraphs (e), (f), and (g) are added to section 2 providing respectively as follows:

(e) "Third quarter" means the calendar quarter commencing July 1, 1951.

(f) "Item" means the various products included in the listing following each Arabic numeral in list A attached hereto.

(g) "Part" means any part made wholly or partly from an iron and steel product within the meaning of "iron and steel product" indicated in section 3, and includes partially fabricated material which has lost its identity as an iron and steel product.

C. Section 5 shall be deleted and the following substituted therefor:

SEC. 5. Use of iron and steel products in consumer durable goods. Subject to the exemptions stated in section 6 of this order, or unless specifically authorized in writing by the National Production Authority, the following provisions shall apply to the use of iron and steel products and parts in consumer durable goods:

(a) No person shall use during the third quarter, in the manufacture of any item, a total quantity by weight of iron and steel products in excess of 70 percent of his average quarterly use of such materials in the manufactured item during the base period. However, if such person used an iron and steel product in the manufacture of one or more units of a part for an item during the base period, and uses one or more purchased units of that part during the third quarter in such item, he shall include the weight of the iron and steel products used in the manufacture of each such part, whether by himself or another, in computing his use of iron and steel products during the base period and during the third quarter. Paragraph (b) of this section shall also apply to any person subject to this paragraph, to the extent that he assembles in his manufactured item purchased parts which he did not manufacture in the base period.

(b) Except as provided in the last sentence of paragraph (a) of this section, any person who uses purchased parts in the assembly of an item during the third quarter shall, as to such item, comply with one of the following limitations:

(1) He shall not use in excess of 70 percent of the average quarterly number of units of each such part which he used during the base period; or

(2) He shall not assemble a number of units of an item in excess of 70 percent of the average quarterly number of units of such item which he assembled during the base period; or

(3) He shall not use a quantity by weight of all such parts in excess of 70 percent of his average quarterly use of all such parts during the base period. Such weight shall be computed upon the weight of the iron and steel content of the part as used.

(c) During any month of the third quarter, no use in manufacture or rate of assembly subject to the limitations of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall exceed 40 percent of the permitted quarterly use or rate of assembly.

(d) Any person who, during the 6-month period ending December 31, 1950, used conversion steel in the manufacture of any item shall, during the third quarter, use conversion steel in the manufacture of items to the extent stated in this paragraph. The ratio between nonconversion steel used and the total permitted use of steel shall not exceed the ratio between nonconversion steel and total steel received by him during the 6-month period ending December 31, 1950: Provided, however, That in the alternative and in the event it is not practicable to determine the quantity of conversion steel used in the manufacture of items, the ratio between nonconversion steel and total steel used in his total production, including all items, shall not exceed the ratio between nonconversion steel and total steel received by him during said 6-month period. Any person who selects and applies either of the alternatives above stated may not subsequently apply the other alternative without the written approval of the National Production Authority.

D. Section 6 shall be deleted and the following substituted therefor:

SEC. 6. Exemptions. (a) The manufacture or assembly of any item to fill rated orders, or to meet any mandatory order of the National Production Authority, shall be subject to the limitations of this order: Provided, however, That in cases where such limitations will delay or prevent the filling of such orders, application may be made for adjustment or exception pursuant to section 8 of this order.

(b) Any person, whose total output of manufactured and assembled items during the third quarter has a carbon steel or alloy steel content not in excess of the following quantities, shall be exempt from the provisions of this order as to carbon steel products or alloy steel products or both, as the case may be:

Type of products:	Amount
Carbon steel	5 short tons.
Alloy steel (except stainless steel)	1,000 pounds.

The terms "carbon steel" and "alloy steel" are used as defined in schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1. In computing such content, there shall be included both the use of carbon steel products and alloy steel products and the estimated carbon steel and alloy steel content of parts purchased from others.

(c) Any person whose total output of manufactured and assembled items during the third quarter has an iron and steel content (including the estimated iron and steel content of parts purchased from others) of less than 100 short tons may substitute the phrase "90 percent" for the phrase "70 percent" wherever it appears in section 5 of this order, and he shall not be subject to paragraph (d) of that section.

E. The following section shall be inserted as section 7 of the order, and the present sections 7 through 10 shall be accordingly renumbered as sections 8 through 11:

SEC. 7. Seasonality. Any person may at his option determine his permitted use or rate of assembly under this order by using as a base period, the 6-month period ending December 31, 1949: Provided, however, That such person shall then use that base period for all manufactured or assembled items.

F. List A attached to the order as amended as an appendix shall be deleted and list A attached hereto shall be substituted therefor.

G. A new section 12 is added to read as follows:

SEC. 12. Effect on prior provisions. Nothing contained herein shall impair or affect any provision contained in the order, as amended, which provision shall have been in effect prior to the effective date of this amendment, insofar as such provision may apply to operations during the calendar quarter commencing April 1, 1951.

(Sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61)

This amendment shall take effect July 1, 1951.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
MANLY FLEISCHMANN,
Administrator.

LIST A

The items on this list A, made in whole or in part from iron and steel products or containing parts made wholly or partly from iron and steel products, are subject to the provisions of this order. (Joining hardware is not considered "parts" within the meaning of list A.) The listing following each Arabic numeral shall be considered a separate item hereunder.

I. METAL AND WOOD HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE (EXCLUDING BEDSPRINGS, MATTRESSES, AND DUAL-PURPOSE SLEEPING EQUIPMENT)

1. Household furniture predominantly of wood materials, including upholstered furniture (excluding products using less than 5 percent of iron and steel parts by weight, not including weight of joining hardware), including but not limited to living room, dining room, kitchen, breakfast room, and bedroom furniture.

2. Household furniture predominantly of metal materials, including upholstered furniture, including but not limited to beach, recreation room, kitchen, sunroom, garden, porch, and lawn furniture.

II. OTHER FURNITURE AND FIXTURES (EXCLUDING MEDICAL, DENTAL, AND HOSPITAL SPECIALTIES, BEDSPRINGS, MATTRESSES, AND DUAL-PURPOSE SLEEPING EQUIPMENT)

Restaurant furniture and fixtures, including tray stands and serving tables.

2. Barber shop and beauty shop furniture especially designed for such use, including but not limited to manicure tables, dressettes, hydraulic and reclining chairs, and couch units.

3. Soda fountain creamers, beer dispensing equipment.

4. All other office, commercial, or industrial furniture, including but not limited to: desks; stools; sofas; bookcases; tables; chairs; stands; booths; filing cabinets; transfer cases (including card and document cases); clothing racks; costumers; and theater, auditorium, stadium, and grandstand chairs and seats, ganged and single, indoor or outdoor types; and window boxes; but excluding seats and desks designed for school use.

III. PARTITIONS, SHELVING, LOCKERS, AND FIXTURES (EXCLUDING MEDICAL, DENTAL, AND HOSPITAL SPECIALTIES)

1. Lockers; partitions and shelving (excluding specially designed factory partitions and shelving); household cabinets, such as kitchen, wardrobe, broom, and medicine cabinets; and telephone booths.

2. Show and display cases (including wall types), show and display tables, and counters.

3. Store and office decorative and ornamental fixtures.

IV. APPLIANCES, MACHINES, AND EQUIPMENT

1. Cooking stoves, ranges, combination cooking stoves, and combination ranges (domestic).

2. Small household type electric appliances, including but not limited to: broilers; coffee percolators and urns; hot plates and disc stoves; roasters; toasters; waffle irons; sandwich grills; cookers; casseroles; food mixers; juice extractors; drink mixers and whippers; hand hair dryers; vibrators; non-industrial electric air space heaters; electric steam radiators; flat irons, including steam irons; immersion heaters; and portable electric water heaters.

3. Electric fans: desk-bracket, wall, pedestal, and floor or hassock fans 16 inches and under; attic, household, and window ventilating and kitchen exhaust fans of all sizes.

4. Floor waxing and polishing machines, vacuum cleaners and carpet sweepers (household).

5. Portable electric lamps, including office types, such as floor, bridge, desk, torch, table, pin-up lamps, and lamp shades.

6. Home laundry equipment, including but not limited to: clothes dryers (gas and electric), mechanical ironers and mangles, electric and gasoline type washing machines, and ironing boards; dishwashing machines, automatic food and garbage disposal units, and water softeners (household).

7. Household refrigerators, mechanical and ice, and cabinets for household refrigerators sold separately; home and farm freezers under 13 cubic foot capacity, and cabinets for same sold separately; bottled beverage coolers (all types); and bulk beverage dispensers (all types).

8. Packaged air conditioning units (window and console types) ¾ horsepower and under; and dehumidifiers for home and office including self-contained types with complete refrigeration cycle.

V. UTENSILS AND CUTLERY

1. Pocket knives.

2. Silverware, including but not limited to: flatware, hollow ware, novelties, toilet ware, and trophies.

3. Plated ware, including but not limited to: flatware, hollow ware, novelties, toilet ware, and trophies.

4. Table and kitchen cutlery, such as all types of knives, forks, spoons, and carving sets.

VI. RADIO, TELEVISION, AND PHONOGRAPHS

1. Radio receivers, home, portable, and broadcast band automobile receivers; radio-phonograph combinations; also radio-phonograph combinations including wire and tape recorders.

2. Television receivers; radio-television receivers; television-phonograph combination (including combinations with wire and tape recorders); and radio-television-phonographs combination (including combinations with wire and tape recorders).

3. Phonographs and record players.

VII. TRANSPORTATION EQUIPMENT

1. Motorcycles, motor scooters, motor bikes.

2. Bicycles.

3. Ships and boats, except military and commercial.

4. Aircraft, except military and commercial.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS

1. Automatic merchandising machines; coin-operated scales; home bathroom scales; nonmechanical and nonelectrical beverage coolers, and musical devices or machines.

2. Games, toys, and children's vehicles not including baby carriages and strollers not of play or toy type).

3. Jewelry, novelties, ornaments, and jewelry cases.

4. Lawn mowers, rollers, seeders, and tampers.

5. Musical instruments, including equipment, stands, cases, etc.

6. Pianos and organs.

7. Paper weights; desk and document trays; letter openers; smokers' articles such as: ash trays, cigar, cigarette and match cases, holders, lighters, pipe cleaners, and smoking stands; book-ends; and calendar stands.

8. Venetian blinds, shades, and awnings.

9. Fireplace fixtures and equipment, such as dampers, irons, and fire screens.

10. Sporting and athletic goods.

11. Morticians' goods and equipment such as caskets, coffins, vaults, and liners; but excluding wooden coffin hardware, instruments, and supplies.

12. Signs and advertising displays, but excluding safety and traffic control signs and markers.

13. Mirror and picture frames.

14. Garment hangers.

15. Grocery and retail market type baskets and carts.

16. Gambling and amusement devices or machines.

IX. ACCESSORIES

Accessories for any single item in this list A shall constitute a separate item for the purposes of this order, and shall also be an item separate from the item to which it is an accessory.

An "accessory" shall mean any product used with or attachable to an item described in this list A and which is generally known in the trade as an "accessory."

[NPA Order M-50 as Amended June 5, 1951]

M-50—ELECTRIC UTILITIES

This order as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority of section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order, as amended, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

This amendment affects NPA Order M-50 as follows: It amends appendices A, B, and C, and adds appendices D, E, and F. As amended, NPA Order M-50 reads as follows:

ARTICLE I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec.
1. What this order does.
2. Definitions.
3. Applications for adjustment or exception.
4. Records and reports.
5. Communications.
6. Violations.

ARTICLE II—MAINTENANCE, REPAIR, AND OPERATING SUPPLIES AND MINOR CAPITAL ADDITIONS

21. Modification of NPA Reg. 4 (MRO).
22. Quarterly MRO quotas.
23. Quantity restrictions.
24. Applications for increased MRO quotas.

ARTICLE III—PROGRAM MATERIALS

31. Procurement of program materials generally.
32. Major plant additions.
33. Minor requirements.
34. Form of certification.
35. Quarterly program material quotas for minor requirements.
36. Inventory restrictions.
37. Filing of forms.
38. Applications for increased program material quotas.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 38 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61.

ARTICLE I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 1. What this order does. (a) This order provides rules of special application to the procurement and use of materials by electric utilities.

(b) Article II modifies the application of NPA Reg. 4 to electric utilities and supersedes any conflicting provisions in NPA Reg. 4. All the provisions of NPA Reg. 4 apply to electric utilities except as modified by this order.

(c) Article III authorizes electric utilities to apply DO-48 ratings to orders for program materials to be used in major plant additions upon DEPA approval. In addition, it provides that electric utilities may not use any program materials in major plant additions after May 1, 1951, unless authorized by DEPA. The procurement of program materials for minor requirements, that is, requirements for all purposes except use in major plant additions, is governed by a self-rating procedure. Subject to certain inventory controls and quota limitations, each electric utility is authorized to apply DO-48 (Minor) ratings to certain orders for program materials for minor requirements.

SEC. 2. Definitions. (a) "Electric utility" means any individual, partnership, association, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not, located in the United States, its territories or possessions, supplying, or having facilities built for supplying electric power, directly or indirectly, for general use by the public or for use by its members. In the case of an electric utility engaged in the supply of electric power and in other activities, this order shall apply only to the procurement and use of materials required directly or indirectly for the supply of electric power.

(b) "DEPA" means the administrator of Defense Electric Power Administration.

(c) "Maintenance" means maintenance as defined in NPA Reg. 4, and "repair" means repair as defined in NPA Reg. 4. However, "maintenance" and "repair" include the replacement of any equipment regardless of its accounting classification, but neither "maintenance" nor "repair" includes the improvement of any plant, facility, or equipment or the replacement of material which is in sound working condition with material of a better kind, quality, design, or greater capacity.

(d) "Operating supplies" means material, other than fuel, which is consumed in the course of an electric utility's operations, except in maintenance, repair, and plant additions.

(e) "Plant addition" means the construction or installation of new facilities or the replacement of existing facilities with facilities of greater capacity. Single plant additions may not be combined or subdivided for purposes of affecting their classification as "major plant additions," as defined in this section. To assist in determining whether particular construction constitutes one, or more than one, plant addition, it shall be considered that a single plant addition consists of:

(1) Any construction of related facilities, excluding maintenance and repair work, which is completed during a continuous period of construction, not interrupted by periods of time such as months or years, except where such interruption is caused by uncontrollable forces, such as adverse weather conditions.

(2) In the case of line construction, a single continuous integrated system of lines, with necessary connected substations. (Thus, several sections of line emanating from different points on a utility's system would be several plant additions, not one plant addition.)

(f) "Major plant addition" means any plant addition constructed by an electric utility which involves one or more of the following:

(1) Line construction designed for operation at more than 15 kv where the plant addition requires more than 10,000 pounds gross weight of conductor, or

(2) Line construction designed for operation at 15 kv or less where the plant addition has a net material cost exceeding $50,000, or

(3) Non-line construction, including but not limited to construction of or additions to generating plant, sub-stations, or buildings, where the plant addition has a net material cost over $50,000, except that non-line construction shall not include construction for which specific NPA authorization is required under NPA Order M-4.

(g) "Minor requirements" means electric utility requirements of program materials for all purposes (including MRO) except major plant additions, and except construction for which NPA authorization is required under NPA Order M-4.

(h) "Gross weight of conductor" means, in the case of overhead lines, the weight of conductor as installed, including steel content in the case of conductor containing steel, without deduction for material salvaged; and in the case of underground lines the copper and aluminum content only, without deduction for material salvaged.

(i) "Line construction" means construction of both overhead and underground lines.

(j) "Net material cost" means the cost of all material, including any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly, or product of any kind, incorporated in plant, less the cost of all material removed from plant, priced in accordance with the electric utility's regular accounting practice.

(k) "Inventory of program material" means all new or salvaged program material in the possession of an electric utility, unless physically incorporated in plant, without regard to its accounting classification, excluding, however:

(1) Program material specifically set aside on the effective date of this order for use in time of emergency, and replacement thereof, and

(2) Program material set aside for use in any major plant addition. Program material set aside for use in such major plant addition which will not be used in such major plant addition shall be included in inventory.

(l) "Program material" means any material which is the subject of an appendix to this order.

SEC. 3. Applications for adjustment or exception. (a) Any electric utility affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception on the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon such utility not suffered generally by other electric utilities, or that its enforcement against such utility would not be in the interest of national defense or in the public interest. Each request shall be in writing, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

(b) Each such request shall be addressed to DEPA and, if approved, DEPA will grant an appropriate adjustment or exception.

SEC. 4. Records and reports. (a) Each electric utility participating in any transaction covered by this order shall retain in its possession for at least 2 years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this order have been met, including the amounts of quarterly quotas, the method of computation, factual justification, methods of figuring quotas, and charges against them. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

(b) Each electric utility shall make such further records and submit such further reports to DEPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 5. Communications. All communications concerning this order and NPA Reg. 4, as modified by this order, and all requests for forms shall be addressed to the Defense Electric Power Administration, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D. C.

SEC. 6. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or any other order or regulation of NPA or who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

ARTICLE II—MAINTENANCE, REPAIR, AND OPERATING SUPPLIES AND MINOR CAPITAL ADDITIONS

SEC. 21. Modification of NPA Reg. 4 (MRO). This article modifies the application of NPA Reg. 4 (MRO) to electric utilities and supersedes any conflicting provisions in NPA Reg. 4. All the provisions of NPA Reg. 4 and all other applicable orders and regulations of NPA apply to electric utilities except as modified by this order.

SEC. 22. Quarterly MRO quotas—(a) Computation of quota. Subject to the exclusions provided in paragraph (b) of this section, an electric utility, in computing its quarterly MRO quotas, may include all expenditures for operating supplies and for materials used for maintenance and repair, as those terms are defined in this order.

(b) Exclusions from quota. In computing its quarterly MRO quota, no electric utility shall include any expenditure for:

(1) Any electric utility program material subject to Article III of this order.

(2) Any item included in schedule A of NPA Order M-44.

(3) Any other item costing more than $10,000.

SEC. 23. Quantity restrictions — (a) Charges against quota. No electric utility shall obtain by use of the DO-97 rating any material excluded in paragraph (b) of section 22 of this order from its quarterly MRO quota, nor shall any utility charge against its quarterly MRO quota any order or receipt of such material.

(b) Emergency excess of quota. Subject to the restrictions of paragraph (a) of this section, if an electric utility has so far exhausted its MRO quota that an insufficient quota remains in any quarter to procure necessary material for maintenance or repair of its equipment or property, other than buildings, which is damaged or destroyed by extraordinary cause such as explosion, fire, sabotage, act of the public enemy, flood, storm or similar catastrophe, the utility may exceed its quota for that quarter to the extent necessary to procure such emergency materials: Provided however, That any such excess of quota must be immediately reported, together with the reasons therefor, to DEPA.

SEC. 24. Applications for increased MRO quotas. An electric utility's application for an increased MRO quota, to be submitted as provided in section 3 of this order, shall show such utility's existing MRO quota, any prior adjustments thereof, the amount of increase requested, the necessity for such increase, such utility's output per quarter in kilowatt hours commencing with the first quarter of 1950, and any other information pertinent to proper evaluation of such application.

ARTICLE III—PROGRAM MATERIALS

SEC. 31. Procurement of program materials generally. Subject to the quantity restrictions provided by this article, the ratings authorized by this article shall be applied to all orders for any program material, including outstanding unrated orders, scheduled for delivery in or prior to a quarter for which a program material quota or authorization is effective, and no utility shall place unrated orders for any program material scheduled for delivery in such a quarter. Accordingly, all outstanding orders for any program material, except those calling for delivery in a subsequent quarter, shall be either rated, rescheduled for delivery in a subsequent quarter, or canceled within 15 days after such material becomes subject to the provisions of this order.

SEC. 32. Major plant additions. In order to obtain any program material for any major plant addition, an electric utility is hereby authorized to apply the DO-48 rating to orders for the quantity of such program material specified by DEPA for that purpose. In addition, when authorized by DEPA, an electric utility may apply the DO-48 (Minor) rating to orders for any program material for major plant additions not otherwise authorized by DEPA: Provided, That its minor requirements quota is charged with the quantities covered by such orders: And provided further, That no increase of such electric utility's minor requirements quota shall thereafter be granted which would replace for use for minor requirements purposes, the quantities of materials so diverted for use in major plant additions. As to program materials already on hand, no electric utility, after June 1, 1951, shall use any such program material in a major plant addition unless such use is expressly authorized by DEPA.

SEC. 33. Minor requirements. Subject to the restrictions contained in sections 36 and 37 of this order, each electric utility is hereby authorized to apply DO-48 (Minor) ratings to order any program material for its minor requirements: Provided, That no electric utility may exceed its quota for such program material.

SEC. 34. Form of certificate. The DO-48 or DO-48 (Minor) rating shall be applied by placing on the orders for any program material, or on a separate piece of paper attached thereto, the symbol "DO-48" or "DO-48 (Minor)," together with the words "Certified under NPA Order M-50." Such certification shall be signed as prescribed in section 8 of NPA Reg. 2.

SEC. 35. Quarterly program material quotas for minor requirements. Unless DEPA has prescribed otherwise, an electric utility may elect to use either a standard quota or an alternative quota but may not thereafter change from one quota to the other without the express approval of DEPA.

(a) Standard quota. An electric utility's standard quota for any program material for any calendar quarter is the percentage specified in the applicable appendix to this order of the quantity of such material which it used for minor requirements in the calendar year 1950 (or, if it operated on a fiscal year basis, in its fiscal year ending nearest to December 31, 1950).

(b) Alternative quota. An electric utility's alternative quota for any program material for any calendar quarter is the percentage specified in the applicable appendix to this order of the quantity of such material which it used in the corresponding calendar quarter of 1950 (or, if it operated on a fiscal year basis, in the corresponding quarter of its fiscal year ending nearest to December 31, 1950).

(c) Quota where 1950 base inapplicable. An electric utility not in operation throughout the year 1950 (calendar or fiscal) shall establish its standard or alternative program material quota in accordance with this section by adjusting, in direct proportion, its actual use of such program material for part of the year to an annual basis. To determine an alternative quota in such cases, the adjusted annual use may be unequally distributed among 4 quarters to reflect seasonal variations. An electric utility not in operation throughout 1950 shall report to DEPA the program material quota which it establishes in accordance with this section. If an electric utility was not in operation during any part of the year 1950 (calendar or fiscal), it may apply to DEPA for a program material quota, supplying in detail information pertinent to a proper evaluation of its application.

(d) Special provisions. DEPA may, by notice addressed to individual electric utilities, prescribe quarterly program material quotas for minor requirements greater or less than such utility's standard or alternative quotas.

SEC. 36. Inventory restrictions. No electric utility shall order any program material if, after the receipt of such program material, its inventory of such program material would be or become in excess of 25 percent of the weight of such program material which it used for its minor requirements during the year 1950 (calendar or fiscal), except that an electric utility may order for delivery in any quarter a quantity of any particular item of such program material equal to the amount by which its required use of such item in such quarter exceeds the quantity of such items which it has or will have on hand at the beginning of such quarter. This provision shall not authorize any electric utility to exceed its quota for minor requirements.

SEC. 37. Filing of forms. Prior to its first application of the DO-48 (Minor) rating to an order for delivery of any program material in the second quarter of 1951 for use for minor requirements, each electric utility must file with DEPA the applicable form in the DEPA-4 series. Forms in the DEPA-4 series shall be deemed to be filed when addressed to DEPA and deposited for mailing in any United States post office.

SEC. 38. Applications for increased program material quotas. Each application for an increased program material quota shall contain the following information:

(a) Statement of the amount of any special authorization which the utility has received,

(b) Statement of the total amount of each program material requested to be authorized for use in minor requirements during each quarter, including the base period quota permitted by the applicable appendix to this order,

(c) Detailed statement of necessity for larger quota, and

(d) Any additional information which may be pertinent to proper evaluation of the application.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order as amended shall take effect on June 5, 1951.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
MANLY FLEISCHMANN,
Administrator.

APPENDIX A—ALUMINUM CONDUCTOR

1. Definition. "Aluminum conductor" means any wire, cable, or bus bar which contains aluminum. Aluminum conductor shall be measured in terms of gross weight of conductor for purposes of computing second quarter minor requirements quotas and charges against such quotas. For the third and subsequent quarters, aluminum conductor shall be measured in terms of the net weight of aluminum content for purposes of computing minor requirements quota and charges against such quotas. Electric utilities may rate orders for aluminum conductor for delivery in the third quarter in the same manner as orders for delivery in the second quarter.

2. Aluminum conductor quotas for minor requirements for second quarter.

Standard quota: 20 percent.

Alternative quota: 80 percent.

3. Aluminum conductor quotas for minor requirements for third quarter.

Standard quota: 12½ percent.

Alternative quota: 50 percent.

4. Exemption from quantity restrictions. The quantity restrictions applicable to aluminum conductor shall not apply to any electric utility which orders for delivery in any calendar quarter a gross weight of aluminum conductor which does not exceed 5,000 pounds.

5. Applicable forms. The form which an electric utility is required to file prior to its first application of the DO-48 (Minor) rating to an order for aluminum conductor as provided in section 37 of this order is Form DEPA-4A.

6. Effect on NPA Order M–7. The provisions of this order supersede NPA Order M–7 with respect to the procurement and use of aluminum conductor by electric utilities. The use by electric utilities of forms and shapes of aluminum listed in section 3 of NPA Order M–7, other than aluminum conductor and aluminum conductor accessories, remains subject to the restrictions of NPA Order M–7.

APPENDIX B—ALUMINUM CONDUCTOR ACCESSORIES

1. Definition. "Aluminum conductor accessories" means any accessories containing aluminum or steel, such as clamps, twisting sleeves, and armor rods, which are used for the installation of aluminum conductor.

2. Quantity authorized for major plant additions. Each electric utility which has been authorized to order aluminum conductor for delivery in the second or third quarter of 1951 for use in any major plant addition, as provided in section 32 of this order, is hereby authorized to order for delivery in such quarter the quantity of aluminum conductor accessories necessary for use in connection with such aluminum conductor, and is authorized to apply the DO–48 rating to such orders.

3. Quantity authorized for minor requirements. There are no quotas applicable to the procurement of aluminum conductor accessories. Each electric utility is authorized to apply DO–48 (Minor) ratings to orders for the quantity of aluminum conductor accessories necessary for use in connection with the aluminum conductor which such electric utility is authorized to order for its minor requirements for delivery in any quarter and for such additional quantity which it requires for use in such quarter in maintenance and repair. No electric utility may order for delivery in any quarter a quantity of aluminum conductor accessories for minor requirements which exceeds the quantity authorized in this paragraph.

4. Effect on NPA Order M–7. The provisions of this order supersede NPA Order M–7 with respect to the procurement and use of aluminum conductor accessories by electric utilities. The use by electric utilities of forms and shapes of aluminum listed in section 3 of NPA Order M–7, other than aluminum conductor and aluminum conductor accessories, remains subject to the restrictions of NPA Order M–7.

5. Filing of forms not required. No forms are required to be filed prior to application of the DO–48 (Minor) rating to orders for aluminum conductor accessories.

6. Extension of ratings. The DO–48 and DO–48 (Minor) ratings shall not be extended by manufacturers of accessories so long as such manufacturers are permitted under NPA Order M–44 to apply the DO–45 rating to order materials for manufacturing aluminum conductor accessories.

APPENDIX C—COPPER

1. Definition. (a) "Copper wire mill product" means bare wire, insulated wire and cable whatever the outer protective coverings may be, and uninsulated wire and cables, where the conductors are made from copper, copper-base alloy, or copper-clad steel containing over 20 percent copper by weight. All copper wire mill products should be measured in terms of pounds of copper content. Accordingly, minor requirements quotas and charges against such quotas must be computed on the basis of net weight of copper.

(b) "Brass mill product" means sheet, including strip and plate; rod, including bars, and extruded shapes; wire; or tube, including pipe, made from copper or copper-base alloy. This does not include copper wire mill products.

(c) "Foundry products" means cast copper and copper-base alloy shapes or forms suitable for ultimate use without remelting, rolling, drawing, extruding, or forging. (Includes the removal of gates, risers, and sprues, and sandblasting, tumbling, or dipping, but excludes any further machining or processing.)

2. Copper wire mill products, brass mill products, and foundry products quotas for minor requirements for second quarter.
Standard quota: 18¾ percent.
Alternative quota: 75 percent.

3. Copper wire mill products, brass mill products, and foundry products quotas for minor requirements for third quarter.
Standard quota: 18¾ percent.
Alternative quota: 75 percent.

4. Exemption from quantity restrictions. The quantity restrictions applicable to copper wire mill products, brass mill products, and foundry products shall not apply to any electric utility which orders for delivery in any calendar quarter a quantity of copper wire mill products, brass mill products, and foundry products which does not exceed 5,000 pounds in the aggregate.

5. Applicable forms. The form which an electric utility is required to file prior to its first application of the DO–48 (Minor) rating to an order for copper wire mill products, brass mill products, and foundry products, as provided in section 37 of this order, is Form DEPA–4C.

6. Effect on NPA Order M–12. This order supersedes NPA Order M–12 with respect to procurement and use by electric utilities of copper wire mill products, brass mill products, and foundry products.

APPENDIX D—CARBON STEEL

1. Definition. "Carbon steel" means carbon steel, including wrought iron, in the forms and shapes indicated in schedule 1 of CMP Regulation No. 1.

2. No carbon steel quotas for minor requirements for second quarter. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33 of this order, no electric utility may apply DO–48 (Minor) ratings to orders for minor requirements of carbon steel for delivery in the second quarter.

3. Carbon steel quotas for minor requirements for third quarter.
Standard quota: 18¾ percent.
Alternative quota: 75 percent.

APPENDIX E—ALLOY STEEL (EXCEPT STAINLESS STEEL)

1. Definition. "Alloy steel" means alloy steel in the forms and shapes indicated in schedule 1 of CMP Regulation No. 1.

2. No alloy steel quotas for minor requirements for second quarter. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33 of this order, no electric utility may apply DO–48 (Minor) ratings to orders for minor requirements of alloy steel for delivery in the second quarter.

3. Alloy steel quotas for minor requirements for third quarter.
Standard quota: 18¾ percent.
Alternative quota: 75 percent.

APPENDIX F—STAINLESS STEEL

1. Definition. "Stainless steel" means stainless steel in the forms and shapes indicated in schedule 1 of CMP Regulation No. 1.

2. No stainless steel quotas for minor requirements for second quarter. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33 of this order, no electric utility may apply DO–48 (Minor) ratings to orders for minor requirements of stainless steel for delivery in the second quarter.

3. Stainless steel quotas for minor requirements for third quarter.
Standard quota: 18¾ percent.
Alternative quota: 75 percent.

[NPA Order M–67]

M–67—ALUMINUM FOIL IN CONTAINERS OR PACKAGING MATERIAL

This order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. However, consultation with representatives of all trades and industries affected by the issuance of this order has been rendered impracticable by the fact that this order affects a very substantial number of different trades and industries.

Sec.
1. What this order does.
2. Definitions.
3. Restrictions on amount of aluminum foil that may be used in containers and packaging material.
4. Other restrictions.
5. Exceptions.
6. Applications for adjustment or exception.
7. Records and reports.
8. Communications.
9. Violations.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 9 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105, 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61.

SECTION 1. What this order does. This order places restrictions upon the use of aluminum foil in rigid or flexible containers, wrappers, bags, and envelopes. Schedule I appearing at the end of this order specifies quantity limitations in such use of aluminum foil. These limitations vary according to the product to be packaged. NPA Order M–7, as amended, permits the use of aluminum for such purposes in accordance with the terms of this order. NPA Order M–26, as amended, regulates the use of aluminum foil for aluminum cap liners and other packaging closures.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this order:

(a) "Aluminum foil" means aluminum rolled to a thickness of 0.005 inch or less.

(b) "Base period" means the 6-month period ending December 31, 1950.

(c) "Container or packaging material" means any rigid or flexible container, wrapper, bag, or envelope, made in whole or in part of aluminum foil.

(d) "Manufacture" means to put into process or otherwise fabricate or alter aluminum foil by physical means.

(e) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States Government or any other government.

SEC. 3. Restrictions on amount of aluminum foil that may be used in containers and packaging material. Subject to the exceptions in section 5 of this order, no person shall use a greater quantity by weight of aluminum foil in any one month, beginning with the month of June 1951, in the manufacture of any container or packaging material for any particular class of product than that quantity by weight of aluminum foil determined by applying the percentage listed in column 2 of schedule I opposite that particular class of product against the average monthly quantity by weight of aluminum foil which he used in the manufacture of containers or packaging material for that particular class of product during the base period. In computing such average monthly quantity, a person shall exclude the quantity by weight of aluminum foil which he used during the base period in the manufacture of (a) containers or packaging material on orders having a DO rating, and (b) aluminum cap liners and other packaging closures.

SEC. 4. Other restrictions. Effective June 1, 1951:

(a) No person shall use in the manufacture of any container or packaging material a greater quantity or better grade of aluminum foil than is necessary for protective purposes.

(b) No person shall use aluminum foil in the manufacture of any container or packaging material for decorative or ornamental purposes, except to the extent permitted by NPA Order M–7 as now or hereafter amended.

(c) No person shall manufacture, sell, or deliver any container or packaging material which he knows or has reason to believe will be accepted or used in violation of this order or any other order or regulation of NPA.

SEC. 5. Exceptions. In addition to the use of aluminum foil authorized by section 3 of this order, there is permitted the use thereof (a) to fill orders for aluminum foil for cap liners and other packaging closures, but only in accordance with the provisions of NPA Order M–26, as now or hereafter amended, and (b) for containers or packaging material required to fill an order that is rated under the priority system established by NPA Reg. 2, or to meet any other mandatory order of NPA.

SEC. 6. Applications for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that his business operation was commenced during or after the base period, that any provision otherwise works an exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense program or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

SEC. 7. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall retain in his possession for at least 2 years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this order have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alternation of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to the National Production Authority as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 8. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–67.

SEC. 9. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or any other order or regulation of NPA or who wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against such person to suspend his privileges of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order shall take effect on June 1, 1951.

[NPA Order M–68]

M–68—PASSENGER CARS

This order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority granted by section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 12 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61.

SECTION 1. What this order does. The purpose of this order is to conserve materials required for the national defense. It limits the use of controlled materials in the manufacture of passenger cars, but it does not limit by number the units of passenger cars which may be manufactured.

SEC. 2. Definitions. As used in this order:

(a) "Manufacture" means to put into process, machine, fabricate, or otherwise alter controlled materials as defined in paragraph (e) of this section by physical or chemical means.

(b) "Component parts" means parts which have been processed and which have lost their identity as controlled materials.

(c) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons.

(d) "Passenger car" means any passenger vehicle (including a station wagon or a taxicab) manufactured in the United States having a seating capacity of less than 11 persons which is propelled by an internal combustion engine.

(e) "Controlled materials" means steel, copper, and aluminum in the forms and shapes indicated in schedule I of CMP Regulation No. 1.

(f) "Percentage of industry" means the percentage set forth in schedule A of this order for each person engaged in the manufacture of passenger cars.

(g) "Industry volume" means 1,200,000 passenger cars.

(h) "Average car usage" means the weight of each controlled material used by a person in the manufacture of passenger cars during the month of January 1950 divided by the number of passenger cars manufactured by him during that month, and adjusted as provided in section 4 of this order.

(i) "NPA" means National Production Authority.

SEC. 3. Authorized use of controlled materials. (a) No person shall use in the manufacture of passenger cars during the third calendar quarter of 1951 a quantity by weight of each controlled material in excess of the quantity of each such material determined as follows: He shall multiply the industry volume by his percentage of industry, and multiply the result thus obtained by his average car usage of each controlled material.

(b) The monthly use of any controlled material by a person engaged in the manufacture of passenger cars shall not exceed 40 percent of his authorized use of each such material during the third calendar quarter of 1951.

SEC. 4. Adjustment of average car usage. A person engaged in the manufacture of passenger cars who changes his method of manufacture during the third calendar quarter of 1951 by purchasing a greater or lesser proportion of component parts per passenger car than he purchased during the month of January 1950, shall make one of the following adjustments in order to compute his average car usage:

(a) If he purchases a greater proportion of component parts, he shall deduct from his average car usage of each controlled material the quantity by weight of each such material which was used in the manufacutre of the additional component parts so purchased per passenger car; or

(b) If he purchases a lesser proportion of component parts, he shall add to his average car usage of each controlled material the quantity by weight of each such material he uses in the manufacture of component parts per passenger car which he no longer purchases.

SEC. 5. Continued conservation of materials. No person engaged in the manufacture of passenger cars who, after January 1950, made changes in the specifications thereof pursuant to or as a result of orders and regulations of NPA in order to conserve materials required for the national defense, shall during the third calendar quarter of 1951 use a greater proportion of materials so conserved than he used on June 1, 1951. The quantity by weight of each controlled material conserved by him as a result of changes made in specifications since January 1, 1950, shall be deducted from the average car usage of the controlled material so conserved, and the quantity by weight of the substituted controlled material shall be added to the average car usage of that controlled material.

SEC. 6. Use of secondary aluminum. No person engaged in the manufacture of passenger cars shall use aluminum in the manufacture of passenger car engine pistons for passenger cars unless the aluminum therefor is produced from remelted aluminum scrap, and no person engaged in the manufacture of passenger cars shall purchase from another person passenger car engine pistons made of aluminum not produced from remelted aluminum scrap.

SEC. 7. Rated orders. The manufacture of passenger cars to fill orders that are rated under NPA Reg. 2, as amended, shall be subject to the limitations of this order: Provided, however, That where such limitations will delay or prevent the filling of such rated orders, applications may be made for adjustment or exception pursuant to section 9 of this order.

SEC. 8. Other orders or regulations. The provisions of this order do not authorize the use of any materials where such use in the manufacture of any product is prohibited by any other order or regulation of NPA, but any person may use controlled materials to the extent provided in this order in the manufacture of passenger cars, regardless of the limitations on the rate of use of such materials as stated in any other order or regulation of NPA. Orders or regulations which limit the rate of use of materials other than controlled materials remain applicable and in full force and effect. The provisions of this order are subject to the provisions of other orders of NPA which limit the specifications of a product as to material content or which control the distribution of any material, part, or product by allocation.

SEC. 9. Applications for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In considering requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

SEC. 10. Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall retain in his files, for at least 2 years, records of receipts, deliveries, inventory and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this order have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method, nor does it require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided the system assures an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copy instead of the original.

(b) All records required by this order shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of NPA.

(c) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such reports to NPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 11. Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to the Motor Vehicle Division, National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–68.

SEC. 12. Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or any other order or regulation of NPA or wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this order is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This order shall take effect on July 1, 1951.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
MANLY FLEISCHMANN,
Administrator.

[NPA Order M-69]

M-69—SULFUR

This order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority granted by section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order there has been consultation with industry representatives and consideration has been given to their recommendations. Since there is no trade association in this industry, consultation with trade association representatives was not possible.

AUTHORITY: Sections 1 to 14 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105; 3 CFR, 1950 Supp.; sec. 2, E. O. 10200, Jan. 3, 1951, 16 F. R. 61.

SECTION 1. What this order does. The purpose of this order is to conserve sulfur in such manner as best to serve the interests of national defense and essential civilian production. This order prohibits the delivery of sulfur by a supplier without specific NPA authorization and restricts the amount of sulfur which may be used by any person to a percentage of his use during the base period. In addition this order requires each user of sulfur to report monthly to NPA on his use and inventory of sulfur.

SEC. 2. Definitions. (a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Sulfur" means elemental sulfur (brimstone) which has been mined, recovered, or otherwise produced, of a purity of 97 percent or greater.

(c) "Supplier" means any person who produces or imports sulfur for resale or his own use.

(d) "Base period" means the year ended December 31, 1950.

(e) "NPA" means National Production Authority.

SEC. 3. Relation to other NPA orders and regulations. All provisions of any NPA regulation or any other NPA order which are inconsistent with this order are superseded, but in all other respects such regulations and other orders remain applicable to sulfur. DO rated orders for sulfur shall have no preference over nonrated orders therefor, but NPA may take into consideration such DO rated orders in granting authorizations to deliver sulfur pursuant to this order. NPA may from time to time issue special directives as to delivery or use of sulfur and, unless otherwise provided therein, such directives shall prevail over the provisions of this order.

SEC. 4. Restrictions on delivery. (a) No supplier may deliver sulfur to any person during the calendar quarter commencing July 1, 1951, or during any calendar quarter thereafter, unless NPA has specifically authorized such delivery in writing.

(b) An application for authorization to deliver sulfur shall be made by a supplier on Form NPAF–99. An application for authorization to deliver during the calendar quarter commencing July 1, 1951, shall be filed with NPA as soon as possible. Until a supplier has received notice from NPA on Form NPAF–99, he is authorized to deliver sulfur during the quarter commencing July 1, 1951, in accordance with the schedule of deliveries which he has listed on Form NPAF–99. An application for authorization to deliver during any subsequent calendar quarter must be filed with NPA on or before the first day of the calendar month immediately preceding the calendar quarter for which authorization is sought. Authorization to deliver will be entered by NPA on a copy of Form NPAF–99, which will be returned to the applicant not less than 10 days prior to the 1st day of the calendar quarter.

SEC. 5. Restrictions on use. (a) Unless otherwise specifically authorized by NPA, no person shall use sulfur for any purpose during the month of June 1951, or during any calendar month thereafter, in a quantity by weight in excess of 100 percent of his average monthly use for such purpose during the base period.

(b) Where seasonal demands would make impracticable a rate of use of sulfur by a person determined by his average monthly use thereof during the base period, a special monthly or quarterly rate may be established by NPA for a specified period, on application by such person pursuant to section 12 of this order. In the case of such a special rate, the total amount of sulfur used by such person during such specified period shall in no event exceed the total amount which could be used during such specified period if the amount were determined as provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

SEC. 6. Termination of NPA authorization. An authorization to deliver sulfur granted under this order shall terminate at the close of the calendar month immediately following the calendar quarter for which delivery was authorized.

SEC. 7. Exemptions. The provisions of sections 4 and 5 of this order shall not apply to:

(a) The delivery to any one person of no more than 60 short tons of sulfur during any calendar quarter.

(b) The use by any one person of no more than 20 short tons of sulfur during any calendar month.

SEC. 8. Limitation on inventory. Unless specifically directed by NPA, no person may order from a supplier, for delivery during any calendar quarter, or accept delivery from a supplier during any calendar quarter, an amount of sulfur in excess of the amount which such person may use during such calendar quarter pursuant to section 5 of this order.

SEC. 9. Records. Each person participating in any transaction covered by this order shall retain in his possession for at least 2 years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this order have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

SEC. 10. Audit and inspection. All records required by this order shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of NPA.

SEC. 11. Reports. (a) Every person who uses more than 20 short tons of sulfur during any calendar month shall report to NPA on or before the 28th day of the next succeeding month, commencing June 28, 1951, on Form NPAF–98, his use of sulfur during the preceding month and his inventory at the close of such month, his estimated inventory and use at the close of the month in which the report is filed, and all other information required by such form.

(b) Persons subject to this order shall make such records and submit such other reports to NPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act of 1942 (5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

SEC. 12. Applications for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this order may file with NPA a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that his business operation was commenced during the base period or prior to the effective date of this order, that any such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of national defense or in the public interest. In considering requests for adjustment which claim that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this order, consideration will be given to the requirements of public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each such request shall be in writing, shall set forth all pertinent facts, the nature of the relief sought, and the justification therefor.

SEC. 13. Communications. All communications and reports concerning this order shall be addressed to National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–69.
